for the enormous tasks of national reconstruction requiring arduous, sustained and responsible work and to safeguard national security requiring a reserve of trained personnel available to meet any emergency.

2 Compulsion : It is necessary that any scheme of national service must be compulsory if it is to be effective and is to make a real impact to improve the quality of manpower needed by the country. A voluntary scheme would have the drawback of leaving out a good many, if not the majority, of students proposed to be covered and would not be assured of success unless sufficient inducements were offered. If improvement on the national scale is to be the aim, which it ought to be, no voluntary scheme can ever hope to achieve it. There can be no objection, on principle or otherwise, to compulsion as it is the right of the State to ask its citizens for a period of service in return for what it does for them.

No exemptions are to be allowed on any ground. The students who are not physically fit for manual work could be asked to do other suitable work. Cases of hospitalisation are in another category and may be exempted only for the period of hospitalisation and legtimate convalescence. In particular, there should be absolutely no opportunity for the rich and the influential to manipulate exemptions for their children.

3. Duration : It is essential that national service should be of a sufficiently long duration to inculcate in the young adolescent the values of discipline, social service, dignity of manual labour and dedication to the country. It is necessary to expose young minds to good influences over an adequate period if lasting effect is to be secured on the growing personolities and developing character of the nation's youth. A period of at least nine months to a year is the minimum required for achieving the objective of national service.

4. Stage : The best stagor draf ting the youth in national service is when they pass ouf Higher Secondary school or Pre-University class and arprepared to enter life or the university. A year's national ·vice at that stage would greatly fill the gap left by the preser Secondary education and would equip a young person bettenoth for life or the university. Those entering life would be ıre mature, more disciplined and better prepared for the responsilities oftheir work. Those who go to the university would be ɔre self-reliant, more disciplined and better equipped for benting from university education. As a matter of fact, the obrvation of a young person in national service spread over a ear would enable the educational authorities to select better merial for university education on the basis of academic and otr achievements, and thus check the growing indiscipline and astage which are becoming the bane of university education. Those students who are found to be talented and gifted durin the operation of the national service should be given scholahips and other benefits to pursue higher education. The natioal service thus has tremendous possibilities of being utilized : a means of helping in judging suitability for admission to unersities on the basis of adjudged capacity of students to benefit ·om higher education.

5. Content : The contentshould be so devised as to effect an all-round improvement ofhe personality and character of the adolescent. There need e no dead uniformity—none is advocated—but the following ngredients should be dovetailed in any overall programme for he service :

(i) Military Discipline : Thestudents should lead a disciplined life for nine months t one year comparable to that in the armed forces. N breach of discipline should be tolerated. Adequate anctions should be provided to deter any breach of discɔline.

(ii) Social Service and Manul Labour : Social service and manual labour should b rendered for at least four hours every day in the areas selected for work under the national service. Manual labour would be an essential part of the work for every student. The labour and social service may take diverse forms depending upon the locals and the needs of the community. The work should be so organized that the community derives tangible and lasting benefit. This will inspire confidence in youth and also give them pride of achievement.

(iii) General Education: So that the national service should not lead to a gap in the education of adolescents, it should also provide broad general education laying stress on the improvement of English, learning of Hindi and other regional languages, improvement of general knowledge, acquaintance with India's cultural heritage and programmes of social and economic planning ete., so that the participants on completing the national service are fit and active enough to take their place in life even if they do not enter the university. The period of national service should also be fully utilized for the emotional integration of the youth with the country and ideals it is working for the service should also provide some opportunities for self-expression in cultural activities like music, dance, drama, but care should be taken to ensure that they do not distract from the main purposes of the service. Adequate reading materials such as books, periodicals, magazines, etc., should be provided so that the youth can acquire habits of self-study, critical inquiry and love for scholarship and knowledge.

A programme worked out suitably with the above ingredients should meet the needs of all-round development of the growing adult and lead to integration of his personality. This would not only develop true discipline—physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual—but also inculcate in the youth qualities like the love of the country and dedication to social work.

6. Organisational Set-up : A programme of national service of the envisaged quality and magnitude should be a bridge between the terminal stage of Secondary education and entry into life or institutions of higher education. Though it will draw upon the resources of the Defence Forces, Universities, Educationists, Government departments both at the Centre and in the States engaged in social and economic development programmes, the programme suggested by the Committee would require for its implementation an organizational set-up which should be broad-based and independent. The programme must be truly national in concept and in execution and should be so devised that it develops the capacity to extend its scope to cover other categories of citizens in appropriate age groups in course of time. While it is urgent that we concentrate our efforts on the educated youth, the other youth of the country are of no less importance for the larger interests of the country. In view of the potentialities of a comprehensive programme visualised, such a service might ultimately cover all the youth of the country, but this will require as a pre-requisite the spread of Secondary education to all young person below the age of 17.

It is, therefore, suggested that a National Board shoud be set up to plan, implement and evaluate a programme of national service. This should, however, be preceded by careful preparation of a detailed plan of work for youth and for this purpose, it would be desirable to set up a representative working group of Educationists, Administrators, Defence Experts and other interests.

7. Finance : An investment in human resources is not to be viewed in the context of economic value of the product of such investment, as the primary aim is to build up educated young people as disciplined citizens and devoted workers so that they are an asset to the nation. The national service is thus to be viewed as a nationbuilding programme and any cost incurred on it would more than repay itself in the long run.

The economic value of the productive work which the youth are expected to perform would not be in itself inconsiderable and should be reckoned in any estimate of the cost involved. The cost of national service, though heavy, should not be beyond our means.

TRUTH

He who has the truth at his heart, need never fear the want of persuasion on his tongue.

—Ruskin.

FALSEHOOD

Falsehoods enslave us. Only the truth frees us. Hold to your freedom, to truth: And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.

—John 8-32

MAN

Man is no weak worm of the dust but the highest expressions of God in this material world. His latent powers are but dimly realised and the Godpower at his disposal but little developed.

DEVIL

The devil loves nothing better than the intolerance of reformers, and dreads nothing so much as their charity and patience.

—Lowell.

FORCE

He who is overcome by force is not thereby overcome in his heart; he may be a greater enemy than before; but he who is overcome by the spirit of peace is thereby changed at heart. He that was an enemy has become a friend.

Resolution on Deshmukh Committee Proposals For National Youth Service

The Association welcomes the proposal made by the Deshmukh Committee regarding prescribed National Service for Indian Youth on the completion of higher secondary stage of education. Although the proposal will have to surmount many obstacles before it is implemented, the Association feels that the proposal is absolutely essential in the larger interests of the country. The Association would do all it can towards its implementation and also give such help as it can towards the effective formulation of the scheme.

The Association recognises that Indian development is undistinguishable from rural development and in consequence all the educated youth must in varying degrees interest themselves in rural work. A scheme of prescribed national service which is likely to establish bonds between the educated youth and the rural areas therefore strongly commends itself to AVARD. Effective implementation of the scheme will materially contribute to rural development. AVARD will actively associate itself with the scheme and make it an integral part of its work.

Relative absence of suitable psychological background makes introduction of compulsory scheme a difficult task. Implementation even if the scheme is generally accepted, has its own difficulties owing to absence of suitable personnel. Both these factors call for cautious introduction of the scheme. But, despite these handicaps, paramount national interest demands inculcation of a sense of social responsibility in the youth and therefore all concerned will have to play their part in the task of making the scheme a success. But such a scheme can only function well if both the official and non-official agencies come together for forming it and amending it in the light of experience. In the final analysis such a scheme, because of its significance, may serve as a rallying point where differences of opinion on many other issues tend to recede into background.

The Association of Voluntary Agencies for Rural Development could play the following role in this experiment:

(a) to arouse public interests in the scheme, to bring to bear on it analytical studies by the educationists and the social scientists and offer their constructive suggestions to the Government.

(b) to formulate in cosultation with the local people concrete proposals to be undertaken under the scheme and discuss these proposals at seminars;

(c) to help its member institutions to start prototype camps in their respective areas which should act as forerunners of this movement. The experience of these camps should be of great value in expanding the national service programme.

LOVE

The love of a mother is never exhausted, it never changes, it never tires. A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives, wives their husbands. But a mother's love endures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation, a mother still loves on, and still hopes that her child may turn from his evil ways and repent.

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is a mighty factor in this hard world, since by Friendship comes self-forgetfulness and no man does great works unless he forgets self.

Baden-Powell Memorial House

Sir, I have been reading in Scout Magazines about 'Baden-Powell house'. What is it for Sir? Do I have to know all about it?

Sit down and I'll tell you all about it...

You have to know something about the life of B-P. So let's start now.

Even as a boy B-P. liked to do things himself. At Charter House School, he used to catch and cook rabbits well away from masters!

In India, in 1876 he trained and sold ponies and became expert at polo and tent-pegging. He was a secret agent in Albania.

B.P fought the Zulu, the Ashanti and the Matable. These brave men called B-P. THE WOLF WHO NEVER SLEEPS.

On leave B-P. wrote a book-that's the Matable campaign finished.

He was moved to the Frontier, where he trained soldiers in scouting, to outwit the Afghans and Pathans.

Then B-P. was busy on a new Book. It was to be famous 'Aids to Scouting'.

In 1898 found him back on the N. W. Frontier but in 1899 on leave.

Once he smartly replied to his Officer: 'I can't go to South Africa on Saturday Sir, there is no ship but I can go on Friday if that will do Sir.'

B.P. went to Mafeking which the Boer attacked. B-P. bluffed them with dummy guns, barbed wire aud searchlights—besieged Mafeking and organised the boys into a corps of cycling messengers. He was impressed.

On May 16th 1900 Mafeking was relieved. London rejoiced and B-P. was a National Hero. He was promoted to Major General.

B-P's next job was to organise the South African Police. He did it so well that he was made Inspector General of Cavalry, as usual he was full of ideas, for his job was to train, he founded a Cavalry School.

In 1906, Sir William Smith asked him to inspect a boys brigade rally, and later suggested him writing a training book for boys. Before he wrote it, however, he ran a trial camp on Brownsea island to see if his ideas worked. This was in 1907.

After this B.P. wrote Scouting for Boys—it came out in fortnightly parts and it was an instant success! All over England boys formed Patrols and Troops. They practised the things B-P taught. Scouting was born.

In 1909 the King and the Prime Minister asked B-P. to resign from the Army, in order to run Scouting. Soon there were scouts the world over. Jamboree followed jamboree...Wembley, Copenhagen, Arrow Park—Godolle—Vogelenzang—Moisoon—Badischl—Niagara—Sutton Park—Philiphines.

Millions of Boys were Scouts.

In 1941 B-P. dies and Scouts all over the world mourned, for the greatest leader of youth for all the time had gone. He was a living memorial in the boys who through nearly all the world repeat the word of the scout law:

On my honour, I promise that I will do my best—

To do my duty to God and my Country,
To help other people at all times,
To obey the Scout Law.

But it was felt that something else was needed. B-P. had long dreamed of a place in London where scouts of the world could stay. In 1941 it was decided to open a fund to build such a place to be called

B.P. MEMORIAL HOUSE

During the war, the building construction was held up and costs rose and rose and more money was needed. Now the plans are drawn, site is ready, soon the work will begin meanwhile we who number nearly eight million all over the world must put in efforts to see that the dream becomes a reality.

Rush your remittances, however small it may be, through your State Headquarters as to enable our National Headquarters at Delhi to forward a substantial sum as the contribution from the Scouts of India for the B.P. Memorial House.

B.P. gave Scouting to the world—Scouts of all Nation will one day meet one another at BADEN-POWELL HOUSE.

Endowment for the B-P. Memorial House in London

The Camp Chief of the International Training Centre, Gilwel Park has in his letter dated the 12th January 1960 requested for donations to have an Endowment Fund built up for the B-P. Memorial House, London.

The National Executive Committee of the Bharat Scouts & Guides of India, New Delhi, have resolved to collect Rs 5,000 for the purpose by appealing to the States for liberal contributions.

The present appeal is for contribution to build up an Endowment Fund for the B-P. Memorial House.

It is, therefore, requested that all Commissioners, Scouters, Rovers, Scouts and Cubs and others interested in the Movement to contribute liberally towards this Fund and send the contributions to the State Secretary, Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, Scout Headquarters, Bangalore-2, on or before the 20th September 1960, to enable the State Headquarters to consolidate and send the same to the National Headquarters, New Delhi.

SKILL

There is plenty of room in the world for thoughtful and efficient people. Employers of labour know how difficult it is to get the best workmanship The good workman, whether with tools or brains, whether with speech or thought, will always find a place for the exercise of his skill.

Third All-India Jamboree, 1960

Bangalore – Mysore State

APPEAL

This is adressed to you in connection with the Third All-India Jamboree of Scouts and Guides to be held in Bangalore in the month of December this year. The Jamboree is being organised by the Mysore State Association of the Bharat Scouts & Guides on behalf of the National Headquarters of the Association.

The first two Jamborees were held in Hyderabad and Jaipur in 1953 and 1956 respectively.

The organisation of the Jamboree involves a very heavy task and great responsibilities and the success of the Jamboree depends to a very large extent on the public co-operation and munificence in order to provide the participating youth with opportunities to train themselves as disciplined future citizens of the country. In this connection I wish to refer to some objectives of the Jamboree of the type contemplated now. Briefly they are :—

(1) To provide an opportunity to the Scouts and Guides of our vast country to come together and so to realise the real spirit of Brotherhood and sense of our national unity ;

(2) To provide the youth of the country with various healthy activities so as to enable them to develop their personalities, and to learn to live together as disciplined community ;

(3) To promote outdoor life and camping which are the basic essentials of the Scout and Guide Movement ;

(4) To help the general public to get a clear picture of the ideals and aims of the Movement as a programme for character-building and citizenship-training.

(5: To train the youth to prepare themselves to BE PREPARED to serve the country and play their worthy part in the years to come.

It is expected that over 10,000 Scouts and Guides from all the States in India and also representative contingents from neighbouring foreign countries will be present at the forthcoming Jamboree. The Mysore State Association, occupying as it does a place of pride in the country, feels that it is a privilege to organise this Jamboree and making it an outstanding success. This undertaking, however, requires the active help, co-operation and munificence of the public spirited ladies and gentlemen interested in the cause of the youth and their welfare. We feel assured that you will extend to us your sympathies in this venture and that you will give us all the moral support and generous help. The estimated expenditure for the Jamboree is about Rs. 1,60,000 out of which a portion comes from the participating Scouts and Guides themselves but still leaves a considerable sum to be collected through donations and subscriptions from the public. The following is the schedule of donations :—

(a) Patrons: Rs. 1,000 or more
(b) Donors: (1) ,, 250
(2) ,, 250
(3) ,, 100
(4) ,, 50
(c) Reception Committee Members:
(1) Rs. 25
(2) ,, 10

We shall be grateful if you will kindly agree to be associated with the Reception Committee, in one or other of the Categories indicated above.

J. B. MALLARADHYA.
Chairman, Jamboree Organising Committee.

Boy Scouts International Bureau

To All Scout Editors

Mr. Marc-Eric Lingstrom, Executive Commissioner for Publications and Public Relations of Ottawa and Canada writes :

3rd JAMBOREE-ON-THE-AIR

As last year the boy Scouts International Bureau will again arrange the Jamboree-on-the-Air, this short wave meeting for Scouts. This time it will take place between midnight on Friday October 21st to midnight, Sunday 23rd, Greenwich Mean time.

The two previous events of this kind have been somewhat on an experimental basis, but the interest has continued to grow all over the world and expectations are high for this year's Jamboree-on-the-Air. Great Care has been taken this year to obtain a week end which is free from large international "ham" events.

As before, the National Scout Associations have been asked to organize this event locally and appoint National Organizers. All interested, please turn to your National Headquarters for further information as to participation etc.

Stations may operate on any amateur wave band and with any equipment which is consistent with licence requirements. Amateurs taking part should have a past or present association with the Scout movement or operate on behalf of a Local Scout Unit. One may join the event by simply calling 'CQ Jamboree'.

The Jamboree-on-the-Air is not a contest and there are no prizes. It is organized with the sole purpose of promoting Scout contacts beyond the borders, but it is, of course, realised that this will include valuable signalling training for boys who take part.

Scout units not having their own transmitting equipment should contact the nearest Radio Amateur Society, as its members very probably will be pleased to help, e.g. by operating of station, or by giving advice. Amateurs must, of course, strictly observe their licence regulations.

The Boy Scouts Internatioual Bureau will operate from a station in Ottawa, call sign VE 3JAM, on any of the following approximate frequencies :

10 M - 28,450 KC	20 M - 14,175 KC	80 M - 3,750 KC
15 M - 21,250 KC	40 M - 7,100 KC

DUTY

« One sound always comes to the ear that is open ; it is the steady drum-beat of duty. No music in it, perhaps, only a rub-a-dub. Ah, but steady beat marks the time for the whole orchestra of earth and heavens ! » Keep step to that drum-beat and the dullest march is taking you home.

—George S. Merriam.

HELP

Dwellers on the same earth, traveller of the same hour, and companions along the same road, we ought to help one another ; and when we reach the resting-place we shall have first to render an account of what each has done for the happiness of the rest—for joy or for goodness.

—Joubert.

CHARITY

The highest exercise of charity, is the charity towards the uncharitable.

Labour And Social Service Camps

Rules and Conditions for Grant

(These camps are undertaken to inculcate the dignity of manual labour among the young. The Government of India is giving help. Certain camps were held by many of our States. For the guidance of those who intend to run these service camps, rules, regulations and various forms are given so that account irregularities which are severely penalised, may be avoided. Your mistake will hold up the payments of all and even influence future plans. So you have to be very careful indeed.)

1. The venue of a camp should be a village. It should be selected in consultation with the District and Community Development Officers and Gram Panchayat Samities.

2. Applications on prescribed form (Annexure II) should be sent through National Headquarters.

3. Camps for Boys and Girls should be held seperately.

(F) Rural Youth Camps Age 13 to 30 years	Two weeks	Two weeks

6. Two camps may be held continuously at one place provided the project is sufficiently important. This will apply to all types of camps except the Organisers' Training Camps. Camps for both sexes should not be held simultaneously in the same place.

Selection of Campers

7. (a) A boy/girl who has attended a camp should not ordinarily be allowed to take part in another camp in order to give opportunity to other students. The number of students who have attended the camps previously should not be more than 10% as those are required to act as group leaders in the camp.

(b) While selecting the campers for senior Camps (boy/girl camps) not more than 20 students may be drawn from a school/college.

(c) In International camps/Inter State camps, only those who have at least attended one camp should normally be allowed to join in such camps. The campers should be of Class XI and above.

8. Campers leaving before the completion of the camp period without valid reasons should not be eligible for a grant. After the start of a camp, if in the interest of work it is desired to lengthen the duration by one or two days, it may be done provided it is authorised by the Collector or Block Development Officer.

9. Structure of a camp.

Various Committees for food and messing, cultural and recreational programmes, health and sanitation, finance etc., should be formed in each camp.

10. Holidays

There can be a holiday once a week but the campers will not be permitted to go home. They can however visit the nearby Community Block Development Projects or historical places etc. No travelling expenses will be allowed on this account.

11. Normal Strength of a camp should be between fifty and hundred comprising of campers (students and non-students both) and teachers. Proportion of non-student youths, if admitted, should not normally exceed 20% of the campers. The number of teachers and social workers may be normally 10% of campers.

Relaxations:

For such reasons as the Camps Organizers may consider neeessary the following changes may be made :

(i) Increase of 10% in the prescribed maximum strength may be allowed and the minimum prescribed strength may be reduced to 30

(ii) The upper limit of the total strength of a camp may be relaxed in case of such well organized agencies as the Bharat Scouts & Guides and the A.C.C.

(iii) After the receipt of sanction, the strength of a camp should not be increased in any case, and if a reduction is inevitable due to circumstances beyond control, information about the same should be sent to the Government of India as early as possible.

12. Wholesome food, complete with milk and fruit should be provided.

13. Health charts including weight charts should be maintained; all precautions for ensuring sound health should be taken ; and medical aid arranged for campers.

14. (a) The site and nature of work should be selected in consultation with the Local Government authorities or Community Project Officers and others concerned. The following criteria should be observed in the selection of the projects :

(i) Top priority should be given to tasks which can be completed by the campers within the duration of the camp.

(ii) Works planned and already in progress.

(iii) Works which have already been planned and have to be taken up.

(b) The camp should be held in a village within the same district in which the campers dwell, or in a neighbouring district, if the distance involved does not exceed 70 miles.

(c) Under special circumstances, sites and dates of camps may be changed. The site may be changed from one village to another in the same district with the prior approval of the Collector or development Officer. For the change of site from one district to another, prior of the Government will be necessary. Change in the date may be made with the approval of the Government provided there is no increase in expendlture, no fresh sanction will issue.

15. Voluntary local help must necessarily be enlisted from the villagers benefitting by the project.

16. (a) Correct and precise enumeration of work to be undertaken should be furnished for purpose of a grant.

(b) Grants will be paid only for those camps which are held with the approval of the Ministry.

17. Normal period of manual service should be 4 hours per day per camper. It may be increased to 5 hours but not more.

18. Recreational activities and talks should be regular features of a camp. Greater emphasis should be laid on discussions rather than on lectures. A speaker may introduce the topic of discussion briefly and the discussion may be followed up by the students themselves.

19. Teachers should be the supervisors of the camps and should act preferably, as camp organisers. Teachers, who act as organisers and supervisors, should receive prior training in Organizers Training Camps on the technique and methods of running a camp.

20. Visiting instructors should, at the most, be three for Senior & Junior (Boys camps only). The visiting instructor may stay in the camp for a day or two for giving talks and lectures on a specialized subject, and will be eligible for a grant for food and incidentals at the rates sanctioned for campers. They can travel by any means of communication i.e., Rail, Bus, Taxi, Tonga, Rickshaw etc., but the expenditure should not exceed Rs. 10-00 on average per visiting Instructor. No grants will be paid for the visit of instructors over and above the sanctioned number.

21. Reports on camps held should reach the Ministry of Education immediately after the close of the camp. Audited accounts should reach the Ministry within 3 months of the termination of camp.

22. RATE OF PAYMENT FOR SENIOR & JUNIOR CAMPS.

(a) Rs. 1-25 per camper per day for food. Milk should form an essential item of food.

(b) 50 Naye paise per day per camper for incidental expenses including employment of staff for cooking, hire or purchase of utensils, lighting, sanitation, health etc.

(c) The student campers are entitled to travel Third Class railway fare at student concessional rates and/or bus fare where rail links are not available or by Tongas/ Bullock Carts/Rickshaws etc., to places not connected by bus service. The aggregate expenditure on transport should not exceed the maximum limit of Rs. 2-00 per camper who used paid transport.

(d) The teachers/instructors participating in the camps should as far as possible travel with students. They should normally avail of Third Class concessional railway fare instead of second class to which they are entitled or use bus where rail links not available or tongas, rickshaws & bullock carts etc. for places not connected by bus service. The aggregate empenditure on transport charges should not exceed the maximum limit of Rs. 8-00 per Organizer whoused paid transport.

NOTE 1 The rate for food and incidental charges in case of Senior & Junior Camps for students to be held in Assam, Manipur, Tripura, Himachal Pradesh, Kangra Valley and Kashmir will be enhanced by Re. 0-25 per camper per day, if required.

NOTE 2 Teachers, Supervisors and Campers should be drawn from the same district in which the camp is held. Visiting instructor should be invited for talks from the State in which the camp is held.

NOTE 3 The grant for food & incidentals will be combined in assessing the expenditure on the camp as rich diet should be provided to the campers. The expenditure on incidentals should be cut down as much as possible.

23. RATE OF PAYMENT FOR LOCAL STUDENTS & RURAL YOUTH CAMPS.

(i) 0-81 nP. per head per day for food & incidental charges.

(ii) No travelling expenses are allowed.

(iii) No Visiting instructors are allowed.

NOTE :—Local contributions in cash & kind should be raised to meet entire expenditure on the camp.

ORGANIZERS' TRAINING CAMPS

1. The trainees should be between the ages of 22 and 45.
2. Duration of a camp should normally be between 10 to 30 days.
3. As far as possible teachers should be enlisted as trainees
4. Syllabus of the training camp should contain items like administration and organization of camps, keeping of accounts, knowledge of village life, Third Five Year Plan, Sanitation. hygiene, nutrition, etc.

5. Manual work of 3 hours per day per camper should form a regular feature of the camp. There should be provision for recreational activities as well.

6. Venue of a camp should invariably be a village. It may be in the proximity of a town.

7. Number of trainees per camp should be between 30 to 50.

8. The ratio of instructors to trainees should as far as possible be 1:9 with a minimum of 3 per camp. Visiting Instructors upto a maximum of 3 (each for two days) may be allowed.

9. The instructors participating in the camp should as far as possible travel with the trainees. They should normally avail of second class railway fare and / or bus fare where rail links are not available instead of first class railway fare to which they are entitled or by Tongas, Rickshaws, Bullock Carts ets. to places not connected by bus service. The aggreagate expenditure on transport charges should not exceed the maximum limit of Rs. 8.00 per head for those who used paid transport.

10. Audited accounts of camp should be submitted to Ministry of Education within 3 months after the camp is over and the report of work done immediately after the termination of the camp.

RATE OF PAYMENT;

(a) Rs. 1-75 per trainee per day for food and incidentals.

Mysore Scouts at Kutub-minar

Mysore Scouts at The Taj Mahal

The Story of the Jamboree Emblem

The Jamboree Emblem is a representation of the exquisite carving in soapstone standing at the entrance to the famed temple of Sri Channakeshava at Belur about 140 miles from Bangalore. It was the royal crest of the Hoysala kings who ruled the ancient Karnataka Empire (roughly the present Mysore State) during the 11th and 12th centuries and built many Hindu temples of great architectural beauty and grace. The carving symbolises the incident of Sala, the progenitor of the Hoysala dynasty, killing a tiger. The story of this incident is told in a variety of ways and one such, according to one of the earliest inscriptions, is as follows :—

Among the Yadu kings (Chandravamsha, Lunar Race), a king named Sala, hunting along the slopes of the Salya Mountains (Western Ghats), was astonished to see a hare persuing a tiger. A Jain Rishi (ascetic), coming along saying to himself that this was a heroic soil, saw the tiger and fearing that it was coming to kill him, called out, "Adam Poy Sala" (Hit it, Sala), whereupon the valient Sala slew it with his dagger. Rejoicing, the Rishi thereupon granted Sala the boon of this tiger as a victorious crest and the exclamation as a victorious name. Then onward the Yadhuvamsha came to be known as the Poysala vamsha, Hoyasala being the modernised form of Poysala. This story is substantially the same according to the other inscriptions also, but with slight changes in some parts.

In the above story of the youthful Sala are highlighted the great qualities of pluck, courage and self-confidence which he exhibited and that he was prepared to do his duty even at th risk of his own life—qualities that Scouting and Guiding have always striven to inculcate in the youth of the country. Hence the appropriateness in choosing this as the Jamboree Emblem.

(The above story is based on the account of the inscription given in the "Ephigraphia Carnatica" by B. Lewis Rice, Vol. V, Part I, 1902.)

Scout Camp

Govt. Middle School, Nagavalli

Our Scout troop with the Scout Master started from Nagavalli School at 10 a.m. for a Camp at Kodi Anjaneya temple. 24 Scouts marched on to the camp.

The National Flag was hoisted by the Head Master of the School and the National Anthem was sung. The Scouts cooked the mid-day meal. After food there was a tracking game.

The Scout played some games between 5 and 6 p.m. In the evening there was an interesting camp fire. Sri G. Narasinhiah, the Head Master of the School presided. At Camp fire, an interesting programe of fancy dress, entertainment, comics etc. was gone through. One of the old Scouts Mr. Nagaraja in, an interesting talk urged the importance of strict discipline.

The president exhorted scouts to be honest, obedient, render service. He also emphasised the need to build up good character.

The vote of thanks was given by Sri G. Sathyaveer, the Scout Master. The camp fire concluded and next day the camp broke up and returned to Nagavalli.

Bellary District–Annual Report

The District Association arranged Social Services Campaign in rural areas often. During the Scout week celebrations the Scouts and Guides distributed old clothes collected by Scout & Guides for the poor children of the villages near Bellary. The Scouts dried drains and laid a small road in the village while the guides cleaned the children of the village, combed & dressed them with clothes that were distributed. The parents of the children were amazed and felt happy to see their children. They were well impressed by the service. They have been also made to realise that they must take great care of their children since they are the future citizens of India in general and of the village is particular.

The Scouts had also the opportunity of cleaning a big well used by the whole village.

The Scouts took up the work of collection of funds for the benefit of children during the children's week celebrations, this year also. The Scouts took up Social Service work during the Jatras specially at Kumarswamy Jatra. They helped the temple authorities in regulating the crowd and keeping things in order. This was appreciated by the pilgrims who had come to participate from far & near.

Gulbarga Rovers Excursion & Scouts' Social Service

The Rovers of the Janata Open Crew, Gulbarga were on a tour of the historical places of the North India in the month of May 1960 along with M. A. Zamir, A.D.C. Scouts, Gulbarga. They visited Bhopal, Gwalior, Agra, Mathura, Delhi, and Ajmir, besides they visited many religious and Industrial places round India. They were received very cordially and every hospitality was given by the Hon. Secretaries and Organising Commissioners, Bharat Scouts & Guides in those places.

Another party of Local Scouts under the lead of Sri Abdul Razak, Scout Master, Gulbarga, did a creditable service at the Urus of Khaja Banda Nawaz, Gulbarga from 11th May 1960 to 15th May 1960. The service was much appreciated by the public as well as by the higher authorities of the Urus.

Report of the Training Camp at Hassan

After a lapse of a number of years Hassan held a Preliminary Training for 8 days from 22nd to 30th April 1960. The training was conducted in St. Philomena Convent Compound. Twentytwo teachers from all parts of the district attended the Training.

The highlight of the week was a visit to Vidyapet which is a local beauty spot and Government agricultural training farm. Here activities and tests included outdoor cooking, scouts space, walking, tracking, maping and games.

At the conclusion of the course eleven Guiders had finished their Advanced Course, and eleven the Preliminary Course, fifteen of the twenty two Guiders are already attached to Companies, and it is hoped that this training will have increased their efficiency and interest. The remaining nine are in schools where there are no Guiding activities as yet, three or four of these will probably be in a position to start Guide Companies, after further training in some cases.

The final function was held on April 30th, when Sri Chandappa, Patel I.A.S., Deputy Commissioner and President of the District Scout Association, Hassan presided, and the programme included Guard of Honour, Flag Hoisting by the Chief Guest, Report of the Camp by the District Commissioner (Guides), Display by the Guiders, talk by the Trainer, President's speech and Camp Fire items.

At the conclusion a vote of thanks was given by Sri S. V. Shamrao, Secretary of the District Association, expressing gratitude to the many that had helped to make the Camp a success—especially the State Organising Commissioner (G) who had worked so hard training the Guiders, the Mother Superior and Sisters of St. Philomena Convent.

Apart from the fact that two or three of the new Recruits found the training rather difficult the camp appeared to be very happy and successful, but its real success will only be realised if there is increased enthusiasm for the Guiding Movement in our District during the coming year.

The Mysore District Scout Association, Rural, Mysore

Preliminary Cub Masters' Training Camp, Nanjangud.

24th to the 31st December 1959

A Cub Masters' Training Camp was held on the grounds of the Residency Bungalow at Nanjangud from the 24th to 31st December 1959. The Camp was conducted by Sri M. S. Srinivasa Rao, A.D.C.C., Akela, with the previous permission of State Scout Head Quarters. He was assisted by the members of the training Team of Mysore City, Messrs. M. N. Thirumalachar, M.Sc., M. R. Ramaswamy, both A.D.C.C.'s. and M. S. Ramachandra Rao, M.Sc., and M. N. Narasimhan, M.A., of the University, C. Ramachandra Rao, B.A.,B.T., P. Kumaraswamy and Srikantiah of Mysore. Messrs K. G. V. Jois and R. Krishnamachar of Mysore served as Q.M. and A.Q.M. Sri N. Nanjundaswamy, B.A., (Hons.) B.T., A.D.C.C., the State Organizing Scout Commissioner supervised and directed the Training.

The training imparted was excellent and the ideal surroundings of the Camp heightened the value of the training. There were 16 candidates drawn from 7 taluks of Mysore District. It was so difficult to secure more teachers. The satisfaction is at the qualitaive thtvalue of training made up for lack of numerical strength. The plan of work followed that prescribed in the syllabus of the State H.Q., and comprised of Cub Competitions, Dances, Games, Model Pack Meetings, First Star Tests, Second Star Tests, Investiture and the Going-up Ceremony etc. Thorough grounding was given in theory and practice of the Cub Work. The Campers had excellent fare with varied menu throughout the period of the Camp, which fact had a salutary effect on the Camp life. The Campers departed with pleasant memories of the enjoyment of the Nanjangud Camp of December 59, in common with their campers of the Scoutmasters' Training Camp held simultaneously on the same grounds.

The state Chief Commissioner, Sri J. B. Mallaradhya, M.A., I.A.S., (Retd.) M.L.A., honoured the Camp by his visit on afternoon of the 28th December, travelling all the way from Bangalore to meet the Scoutmasters and the Cubmasters and the cream of Instructors and others numbering sixty Scouters camped at Nanjangud. He appeared in his impecable Chief Scout Commissioner's Uniform, which was itself an inspiration to the Scouters and gave an exhilirating talk to them, which impressed them very much. The Campers and the District Scout Association are much beholden to the State Chief for his gracious visit to the Camp.

Sri T. Vasudeviah, M.A., M.Ed., (Leeds) our D.D.P.I., met the Campers later in the evening the same day, which was his second visit to the Camp. He gave a forceful talk to the Campers and assured them of all possible help from the Education Department in furtherance of Scout work.

One delightful feature of the Camp was that the Divisional Commissioner of Mysore, Rajasevaprasakta Rao Bahadaur M. Ramaswmy stayed in the Camp for some days, sharing all the joy and the discomforts of Camp Life with the young and old present in the camp. His presence cannot but have impressed the campers with the idea that Scouting is labour of love in the cause of the youth and calls for no recompense and that years may roll on without detracting from the enthusiasm and love for Scouting. Speakers stressed this aspect, but example was better than precept.

Our District Commissioner, Sri C. K. Nagappa, whose home-town is Nanjangud, did all that was possible to help the Camp Life, visiting the Camp at frequent intervals. So did A. V. Krishnan, Asst. District Commissioner, Nanjangud.

The Mysore District Scout Association is thankful for the service rendered by the Mysore City Training Team and especially to Sri M. S. Srinivasa Rao, a good Scouter and trainer, on whom lay the work of the Akela in respect of the Cub Masters' Training Camp of December 1959.

The Report of the Commissioners' Conference

On 15th May 1960 a days meeting of the Commissioners was held at the Girl Guides Headquarters, Bangalore.

Commissioners from Bangalore S. Mysore S. Shimoga, Gulbargh, Tumkur, Chitradurga, Dharwar, Belgaum & all Headquarters Commissioners met & State Commissioner (G) welcomed the Commissioners.

Dr. S. B. Kousik the State Secretary gave them all information about the Jamboree.

A tentative Training Programme was drawn up. In the afternoon a pleasent surprise was given to the Commissioners, when a ' Danish ' ' Scouter ' who was " Globe trotting " gave a very intererting talk of his experiences.

After Tea the Conference Concluded with a vote of thanks to all Commissioners.

WISHING

Get rid of the wishing habit, and replace it with the habit of decision and action.

—W. E. Towne.

We record with deep regret the passing away of Capt. Rao Bahadur A. Thangavelu Mudaliar, President of the District Association, Bangalore South District, on Wednesday 22nd June 1960.

He has done quite a great deal for Scouting and Guiding in Mysore State in general and Bangalore Civil Station in particular and we are deeply appreciative of the spirit of service and devotion to the cause of the Youth that prompted him to render help at all times to the State Headquarters.

We miss his genial presence and the State Headquarters have suffered the loss of a devoted, zealous and earnest worker.

May his Soul rest in peace.

The Lookout

Seven representatives from the State Council attended the annual meeting of the National Council of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, this time at Calcutta, the hosts being the Bharat Scouts and Guides, West Bengal State, on the 28th and the 29th of October 1961. The host association under the leadership of Mr. Satta Bose put up a grand show. The boarding, lodging and other arrangements were fine and the service by the local units' Rovers and Rangers were commendable. The Scouts, Guides and the Rovers of the Railways centered in Calcutta enacted a cultural show on the 28th depicting a few phases of Dr. Rabindranath Tagore's life. This show was a memorable one.

November 11th to 16th of this year took to the National Training Centre at Pachmarhi, M P. a fair section of the D.C.Cs. and A. D. C. Cs. of the Training Team in India for the Fifth Far East "Training The Team" Course. Fortyfive members from fifteen Scout States of India took the training.

From Gilwell, the International Training Centre, the Camp Chief, Mr. John Thurman had sent all the necessary advice, instructions, charts etc. He had approved of the Leader for the Course, Dr. M. N. Natu, B. Sc., M. B B. S., and his assistants drawn from quite a few states and two of these eight were from the World Bureau of Scouts, which till March this year was named the Boy Scouts International Bureau. These two were, one Mr. Abdul Kader(of Malaya),Field Commissioner, Far East Region and the other Mr. J. P. Neric (of Philippines), Field Commissioner, Far East Region. Mr. Abdul Kader is the Scouter who represented the Boy Scouts International Bureau at the Third All India Jamboree in 1960 at Bangalore. I had the good luck to be selected as one of the remaining five assistants from India. The Course was similar to the Third Far East "Training the Team" Course that was conducted at Ceylon in March this year. An account of this was published in the Jamboree Special Number issue of this magazine in June this year.

This the Fifth Far East (Eighteenth International) Course was the third in the Far East during this year alone. The result was that at this Course there were no trainees from any other country in the Far East, which has fifteen countries to its credit. Neverthless the course had its charm and importance. The four A. D. C. Cs. from this state who took the training should have been benefited very much.

A study circle organised by the National Organising Commissioner met at the same Centre on the 16th and the 17th November. All the D.C.Cs. and the A.D.C.Cs. who were there for the "Training The Team" course attended this meet. Many important aspects of training in general and steps to be taken to improve the quality and quantity of the Movement were suggested and discussed.

With a view to enlighten the Training Team of the State, the Fourth Training Team Seminar of the State has been arranged to come off on the 29th of this month at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur. The Headquarters Commissioner for Training has already issued circular to all members; it is hoped that all will attend and make the seminar a success.

One aspect which was discussed, accepted and followed during the above camps at the National Training Centre needs mention here so that all Scouters in the State will follow this from now onwards to ensure uniformity all over. This is about the Flag Parade procedure at Scout Trainings and at general Scout functions. The details of this Flag Parade procedure are given separately in this issue.

The S. O. C. (S) and the A. S. O. Cs. (S) have been busy during the last few months. The State Headquarters hopes that the D. Cs (S) and their A. D. Cs will take their help and guidance in full and improve the quality and quantity of Scouting in their own districts. Belgaum Division has also its A. S. O. C. (S) appointed and Mr. H. S. Gajanan Rao should be on his duties as from the 5th of this month.

Four President's Scouts and twelve President's Guides of this State were given an informal send off at the State Headquarters on 22—11—'61. They have taken part in the special Rally arranged for President's Scouts and President's Guides at the Rashtrapathi Bhavan, New Delhi on 28—11—61. Vice-President Dr. S. Radhakrishnan has addressed these Scouts and Guides and have presented them with special certificates signed by the President. These Scouts and Guides from the State have brought for the State honour and credit. This Rally of the President's Scouts and President's Guides will be an annual feature in the future. All Scouters will therefore get busy and help as many of their Scouts as possible to earn this status well in time (by 16 years of age the latest) and enjoy the privilege offered to them. While doing so the Scouters would please remember rule No 465 of the A. P. R. O. and ensure that the boys earn these badges over a reasonable period of sustained effort and training and not for the sake of quantity produced in incredibly short periods, at the risk of efficiency.

A. P. R. O. Rule No. 465 (iii) : "A Scout wearing Bharat Scout badge may be re-examinined annually for qualifying badges and must cease to wear the badge, should he fail in any one of them."

Worth Pondering Over

In the vortex of modern living there is nothing which has not been touched with the spell of extreme sophistication. Children are about the least unspoiled creatures left of our generation. Let us keep them as innocent as they should be, for,

"I am the father of a boy,
His life is mine to make or mar ;
And he no better can become than What my daily teachings are ;
There will be need for some one great
I dare not falter from the line;
The man that is to serve the world
May be that little boy of mine...."

National Headquarters

The Annual Meeting of the National Council was held at St. Paul's High School, Calcutta on 28th and 29th October 1961. Arrangements in connection with the above were made by an Organising Committee consisting of representatives of three State Associations of West Bengal, South Eastern Railway and Eastern Railway. Lodging for Scouters and boarding for all were made at the above High School while the Guiders were accommodated in Bondy Hostel. The delegates were received at the Railway Station by volunteers and conducted to the place of residence. During the days the host associations invited the delegates for a lunch. A cultural programme was arranged on the evening of 28th at the spacious auditorium of the South Calcutta District Association. The three Associations presented one item each from Tagore's life and writings. The performance was quite good and was well appreciated by all. On the 29th a sight seeing programme had been arranged culminating at the West Bengal Training Centre at Ganganagar near Dum Dum Air port.

During the three days, beginning from 27th the following Committees met and submitted their reports:

1. The National Executive Committee,
2. A.P.R.O. Committee,
3. Finance Committee,
4. The Publication Committee.
5. The Committee to suggest ways and means of retaining adult leadership in the movement and make them take more interest including suggestions for adopting the training programme.

At the ordinary meeting of the Council Smt. Ammu Swaminathan, President, was in the Chair. The following business was transacted.

1. The Annual Report for the year 60-61 was accepted after agreeing to include certain items as suggested by members.

2. The Auditors' report, the annual statements of receipt and expenses and the balance sheet were adopted. Explanations and clarifications were given wherever required.

3. The Budget for 61-62 was discussed and accepted.

4. Condolence resolution on the demise of members of the Council was passed.

5. The Council was appraised of :—

a) The progress of work at Pachmarhi National Training Centre.

b) The progress of work of the National H.Q. Building at Indraprastha Estate, New Delhi; the collections made so far etc. It is expected that it will be ready for opening by Lady Baden Powell, in December 1962.

c) Report on the visit of Lady Baden Powell.

d) Report on the proposal to establish a Guide Training Centre for the Asian countries at Poona, the contributions by State and National Governments.

e) Report on the present position of Girl Guide Trust funds and how the funds would be available at an early date.

f) The Govt. of India's assent to use the Govt. of India crest on the certificates to be issued to President's Scouts and Guides, permission to call the Bharat Scouts and Bharat Guides as President's Scouts and President's Guides.

g) President of the Indian Republic to be present at a Rally of President's Scouts and Guides at Rashtrapathy Bhavan on 28th November 1961. The Vice-President will decorate the Scouts and Guides qualified.

h) A proposal to invite the World Scout Jamboree to India in 1967.

6. It was resolved to accept the invitation of Kerala to have the next annual meeting of the Council held in Kerala.

7. The special meeting of the Council was held on 29th to consider the alterations to the memorandum and articles of the Association.

But much could not be done as the National Executive has not considered many of the suggested alterations and their opinion was not ready. The meeting therefore came to a close at about 12 Noon.

Sri T. V. Neelakantam, Joint National Organising Commissioner has been appointed Camp Chief (Scouts). Sri Neelakantam has considerable experience in camping and recently underwent training at the Training the Team Course at Ceylon in December 1960 held by the Camp Chief John Thurman himself. It is expected that Mr. Nilakantam the new Camp Chief will leave behind his impress on the National Training Centre and will make it more convenient, more beautiful and better serving the purpose. It is a good sign that the First Training the Team Course in India was held just after his appointment.

Money Ain't Everything

Speaking of the problems of running the Scout Movement without sufficient funds, an American Executive recently overheard the following remark :—

"Money Ain't everything but it sure is far out in front of whatever comes second."

Flag Parade Procedure

(At Scout Trainings and General Scout Functions)

The following procedure has been decided upon at the meeting of the Deputy Chief Commissioner (Scouts), the National Organising Commissioner, The Camp Chief-Designate (Scouts) Iudia and the other members of the Staff for the Fifth Far East "Training The Team" Course held at Pachamarhi, M.P. and was put into practice during the entire period 11th to 17th November 1961. This was also put up at the Study Circle of all DCCs and ADCCs who attended the "Training The Team" Course. This procedure will have to be taken into use in the State from now onwards.

Flag folded and tied up the flag pole.

Parade in horse shoe in front of the flag (for Scout Trainings) and in a quadrangle formation (for General functions) with the Leader and party in the gap in both cases alongside the flag.

1. When the Parade is formed and it is time to begin, the Leader calls the Duty P.Ls. (in Trainings) or the Scouter selected (for General functions) to break the flag. The Parade is at Alert position, from now and till the flag is broken.

2. When the flag breaker is ready to pull the flag rope, the Leader orders the Parade to 'Salute', and as soon as the flag is unfurled he orders the Parade to 'order'. Those who broke the flag step back a pace, look up the flag, salute, about turn and resume original position in the Parade. The Parade while saluting would have to look up at the flag and salute.

3. Then with the Parade at 'Alert' the 'Jhanda song' is sung full version as fast as possible and with real gusto.

4. The Leader then calls the Parade to 'Stand at-Ease' and 'Alert' again.

5. With the Parade at 'Alert ' the Leader calls the Parade to sing the Prayer Song 'Dayakara dan' as fast and with enough gusto as possible the full version.

6. Now with the Parade at 'Stand at-ease' the Leader reads out a common prayer to incorporate into it one of the principles or points of the Scout Law and invoke God to help the Parade to observe and maintain the same in the camp and in daily life.

7. After the common prayer by the Leader, comes the moment for personal silent prayers of each person in the parade so ordered by the Leader, of course; and finally at training camps with the Parade at 'Stand-Easy' position the Leader and Assistants announce the results of inspections and any other information for the course.

8. At General Scout functions where the public will also be assembled items Nos. 6 and 7 would be omitted.

9. The commands at Parades would have to be in Hindi in future so that Scouts participating in National parades along with Service Units, N.C.C., and others might uuderstand and follow the commands which at these parades would be in Hindi only.

[The Hindi words of command and their English versions will be published in the next issue of this magazine].

Service, like Charity, is among the godlike qualities of man because it is offerred without expectation of return or reward. This is the motto of the Scout Organisation and this explains the Universal approbation which the movement enjoys.

V Asian Training the Team Course, Pachmarhi

"Better Scouting to greater number of boys"—is the object of the T.T.T. Course. The fact that a number of these courses have been held in different parts of the World shows how popular and useful it has been.

The fifth Training the Team Course for the Asian region was held at our National Camping centre, Pachmarhi, from 11th to 16th November 1961. The approach to the camping centre covering a distance of 32 miles by bus from Piparia Railway Station through the evergreen trees; sal, mahua, harra, mango and silvereoak trees and lovely park like scenery all-round is a delightful exptrience.

Forty-five Scouters of all ranks viz., A.D.C.Cs., D.C.Cs. Headquarters Commissioners for Training, Assistant and State Organising Commissioners, District and State Commissioners from different parts of our great and large country spent a most useful and profitable time. The youngest on the course was 27 and the oldest 77 years. Practically there was no free time, and the course was very streneous indeed particularly for a large number of campers who were more than 50 years of age.

Dr. Natu, Deputy Chief Scout Commissioner was the leader of the Course, ably assisted by a galaxy of Scouters drawn from different States like Sirdar Hardayal Singh of Punjab, Sri J. I. Muthaiah, former Camp Chief, Sri Ramswaroop Dhiman of Rajasthan, Dr. V. K. Sundaram of Mysore and T. V. Nilakantam, the Camp Chief designate. The presence of two Scouters Abdul Kader and Jamie P. Neric of the Far East Office of the World Bureau gave us added knowledge, for both of them with vast experience took us round the Far East region and the world, on through their talks, games and lantern slides. Their jolly good spirit to mix easily with all and their original methods of conducting games and activities can never be forgotten. Work--work—work was the motto of the camp. Innumerable theoretical sessions, moving round the different bases for one to look at, listen to the instructors and ask questions to clear doubts, nature stroll, model hike including tests and cooking, pioneering practical within a given time, sing-song, yells and dances round the camp fire—all these though usually a routine in all camps, had a special colour lent to it because of varied nature of items from different States. In each Patrol there was one from each State and so the language spoken was amusing to the others but yet the members pulled together as in one family.

The morning Assembly round the flag amidst nature was very inspiring indeed. During nights one could hear the cry of the monkeys. Yes, the monkeys looked well fed and the yelling of jackals after lights out, the flora and fauna of a varied variety, streams running here and there, the song of the birds—the beautiful sun-rise and sun-set, all these broke the monotony of the course and made us realise the existence of God as well appreciating nature.

The presence of the Chief Commissioner (Scouts) Sri Madan Mohan, and his talk were encouraging. Sri Joshi, the National Organising Commissioner, spoke to us at length on how to make scouting efficient in our country. The talk on mapping by Capt. Sharma of the Army was helpful. The parting on the last day was very moving. We shook hands and bade good-bye, promising to meet one another some time at some place and broke off with a strong determination to give "Better Scouting to greater number of boys."

Proceedings of the 43rd Annual General Meeting of the State Council, The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, held on Saturday the 7th October 1961 at the State Headquarters

Forty-four members were present

The meeting which was scheduled to commence at 5-30 P. M. commenced later in the evening as the President, Sri B. D. Jatti had an important last-minute engagement at the same time.

On arrival he was received by the State Chief Commissioner and the other officers of the State Headquarters. He then laid the foundation stone for the Scout Club Room proposed to be built adjacent to the Headquarters Building.

The General Body meeting commenced with a prayer by the Guides of the Home School.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner, in a brief welcome speech, referred to the progress of Scouting and Guiding during the past years and said that the holding of the III All India Jamboree at Bangalore in December 1960 was an important mile stone in the history of the Movement in the State.

He stated that during the time of the Jamboree Lady B. P. had expressed appreciation of the high standard of Scouting and Guiding and that Sri Jayaprakash Narain, the Sarvodaya leader who visited the Jamboree Camp had also stated that, if there was any youth organisation in India which could work towards national consolidation and bring about the progress of mental integration of the different types of people in India, it was the Scout and Guide Movement.

Continuing the State Chief Commissioner said that the Government of Mysore had always been disposed kindly towards Scouting and Guiding and added that they had granted 100 acres of land for laying out a Scout and Guide Training Camp at Doddaballapur which, he said, was one of the best laid out camps in India. He also mentioned that the Scouts and Guides' in response to the appeal issued by the Chief Minister, had collected contributions for Flood Relief and handed over this amount to the Chief Minister at the meeting. Further, the State Chief Commissioner in referring to the play-grounds of the State Headquarters, said that it was best suited to be developed into a good Rally Ground having also a small swimming pool on one side and that this was a long-felt desire of the State Association. With this purpose in view, the Scouts had collected a sum of Rs. 5 lakhs which subsequently had been used for constructing the Kanteerva Staduium. The State Chief Commissioner entered an appeal to the Government for handing over the balance of amount remaining over with the Government to the State Association for being utilised for the above purpose.

In conclusion, he brought to the notice of the meeting that the Department of Public Instruction had cut down the allocation to the State Headquarters when the Movement was in urgent need of funds for these and other development activities. He requested the Chief Minister to kindly consider this matter favourably and restore the original grant.

The subjects on the agenda were then taken up for consideration.

Subject 1 :—Confirmation of the Proceedings of the previous State Council Meeting.

The Proceedings of the 42nd Annual General Meeting of the State Council held on 31-7-1960, printed copies having been already sent to all the members of the State Council, were confirmed.

Subject 2 : – Adoption of the Annual Report for the year 1960—61.

The State Commissioner (S), Dr. V. K. Sundaram, moved for the adoption of the Annual Report. Rao Bahadur Ramaswamy, while seconding the motion, observed that the Report may be made more interesting so that it may give a substantial idea of what is being done. Sri M. R. Ramaswamy mentioned that the Report had not gone earlier before the Executive Committee of the State Council. The Chief Commissioner, intervening, replied that the Executive Committee had duly authorised the State Chief Commissioner to get through the Report. The President then asked the house whether there were any material suggestions about the Report. There being no further comments, the Report was taken as adopted.

Subject 3 :—Adoption of the Audited statement of accounts for the year ended 31-3-1961.

Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, the State Treasurer, formally moved the house for the adoption of the audited statement of accounts for the year ended 31-3-1961.

The printed statement of accounts which was sent earlier to all members was considered. The State Treasurer pointed out that figure on page 17—'Brought forward Rs. 29,177-71' be corrected to read as 'Rs. 39,177-71', and the figure on page 22, March 1961 Rs. 58-00 be corrected to read as 'Rs. 58-50'. Further, he stated that the Government had reduced the normal grant from Rs. 80,000/- to Rs. 63,000/- for 1961-62 and the grant under Development Plan from Rs. 35,000/- to Rs. 10,000/-. The members felt that it was unfair that the sanctioned grants had been reduced and that the contemplated developmental activities would thereby suffer greatly as sufficient amounts could not be allocated for organisational tours in all the 19 districts owing to this large reduction in the grants.

Sri M. R. Ramaswamy sought clarification of the amount shown as Receipts from Headquarters Rs. 2,679-26 on page 2 of the statement. The State Treasurer gave the break-up of this figure.

The same member also pointed out item on page 10 of the statement 'Add amount due to Bangalore South District' and asked whether Bangalore had been divided into 3 Districts. The State Treasurer replied that formerly there were 3 districts, but now only two, namely Bangalore North and Bangalore South.

Rao Bahadur M. Ramaswamy pointed out that the statements of accounts may be made more clear so that members may not have any difficulty in understandingit. He suggested that it would be better to show the accounts under 3 columns, viz., previous year's budget, amount spent and the next year's budget. The suggestion was noted. The audited statement of accounts for 1960—61 was then adopted.

Subject 4:—Adoption of Budget for the year 1961—62.

It was pointed by the State Treasurer that the budget had been worked out on the basis of the original sanctioned budget for the year.

To a point of clarification by a member, the State Treasurer stated that the budget had been worked out on the basis of the original sanctioned budget for the year.

To a point of clarification by a member, the State Treasurer stated that there was only one permanent Scout Training Camp for the State at Doddaballapur and that it was the desire of the Headquarters to start more training centres. Rao Bahadur M. Ramaswamy desired that the Scout Badges should be distributed to the Scouts free of cost. The suggestion was noted. The Budget as circulated to members was passed.

The Budget estimate of the Girl Guide Section for the year 1961—62 was also considered and adopted as contained in the printed statement.

The Committee then took up consideration of the Budget Estimates under the III Five Year Plan for the year 1961—62 basing on the original grant of Rs. 35,000/-.

One member remarked that there should be an income side shown in the Budget. He felt that the presentation of the budget in the form now put up before them was incomplete. He stated that he had made this suggestion years ago.

The Treasurer stated that the suggestion would be noted for future guidance.

The Budget Estimate under the III Five Year Plan basing the grant at Rs. 35,000/- as circulated to members was adopted.

Subject 5 :—To appoint an Auditor for 1961—62.

It was noted that M/s B K. Ramadhyani & Co., were the auditors for 1960—61. A member asked whether the same auditors may be continued for 1961-62 also. The State Treasurer stated that it may be done and further informed the house that a sum of Rs. 200/- may be voted as fee to the Auditors, against a sum of Rs. 100/- provided during the previous year, as the work involved considerable time.

The members agreed to this proposal and a sum of Rs. 200/- was voted as the fee to the Auditors for 1961-62.

Subjects 6 and 7:—Resolutions proposed by the State Executive Committee and members :

Sri S. Balappachar, Bellary.

"Resolved to request the State Headquarters, Bangalore to revise the practice of inviting small and representative contingents of Scouts and Guides from each district to participate in the Mysore Dasara Procession".

The Fifth Asian Training The Team Course held at Pachmarhi National Training Centre from 11th to 16th November 1961

Sri B. H. Lingaiah, Secretary, Local Association, Basavangudi Receiving Medal of Merit

"Resolved to request the State Headquarters, Bangalore, to place before the Government emphatically and convince it to compulsorily introduce Cubbing in Primary Schools under the Compulsory Primary Education Scheme".

"Resolved to request the State Headquarters, Bangalore, to consider sympathetically the position of Scouters and Guiders and sanction a monthly allowance of Rs. 10 - towards their pocket expenses to be drawn from Government funds through the Director of Public Instruction".

In regard to the first one about revising the practice of inviting small and representative contingents of Scouts and Guides from each district to participate in the Mysore Dasara Procession, he stated that many of these Scouts and Guides had to go disappointed as they were not included in the procession. Further these contingents may be provided both boarding and lodging at Headquarters cost.

Dr. V. K. Sundaram pointed out that the suggestion was laudable, but at the same time it had proved to be impracticable. He stated that the inclusion of the contingents in the regular procession depended upon the Commandant in charge of the procession. If the Scouts and Guides could not come to the standard of march past he expected, they would automatically be kept out.

Rao Bahadur Ramaswamy also stated that it was very difficult to convince these young boys and girls if they were not included in the procession. He supported Col. Sundaram and stated that it would not work well.

Col. Sundaram further mentioned that while lodging facility could some how be provided, boarding was an impossible task and too expensive.

The State Chief Commissioner then requested the member not to press the Resolution and assured him that every opportunity would be taken to include in the procession as many Scouts and Guides as possible.

The member withdrew his resolution.

In regard to the 2nd resolution to compulsorily include cubbing in Primary Schools, Sri Balappachar stated that it was one of the ways of making scouting popular.

Col. Sundaram stated that once this is made compulsory, it could not be called Scouting but by some other name. Scouting had a record history of 54 years behind it. All through these years it has been a voluntary organisation, it would be against the principles of the Movement itself if it was made compulsory.

The House adopted the resolution with an amendment so as to read :

> "The State Headquarters convince the Government to popularise Cubbing in primary Schools under the Primary Education Scheme."

The third Resolution about providing a monthly allowance of Rs. 10/-towards the pocket expenses of Scouters and Guiders in the State the amount being drawn from Government funds through the Director of Public Instruction was withdrawn by the proposer.

The President distributed Medals of Merit to various Scouters and Guiders numbering 28 in all.

The President Sri B. D. Jatti. then, addressing the House said :

Mr. Siva Shankar, Mr. Mariappa, Scout and Guide Commissioners, Scouters and Guiders, and members of the State Council ;

I am very happy to be amidst you this evening and preside over the Annual General Meeting of the State Council

Although as Chief Minister I do not have sufficient time to associate myself completely in all your activities, I have always cherished feelings of very high appreciation of the valuable work that you are all doing in the matter of training the future generations of our country. I have noted with pleasure the fact that Mysore State has had the unique privilege of being almost the first State in our Country where Scouting and Guiding started, namely in 1909 in Bangalore when the first of the three Scout Troops in India was started and soon after in 1912, the first Guide Company came into existence in the Bishop Cotton Girls' School. Apart from the great honour that has come to Mysore State, especially to Bangalore, I know you will all share my view that the Movement has maintained very steady progress both in quality and quantity during the past 40 years and more. It is fitting that, as a climax to this notable achievement, we had the privilege of staging the III All-India Scout and Guide Jamboree in Bangalore which was acclaimed by every one as a tremendous success. I congratulate you all for the splendid work you did for achieving this.

Your State Chief Commissioner has, in his welcome speech, referred to certain points concerning the requirements of the Movement. As President of the Association and as one intensely interested in the kind of work that you Scouters, Guiders, and Commissioners are trying to do, I should like to take this opportunity of assuring you of every kind of support that I can give. I realise that it is not very much that you are demanding of me, because I feel that some of these demands are very natural ones, which every organisation is entitled to make.

The Play-grounds in front of the Headquarters and the Central Training Camp at Doddaballapur have come to be regarded all along as entirely belonging to the Scouts and Guides for their activities. I do not, therefore feel that there is any justification for either the Government or any other institution to put a claim, either wholly or in part and thus try to deprive you of the only suitable places you have for your work. I assure you that I shall do every thing possible to see that your Association continues to enjoy the possession of these grounds and make use of them for the training of Scouts, Guides, Scouters and Guiders.

You have referred to the proposed cut in the grants given to you by the Department of Public Instruction. As Executive Head of the Government of Mysore, it shall be my endeavour to pursuade the department to atleast restore these grants, even if I am not able to give you immediately any additional grant, in view of the great success you achieved in the conduct of the Jamboree.

I have noted that the Jamboree has left you with a deficit of Rs. 13,000/- I should think that this is a very small deficit for such a big venture, because I remember having recently read through a brief report on the 1957 World Jamboree held in England and on which account the British Boy Scout Association was faced with a deficit of about £ 35,000/-. I, therefore, feel that you are entirely justified in asking for a special grant to meet this deficit. This will certainly receive my very earnest and sympathetic consideration.

In conclusion, may I take this opportunity of thanking every one of you for the great and noble work that you are doing and, I am sure, you will continue to do in the years to come. I am very happy that I was able to spend some little time with you all and this was such a relief to me from the monotonous and onerous duties which I am forced to discharge as the head of the Government. Let me assure you all that I shall take every such opportunity that comes my way to spend some time with you and share your pleasures and problems.

I heartily congratulate the several Scouters and Guiders who have received the Awards in recognition of their services to the Movement.

I thank you for the courtesy done to me as President of the State Council.

JAI HIND

Smt Leela Anjanappa proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the President, Vice-President, and the members who were present. She also proposed the grateful thanks of the Council for the ready and helpful attitude shown by the Director of Public Instruction Sri A. C. Deve Gowda.

The meeting terminated with the singing of National Anthem.

Visits by State Organising Commissioner (S)

Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S), oured in Bangalore North, Tumkur, Chitradurga and Shimoga Districts from 30th October to 6th November 1961; 10th to 4th; 18th and 19th and 28th to 30th November 1961. He was ccompanied by Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao and Sri M. enkata krishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioners (S) f Chitradurga and Bangalore Divisions respectively. Sri B. C. anjundaiah, M.P., District Commissioner (S), Tumkur, ersonally guided the party throughout his district and kindly resided over the "Kannada Rajya Day Celebrations" rally nd pubiic meeting at Challakere on 1st November 1961.

In this tour 99 units and institutions were visited. 42 opies of the Jamboree Souvenirs were sold and 6 Subscribers or the official magazine enrolled. Most schools visited were ot only getting the magazine but what impressed more was rticles of every section were being read by many and discussed. n two Ranges it was found that every school is a subscriber. his is highly commendable. (Holalkere and Hosadurga).

The District Educational Officer, Chitradurga, had spared no pains to see that every unit visited would make the best of these visits.

District Association meetings were addressed at Tumkur and Chitradurga; Local Association meetings at Dodballapur, Madhugiri, Challakere, Davanagere, Hosadurga, and Bhadravathi; Sevadal Units at two places; Polytechnic at Bhadravathi, 6 open units and High Scoool students at many places. Revenue, Educational, Local and other authorities and parents were contacted at almost all places. The Central Training Camp at Dodballapur was visited twice during this period. It was learnt at some places that this is the very first time that any Scout Commissioner visited that place or unit. Scout films and tape records taken with the State Organising Commissioner were highly appreciated wherever put on. High Schools, Adult Literacy and N.E.S. Projectors made this possible. Every place visited is full of support, life and enthusiasm but equally so is the need for organisation, direction, co-operation and following up. Except in Davanagere and Bhadravathi areas Cubbing is practically extinct. This requires careful and immediate attention.

The areas covered during these tours are: Central Training Camp, Doballapur Town, Dodbelavangala, Thyamagondlu, Sivagange, Dobspet, Basavanagudi (Bangalore North Dist.), Tumkur, Beladhara, Jatti-Agrahara, Koratagere, Tumbadi, Madhugiri, Midigesi, Pavagada; (Tumkur Dist); Chal'akere, Sanekere, Yeraballi, Harthikote, Hiriyur, Aimangala, Dodda Siddavanahalli, Chitradurga, Davanagere, Kodaganur, Holalkere, Hosadurga (Chitradurga Dist.) Bhadravathi and Shimoga (Shimoga Dist.).

At all available places the Guide Units too greeted the visitors. The Local Association meetings were very useful in discussing problems, planning programmes and exchange of practical suggestions.

Davanagere and Bhadravathi Local Associations deserve special mention for their good organisation, active Units regular programmes and own buildings.

The State Organising Commissioner (S), was present in Shimoga on the splendid occasion of the unvieling of the portraits of Justice K. Shankaranarayana Rao, First Chief Scout Commissioner of Mysore and Sri H. Siddaiah, a former Minister of Mysore, by Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain a former Rover-Scout and Commissioner and Sri S. Nijalingappa, President of the M. P. C. C. and a former Chief Minister at the District Association Hall at Shimoga on the 5th November 1961. Sri H. R. Chidambara Sastry, District Commissioner (Scouts) and Sri P. Mahadevappa, Secretary of the District Association had made splendid arrangements. A large number of Scouters and L. A. officials had come from Bhadravathi for the occasion.

The management of the Mysore Iron and Steel works is extending excellent patronage to the units located in the area with Sri S. Channabasappa as the Assistant District Commissioner (Scouts).

The State Organising Commissioner was at Tumkur during the Scout and Guide Week celebrations which synchronised with the 15th All-Karnataka Children's Conference programme. Scout Arun Kumar presided over this Conference which was attended by large numbers of Young delegates (Many of whom are Scouts) from all districts of the State.

He participated in the District Scout and Guide Rally at Tumkur on the 18th and 19th November 1961.

The S. O. C. (S) Presided over the inauguration of "Sri Rama Priya Group" (Scouts) at Agrahara Dasarahalli—U.G., Govt. Primary School, Bangalore North Taluk on 7th November 1961.

The State Chief Commissioner has been pleased to appoint the following persons as Assistant State Organising Commissioners.

Indian Scouts' Royal Gift Displayed in London—

The beautifully made model of a foot-bridge presented by the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Delhi to the Queen for Prince Charles during her visit to India has been lent to Baden-Powell House, the Boy Scouts new Headquarters and hostel in South Kensington, London.

Made of ivory (representing logs) and goldwire (representing cables), the model is a foot long and about eight inches high. It has been placed in a prominent position on the second floor of Baden-Powell House which has now established itself as a rendezvous for Scouts and Guides from all over the World.

The model is near the Baden-Powell museum, which houses personal relics of the world-wide Scout Movement.

At Appreciation from B.P.'s Colleague

My dear Kausik,

I write to you as a member of the Editorial Board of THE MYSORE SCOUT & GUIDE. It gives me great pleasure to continue to receive copies of the magazine and I derive interest from it.

In the August-September number I was particularly interested in the article on "Camping at Pachmarhi,', not only because of courses at Pachmarhi in December 1933 (!), but also on account of the excellent scheme of practical training described. This seems to me to illustrate the true practice of Scouting-Guiding and it is a matter for rejoicing that Indian Ladies can now indulge in such activities, even if they have to doff their saris to do so!

I am glad to say I keep well and am not idle. Last month I was in Holland for the Council Meeting and General Assembly of the International Fellowship of Former Scouts and Guides and last week-end at a Wiltshire County Scouters' Conference.

I congratulate those concerned on the inauguration of the International Scout/Guide Club in Bangalore, and wish you every success with the Rover Wood Badge Course at Doddaballapur. There is some talk of my paying a visit to India next October, but I shall not know until April whether this may be possible. I should very much like to return to the country of my Scout birth again, and also to visit Bangalore after such a long interval.

ANNUAL CELEBRATIONS

"The Jhansi's have understood scouting and are making the best use of its training in moulding the character of the Individuals of this group" observed Sri. D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (Scouts), addressing a full packed audience at the Sanskrit College, Bangalore city on the evening of 12th September 1961.

The occasion was the third annual celebration of the 135th Jhansi Scout Group, Bangalore, Chamarajpet L. A. Dr. S. B. Kousik, State Secretary, in his presidential remarks complemented the group on its high standard of achievements and a good record of Social Services.

Sri S. Krishnaji Rao Bhounsley, Group Scout Master, welcomed the gathering and Sri C. M. Subbaiah, scouter-in-charge gave a brief report of its activities during the year. Blessings received from several patrons and supporters of the group including Sri G. Shivappa, President of the Mysore Chamber of Commerce, Dr. B. M. Madhava Rao, H. Q. Commissioner for Social Services, Sri P. Sivashanker, State Chief Commissioner, Col. V. K. Sundaram, State Commissioner (Scouts), Sri A. V. Narasimha reddy, M. L. A., and the Krishnananda Scout Group were read on the occassion. Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner, Bangalore Division, distributed several prizes and awards to the winners of various competitions held for this occasion.

"SAHAVASA" (Company) a social drama most aptly suited to the occasion depicting the Rocks that a youth of Rover age had to avoid while paddling his canoe through the Sea of life, to the goal of Success, was staged by the members with gusto. Sri H. N. Ramachandra Rao, Secretary of the City Rover Scout Leaders' Association, commended the artistes on their excellent performance, the author for the theme, and the director for the perfect execution, and wished that this aught to be staged in more places and be introduced to larger numbers of youth of our country.

The Jhansi Group Started three years ago on the occasion of the centenary celebration of the Independence Struggle of India is an open Unit comprising youngmen from several walks of life, giving them good scout craft in character training as the basic factor and deserves all support from every one as Dr. Kausik has rightly observed.

S. Krishnajirao Bhounsley, Group Scout Master.

Old Scouter Feliciated

The 135th Bangalore (Jhansi Scouts) of Chamarajapet were at Tea to Sri T. V. Raju and Sri Ramadas of the Govt. Electric Factory, Bangalore, on 26th November 1961 on the eve of their proceeding abroad (West Germany) for Advanced

Annual Scout Camp at Dodballapur from Saturday, the 14th Oct. to Thursday, the 19th Oct. 1961.

REPORT

We, the Brothers of 2nd Bangalore stayed in Dodballapur Central Camp,
Away from the show and pomp to explore
Far away under the flickering lamp,
Pitched up tents Saturday, the 14th noon,
For Lions, Horses, Rhinoes and Eagles,
And concluded successfully late on 19th afternoon
After an enjoyable trip to Nandi Hills.
The Campers in the very able company of Fr. M. Biscaro, Sri S. G. Bhat and Bro. C. Taveira
Had practice in peace and harmony,
In Signalling, Tracking, Message Relay, etcetera.
We had a cook by name Lazaar,
Who fed us all to the very taste
Without whom the success would not have been further Stomachful but not with any waste.

x x x x x

We forget not to thank the Camp Authorities,
For providing all the necessary amenities
After thinking of thy Almighty above all,
For his timely favours at every call.
And to our Founder, Baden Powel, the Lord
Who made us all Brothers of the world.
Thus our camp of twentynine,
Was, I say, enjoyable and very fine.
Hanumantharayappa requested me in the logbook to write,
And I did so bumping my sleepy head at midnight.

Hallo my friends, here We are to cater,
To everyone to be our International brother.

Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao, Asst. State Organising Commissioner, Chitradurga

Sri K. Basavaiah, The District Educational Officer, Tumkur while inaugurating the SCOUT WEEK felt that scouting is not so active as it was before. He recollected his scouting days and told the Scouts & Guides to be more active, have more of outings and campings. Childern should take advantage of the Movement and try to improve their personality. He has assured that he would do his best to encourage the activities in the schools.

Sri S. Nanjundaiah, I.A.S., The Deputy Commissioner and President, District Associatiou, Tumkur, while inaugurating the District Rally of Scouts aod Guides explained how Scouting helped him during his School and College days. While appealing to the Public to support Scouting he said that Scouting is not only national but it is an international Movement which aims at training the youth in CHARACTER, HEALTH and HANDICRAFTS and prepares the youth for the service of the Country. It helps the youth to improve the PERSONALITY of the individual and encourages LEADERSHIP.

Sri D. S. Siddiah. State Organising Commissioner, who acted as one of the judges at several of the Competitions felt that the standard and efficiency of Scouting in Tumkur Dist. was quite good. He was very much impressed with the SMART TURN OUT of the Scouts and Guides at the Rally and march past. He was glad to see the young Scouts of the Village Scout Troop (an open Troop) of Sidadaragal.

Dr. Visveswariah, the District Medical Officer, Tumkur, while distributing the prizes remarked that Scouting and Guiding is one of the best Training schemes that has been found out for the youth. It helps, he said, to draw out all the good that is hidden in a boy and through the help of elderly persons Scout-masters and Guide Captains helps the childern to improve themselves and to equip themselves to become more efficient citizens of the Country.

A "Camp-fire" was held on the last day 19-11-1961 at the Open Air Theatre. About 6 thousand parents, well-wishers and others witnessed it.

The Scouters of the District had a conference aad discussed various problems relating to the training of the Scouts.

Dear Madam,

WORLD CHIEF GUIDE

In the October 1961 issue of the Council Fire mention was made that the Chief Guide had set out on 12th September from London on a six months' tour of Canada, the U S.A. and Mexico.

Since then news was received by cable from the Chief Commissioner, Girl Guides of Canada, that Lady Baden Powell was taken ill on Friday, 13th October in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada, and following this there have also been bulletins in the Press.

Knowing how sincerely the Chief Guide would wish to spare her many friends and well-wishers all over the world any undue anxiety on her behalf and from the Canadian Commissioner who has been accompanying her on her tour:—

Extract from a letter dated 15th October from the World Chief Guide :—

"As you know I set out on a wonderfully planned tour, first to visit the U.S.A. then ritht across Canada and as a third lap, right down the U.S.A. again visiting Guides and Brownies and sometimes Scouts and Cubs at very many ports of call for six months on end. One cannot ensure against acts of God and two of these have occurred already.

The first trouble was the cloud breaking up over the town of Sydney (Nova Scotia) preventing my landing to meet a keen bunch of about a thousand who were coming to greet me on my arrival. It was very distressing to me to have to let them down. Anyhow a tape recording took my voice to them even though we could not meet in person.

The second occurred at a Guiders' Luncheon and I am writing this from bed in hospital, interned for a few days' rest. For the first time in my life I passed out completely unexpectedly with no warning and no pain whatsoever. My 'ticker' went on strike for a few brief moments warning me that a bit of rest is essential before resuming my tour"

Extract from a letter of 15th October from the Canadian Commissioner who has been accompanying the Chief on her tour :

" I want to reassure you that the Chief Guide is not very ill. She had a slight heart attack and needs some little time in bed resting... She was at a small Guiders' luncheon when she fainted... Prince Edward Islanders were splendid and very efficient. Lady Baden Powell herself was a true Guide and has never lost her smile and good spirit....and she has been wonderful."

I know how much the immense wave of goodwill aud thoughts from the Guide family all over the world will be appreciated by the Chief and will help towards her recovery.

As I am sure you will want to spare Lady Baden Powell any additional load of correspondence at scuh a time, it would help, in case of need, if letters were addresscd either to me at the World Bureau or to the Chief Guide's Secretary, Mrs. E. K. Wade, Ash Cottage, Bentley, Farhham, Hampshire, England, for onward transmission.

Yours Sincerely,

Dame Leslie Whateley

ದಕ್ಷಿಣ ಕಿಯೂಷು ದ್ವೀಪದ ಒಂದು ಹಳ್ಳಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಕಳೆದ ೧೫ ವರ್ಷಗಳಿಂದಲೂ ೫೦೦ ಮಂಗಗಳ ದಂಡೊಂದು ರಾದ್ಧಾಂತ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿವೆ. ಮಂಗಗಳೊಡನೆ ಹೋರಾಡಿ ತಾವು ಸೋತಿರುವುದಾಗಿ ಗ್ರಾಮಸ್ಥರು ಈಗ ಒಪ್ಪಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಮಾನವನ ಬುದ್ಧಿ ಶಕ್ತಿಗೂ ಚಾತುರ್ಯಕ್ಕೂ ಈ ಕಪಿಗಳ ಹಾವಳಿ ಮೀರಿರುವುದು ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿದೆ. ಅರಣ್ಯಗಳಿಂದ ಕಾಡುಕಪಿಗಳು ಹೊರಬಿದ್ದು ಗೆಣಸಿನ ತೋಟಗಳಿಗೆ ನುಗ್ಗುತ್ತವೆ. ತಂಡ ತಂಡವಾಗಿ ಕೆಲಸ ಮಾಡುತ್ತ ಕೆಲವು ಗೆಣಸಿನ ಗಿಡಗಳನ್ನು ಭೂಮಿಯಿಂದ ಕೀಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದರೆ ಇನ್ನೊಂದು ತಂಡ ಆ ಗಿಡಗಳಿಂದ ಗೆಡ್ಡೆಗಳನ್ನು ಬಿಡಿಸುತ್ತವೆ. ಫೈರ್ ಬ್ರಿಗೇಡಿನವರು ಉರಿಯುತ್ತಿರುವ ಮನೆಗೆ ನೀರು ಸರಪರಾಜು ಮಾಡುವ ಹಾಗೆ ಈ ಮಂಗಗಳು ಬಿಡಿಸಿದ ಗೆಣಸು ಗೆಡ್ಡೆಗಳನ್ನು ಒಂದರಿಂದೊಂದಕ್ಕೆ ಸಾಗಿಸುತ್ತವೆ. ಬಲು ಚುರುಕಾಗಿ ಈ ಸಾಗಾಟ ನಡೆಯುವುದಲ್ಲದೆ ಈ ಗೆಡ್ಡೆಗಳನ್ನು ಕೊನೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ತೆಗೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ಕಪಿ ಬೆಟ್ಟದ ಬುಡದಲ್ಲಿನ ದಟ್ಟವಾದ ಕಾಡಿನ ನಡುವೆ ಸೇರಿಕೊಂಡಿರುತ್ತದೆ. ಕೆಲವು ಕಪಿಗಳು ಕಾವಲು ಕಾಯುತ್ತಿರುತ್ತವೆ. ಅವು ಮರಗಳ ತುದಿಯಿಂದ ಸುತ್ತಲೂ ನೋಡುತ್ತಲೇ ಇದ್ದು, ಶತ್ರುಗಳ ಅಂದರೆ ಮನುಷ್ಯರ ಸುಳಿವು ತೋರಿದೊಡನೆ ಸಿಳ್ಳಿನಂತೆ ಕೀಚಲು ದನಿಯಿಂದ ಕೂಗುತ್ತವೆ.

ಈ ಮಂಗಗಳನ್ನು ತಾವು ಕೊಲ್ಲದೆ ಬಿಟ್ಟಿರಲು ಎರಡು ಕಾರಣಗಳನ್ನು ಆ ಹಳ್ಳಿಯವರು ಹೇಳುತ್ತಾರೆ. ವನ್ಯಮೃಗಗಳನ್ನು ಕೊಲ್ಲಲಾಗದೆಂದು ಜಪಾನಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಕಾನೂನಿದೆ ಯೆಂಬುದು ಒಂದು. ಅಂತಹ ಕಾನೂನಿಲ್ಲದೆ ಇದ್ದಾಗ್ಯೂ ಈ ಕಪಿಗಳು ತಮ್ಮ ಗುರಿಗೆ ಸಿಕ್ಕುವುದೇ ಇಲ್ಲ. ಶಿಷ್ಟ ಹುಷಾರು, ಎಂಬುದು ಇನ್ನೊಂದು. ಮುಂಗೋಪಿ ಒಬ್ಬನು ಒಮ್ಮೆ ಒಂದು ಕೋತಿಯನ್ನು ಗುಂಡಿಟ್ಟುಕೊಂದ. ಸರ್ಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಅವನು ವಾಕ್‌ಶಃನಾದಾನ ಕೇಳಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕಾಯಿತು. ದಿಕ್ಕೇ ತೋರದೆ ಇರಲು ಗ್ರಾಮಸ್ಥರು ಕಾನೂನನ್ನು ನಿರ್ಲಕ್ಷಿಸಿ ಮಂಗಗಳಿಗೆ ವಿಷವಿಕ್ಕಲು ಯತ್ನಿಸಿದರು. ತಮ್ಮ ತೋಟಗಳಸುತ್ತ ವಿಷಬೆರೆಸಿದ ಕಜ್ಜಾಯಗಳನ್ನಿಟ್ಟು ನೋಡಿದರು. ಆದರೆ ಕಪಿಗಳು ಆ ಕಜ್ಜಾಯಗಳ ಕಡೆ ಮೂಸಿಸಹ ನೋಡದೆ ತಾವೂ ನಿರ್ಲಕ್ಷಿಸಿದುವು ಈಗ ಆ ಗ್ರಾಮಸ್ಥರೇ ನಿಸ್ಸಹಾಯಕರಾಗಿ ಬಿಟ್ಟಿದ್ದಾರೆ!

The Lookout

Since the last Lookout the State Headquarters has been busy enough.

There was the Commissioners' Conference on the 16th and 17th of September at the Central Training Camp. The attendance was only about 25 percent. This is not commendable at all. While the State Headquarters appreciates the interest taken by those present, it would request once again those who were absent (and some of these had not even the courtesy to excuse themselves,) to take interest in their work help the boys and Scouters of their Districts, come up for such conferences and put up their suggestions and wants for the guidance of the Headquarters.

A Get-together Camp of the State Organising Commissioner (Scouts) and four Asst. State Organising Commissioners (Scouts) was conducted at the Central Training Camp from the 15th to the 19th September, by the State Commissioner (Scouts). The above Organisers have been initiated into the nature of their work and how they should work in unision with the executive and non executive officials of the District Associations as well as the lay members in the districts. The State Headquarters expects reasonable progress in the quantity of the membership as well as technical aspect of the Scouts and Scouters. In districts where the counterpart of these organisers are not available for the District Commissioners (G) these officers will give them the necessary advice and help. The State Commissioner Guides has welcomed these arrange, ments.

On 7—10—1961 the President of the State Council, Sri. B. D. Jatti, B. A., LL. B., (Chief Minister of Mysore) has laid the foundation stone for a Scouts' Den inside the Headquarters compound. This is to be built up on Shramadan basis, funds from State Headquarters and part of the labour from Rover Crews and Senior Scouts of local units. The local units may contact the State Organising Commissioner (Scouts) and give the numbers of RoversSenior Scouts they can provide for this work. When completed, local units who help in the Shramadan and who require a Den will be allowed to use this den under arrangements by the State Headquarters.

Lastly, it is often said, that wearing a Scout Uniform and making the 'Promise' are not the end in Scouting. Yes this is very true. Members (Scouters in particular) of this Movement who have made the 'Promise' will live up to it in their daily lives, feel proud of their uniform, wear it at all Scout functions, even it be visiting only a Patrol of Boy Scouts. Correect and smart uniform is an indication of the discipline and quality apart from a means of helping to spread the movement. On the other hand unauthorised types of uniforms, some Scouts are using still, even after the issue of instructions as per A. P. R. O., will only make the lay members have a poor idea of the discipline. This type should cease forthwith.

V. K. Sundaram,
State Commissioner (Scouts)

BADEN-POWELL HOUSE

Scouts from all over the world now have a magnificent new centre where they can stay when they visit London.

It is Baden-Powell House, a memorial to the famous Founder of the great Scout Movement, and it was recently opened by Queen Elizabeth II.

The building provides hostel accommodation for Scout visitors, a meeting place for Scouts in London, and houses a permanent exhibition which tells in words and pictures, the exciting Baden-Powell story.

HAPPY ATMOSPHERE

Lord Baden-Powell, the first Chief Scout of the World, often said that he hoped one day there would be a place in London where visiting Scouts from all over the world could stay at reasonable cost in a happy Scout atmosphere.

This house is his dream come true. It costs almost £ 500,000 – and nearly all the money was found by Scouts.

Baden-Powell House is ideally situated. It is central, buses stop outside, underground trains are near—everything in London is within easy reach.

There are dormitories for Scouts on two floors to sleep 95 in rooms with up to a dozen beds in each. Bed and breakfast costs 10sh. 6d. a night, or £ 3 3sh. a week. Scouters can use bedrooms, each with three or four beds, for 14sh. a night including breakfast, or £ 4 4sh. a week, and there are twin-bedded rooms for married couples. Baths, showers and other amenities are provided.

The needs of social life in the building are met by a Common Room, Games Room, Library and Quiet Room. The dining room seats 100.

A CHAPEL

In one room an altar has been arranged for religious services, and an Auditorium will take an audience of 337, has a proper stage and receptions can be held there. There are Committee Rooms, and a roof garden that looks over the garden and trees of the Natural History Museum.

One of the striking features of the new centre is the statue larger than life, of the Founder on the right of the main entrance. It is carved in Cornish granite and is the gift of the Scouts of London.

High on the outside wall above the main entrance is another eye-eatching feature: the Scout Badge, 8ft. (2.44 metres) high, cast in aluminium with a bronzed finish.

A LIVING MEMORIAL

There is much about the new Baden-Powell House to remind the visitor that it has been designed as a permanent and living memorial to the Founder.

" B-P's Room" on the fifth floor is fitted out with his personal bedroom furniture lent by Olave, Lady Baden-Powell the World Chief Guide.

But it is the exhibition on the ground floor which cannot fail to fascinate, for there " The B-P Story " is told—the story of the life of Lord Baden-Powell and his wonderful work for the young people of all nations.

The " How " and " Why " of the Scout Movement can be seen: how the young Army officer learnt his Scouting the hard way, and soon saw how his knowledge could help youngsters of all nations.

There were Scout representatives on parade from every country of the Commonwealth and from many other countries too, when Queen Elibabeth II declared Baden-Powell House open.

They gave point to the purpose of the centre: a place in London where Scouts from all over the world can stay, make friends, and gain knowledge of each other's way of life.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

FOR

Cubs, Scouts and Rovers

BY

Dr. V. K. SUNDARAM, M. C.,
D. C. C., S. C. (S) (LT. COL., I. M. S.)

The correct manner of conducting the above ceremony for the 'New Chum' before he becomes a 'Cub', the 'Recruit' before he becomes a 'Scout' and the 'Rover Squire' before he becomes a 'Rover Scout' is stated in the 'Sixth Bite' on pages 60-61 of the Handbook for Wolf Cubs, in the 'Camp-Fire Yarn No 3' on pages 42-43 of the Handbook for Boy Scouts in India (First Indian Edn. 1945) and on page 219 of 'Rovering to Success'. These are all so simple and clear that it is not necessary to be repeated here.

This article is meant to clarify some of the important features of this Investiture Ceremony whether it be for the 'Tenderpad', the 'Tenderfoot' or the 'Rover Scout'.

i. The Nature of the Ceremony. In each case the ceremony has to be Simple, Short and Solemn.

ii When and Where to be done. It is best to include this ceremony as the last item of either an indoor or outdoor programme of the regular meetings. The latter in the vicinity of a nearby and quiet type of temple or place of worship where too many people do not collect would be the ideal kind. The inclusion of this ceremony into the regular meetings would ensure the factors, 'simple' and 'short'; no special arrangements need be made. The vicinity of a place of worship, which shall also be quiet would ensure 'solemnity.' When for unavoidable reasons the ceremony has to be conducted indoors a special corner of the den may be decorated with the portraits of deities, saviours or heroes and these would surely solemnise the occasion. The vicinity of the quiet temple or the place of worship is essential particularly in the case of a 'Rover Investiture' when the 'Rover Squire' is undergoing the 'vigil.' The details of the 'vigil' and the general idea of the ceremony for 'Rover Investiture' are given also in a pamphlet called 'The Presentation of a Rover Scout'.

iii. Who is to conduct the Investiture and to whom should the Boy give his promise. The only person eligible to conduct the ceremony and receive the 'Promise' from the 'Boy' is the 'Cub Master,' the 'Scout-Master' or the 'Rover Scout Leader' of the particular Group if it should consist of all these three sections or of the particular Pack/Troop/or Crew if these should be separate. In cases where the crew is just being formed the first Rover to be Invested may be permitted to give his 'Promise' to the Senior Scout-Master who is responsible for the formation of the crew or to the Group Leader (S) till the Rover Scout Leader is appointed.

NOTE :—No-one-else other than the above appropriate for the section however distinguished he may be, either belonging to the Movement viz. other Scouters including all kinds of Commissioners and the Chief-Scout, or outside the Movement viz. any distinguished member of the Public and any Government official of whatever magnitude he may be, is eligible. No special occasion should ever be taken chance of, for the all important, yet the most simple short and solemn, ceremony of the Investiture of a Tenderpad, Tenderfoot or a Rover Scout. Even the presence of any of the persons mentioned above unless he has previously and frequently acquainted himself with the unit and/or the Boy being invested would weigh heavily on the mind of the Boy and embarass him so much that the ceremony in reality would be far from being simple and short. When it is neither simple nor short it cannot be solemn.

iv. How many to be invested at a time. Only one or two at a time taken up monthly would be ideal. If necessary it may be taken up fortnightly. At any rate never more than four at one ceremony. Please note that the Boys in all these cases have to proceed up to the Scouter in charge one by one and take the 'Promise' likewise and receive the corresponding badge and the scarf etc., from the Scouter himself. It would be a pleasant feeling to the Boy if the badge should be pinned on to the left pocket of the Boy's shirt by his own Scouter.

NOTE:—The practice of investing a whole Pack, a whole Troop, a whole Crew or a whole Group or a hundred and seventy and odd boys by taking their 'Promise' as a chorus in the presence of a distinguished person as against enumerated in the note under para iii, above, will not give credit to the various Training Officers who have pushed home to the Trainees the facts stated in the paras above.

I hope I have made clear all the doubtful points for both the new Scouter and the old who might find themselves in difficulties.

A Scouter to administer the promise should have taken it himself. This can be done by the Commissioner, or failing him by another Scouter, either in the presence of the boys or otherwise. If it is a new unit this affords the Scouter an opportunity to give the lead to his future Scouts.

Good Luck and Good Scouting!

Other Ceremonials:

a) Initiation of Commissioners and other Scouters who have not been in the movement earlier.

Such a person will make the 'Promise' to the outgoing officer or a Senior Commissioner in the area or association, and who has himself made the 'Promise' when he was so appointed.

b) Ceremonials of general nature; Scout/Guide.

c) At the end of Scout/Guide trainings, the 'Promise' has to be renewed.

d) Visits of VIPs to units : On these occasions correct and complete uniform should be worn by all concerned. Awards/ decorations received should be worn on the uniform in the proper places.

"I Learned to Cook Through Scouting"

By

Rover A. Radha Krishnan.

It is really humiliating to tell you how I learned to cook. I was one of those fortunate scouts to participate in the Dasara Festival March-Past from the Bangalore Contingent in 1957. I had to kindle a fire on that occasion. It happened thus. We were given the usual camp food daily, which I did not relish being a non-vegetarian. I used to take eggs daily for breakfast or lunch. And so the five days in Mysore were very hard for me. (Now I am not a regular egg-eater being used to all types of food and also on account of the hair-raising prices of eggs).

After three days of austerity at Mysore, I and another friend grew crazy for eggs. (You know, "Birds of the same feather always flock together".) We bought 4 eggs of which two had a fatal accident on the way and we were left with two eggs only. We were really shy to tell our fellow scouts that we were mad after eggs. So we selected a place behind our camp so that others could not see us. I emptied almost the whole match box in trying to light a fire. Finally it was my friend who succeeded in lighting the fuel after using just half a bottle of kerosene. We placed our mug half-filled with water over the fire with the two lovely eggs drowned in it. The water was steaming when my eyes and nose were flooded by the smoke. In my hurry to lay the fuel correctly, the mug spilled the whole water on the fire and in no time our toil was ended with just one half boiled egg stinking to be tasted. "Alas! It is the eggs funeral" we thought. Yet that was our first lesson in cooking.

That day I made up my mind to master the art of cooking. When I returned home I enjoyed this little funny experience in cooking, telling it to my friends and parents. I told my mother that I would be very happy if she would teach me cooking. As she had always been good to me she encouraged me to cook curry for that day's lunch. I was following her instructions very sincerely. At last the curry was prepared with a fine smell and appealing taste. That day I was the proudest boy on earth because I was congratulated by every member of my family including my sister (who never agrees with me) in my success, as a "Cook".

Some years later at a camp on Nandi Hills, I was assigned by my Comrades to act as Cook. Some of them had often heard my mother say "My son cooks better than my daughter". I accepted the assignment with an air of mastery and finished the cooking in no time. We all sat for lunch. The food was served and every one started to munch. Suddenly as if in response to a command from the Troop Leader every one began to stare at each other (including me). The reason was very simple. All the dishes were full of salt and the whole lunch was nothing but salt. It tasted like sea water. That day we were forced to starve or in Gandhian words "fast". Everyone of my friends began to charge at me. Some named me "Ocean Creater", "Fasting leader", "Economic Cook" etc. Even today they call me as the "Ocean Creater".

I did not mind and persued my hobby. I can now say with conviction that I am able to cook food that both my friends and myself will relish.

KIM'S COMPASS

Kim's game can be played in a thousand and one ways. It requires some mental effort, but it is good practice in visual memory training.

Draw two concentric circles in chalk. Divide these circles into compass sectors as normally used. Put one compass direction North on a part of the outer circle only, called circle one. The inner circle is called circle Two. You thus see that it is possible to locate any compass point on either side very easily. Thus all the 32 known points can easily be referred to in this manner.

But do you know your compass ?

Having got these points clear in the mind, Kim's Game can be played. Place an ordinary article on every one of the 32 points, just as we do in Kim's Game. You now have 32 articles on 32 compass points, and if you name any compass point on either circle there is an article on it or should be.

The rest is simple. Let all the players have a good long look at the circles and then blind-fold them. It may be advisable in the first place to have only one circle and then to use both circles when you have more practice.

The leader shouts, "North 2" "South West 1" "East South East 2", etc., and allows one minute to all players to think. The first player to call out the correct article on that compass point gets 2 points. The player with the highest score, wins.

— from The Scouter.

11th WORLD JAMBOREE

The following message has recently been received from Greece. The Jamboree Badge symbolizes, "A Scouting shield as a defence against evils for the youth of the Scouting World."

Brother Scouts and Scouters :

The Boy Scouts International Bureau has officially announced that the member countries of our World Brotherhood have accepted our invitation to hold the 11th World Jamboree in Greece.

This announcement was received by us, all the Boy Scouts of Greece, with deep gratification and joy.

The enthusiasm that has so spontaneously flared up, will light our way and help us to reach the high standard set up by previous World Jamborees.

It is therefore with the greatest pleasure that I cordially invite you to attend the Jamboree of 1963. A warm welcome will be wating for you under the blue skies of Greece, where the classical ideals and spirit as well as the glorious vestiges of the past, harmoniously mingle together with the modern outlook and the beauty and variety of the scenery.

Until the day of the great gathering I send my best wishes to you all and let us, in the meantime, scout higher and wider.

CONSTANTINE,

Duke of Sparta, Chief Scout, Greece.

EXCHANGE VISITS

Scouts and Rovers of the United Kingdom will be on the move this summer. An exchange visit with Greek Scouts consisting of twenty-four Senior Scouts and Scouters; twelve University Rover Scouts will be taking part in an exchange visit with Egyptian University Rovers, and this group will take part in the U. A. R. Rover Moot near Damascus. Senior Scouts, Rovers and Scouters will form a contingent to the Israeli National Jamboree.

In addition, the International Scout Club in England conducts a scheme called "Explorer Belt". The object of this scheme is for pairs of Senior Scouts or Rovers to hike together in a foreign country, learn as much as they can of the way of life in that country, and submit a log of their entire journey.

(Suggestions for similar projects in our Country too are invited, Ed.)

SCOUT COMMENTATOR:

Sri R. Chandran, A. D. C. (S), Bangalore North District, who had the privilege of giving a talk about the Third All India Jamboree over the AIR in December 1960, was one of the commentators on the occasion of the visit of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II to Bangalore. We are proud one of our members was chosen for this pleasant task.

We offer our hearty felicitations to this young couple and wish the mall prsperity and the best of luck.

91st BANGALORE (FREE INDIA) ROVER SCOUT CREW.

115 Hanumanthanagar, Bangalore-19.

The following is the brief report of the Flood Relief Work done by the above Crew :

It was decided at the meeting of the Crew on 28—7—1961 that we should strive our best to collect 3 cs, namely, Coin, Clothes and Corn for the people affected by the floods in Mysore State.

Our main object was three-fold.

a) to focus the attention of the Public to the sufferings of the people in the flood devastated area.

b) to enlist their sympathies, and

c) to provide an opportunity for even the poorest, humblest and lowest in the society, who though willing to contribute their mite, may not be able to reach the collection centres-may feel that their contribution was very small and so not contribute at all.

We selected Hanumanthanagar area as it was quite compact and no work in this regard had been done there.

With this sacred object in view 12 of us with 2 cubs, divided into 3 batches, and started the work on Sunday the 6th August 1961 at 8-45 A. M. We went round up to 12-45 noon and with a break of 60 minutes for lunch, started again at 1-45 and went round till 4-30 P. M.

We went from door to door, accepting with a simple, both boquets and brickbats whatever was offered. We were able to cover the entire Hanumanthanagar Extension numbering over 400 houses.

Reaction of the Public : On the whole we should say they were sympathetic and generous. We were greeted in many places and our work was applauded. While a few among the white-collared section said that their contribution had been deducted from their salary at the source, many others paid a second time saying, any amount paid and any relief done would not touch even the fringes of the vast problem. We cite below just a few reactions :

An orphan widow who earned at the sweat of her brow said, "Poor people, they deserve the combined help of us all. Herewith please accept half a seer of rice-all that I could give."

A wood-cutter said, "My boss is away. You may come afterwards. Will you accept anything ? Herewith my contribution of 0.25 nP. Please accept."

An educated employee said, "You do not seem to have better business, except to come for begging ! Ask your Congress Ministers to pay and help. Get away."

An unknown man briskly walked up to us, stopped us and asked "What is all this about?" We gladly explained to him, "Yes, Yes, I am aware. God, we do not know for what reason he has unleashed His wrath on Humanity. Please accept 0.31 nP, all that I have." On being requested, he said he was a Taxi Driver and showed his taxi parked at a distance.

Petty shop owners, merchants, class IV employees, hotel-keepers, Ladies, cycle-shop owners, washermen, school teachers and children all willingly contributed their mite. We are grateful to all of them.

A sum of Rs. 102—00 was collected in cash, 45 seers of rice and a bundle of clothes in kind.

At the end of the day, we felt we had achieved our three-fold objective in view, irrespective of the quantum of collections.

Our Collections were later on offerred to Shri B. D. Jatti, our beloved Chief Minister, by us in person at his residence.

Visits by S. O. C. (S).

Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S) toured in Bangalore North, Bangalore South, Tumkur, Hassan, Chickmagalur, South Canara, Coorg, Mysore and Mandya Districts from 25th September to 2nd October 1961. He was accompanied by Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa and Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao, Asst. State Organising Commissioners (S) of Bangalore and Chitradurga Divisions respectively. Sri B. C. Nanjundaiah, M. P., District Commissioner (S), Tumkur District, personally guided the party throughout his district.

In this tour 32 institutions and units were visited. Local Associations were formed at Nelamangala (Bangalore North District), Kunigal, Gubbi, Chikkanaikanahalli (Tumkur Dist.) and Arasikere (Hassan Dist.) Teachers, Scouters and Guiders' Meetings were addressed at Kunigal, Haranahalli, Dudda and Bageshapura. The Local Associations of Tiptur and Mudigere and the District Associations of Tumkur, Chickmagalur, South Canara and Coorg had organised special meetings on the occasion. The attendance at all these meetings was very good and the discussions were of a high order.

The Bageshapura Ceramics Factory has come forward to start a Rover Crew and the Bageshapur Group Panchayat has volunteered to take care of a Cubmasters' Training Camp for its area. An Ad-hoc Committee was formed to work out the details and make necessary arrangements.

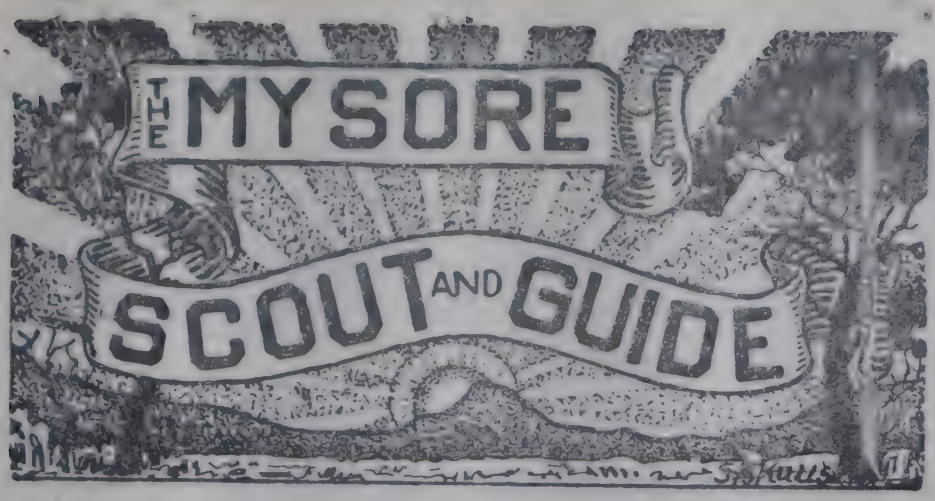
Scout Films were projected to large audience at Tumkur and Tiptur. Tape Records of Scout Songs and addresses recorded at the recent National Jamboree were played at several places and a few interesting items and reports recorded at some places. Solur (Bangalore South), Hebbur, Nagavalli, Gulur, Ammasandra, Huliyar (Tumkur District) Hassan, Belur, (Hassan), Banakal (Chickmagalur), Farangipet (S. Canara), Mercara, Srirangapatna, Mandya and Maddur are some of the other places visited.

This tour has proved that there is no dearth of enthusiastic, students, encouraging public, sincere Scouters and Guiders, co-operating officials and numerous opportunities to establish improve or promote Scouting and Guiding in our country. Careful planning, proper organisation, perseverance in execution and wide and proper publicity is the essential need of the day for which the Commissioners of all ranks have to devote more attention and time and attract the sympathy and support of the trained Scouters and Guiders as also of the laymen and officials.

The Vice-President of the District Association, the District Commissioner (S) and the Secretary of the Hassan Dist. Association were met and matters relating to the Dist. Association and its building discussed. Meetings of their Executive Committee and the General Body have since been fixed up to be held

Due to the sudden demise of Sri Bhaskar Rai, who was both the District Commissioner (S) and Secretary of the Dist. Association, the affairs of the South Canara District Association were rather disturbed for a while. But with the stepping in of the President of the District Association Sri Somasekhara Rao as District Commissioner (Scouts) in charge and Sri Vittal Kamath as Secretary, things are getting into shape in that area.

All these Districts are in need of and trying to arrange for Cub and Scout Masters' Training Camps early.



GUIDE SECTION

MY VISIT TO BIDAR

I went to Bidar with the idea that guiding would be dead there. We had no District Commissioner for Guides, none, represented the District at the Jamboree and we had no information at all about the movement. It had been in my mind as well as that of the State Organising Commissioner for Guides, to pay this far away district an early visit.

I reached Bidar by car from Hyderabad with Smt Leelavathi Magadi, Deputy Minister for Rural Industries, late on the 10th of August 1961. Sriman Basappa Alur, Deputy Commissioner and President of the District Association and Srinan V. R. Naik, District Educational Officer and District Commissioner for Scouts, were awaiting us.

On the 11th at the Government School was given a cheerful welcome and a guard of honour by the Guides and they all kept singing the song. I had a heart to heart talk with the Guiders and was very much surprised and pleased at their keen interest. With the little training they had, the Guiders had been able to keep up the spirit of guiding and the next day a pleasant surprise was in store for me.

The Scouts and Guides were observing the Scout and Guide week, and a grand Rally was arranged to which I was invited. With the Ramparts of the old fort forming a perfect back-ground, I saw thc colourful gathering of Scouts and Guides in uniform, several hundred strong. I had the privilege of hoisting the flag and an interesting display followed. The Lambani Dance and various formations given by the Scouts and the Lotus formation and songs by the Guides were all perfectly rendered.

I was thoroughly surprised at the high standard of their performance. In spite of the fact that there had been no District Commissioner for Guides, the Guiders here were full of enthusiasm and had kept up the interest in Guiding.

I was presented with a Woggle with the famous Bidri work. While the Rally was progressing, a boy walked up from the crowd and asked me whether he could become a Boy Scout too. 'Of-course', I said and introduced him to Sriman V. R. Naik, District Commissioner (Scouts), and requested him to see that this boy was included in Scouting, and to have an Open Troop if necessary. You can thus imagine the impression created by the Rally on the public and the excellence of the show put up by the Scouts and Guides. The backward district called Bidar, could not be a backward district if is could produce such Scouts aud Guides.

The Scout and Guides participated in a house to house drive for investments in National Savings in connection with the savings shibiras held on the 11th and 12th of August 1961 and so did a little service to their country.

I had once again the opportunity of meeting the Scouts and Guides of Bidar at Lunch and see their smiling faces at lunch at Guru Nanak.....where they all had gone hiking on the 12th August 1961. Smt Leelavathi Magadi, Deputy Minister for Rural Industries, and Sriman Basappa Alur. Deputy Commissioner and President of the District Association had also been invited.

Well done Bidar! Keep up !

THE BULBUL REVEL

The Girl Guide Headquarters was buzzing with activity, gay festoons went up, green arches sprang, tents were pitched everything was ready for the Bulbul Revel which was to start and at 4 p.m. on 22nd July 1961. Six hundred Bulbuls were expected. Yet the State Commissioner (Guides) had not arrived from Mysore. Suppose she does not arrive in time! Suppose her Car has a puncture on the way : ; Supnose she does not turn up at all ; ! ; All the Headquarters Commissioners were in a flurry.

The telephone rang. Oh the State Commissioner has arrived! "come straight to the Headquarters. Please do not stop for lunch any where. We have the lunch ready' '.

I arrived at the Headquarters to find the entire place at the G.G.H. Qrs. My Organising Commissioners, Joint State Secretary, Bangalore District Commissioners and A.D.Cs. and the Headquarters Commissioners, all had lent a hand to bring about this miraculous change.

Right on time, the Bulbuls came tripping in by flocks. The M.G.R.T.D. with their wonderful assistance and service had transported them from all over the city. Through the welecome arch they came, collected their cards aod assembled.

There was a gceat surprise awaiting me. Up marched twelve princesses, robed and crowned me as Queen and escorted me to the Bulbul ring for the grand salute. Then I was enthroned and the grand display started. Oh! The Bulbuls had forgotten to anoint their Queen! The heavens opened and there she was anointed along with the Bulbuls.

For some time the Queen and the Bulbuls stood the drenching. Then they scrambled helter skelter for shelter, the weather God had to play this prank to spoil the show. He had not been invited. Out came our friend the Sun God and chased him away and we had smiling weather for the rest of the day.

The Bulbuls distributed themselves into four corners for Sing-song, games, story telling and play acting and had a wonderful time. And Oh ! the story telling was the best of all. Mrs. Leela Chandrasekhar and Mrs. Seelaratnam wonderful mothers, had knack of making the stories sound just real. The Bulbuls loved telling stories too. The Queen also could not resist the temptation of listening to the stories.

After all the fun, six hundred Bulbuls with their faces alight with pleasure, picked up their mugs and plates and lined up for Tea. Cakes, Vadais, Bondas and Bhath ! What a feast!!

All this fun had to come to an end and the Bulbuls assembled to wish their Queen good-night. The high, the mighty, the terrible State Commissioner (Guides), was not terrible at all. She was their Queen ! She loved her Bulbuls. "Good-night Queen" :"Good-night Bulbuls and remember to come again".

STATE GUIDE SHIELD AWARD

"One hundred people can build a bridge ; It requires ten hundred men to build a village ; but one woman can build a home.And Girl Guiding helps girls to become ideal women who fill their homes with love and peace" said Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner of the Bharar Scouts and Guides, on Sunday evening (22nd) while presenting the State Guide Shield Trophy to the Mysore City District Guides at the Girl Guide Headquurters.

Smt. Leela Anjanappa, State Guide Commissioner, welcomed the gathering and Smt. Krishnaswamy, Joint State Secretary announced the winners of the several competitions viz., Flag hoisting, Marching, Health Charts and Camp Fire items, Smt. Hamida Rahmon, State Organising Commissioner proposed a vote of thanks.

Bangalore South, Bangalore North and Kolar North Districts came out second, third and fourth respectively in the competitions.

A large gathering of parents, Scout nnd Guide Commissioners, Rovers and Rangers were present.

National Home Flag Badges were presented to all the participants in the several competitions and the judges.

Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram, State Scout Commissioner; Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner of the Scout Section and Sri Gajanana Rao with his Rovers of the Krishnananda Group assisted in the competitions and arrangements.

WORLD CENTRE AT POONA

We are very glad to announce that the World Committee of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts have accepted the offer of land and funds made by India for the establishment of a World Centre for the Asian Region in this country at Poona, Maharashtra State. The Ministry of Education, Government of India has sanctioned a sum of Rupees Two Lakhs as a capital grant, and a sum of Rs. 6,000/- per annum for a period of five years, for the recurring expenditure for the centre. The Maharashtra State Government has donated 7.06 acres of land at Poona and a sum of Rs. One Lakh for the proposed centre. Even though attractive offers were made by Pakistan and Phillipines, the World Committee decided to accept India's offer. Thus India will have the honour of having a WORLD CENTRE for Guides. The World Committee have appointed a small committee, consisting of members from different countries in the Asian Region, for which Mrs. Lakshmi Mazumdar, Chief Commissinor(G) was appointed as Chairman.

BRITAIN'S PANORAMA 1962

In July 1962 we are to hold an International gathering for Rangers and Cadets. In order to ensure that thete is as wide a representation as possible from the Commnwealth we have had to limit invitations, but India is invited to send two Rangers or Cadets to this event.

Many of your people are, we know, bound to be coming to England but we are asking our Guests to arrive this country as near Friday, July 6th 1962 as possible in order that the scheme can work along the following lines. At their post of arrival they will be welcomed by the members of our Senior Branch who will put them on a train for the place were they will receive one week of hospitality. During this week they will meet many Guides and Rangers and also a number of young people who are not members of our Movement and, of course, they will be taken to various places of interest.

On July 13th, our visitors will set out from the place where they have been receiving hospitality and, accompanied by several Rangers/Cadets with whom they will have already made friends they will spend a week travelling through parts of Great Britain by various routes and using many different types of transport, seeing Home Crafts and Industries and staying in Guide Homes or Camps.

All these little groups will meet many Guides and Members of the Senior Branch as they travel through the country side and will again have an opportunity of talking to young people who are not in our Movement. These journeys will have been planned by the British Rangers/Cadets and will be as adventurous as possible and they will all lead to British University. The 500 delegates will live in College Buildings for the next week during which they will work together on International Service Projects.

Would you please let me know as soon as possihle, or at the latest by November 1st whether this country accepts this invitation in Principle, indicating whether or not you would be interested in sendlng extra delegates if some countries are unable to accept the invitation.

Preliminary details of the events are as follows :—

Dates :—July 6th—13th	....	Hospitality.
,, 13th—20th	....	Travel through Britain.
,, 20th—27th	....	Bristol University.
,, 27th	....	Visitors from abroad leave for home unless they wish to stay on at their own expense.

Cost:—Approximately £ 15 which includes travelling expenses from the port of arrival to the country where hospitality will be given and from Bristol to the port of embarkation ; board, lodging and gratuities and an excursion during the week in Bristol.

Qualification of Delegates :—Delegates must be active Rangers or Cadets between the age of 16 and 21 years inclusive.

Hospitality :—Hospitality is offered before the event so that our visitors will have a chance to get to know their travelling companion.

Mrs. ROBERT BERNEYS
Dy. Chief Commissioner(G)

Called for Higher Service

ıgust 1961 has been remorselessly fateful to the Scouts of ..ysore State in that we have lost four of our veteran Scouters: M. S. Sampath, M. Abdul Latheef, W. T. Hunumantha Rao and B. S. Bhaskar Kai this month. Equally so has been October 1961 during which two more ardent Scouters: G. Ramachandra Rao and B. R. Srinivasa Rao " Went Home " May the noble Souls of all these Scouters left in peace.

Sri M. S Sampath, A. D. C. of Central Area of Bangalore City, an A. D. C. C. and Group Leader (S) of the XXVth Bangalore Binny's Group was also the Secretary of the Bangalore City District Scout Couucil for Some years. As President of the City Scout Masters' Association and Vice-President of the City Middle School Teachers' Association too he rendered valuable services to the Movement. He built up high traditions wherever he served, was a good sportsman and an efficient organiser. He passed away at Bangalore on 5—8—1961.

Sri M. Abdul Latheef Headquarters Commissioner (for Old Scouts) and a former District Scout Commissioner of the Civil Area, Bangalore, breathed his last at Karachi (Pakistan) on 6—8—1961. Though old by age he was quite young in spirit and never missed to camp out with the boys. He lead the State Rover Contingent to Ceylon at the last inland movement. His services as a Municipal Corporator, an alderman and member of several Social Service Organisations had endeared him to a large number of young and old.

Sri W. T. Hanumantha Rao, as a District Scout Commissioner of Chitradurga was mainly responsible to firmly establish and widely spread Scouting in that District. The organisation and conducting of the Mysore State Scout Rally at Chitradurga is an instance of his capacity. As a Gilwellian member of the Rifle Club. a leading Advocate and a social worker Sri Rao's name will ever remain green in the minds of the Chitradurga public and the scouts of Mysore State. He passed away at Chitradurga on 8—8—1961.

Sai B. S. Bhaskar Rai, born in 1915, was the District Scout Commissioner and Secretary of South Canara District Association and a member of the M. P. C. C. at the time of his death on 21-8-1961. As an A. D. C, of the former Hindusthan Scouts, Sri Rai, who was the President of the Eagle Rover Crew led a Contingent to the Rover Moot of Ceylon in 1952. Sri Rai helped the Mangalore Co-operative Stores, National Federation of Posts and Telegraphs Employees of South Canara, Rural small Industries Co-operative Society and District Volley Ball and Hockey Associations as a President and the Mangalore Municipal Council as a member for continuous 11 years and Vice-President for a term and also as the Secretary and Treasurer of the Mangalore Lion's Club and a leading Advocate.

Sri G. Ramachandra Rao, a former Technieal Assistant to the District Scout Commissioner of Kolar and a Gilwellian, passed away at Sidlaghatta on 13—10—1961 at quite a young age. He was the leading and inspiring figure at almost all the service camps, community projects and Rural Service Centres in that District.

Sri B. R. Srinivasa Rao, Swimming Instructor, a founder Member of the Dolphin's Club, Group Leader (Scouts) of the Inland Water Scouts and a popular Social Worker of Bangalore City breathed his last at Bangolore on 16—10—1961. He has been in charge of several Rescue Squads and Life Saving parties at innumerable melas, jathras and fairs all over the country, rescued thousands of drowning persons and taught swimming to a very large number of young boys and girls and to adults as well.

Doddaballapur Scout Camp Hums With Activities

The Central Scout Camp at Dodballapur has been humming with numerous Scout activities by Boy Scouts, Rover Scouts, Girl Guides, and Bulbuls, held for a month and over. The Southern Railways State Association, Bharat Scouts and Guides Madras, conducted a Rover Scout Leaders' Training Course from the 4th to 14th October for Sixteen Railway Workers (Rover Scouts) from different parts of South India. Sri G A. Ambrose, State Organising Commissioner of the Southern Railway Scouts was incharge, assisted by Sri K. M. Swamy, Headquarters Commissioner for Training.

The Krishnananda Scout Group of Malleswaram held a First Class Training Camp from 11th to 14th October, while on the 10th October, 120 Scouts, Cubs, Bulbuls and Guides of the Home School, Basavanagudi, enjoyed a full day's outing there with Sri K Kasinath, Hq Commr. (Cub) incharge.

Dr. V. K. Sundaram, M. C., State Commissioner (Scouts), Sri D. S. Siddaiah, State Scouts Organizing Commissioner, and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, A. S. O. C., Bangalore Division visited these Camps.

The St. Joseph's European High School Scouts had their Annual Camp at the Dodballapur Camping site next week with Mr. Bhatt, Group Leader, incharge of the arrangements.

MANDYA DISTRICT SCOUTERS' CAMP.

42 Scouters from various parts of Mandya District had a brisk preliminary Cub Masters Training Course at the Sri Channe Gowda Sarvajanik Hostel Grounds near Maddur from the 3rd to 9th October 1961. Sri B. B. Sheikh, District Educational Officer, Mandya District, inaugurated the Camps which were under the charge of Sri B. Krishna Murthy, Secretary, of the Mandya District Association and Sri N. Ramaswamy, Assistant District Commissioner. Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa Bangalore Division, steered the Courses.

Sri M. Ananthashankarappa, District Commissioner, Mandya the Presidents of the Mandya and Maddur Muncipal Councils and several others visited the Camp often. Dr. V. K. Sundaram M. C., gave the Valedictory Adress on the Final Day, when Sri K. Kasinath, Hq. Commissioner for Cubs and Sri D. S. Siddaiah, S. O. C. also spoke to the Campers

MADDUR LOCAL ASSOCIATION FORMED

A Local Association of the Bharath Scouts and Guides for Maddur Taluk, Mandya District with Sri M. Srinivasa Setty, Town Municipal Chief as President, was formed at a public meeting held at the Vyakhyana Mantap, Maddur Town, on 4th October 1961. This Association has invited the Mandya District Scouts and Guides Rally to be held at Maddur during February 1962.

SCOUT STALL IN MYSORE

An attractive stall depicting the various activities, aims and objects, growth and development and the Leaders of the Scout and Guide Movement with particular stress on the, Mysore State had been put up at the Dasara Exhibition, Mysore, this year. The Mysore University District with a band of enthusiastic workers was incharge of the arrangements and display of the same.

TUMKUR DISTRICT RALLY

The District Association of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Tumkur has arranged a District wide celebrations of the Scout and Guide Week from 4th to 13th November 1961. Local functions and programmes will be conducted from 4th to 10th and a District Scout and Guide Rally will be held in the Government High School Grounds at Tumkur on the 11th, 12th and 13th November, attended by Representative Contingents from each Taluk of the District.

The Lookout

From the 4th to the 14th September 1961 I was in Madras and there I stayed in the Guest House at the Wenlock Park, Marina, the Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts & Guidesl Madras State. This park is spacious with fine trees and the beach to the east.

What heartened me most was the regular meets of the loca area Cubs, Scouts and Rovers under their Scouters at their own convenient hours in the mornings and evenings of the two Sundays I was there. These met clad in their ordinary clothes (no uniform) and under the several trees in the park. On the week days it was a grand sight to see Patrol Leaders and Rover Mates training their Scouts and Rovers without their Scouters present with them.

This is just the practical way in which Scouting has to be and can be done out-doors. Uniform is only for occasions and Scouters are to be there only when the whole unit meets. Uniform when worn should be clean, complete and correct. A. P. R. O. Part I, Section X, rules 273 to 292 are very clear on this subject.

I wish to reproduce the following extracts from the 'Outlook' by the Chief Scout of the British Isles and the Commonwealth, Sir Charles Maclean, in the 'Scouter' of July 1961.

"There is much which you Scouters do which gives me encouragement. As you know this is reflected in the enthusiasm shown by our boys and I have seen many thousands of enthusiastic Scouts these past few months. BUT I have to condemn some Scouters and Commissioners (it is likely that those I refer to, do not read the 'Outlook') for most slovenly turnout. This I have noticed is more prevalent amongst the "Older" Scouter and Commissioner, you can translate "Older' as you will.

".....Is it too much trouble to turn up in a clean well ironed shirt for a Scouts' Own held in a public place and attended by Civic dignitaries and other members of the public ? I am certain some Scouters and Commissioners have never faced themselves in a mirror when wearing a beret. I have said time and again "Example is the best form of leadership" and that we adults can so easily let our boys down. Please go to it. I make no apology for bringing up, yet again, this matter of dress."

I need not state here that I agree with the above remarks by the Chief Scout. I have been of this strong belief ever and I have stressed this aspect at all training camps and other meets with Scouters. A Scouter's clean, complete and correct Uniform does not show off so much his being proud of the same but his discipline and example to the boys he trains.

On 23—9—'61 at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballpur, when I inaugurated a camp of 240 Guides and Scouts of one of the leading private institutions in Bangalore City, I was very much pleased and impressed with their smart turnout and discipline. All credit should go to the enthusiastic and willing adult workers in charge of this fine lot of girls and boys. I wish them God's blessings and best wishes for continued 'Good Hunting.'

CAMPING AT PACHMARHI

By

Bienda Doveton

The First Himalaya Wood Badge Guiders Training held from the first to tenth June 1961 at our National Training Centre, Pachmarhi, was well attended by Guiders from all parts of India including Assam. They all came to live together, to work hard and share all the fun that goes with camp life.

From Bangalore there were five of us who attended the Training. We had a three day journey. We spent a morning in Madras while waiting for a train connection, so we went to the beach and paddled and watched the fishermen bringing in their boats. There was a real holiday spirit about us. The journey was a bit tedious because of the heat and long delays, but travelling in a group made it easier.

Pachmarhi at last !! The Baden Powell Guide Bhawan turned out to be more than we expected, a beautiful situation —the ideal spot for camping—lovely rooms with baths attached and Dunlop pillow mattresses ! But above all a warm welcome from our Trainers. We arrived a day early; so had lots of time to get settled before our training started.

Next morning Rising whistle at 5-30. Our work had begun. Our programme was made most interesting and we enjoyed every minute of it, but we had to work really hard. Tent pitching, clearing and cleaning; I cannot say that every day followed a pattern—it certainly did not. Mrs. Mohini and Mrs. Banerjee were always full of surprises. When we went to bed at nights we were not sure whether it really was the end of the day for us or not. Just for an instance; one night after we were in bed each Patrol got letters to say we had to follow a map before six o'clock the next morning and to be careful because we would be going through enemy territory. We had to reach our destination, cook our own breakfast and return home as soon as possible. These letters caused great excitement and preparations were begun immediately. The next day each Patrol found itself at some beautiful sightseeing spot at Pachmarhi — it was not the correct spot ! !

Mosquitoes ! who said they kept them awake last night ? Immediate action was taken and the army was brought into spray the Bhawan.

The water tanks outside ; "Ah ! they must be emptied" said the authorities, so what happens after tea — the Trainers decide that rings must have been lost in the tanks and we were divided into two teams to drain the tanks and find the rings ! ! What a bedraggled set of Guiders at the end of a couple of hours — but what of the reward — no rings, but lovely juicy mangoes for everyone.

On the notice board one morning was written: "Revision work." If we thought we were going to sit quietly and go through all we had learned we were mistaken. Off we were sent in pairs to follow a compass direction, at the end of which we found a box with some food and a letter in it. "Build a Shelter," it read, "put up a swing, cook your food without using any utensils, then follow the map provided and see what further instructions there are, but remember you are being watched by spies." We did what we had to do crawling around, hiding, then followed our map and found that a little girl "Dolly" had climbed a tree and we had to rescue her. This we did, but some of the Guiders never turned up as they had used their saris to build their shelter, so could not leave the spot, but then what are shelters built for, if not to shelter those who need it ! Now we all had to go in for the reports from our spies.

Two Hindi speaking spies had been watching a Guider from Bangalore and one from Madras—these two were speaking Tamil. So in the report the spies said that they did not know what was going on as the people they were watching were speaking a foreign language !

So the days passed, each filled with so many incidents that it would take volumes to write about. We emptied tanks, climbed mountains, built shelters, cleared camp fire sites, built steps, followed trails and cooked our food. One night we invited some Rovers to dinner, each Patrol cooking for a Rover Patrol.

Each day ended with a camp fire which everyone looked forward to. The Editors of the camp read their daily news at the camp fire — this always caused such laughter. New songs were learned and old ones sung.

Days flew — there was not enough time to do all we wanted to do, then to our amazement it was the last day of camp.

Closing ceremony, and the Flag brought down on a very succesful Training. Farewells made and time to start on our homeward journeys. We left behind wonderful memories, lots of old friends and new. Some will go back to finish their training—some had finished, but its not the end for anyone, we go back to our homes all over India to put into practice what we have learned. We thank our Trainers for all they taught us and for the "Thought for the day" on our last day at camp, for it said :—

"Have care for the conventions. Even in your merriest time remember that we carry the name of our good Sisterhood "Upon our foreheads" and speak it with every action. Let us be sure that our Sisterhood is held in respect by those who see us in our work and in our play. Let us win their sympathy and support rather than their criticism....."

ROVER SCOUTS AND FLOOD RELIEF
THE NEED OF THE DAY

By

Sri H. R. Abdul Majeed, M. A., D. C. C.,
Headquarters Commissioner for Rovering,
Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State.

The extent and nature of damage caused by the recent continuous and unprecedented down-pour of rains throughout the country is heart rending. Our own State "Greater Mysore" is no exception to it. It is really sad to hear that hundreds of lives have been lost and damage to the extent of several crores of rupees to live stock, crops and property has been done.

Rover Scouts who stand for "Open air" and "Service" may now come forward in large numbers and render voluntary service to the country and thus help the Government and the people in re-construction work. There are, I dare say, a hundred ways of helping the people now in distress.

In the first place, Rover Scouts can keep in close touch with the local bodies and Governmental authorities and render valuable assistance in the collection of funds to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund, collection and distribution of food grains and clothes in the flood affected areas and the re-habilitation of the flood victims. Very effectively they can offer a helping hand in constructing temporary sheds, huts, cottages and houses for the victims. This of course has to be done in collaboration with the Village Workers and the town folks. Non-professional youngmen that Rover Scouts are, they can have the assistance of technical craftsmen. In earlier years they have rendered voluntary service in Shramadan and Community Project work Camps in laying roads, constructing culverts, soak pits, latrines and school buildings in villages. They can now help the people in constructing Model Villages with modern amenities under the direct supervision and control of the Block Development Officers and Tahsildars wherever necessary.

Needless it is for me to say that the hour is ripe and most dramatic for Rovers to drive home into the minds and hearts of the villagers the ideas of self-help, mutual co-operation and doing their best in times of crises. The starting of Open Village Crews that can stand by their brethern at this hour of need is indeed the best way to point out the role that Scouting plays in the educational set up of the present day.

I appeal to the Government of Mysore to tap this source of voluntary movement and get the required manual and intelligent labour from the student community which forms the bulk of our Movement. I also appeal to the leaders of rank to come forward with their ideas, to implement effectively the scheme to raise further funds, collect and distribute food and clothing in the flood affected areas and in the construction of huts, cottages and temporary sheds to the unfortunate lot who have been rendered homeless. The various organisations of Sevadals, the B. S. S., the St. John Ambulance Association, the Y. M. C. A. etc., may join together with the Rover Section of the Bharat Scouts and Guides to achieve this object.

The State Headquarters may raise the Chief Commissioner's Fund as an adjunct to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund, which is most urgent and immediate.

It is incumbent on the part of each District Commissioner, Scout and Guide, in the State to take the initiative and render positive help in a most useful and effective manner.

Rovering is not intended to make man a self-satisfied prig or a meloncholic saint but to help him to direct his gayest youthful energy into paths which will bring him greater happiness through living a life that is worth-while in its service to others. What could be greater and more urgent than rendering service to their unfortunate brothern at this part of the Day?

A RALLY OF BHARAT SCOUTS AND GUIDES

Shri D. P. Joshi, National Organising Commissioner and Ag. Camp Chief (Scouts), has sent a circular regarding the proposed Rally of Bharat Scouts and Bharat Guides to be held at Delhi for three days 27th, 28th & 29th of November, and the Patron of the Association is being approached with a request to present the certificates and badges to the qualified Scouts and Guides.

As this will be the first time when certificates and badges will be presented at a public rally, District/Local Associations are requested to make a special effort to train and have more Scouts and Guides qualified for the Bharat Scout and Bharat Guide Badges. Application forms can be had from the State Headquarters which would be returned duly completed before 30th September 1961. The District/Local Associations are also requested to advise the State Headquarters the number of duly and properly qualified Bharat Scouts and Bharat Guides in their areas.

How Scouting and Guiding can be made more effective

By Sri R. G. K. IYENGAR

A Separate Department called a Research Bureau or Development Department may be instituted at the Scout Headquarters or better still one at thc district level to observe keenly and to remedy them then and there, whether the strength seems to fall or the standard seems to fall. This is suggested because the present organisation with its multifarious duties may not be able to observe keenly the fall in the strength nor the deterioration in the standards. While it is a fact that fresh members of all ranks right from Cubs, and Bulbuls to Scouters and Guiders, the number of Scouts, Guides, Scouters and Guiders has not been that much that it ought to be; equally so with efficiency and standard. The duties of the Depart ment will have to be to see that both the strength and standard are maintained.

As every new year comes in, the strength must keep on increasing. It may be found so between a particular period that we may find from figures got or manipulated that we see that our number has increased or is increasing; but that is no matter for satisfaction. It must be so at any time that we look at the rolls. This can only be done by carefully seeing to it, that a boy or a girl, a man or a woman when once brought into the fold of Scouting or Guiding shall not drop off. The reasons may be varied. It shall be the function of the suggested department to find out the reason and see that it does everything that it can to retain every individual who is once registered, unless it be for reasons of health or insanity, which I am sure will not be there if Scouting should be functioning well. When I say that one must be retained it is not a mere utopian hope that it can be done somehow. It can be done only by so much of effort and fore sight & the programme must have to be attractive and competent enough to sustain the interest of our youth; the N. C. C. and A. C. C. with their colourful uniform, like physical tip-top and drill, promotion in position, parades and march pasts; and the Sevadal, with its Social Service camps. No doubt by themselves none of these Youth Organisations is complete in itself. Scouting is a character training Organisation with a planned s c h e m e and a fine goal coined by a masterly brain. In the working of it, it seems to have lost its spirit and retained only the form. It should be revived by activisation and adaptation to correct m e t h o ds. Units must be k e p t with the polished buttons of a soldier and good p r o g r a m m e s. If still there is a tendency of drifting, remedy suited to indivi-dual cases should be administered.

To maintain standards, the training of Scouters and Guiders should become a matter of more serious concern. Right type of people who would come out voluntarily to train themselves up alone should be trained. They should be allowed to introspect themselves whether sincerely they mean what they would like to do as Scouters and Guiders several times while they are under training. At the end of the Training Course they should feel and dedicatc themselves for promoting the cause of Scouting under any circumstances. With the convenient Evening Courses of training, the required efficiency cannot be and will not be achieved. It should be a full-fledged training at a regular camp for the purpose with enough equipment and under proper personnel. Before the trainee is passed and proclaimed to have been trained, the person in charge should sincerely feel convinced that the trainees have been sufficiently inspired with the spirit of Scouting, that they are capable of taking charge of and children are able to give them the required training in Scout Craft. They should be instilled with the right spirit, and correct methods with which to work the units and not to hood-wink in the name of Scouting. It shall be the business of the Special Department to see whether this kind of training is afforded and if not it should see that half baked training shall not be given as it would be rather far better if no training is given at all.

It will also have to be one of the important duties through its agencies, to see if the Units are working properly, or if there are any defects or difficulties in the working. If any such thing is found, it should afford guidance or secure assistance and see that efficient and steady work goes on. No room for stagnation of children nor room for damping their enthusiasm.

Wherever Scouters or Guiders are found to be working honestly, sincerely, and efficiently, right kind of appreciation at the right time must be shown and they kept further charged with spirit to carry further the training of Scouting; and where ever slackness is found they should be treated as chronic patients are treated and restored to health.

In order to secure the above, the Local Associations should be re-orientated to be active and see that the Units under it purview are functioning properly. The important and influential people of the locality should be brought into the Local Scout Association. The heads of institutions are the most important gear in the scheme of the working of the units. Their appreciation, co-operation and whole hearted support should be secured duly convincing them of the superiority of Scout Training over the others. It is they that have to set apart and make available the required funds etc. They must also find some important place in the scheme of working of the units. Apart from Annual Grand Rallies and activities at District level, there should have to be quite a number of local events to attract the attention of the public and parents and to sustain interests of the units themselves.

To educate the public at large on the great values of Scouting and Guiding and their influence on boys and girls, educative and enlightening articles should be contributed to Local News Papers, rather than they being published in Scout and Guide Magazines which will be read mostly by those who are already convinced of the goods that Scouting and Guiding deliver. There should be occasions enough when common folk along with their children are invited to participate in several of the activities in the Scout and Guide Units or functions.

More than all, the suggested body should help itself at least with the latest development and progress of the Movement in advanced countries and must be able to generate that power that is needed to move the chariot of Scouting in all the 10 directions like the Chariot of Dasharatha which knew no obstacle in any direction it wanted to go, but never wildly and uncontrolled.

QUEEN OPENS NEW CENTRE FOR WORLD'S SCOUTS

Seven - storey Building in London.

A seven-storey building which is to be a social and residential centre for Scouts from all over the world-known as Baden-Powell House, was opened by the Queen in London on July 12.

Referring to the "privilege" of having met Baden-Powell personally, Her Majesty said : "It does not often happen that a man is able to see in his lifetime an idea burgeon from small beginnings to a worldwide movement. I sometimes wonder if, when he took 20 British boys to Brownsea Island (in Southern England) in 1907 to try out his idea of Scouting for boys, Baden-Powell had any conception that within half a century this experiment could become a movement comprising 9,000,000 boys and 5,000,000 girls in 100 countries in different parts of the world."

The Queen said there had been other movements whose object had been to continue into the more self seeking days of peace the comradeship, discipline, and sense of common endeavour which sustained troops in battle. But none of them had achieved quite the same worldwide success as this idea of Baden-Powell's. In a time of increasing competition between nations and individuals, it was encouraging that millions of boys and girls all over the world were learning in this movement to replace self with service, and to use their efficiency for the benefit of the community, she declared.

"Enduring" Memorial to Baden-Powell.

The Royal family, the Queen said, had been interested in and associated with the movement since its earliest beginnings. "Only yesterday (July 11) my daughter was enrolled as a Girl Guide."

Baden-Powell had gone but, said the Queen, "His movement remains and grows, a memorial more enduring than stone or steel".

The Queen then unveiled a memorial plaque before touring the building. Earlier, the Duke of Gloucester, President of the Boy Scouts Association, unveiled outside the building a statue of Baden-Powell, a gift from the Scouts of London.

COMMISSIONERS' CONFERENCE

23rd & 24th July 1961

Smt Grace Tucker, Deputy Education Minister and Vice-President of the Bharat Scouts & Guides inaugurated the Girl Guide Commissioners' Conference in Bangalore at the Girl Guide Headquarters at 11 A.M. on Sunday the 23rd July. Commissioners from Coorg, Dharwar, Kolar North, Mysore, Chitradurga, Bangalore North and South and Headquarters Commissioners attended the Conference.

Smt Grace Tucker said that the Movement was the basic foundation for character building among the students. She said that the Bharat Scouts & Guides stood 3rd in the rank of disciplinarians. She asked the Commissioners not to worry about the advent of other youth movements and cautioned them to strengthen the Movement by eliminating the weaknesses that might creep into the movement.

Mrs. Anjanappa, State Commissioner (G), welcoming the Chief Guest said that the purpose of the Conference was to discuss the various problems facing the movement and to draw the programme for the ensuing year. She said that every Guide and Guider should help locally and nationally by buying Prize Bonds and Saving Certificates at least one a year.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner, spoke and Mrs. P. C. Reddy, Asst. State Commissioner (G) proposed a vote of thanks.

After the inaugural function the Commissioners sat down to thrash out their problems. The two day's conference was indeed a very fruitful one when all the Commissioners brought forth their difficulties and got solutions from the State Commissioner. Guiding being a game, the Commissioners would not all the time sit down and talk. They had Cames sing-song and lovely camping and such nice lunches, teas and dinners.

This was indeed a successful Conference.

"Example is the best form of Leadership."

A PROUD RECORD

To have been responsible for the founding of four Open Units and what is more, for the successful and efficient working of it, is really a great achievement indeed. Chamundis and Jayas of Bangalore and Mysore respectively are old units of over 30 years standing, while Krishnananda and Hanumans at Bangalore and Tumkur have put in about half the service of their sister units. The credit for the existance of these units go to our Popular Scouter Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao, A.D.C.C.,› Tumkur, who in his unassuming manner has inspired a bunch of Scouts with true Scout spirit with the result hundreds of youths have had the benefit of Scout training and are spread throughout India occupyiug varied positions e.g., Teachers, Lawyers, Judges, Officers in the Army, Doctors, Journalists, Businessmen etc.,

It was on 28th May 1961 that the Scouts and Scouters of all these four units assembled in large numbers at Ladies' Association, Malleswaram, to celebrate the 60th birthday of Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao in a most fitting manner. After blessings by the Pundits in true Indian fashion, a crowded assembly of old Scouts and Scouters from various areas, Commissioners from State Headquarters, the elite of Bangalore and Malleswaram in particular, gathered to pay tributes to the good work done by Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, B.A.,LL.B., State Chief Commissioner, presided on the occasion. Sri S. A. Srinivasan, the President of Chamundi's introduced the President. Dr. V. K. Sundaram, M. C., D.C.C., State Commissioner (Scouts) also spoke of the good work done by Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao while several old scouts narrated their experiences of the good training they had received under their revered leader Sri M.H. Ramachandra Rao.

A large portrait of Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao was unveiled by our State Chief Commissioner, amidst thunderous applause.

A purse of over Rs. 2,000/-was presented to Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao on the occasion, the contribution being both from present and past scouts of all the four groups as well as members of the general public. An attractive Souvenir was also brought out on the occasion. Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao has worked in the Movement in several capacities. He is also the author of many books in kannada on Scouting. May he and his spouse live a long and happy life and give more and more encouragement to the youth of our State is our earnest wish.

Well done, M.H.R. ! keep on keeping-on. God bless you

The Secretaries and A. D. Cs met on 25th June and discussed the year's programme. The Scout and Guide week Committee consituted at this meeting met on 12th July and worked out the details of this year's celebrations. The D. A. Executive met on 30th July 1961.

Camps and Felicitations : — A number of our units have camped out during this period. Four Rovers of the S.K.T.I. were guided to successfully carry through a Ramble of over 500 miles on cycles during the summer holidays in the Bangalore, Mandya, Mysore, Coorg, South Canara, Hassan, and Tumkur Districts. 5 members of the Makkalakoota Group (S) had an All--India Excursion, attended the all--India Children's workers' Conference addressed by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, at Lucknow and with the leadership of Sri D. S. Siddaiah, A. D. C (S), contacted several Scouters' Associations and individuals during April--May 1961.

Visitors:—Sri V. Perumal and Sri Kannimutthu, Rovers of Trichy S. Ry., Association came on cycle rambling to the City and visited the Sevashram, the Free India and other units; narrated their experiences and gave excellant tips on cycle-rambling from 29th June to 2nd July 1961. As Bro. Kannimuthu had to return to Trichy from Bangalore, Rover Scout Seemantharajan escorted Perumal upto Mysore, camping at Ramanagaram, Mandya and Srirangapatna enroute and then returned to Bangalore, on 2nd July 1961. A batch of 19 Tibetan Refugees settled at Madras with two lamas were helped by our Scouters and Rovers from 5th to 10th June 1961, during their visit to Bangalore and round abouts.

INAUGURATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SCOUT/GUIDE CLUB, BANGALORE.

Justice Haji Mir Iqbal Hussain inaugurated the International Scout and Guide Club, Bangalore, on Monday the 14th August 1961 at the State Headquarters at 6 P.M.

After a hearty welcome speech by Dr. V. K. Sundaram, State Commissioner (Scouts), Shri B. H. Lingaiah, Convener, explained the need and objects of such a Club and placed a working scheme of the Club before the members present.

The following were unanimously elected as office-bearers of the Club :—

Chairman	Dr. V.K. Sundaram, M.C., D.C.C., S.C. (S)
Vice-Chairman	Sri D.S. Siddaiah, S.O.C. (S)
Secretary	Sri E. Hanumantha Rao,
Associate Secretary	Miss Padma Nair,
Members :	Mrs. Lalitha Krishnaswamy,
	Sri K. Bhima Rao, and Sri H.S. Gajanan Rao.

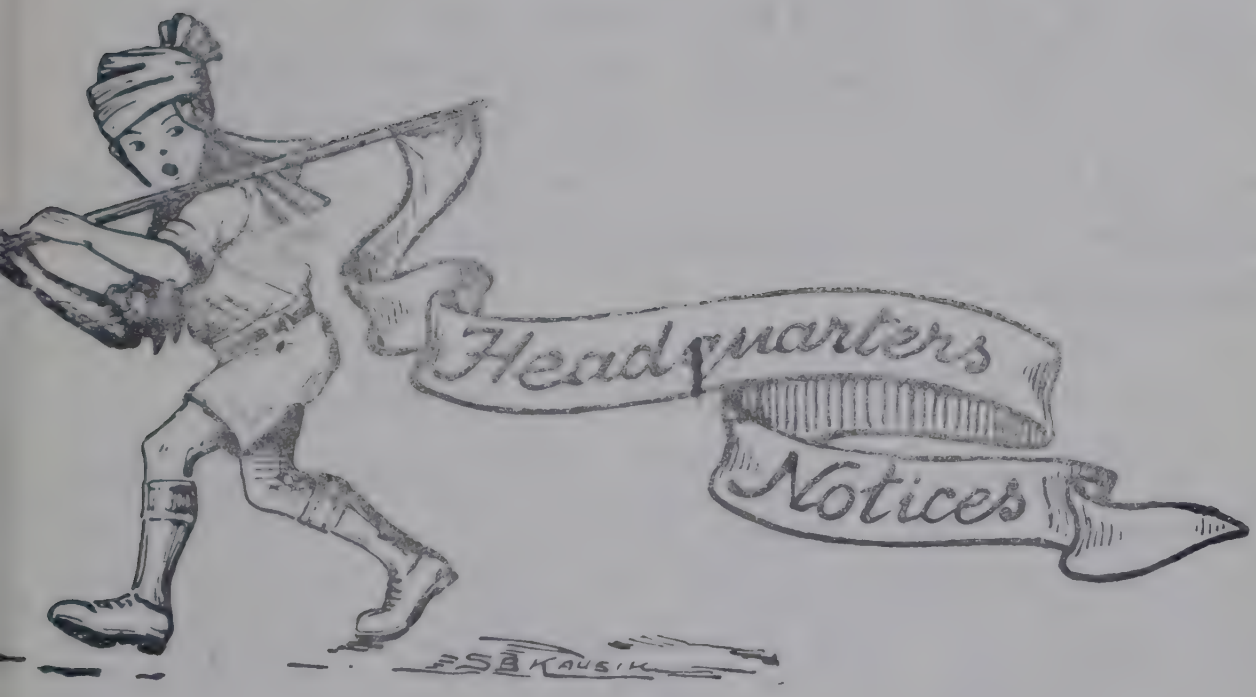
In delivering his inaugural address, Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain said that whenever he attended meetings consisting of youngmen, he always felt that he grew younger and that he felt it a great privilege to be amidst young Scouters. He went on to say that this Club would afford opportunities for coming n intimate contact with people of different countries. The more we travel the wider would be our knowledge and experience. He said that by this we get to know the ways of life, customs and manners of other Nations first-hand and that this study would surely help us to re-shape our lives to be more useful and helpful to others.

He further said that by such contacts, our angularities would be smoothened. Home life would not afford any opportunity of knowing what our angularities are and how they could be mended. We may be good with our home contacts but we are sure to be better with the contact of people of other Nations.

Concluding his address, he said that India is a land of great culture where great Rishis, prophets and teachers lived and that ours is a heritage which has been handed down to us from ages. He opined that we as the inheritors of this great culture, should develop international brotherhood which is a fundamental thing in Scouting and this could be best achieved by the opening of such an International Club. That the spirit of love, the motto of the Father of our Nation, should be inculcated in youngmen and women, was the object which this Club should spread everywhere.

Finally he praised the Organisers for having started this Club and he wished the Club all success.

With a vote of thanks by Sri B. Ananthaiah, D.S.M., and the singing of the National Anthem, the function came to a close.



WOOD BADGE CAMPS DURING DASARA HOLIDAYS 1961

The State Headquarters intends running the II Himalaya Cub Wood Badge and the III Himalaya Rover Wood Badge Course respectively at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur. Sri H.R. Abdul Gaffar, B.A., D.C.C., Ak.L., Headquarters Commissioner for Training, will be in charge of Cubbing and Dr. S.B. Kausik, D.C.C., Ak.L., State Secretary, will be in charge of the Rovering. Scouters who are desirous of attending the Course will send their names through their District Commissioners (S) to the State Headquarters. Further details can be had from eitherthe District Commissioners(S) or the Headquarters Commis-sioner for Training, State Headquarters.

DASARA EXHIBITION

As usual a Scout and Guide Court will be opened at the Dasara Exhibition in Mysore during October 1961. Such of the Units which have good Scout/Guide Craft exhibits, will kindly send them for the exhibition. The Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore, has been approached to permit the heads of all High, Middle and N.T.M. Schools in the State to utilise a sum of Rs. 10/- out of the Sports funds of the school for the preparation and transmission of exhibits to be placed in the Scout and Guide Court at the ensuing Dasara-Exhibition. Further particulars may be had from the State Headquarters.

REGISTRATION OF UNITS

It is observed that there appears to be some doubt about the payment of the Registration fees. Every unit which has to register for the first time will have to pay Rs. 2/- as Registration Fee. Out of this amount, the Local Association (if any) will keep Re. 1/-, the District Association will keep 0=50 np., and the balance of 0=50 np., will be sent to the State Headquarters. Thereafter annually each unit has to pay Re. 1/- as re-registration fee. Out of this, the Local Association will keep 0=50 np., the District Association will keep 0=25 np., and the balance of 0=25 np., will be sent to the State Headquarters. The District Commissioners (S & G) will see that all remittances are sent to the State Headquarters and the Registration forms through the Divisional Asst. State Commissioners for effecting registrations at the State Headquarters.

The Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore has been pleased to order in his Memo No. PE1. 402-149/58-59 dated 21-6-1958 for the payment of the Registration Fees from out of the 25% of the Annual Sports and Reading Room Funds allotted for Scouting subject to the condition that the total expenditure in a year on Scouting does not exceed the ceiling limit fixed.

Scouters and Guiders will kindly take advantage of this order and see that their Units are registered forthwith with the State Headquarters.

LIBRARY

There is a good Library attached to the State Headquarters. Many useful and rare books on Scouting are treasured. Scouters and Guiders may make use of them between 5 and 7 P.M. on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS.

FLOOD RELIEF WORK

As we are all aware the unexpected floods and heavy rains have played great havoc in many parts of our State, rendered many unfortunate families homeless and caused considerable loss of life also. In order to help these in distress, the Scouts and Guides have organised collection of money, clothes, grains etc. The State Headquarters issued appeals to all the District Associations in the State to set apart one day during the Scout and Guide Week—August 1961—exclusively for the collection of funds for Flood Relief. It is reported that Dharwar District has collected Rs. 1,000/— and remitted Rs. 100/— to the Times of India (Poona Relief) Fund and the balance to the Samyukta Karnataka (Relief) Fund. The Bidar District Association has similarly collected a sum of Rs. 62-33. Reports from other Districts are awaited. Our sincere thanks are due to the District Associations of Dharwar and Bidar for their ready response in assisting in the National and humanitarian cause. WELL DONE, DHARWAR, BIDAR !

Appointment of State Organising Commissioner (S)

Sub: Tentative programme of Trainings to be conducted in different parts of the State, Deputation of teachers to undergo training and treating their periods as "O. O. D."

Ref: Letter No. 182/60-61 dated 14—8—1961 from the State Commissioner (G), Bharat Scouts & Guides, Mysore State.

The State Chief Commissioner (G), Bharat Scouts & Guides has intimated that in accordance with a tentative programme of Training to be conducted in the different parts of the State, it is proposed and felt by the Headquarters to run Guiders and Flock Leaders' Preliminary and Refrerher Courses, in order to raise the standard and efficiency of Guide companies and Flocks and has requested to release the teachers and permission for payment of camp fee out of 25% of the Sports funds of schools.

ORDERS THEREON:

The Deputy Directors of Public Instruction and the District Educational Officers are requested therefore to extend their full co-operation to the organisations' effort and to depute one teacher from High Schools and Middle Schools situated in the District and where the teachers are willing to undergo the Training and attend the course and the camp fee may be permitted to be met out of either the 25% of the current years Sport's fund set apart for Scouting and excursions or from the accumulated Sports funds of the respective schools, provided funds permit and they are informed that their absence should be treated as "O. O. D."

The actual dates of the courses will be intimated to the Deputy Directors/District Educational Officers by the State Commissioner (G) Bharat Scouts and Guides, Bangalore.

The Deputy Directors of Public Instruction are requested to suggest to the Organising Secretary, the name of a centrally situated school in each City where the courses could be conducted.

All further correspondence in the matter may be adressed to :

THE STATE COMMISSIONER (GUIDES)
OR ORGANISING SECRETARY, BHARAT SCOUTS & GUIDES, BANGALORE.

Do it Properly

(From a Commissioner's Note Book)

B.P. says " Scouts have to drill to enable them to be moved quickly from one point to another in good order. Drill also sets them up and makes them smart and quick. '

Putting up an indifferent performance on a ceremonial occasion is not only bad for the reputation of our Movement with the general public, it also deprives our Scouts of the joy which comes from the performance of a job well done.

After all, drill is not, as B. P. told us, the prerogative of the army nor is it a matter of bellowing commands and stamping the feet. Words of command should be no louder than is necessary to achive the required results. Certainly drill can be done without commands, with great fun and good results too.

Drill can, in fact, be just as smart, if not smarter when carried out quickly. A little drill should be included in our programmes. The teaching of drill as of any other subject requires from the instructor knowledge, commonsense, imagination, enthusiasm and understanding of the boys. Let us make sure by practice and rehearsal that every one taking part knows exactly what he has to do and how to do it properly.

ರವೀಂದ್ರರು ೧೯೧೨ರಲ್ಲಿ ಇನ್ನೊಂದುಸಲ ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡಿಗೆ ಹೋದರು. ಅಲ್ಲಿಗೆ ಹೋಗುತ್ತ ತಮ್ಮ ಗೀತೆಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಕೆಲವನ್ನು ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷಿಗೆ ಭಾಷಾಂತರ ಮಾಡಿ ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಅವನ್ನು ಕೆಲ ಮಿತ್ರರಿಗೆ ತೋರಿಸಿದರು. ಆ ಪದ್ಯಗಳೇ ಆಮೇಲೆ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷಿನಲ್ಲಿ 'ಗೀತಾಂಜಲಿ' ಎಂಬ ಹೆಸರಿನಿಂದ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾದದ್ದು, ಮತ್ತು ಇವರ ಮುಖಾಂತರವೇ ಅದೇ ವರ್ಷ 'ಬಾಲಿಕಾ' ಎಂಬ ಗ್ರಂಥವೂ ೧೯೧೬ರಲ್ಲಿ 'ಫಾಲ್ಗುಣ' ಎಂಬ ಗ್ರಂಥವೂ, ಪ್ರಕಟವಾದುವು. ಮನೆ ಮತ್ತು ಪ್ರಪಂಚ ಎಂಬ ಕಥೆಯೂ ಈ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿಯೇ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾಯಿತು. ನೋಬಲ್ ಪಾರಿತೋಷಕವನ್ನು ಪಡೆಯುವಂಥ ಮಹಿಮೆಯ ಈ ಕವಿವರರನ್ನು ಅನೇಕ ದೇಶಗಳ ಪ್ರಮುಖರು ಬರಮಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಅಪೇಕ್ಷಿಸಿದರು. ಶ್ರೀ ಠಾಕೂರರು ಆಗ ಕೊಂಚಕಾಲದನುಟ್ಟಿಗೆ ಜಪಾನ್ ಮತ್ತು ಅಮೇರಿಕಕ್ಕೆ ಹೋಗಿ ಹಿಂತಿರುಗಿದರು. 'ಪಲತತಾ' ಎಂಬ ಕಾವ್ಯ ಗುಚ್ಛವು ೧೯೧೯ರಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾಯಿತು. ಆ ವರ್ಷದ ಪಂಜಾಬಿನ ಗಲಭೆ, ಅಮೃತಸರದ ಜಾಲಿಯಾನ್ ವಾಲಾಬಾಗ್ ಕೊಲೆ, ಇವುಗಳ ಕಾರಣದಿಂದ ಇವರು ಜುಗುಪ್ಸೆಗೊಂಡು ತಮ್ಮ ಅಸಮರ್ಥಿಯನ್ನು ಸೂಚಿಸುವುದಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಐದು ವರ್ಷದ ಹಿಂದೆ ಬ್ರಿಟಿಷ್ ಸರಕಾರದಿಂದ ಬಂದಿದ್ದ 'ನೈಟ್' ಪದವಿಯನ್ನು ೧೯೧೯ರಲ್ಲಿ ಪರಿತ್ಯಜಿಸಿದರು. ಇವರು ಪ್ರೇಮದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಿದ್ಧಿಯನ್ನು ಪಡೆಯುವುದು ಆಂತರರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಗಳನ್ನು ಎದುರಿಸುವುದು, ಈ ಮನೋಧರ್ಮದಲ್ಲಿ ೧೯೧೯--೨೦-೨೧ ವರ್ಷಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡಿಗೆ ಹೋಗಿ ಅಲ್ಲಿಂದ ಫ್ರಾನ್ಸ್, ಹಾಲೆಂಡ್, ಡೆನ್‌ಮಾರ್ಕ್, ಸ್ವೀಡನ್ ಜರ್ಮನಿ ಮುಂತಾದ ಯೂರೋಪು ದೇಶಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಅಮೇರಿಕದ ಸಂಯುಕ್ತ ಸಂಸ್ಥಾನಗಳ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಉಪನ್ಯಾಸಗಳನ್ನು

ಕೊಟ್ಟು ಎಲ್ಲ ಜನಗಳ ಮನ್ನಣೆಯನ್ನು ಪಡೆದರು. ಈ ಪ್ರಯಾಣದಿಂದ ಹಿಂದಕ್ಕೆ ಬಂದ ಮೇಲೆ ಇವರು ಶಾಂತಿನಿಕೇತನದಲ್ಲಿ ಹಿಂದೆ ಆರಂಭಿಸಿದ್ದ ಶಾಲೆಯನ್ನು ಒಂದು ವಿಶ್ವವಿದ್ಯಾನಿಲಯವನ್ನಾಗಿ ಮಾಡಿ ಅಲ್ಲಿಗೆ ಎಲ್ಲ ದೇಶಗಳ ವಿದ್ವಾಂಸರೂ ಬಂದು ಸಹಾಯ ಮಾಡುವಂತೆ ಏರ್ಪಾಡು ಮಾಡಿದರು. ಈ ವಿಶ್ವವಿದ್ಯಾನಿಲಯಕ್ಕೆ ವಿಶ್ವಭಾರತಿ ಎಂದು ಹೆಸರಿಟ್ಟರು. ೧೯೨೧ನೆಯ ವರ್ಷದ ಅಸಹಕಾರದ ಚಳವಳಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಠಾಕೂರರಿಗೆ ವಿಶ್ವಾಸವಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಈ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಇವರಿಗೂ ಮಹಾತ್ಮಾ ಗಾಂಧೀಯವರಿಗೂ ಕೆಲವು ಚರ್ಚೆಗಳು ನಡೆದವು. ೧೯೦೭ರಲ್ಲಿ ಹೇಗೋ ಹಾಗೆ ಈ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಇವರು ದೇಶೀಯ ರಾಜಕೀಯದಿಂದ ದೂರ ನಿಂತರು. ೧೯೨೨ರಲ್ಲಿ 'ಲಿಪಿವಾ' ಪ್ರಕಟವಾಯಿತು. ೧೯೨೩ರಿಂದ ೨೪ರವರೆಗೆ ವಿಶ್ವಭಾರತೀಯ ಸಂಬಂಧದ ಕೆಲಸ ಮತ್ತು ಹಲವು ವಿಧದ ಇತರ ಬರವಣಿಗೆ ತುಂಬಾ ನಡೆಯಿತು. 'ರಕ್ತಕರವಿ' ಎಂಬ ನಾಟಕವು 'ಪುರವಿ, 'ಮಾಹುವಾ' ಎಂಬ ಕವಿತಾ 'ಗುಚ್ಛ ಅಚ್ಛಾದವು. ಆಮೇಲೆ ಕವಿ ಏಷ್ಯಾ ಖಂಡ ಸಂಸ್ಕೃತಿಯ ಶೋಧನೆಗಾಗಿ ವಿದ್ವಾಂಸರೊಡನೆ ಬಾಲಿ, ಜಾವಾ ದ್ವೀಪಗಳಿಗೆ ಹೋಗಿ ಬಂದರು. ಈ ತರುಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಕವಿವರರು ಚಿತ್ರ ಬರೆಯುವುದರಲ್ಲಿ ತೊಡಗಿದರು. ಯಾರಿಂದಲೂ ಕಲಿಯದೆ ಹಿಂದೆ ಅಭ್ಯಾಸವನ್ನೇ ಮಾಡದೆ ಇವರು ಬರೆದ ಚಿತ್ರಗಳು ಗುಣಗ್ರಾಹಿಗಳಾದ ಚಿತ್ರಾಕಾರರ, ಚಿತ್ರಕರ್ಮ ಪ್ರೇಮಿಗಳ ಮನ್ನಣೆಯನ್ನು ಗಳಿಸಿದುವು.

ಶ್ರೀ ಠಾಕೂರರು ೧೯೪೨ರ ಮೇ ತಿಂಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ತಮ್ಮ ಅಗನೆಯ ವರ್ಷವನ್ನು ಆರಂಭಿಸಿದಾಗ ಅವರ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಚೆನ್ನಾಗಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಆದರೂ ಅವರ ಚಿತ್ತ ಹರ್ಷವಾಗಿಯೇ ಇತ್ತು. ಆಗಿಯೂ ಅನಾರೋಗ್ಯ, ಬಹಳ ಶೀಘ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೆಚ್ಚಿ ದೇಶಕ್ಕೆ ಕೀರ್ತಿಯಾಗಿ, ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಶಿಖರವಾಗಿ ಎಲ್ಲ ದೇಶಗಳ ಸಜ್ಜನರ ಗೌರವಕ್ಕೆ ಪಾತ್ರರಾಗಿರುವ ಠಾಕೂರರು ೧೯೪೧ನೆಯ ಆಗಸ್ಟ್ ೭ನೆಯ ತಾರೀಖಿನ ದಿನ ತಮ್ಮ ಇಹಲೋಕಯಾತ್ರೆಯನ್ನು ಮುಗಿಸಿದರು. ಪರಮಾತ್ಮನು ಇವರ ಆತ್ಮಕ್ಕೆ ಶಾಂತಿಯನ್ನೀಯಲಿ.

Dear Readers,

You need not be reminded that this magazine belongs to you as much or even more than it is to the State Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State. We would much like to have your contributions to make this journal worthwhile. It may be that, so soon after the reopening of schools and colleges, you have not been able to find much time. But please get on with the game and do 'your best' and send to the State Secretary, clearly marked on the cover 'for Mysore Scout and Guide' your articles, news and photos well before the 15th of each month : the articles and news should be type written and in DUPLICATE to avoid delay in publication.

All best wishes for 'good hunting' in 1961-62.

The State Chief Commissioner, Sri. P. Siva Shanker and I ited the District Association at Tumkur on 30—6—61. We o and the State Secretary, Dr. S. B. Kausik visited the strict Associations of Kolar North and Kolar South on the and the 9th of July. The Office bearers, both executive and n-executive, of the associations and the Scouters and Guiders re present at these meetings. Scouts, Guides, Rovers and ngers were also assembled to add colour to the functions ought up during these visits.

The above visits and similar ones to come off in other tricts soon when weather conditions permit, would help the te Headquarters to get first-hand information about the gress of the movement in the districts and the opinions of executive and the lay members for better progress to be ieved.

One of the major causes stressed by all the associations as ng responsible for the slackening in the progress of Scouting the advent of the NCC and the ACC in the Colleges and the gh Schools. Scouting was founded in England in 1908 en many other youth movements were also in the field. fact, the late Lord Baden-Powell did not himself have any idea of starting a separate movement, but gave a scheme of training in citizenship for the use of the Boys' Brigade at the request of Sir William Smith, the Founder of the Brigade and a great friend of B-P. Some how, this scheme got into the hands of other boys and they started experimenting on the various activities and practices mentioned in the scheme, and so the Scout Movement was started really by the boys themselves and B-P was forced to give the scheme a definite shape.

We would, therefore, suggest that better progress of Scouting can be achieved if, i. the District Commissioners and their teams of Assistant District Commissioners could give more time ;

ii. Local Associations with influential and interested public of the places would take over tha financial and administrative responsibilities and leave the training of Scouters and boys to the D. Cs and A. D. Cs ; and iii. Group Committees and Group Councils become more active and look after the progress of Scouting in their own small areas.

Scouting provides training through all the stages and ages, from Cubs to Scouts, from Tenderfoot, Second and first classes to Bharat Scout and Rover Stages and finally to the Scourter ranks. Of great importance to the progress in quality and quantity is the Scouter himself who, by his own example, should help the boys to live according to the 'Promise and Law.'

PUBLICITY and PUBLIC RELATIONS are important to foster and help better progress. The difference between the two has been recently clarified by Mr. John Thurman, the International Camp Chief of Gilwell, London, in the April 1961 issue of the 'Scouter' as follows :-

"I was asked recently if I could explain the difference between publicity and public relations and I was glad to give my views on a subject which interests me because I think the two things are often confused and whilst they have a bearing on each other they are by no means the same. Perhaps the answer I gave to my questioner bears repetition.

Some years ago I took the salute at a march past preceding the St. George's Day Parade in a very large District. It was a fine, cold, Sunday afernoon and about 1,500 Cubs and Scouts, well turned-out with a band in support, marched through the streets of a sizeable town and in the process had to cross a very busy major road. The parade was very well handled: the police were in attendance and everything went smoothly and yet, being realistic, what happened? Hundreds of motorists, out for one of the first fine Sundays of the year, were held up for long periods. Everyone was fully aware that there were hundreds of Scouts in the town and therefore the publicity was first class but there was a large number of people grieved at the thought that they were spending part of a precious afternoon in a traffic block, and therefore the public relations were extremely poor. I thought this at the time and as I left the saluting base and made my way into the service I heard the comments, rude and indeed vulgar, that came out of the open car windows about "so and so Boy Scouts", and my view was confirmed".

The Gilwell Training Course at London invariably comprises of Scouters from more than one nation. Similarly a Wood Badge Course in the National Training Centre, at Pachmarhi takes in Scouters from the various States of the Indian Union. A Wood Badge Course in a State, even when run for that particular State, only collects Scouters from various Districts in the State. All the above Courses are run on the same principles directed by the Camp Chief from the International Training Centre, Gilwell, London, with permissible and reasonable changes in the training programmes to suit local conditions. What do these Courses achieve?

"The Course achieves no mere compromise, no burying of differences, but strengthens our beliefs and sends Scouters away as individuals, loyal to their own country but united in friendship one with the other.

"The Course is over and, perhaps a little sorrowfully, they part company from each other and wend their diverse ways, the same but not quite the same, for they have glimpsed something of the Scout Brotherhood that they never saw before and that they will never forget. They know now that Scouting is no mere educational scheme but a living force that in reality does work if only they will let it".

The above two paragraphs in inverted commas are extract from 'The Gilwell Book' and on the subject 'The Training of Scouters'.

Wood Badge Scouters' Meet

Sri. J. I. Muthiah, Camp Chief, (Scouts), National Headquarters, addressed the Wood Badge Scouters at the Conference Shamiana on the morning of 29—12—1960.

In the course of his talk he pointed out that our training should consist more of practical sessions than theoretical talks. He said it is best that at training camps the Scout-Master talks for about ten minutes and other activities carried out by Assistant Scout-Masters. Thus the work is divided and efficiency promoted. He stressed the point that the best system can possibly be carried out only outdoors. He further added that training camps should not merely be for training boys in proficiency, but also in leadership. He said that it was the duty of the Scouters to see that greater effort is made towards character training and promoting Scout-spirit, for "Boys of today are the leaders of tomorrow". He frankly said that there has been a weakening in following the Scout Law, particularly the first prineiple of the Law. He added that the Scout Movement is different from other youth Movements.

Charts and other visual aids should be made use of. He cited for instance that tests should be coupled with intelligence for example, lighting of fire at the height of 10 feet, sending invitation to the Scout-master in natural material, etc. He urged an increased use of the Patrol System.

In regard to the training of cubs he said that it should include the following points, namely, observation, imagination, emotion, etc. He laid emphasis on the use of our own ancient literature, that is, the Mahabharatha and the Ramayana and not strictly to adhere to the Mowgli stories only. He concluded the talk by giving practical demonstrations of three games.

Lady Baden-Powell, the Chief Guide, who is also a member of the First Gilwell Part Group made a brief spcech by expressing her appreciation of the Third All India Jamboree and said that it was a colossal success. She sang "Back to Gilwel, happy land,....." and said that Wood Badge Scouters are the exponents par excellence of Scouting and that their training was complete and perfect. In conclusion, she said that many men Scouters, trained in noble principles and true to the spirit of Gilwell, have congregated at the Gilwell Reunions every year.

The Chief Guide's Letter

THINKING DAY AT PACHMARHI

"I Must tell you about the very lovely and wonderful and stirring time I had on Thinking Day this year in India with a splendid group of those fine Bharat Scouters and Guiders, Rangers and Rovers, and having the extreme pleasure of opening their newly-built 'BADEN - POWELL GUIDE BHAVAN' (Hindi for 'House').

We went by road from Nagpur, having had a good two days with Guides and Scouts there, including a visit to a very fine School for the Blind, where the Scouts played their Band for us and showed us their skill in weaving.

Then we drove through about 180 miles of beautiful country called 'Jungle', though to me it was more like our African 'Bush' open spaces like a glorious park, with big trees, and later some marvellous rocky hillsides and deep ravines running sheer down bed dry just then at the bottom.

We found a jolly little bunch of Guides and Scouts awaiting us at Chindwara, a 'half-way-house' call for lunch ; and then found ourselves climbing up into a cool climate, for Pachmarhi is about 3,000 feet above sea level.

And then first thing on THINKING DAY we went to the Camp where about 40 Rangers and 40 Rovers assembled in a circle to start the great THINK from here, catching it as it came across the sea from New Zealand and Australia and speeding it on its way to Europe.

A Guide read a prayer for the Christians and a Hindu and a Sikh and a Moslem followed. Then we all thought quietly to our-selves for the rest of the world. It was so beautiful, all of us standing there surrounded by lovely trees, the birds twittering, the sun blazing down from a cloudless sky, and there, high on the hill, was our GUIDE HOUSE, waiting for me to come and open it in in the afternoon.

People came in from the surrounding district to share in this festive occasion ; for though the splendid property of over 50 acres has been owned by the Bharat Scouts and Guides for over four years, the money necessary for getting the building finished had not been forthcoming until now, and even now it is not quite all completed.

The only misfortune was that the van, bringing all the furnishings from Delhi, had not arrived, and so the house was an empty shell. But no, not empty, for already it was full of charm and niceness, well-built, well-planned, roomy and airy, with wide verandahs stretching from end to end, bedrooms for twos and eights, and spacious dining-and sitting-rooms.

That then is our house, and out through its windows you see a great expanse of parkland and in the distance some tree-clad hills, fairly high, though not quite up to MOUNTAIN size.

With Dr. Kunzru (India's National Commissioner and Chairman), Mrs. Lakshmi Mazumdar (Chief Commissioner-Guides), and Mr. Madan Mohan (Scout Chief Commissioner) supporting' me,and I had donned an Indian sari for this great occasion,I did the opening of the House and talked as, of course, I always do ; and then we ended the day with a SUPER camp fire, cheery, jolly dances and singing, ending with the flags of all nations assembled round a well laid out 'Camp-Fire Circle'.

There are also two other buildings going up, for the staff and 'Administration', which can then also be used as indoor camps during the rainy season.

And all round the hillside is this wide camping-site, whe separate groups can camp on their own in the best way, almo out of sight of each other. Some day, when funds are availab it is hoped to build some shelters and a swimming-pool.

This all belongs to the Bharat Scouts and Guides of Ind but it can, and I hope it will, be the meeting-place for all t countries in this part of the world : a super Guide/Scout Hou and Camp Ground now opening its doors and its land for oth countries to come to, as well as for the training of Indi own Scouts and Guides and their gallant leaders.

The Chief Guide's Talk.-1

" ... ! to see the Queen"

At Amritsar, on Christmas morning, I started my first journey in India since my last visit there in 1937, locked into our 'Reserved' carriage, meant to hold four people. At each station the platform was crowded with hundreds of would-be passengers, glaring and glowering, until at last, the door had to be opened, and eleven more passengers, complete with bundles of possessions of varied kinds, thrust themselves inside. No, that was not the most restful of journeys but I would not have missed it for anything, for one saw such love being shown for their kith and kin by those humble, uneducated people, and they were so enjoying their outing to Delhi to see the Queen.

Two National Jamborees visited in the space of three days, and nearly two thousand miles apart ! What would our grand-parents have thought, and what would our Founder have thought, too, for we go so fast and deal with such stirring events and big numbers these days. This Bangalore Jamboree was to me a very unique experience in that it was for Guides as well as for Scouts ! I do not know how far it is generally known that our Movement in India known as the 'Bharat Scouts and Guides' functions to a certain degree as a 'joint' organisation.

Ever since Scouting and Guiding began, in nearly every country the two 'branches' have been run entirely separately and 'on their own'. It has always been agreed the Founder's ideas were right and that Scouting was 'man-making', and that the Guide training should primarily develop the highest womanly qualities so needed by the wife, help-mate, home-maker and mother-to-be qualities of character for women being quite different from those needed by men. In the course of time, through making this call for their services, and being run entirely by women, Guiding has helped to enhance the status of women, and more especially is the case in countries where less than a century ago women did not come out into world affairs and give their's to their fellow beings as they do now.

In some quarters this plan that came into being with India's 'Independence' in 1947 was felt to hold the danger that the Boy Scouts would 'rule the roost', and the Guides would hold the second place. These fears are ungrounded. Nothing could be further from the case !

When the 'Bharat Scout Movement', using that very old historical name for India, was inaugurated, the Guides of those days could not possibly have continued and maintained themselves on their own. It was in order to gain a legal position in the new India, and even to continue to exist as an organisation, that it was deemed right and advisable to join hands with the 'Brother Movement' in the matter of top level organisation, to share the funds, Headquarters offices and Training Centres, and to present a combined front to the Government and Education Authorities, who from the first have given the Movement their wholehearted support.

THE SCOUT AND GUIDE JAMBOREE AT BANGALORE.

The Jamboree at Bangalore was an outstanding example of how this co-operation is successful. It was indeed a magnificent show, with 12000 'campers', 3,000 of which were Guides all in well spaced camp sites, nicely laid out and well administered. Patrol cooking, Scout activities going on all the time, gadget making, building of archways and 'camp gardens', spectacular displays and fine parades and stirring gatherings, thrilling Camp Fires and enthusiasm galore. It was so gay, so full of vigour, so cheerful and so cheering.

The Scouts and Guides had their camps in separate parts of the grounds, only meeting on one or two ceremonial occasions. Contingents came from every part of that vast sub-continent, formed from every language group, and taking long, tedious journeys in order to be there. Those from Assam, for instance, took nine days in the train each way ! Sometimes people question the wisdom and the 'worth whileness' of Jamborees and similar gatherings. But 'seeing is believing', and I, for one, believe that they are worth it every time and each has its own value in its own way. These National Jamborees in India bring the Indian Scouts to know about their huge, complex country, and to understand how they can help to work for it.

A NEW ROLE for my WORLD BADGE !...

I have spoken already of how well the Bharat Scouts and Guides are supported and encouraged by those in high places, and among other ceremonies at Bangalore it was arranged that His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore should be 'invested' as the State Scout Patron. This great man, who relinquished his royal standing when his territory was taken over by the Central Government, still has a unique position as the beloved leader of his people and as the chosen Governor, and still lives in his magnificent palace.

It was a great and solemn occasion and, as so often happens, a small hitch occurred, awkward at the time but amusing afterwards. All the Camp Chiefs and Jamboree staff stood in rows, awed and silent, in the Audience Chamber, while Dr. Kunzru hung the riband round the neck, his Assistant standing alongside holding the small Scout Badge to be pinned upon his robe. And then the pin stuck ! Nobody could unfasten it as everyone stood anxiously watching and waiting and yet not daring to move. But I could not bear it for long and, snatching my World Badge off my tie, pushed it to Dr. Kunzru's hand and the Maharajah was enrolled with that !

My time was far too short everywhere and, hurrying away from the Jamboree, I peeped quickly into the States of Kerala and Madras and my first 'Rally' of 1961 was with an enchanting wee Company of Guides and a Flock of Bulbuls in the garden of their Commissioner in the Nilgiri Hills."

International Character of Scouting.

The late Mr. Gerald Fernando, one of the Field Commissioners up the Far East for the Boy Scouts International Bureau in his yarn at a rally of Rovers and Scouters in Don Bosco's School in George Town, Madras, on 9—8—60 touched upon the international character of Scouting by narrating the following anecdote :—

He said that when he went to Japan earlier in the year he was told by the heads of the Boy Scouts Association of Japan that they were planning to erect the statue of a Japanese Scout and an American Scout shaking hands together on a huge column in the centre of an important traffic square in Tokio.

The story behind this was said to be that during the second world war a certain Japanese force defeated an American unit, that the Commander of that Japanese force asked one of his soldiers to return to the battle-field and kill all the wounded enemies by bayonetting them and also to thrust his rifle bayonet once into the body of even a dead American soldier, that this Japanese soldier was carrying out the orders to the very letter and that when he reached a particular American wounded and unconscious, he did not do so; instead he wrote in Japanese script a note to the effect that when he was about to pierce his rifle bayonet into this American soldier he saw a Scout badge on the shirt pocket and that he himself being a Japanese Scout he did not kill him.

Mr. Fernando went on to say that this particular American soldier later on found this note in the shirt, got the note translated and reported to the Headquarters, Boy Scouts of America.

The Boy Scouts of America sent a huge sum of money to the Headquarters of the Boy Scouts of Japan to use it in a befitting manner to commemorate the good deed done by the Japanese Scout who had not given his name and particulars in that note.

2. Olave Lady Baden Powell has said in 'The Chief Guide's Talk-I' published in the May 1961 issue of 'The GUIDER':

".....plans necessitated a hurried rush to the South of India to attend another National Jamboree of the Bharat Scouts and Guides at Bangalore and I spent the queerest of hours on Christmas Day. The original plan of driving to Delhi by road was cancelled and a compartment on the train from Amritsar was 'Reserved'. Crossing the frontier from Pakistan into India through armed guards and barbed wire was a formidable business. But, as can and does, happen at other times and at other places, the spirit of Guide friendship prevailed even when faced by officialdom and barriers. After looking coldly at each other from across the border-line for a few fleeting moments the Pakistan and the Indian Guide/Scout Chiefs who had come to welcome me at the frontier were defying regulations and making plans for the holding of a combined Camp one day before long".

Well ! These two instances are good enough to illustrate the dominance of the international character of the Movement even in the most odd circumstances.

(೩) ಒಬ್ಬ ಮುರಿಗಿಂತ ಹೆಚ್ಚುಮಂದಿಗೆ ಎರಡನೆ ತಾರೆ ನೀಡಬೇಕಾಗಿದ್ದರೆ, ವೃತ್ತದ ಭಾಗವಾಗಿ ಅವರೆಲ್ಲರನ್ನೂ ಒಂದೇಕಡೆ, ಅವರವರ ಎತ್ತರಗಳನ್ನು ಲಕ್ಷಿಸದೆ, ಅಕೇಲರ ಎದುರಿಗೆ ನಿಲ್ಲಿಸಿರಬೇಕು.

(೪) ಆ ಮುರಿಗಳನ್ನು ವೈಹಾಳಿವೃತ್ತದಿಂದ ಮುಂದೆಬಂದು ತನ್ನೆದುರಿಗೆ ನಿಲ್ಲಲು ಅಕೇಲ ತಿಳಿಸಬೇಕು.

(೫) ಎರಡು ತಾರೆಗಳ ಅರ್ಥಸಂಕೇತವನ್ನು ಸೂಕ್ಷ್ಮವಾಗಿ ಹಿಂಡಿಗೆ ಅಕೇಲ ಹೇಳಿ ಈ ಮರಿಗಳು ಆಗ ಪರಿಪೂರ್ಣಶಾಬಕ (ಮಿ) ಗಳಾಗಿದ್ದಾರೆ ಎಂದೂ ಹೇಳುವರು.

(೬) ಈ ಸಂದರ್ಭದ ಮಹತ್ವವನ್ನು ಮನಗಾಣಿಸಲು ಅಕೇಲ, ಒಬ್ಬೊಬ್ಬ ಮರಿಯನ್ನು ಮರಿಗಳ ಭಾಷೆಯನ್ನು ಪುನರುಚ್ಚರಿಸಲು ತಯಾರಿದ್ದಾನೆಯೇ ಎಂದು ಕೇಳಬೇಕು. ಹಿಂಡನ್ನು 'ಹುಷಾರ್' ಆಗಿ ನಿಲ್ಲಿಸಿದ ಮೇಲೆ, ಪ್ರತಿ ಮರಿಯೂ ಒಂದು ಹೆಜ್ಜೆ ಮುಂದೆಬಂದು, ಅಕೇಲರು ಹೇಳುವುದನ್ನು ಅನುಸರಿಸಿ, ಮರಿಗಳ ಪ್ರತಿಜ್ಞೆಯನ್ನು ಬಿಡಿಬಿಡಿಯಾಗಿ ಹೇಳಬೇಕು.

(ಸೂಚನೆ: "ಎಂದು ಭಾಷೆ ಕೊಟ್ಟಿದ್ದೇನೆ"—ಎಂಬುದಾಗಿ ಹೇಳಕೂಡದು. "ಎಂದು ಭಾಷೆ ಕೊಡುತ್ತೇನೆ" ಎಂದೇ ಹೇಳಬೇಕು.) ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾದಮೇಲೆ ಅಕೇಲ ಮರಿಗೆ ಆತನ ಟೋಪಿಯನ್ನು ಕೊಡುವರು. ತಾನಾಗಿಯೇ ಮರಿ ತನ್ನ ಟೋಪಿಯನ್ನು ಧರಿಸಬೇಕು.

(೭) ಮರಿಗಳೆಲ್ಲರ ವಿಧಿ ಮುಗಿದಮೇಲೆ, ಅಕೇಲ ಅವರಿಗೆ ಶಹಭಾಸಗಿರಿ ಹೇಳಿ, ವೃತ್ತದಲ್ಲಿನ ತಮ್ಮ ಜಾಗಕ್ಕೆ ಹೋಗಲು ಹೇಳುವರು. ಈ ಮುಂಚೆ ತಾವಿದ್ದು ಈಗ ಖಾಲಿಯಾಗಿರುವ ಜಾಗಕ್ಕೆ ಮರಿಗಳು ಹಿಂದಿರುಗಿ ಸೇರುವರು. (ತಮ್ಮ ತಮ್ಮ ಷಟ್ಕಗಳಿಗಲ್ಲ; ಸಮಾರಂಭ ಒಂದೇ ಮರಿಯದಾಗಿದ್ದರೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ಆತನು ಆಗ ತನ್ನ ಷಟ್ಕಕ್ಕೆ ಹೋಗಿ ಸೇರಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬಹುದು.)

(೮) ವೃತ್ತವು ಪೂರ್ಣವಾದ ಬಳಿಕ, ಎರಡು ತಾರೆಯ ಮರಿಗಳ ಗೌರವಾರ್ಥವಾಗಿ ಹಿಂಡು ಘನಗರ್ಜನೆ ಮಾಡುವುದು. "ನೀವ್ ಸಾ-ಧಿ-ಸಿ" ಎನ್ನುವುದನ್ನು ಎರಡು ತಾರೆ ಮರಿಗಳೆಲ್ಲ ಒಟ್ಟಾಗಿ ಕೂಗುವರು.

(೯) ಹಿಂಡು ಬರಖಾಸ್ತ್ (ಡಿಸ್‌ಮಿಸ್) ಆಗುವುದು.

ರವೀಂದ್ರನಾಥ ಠಾಕೂರರು

(ಸಂಕ್ಷಿಪ್ತ ಜೀವನ ಚರಿತ್ರೆ.:ಬರೆದವರು : ಶ್ರೀ ವಿ. ಶಿವಶರಣಪ್ಪ, ರಾಯಚೂರು)

ರವೀಂದ್ರನಾಥ ಠಾಕೂರರು ವಿಶ್ವಕವಿ. ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯ, ಸಂಗೀತ, ನಾಟಕ ಮುಂತಾದ ಕಲಾ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಅಪಾರ ಕೀರ್ತಿಗಳಿಸಿದವರು. ಅವರು ಕವಿಶ್ರೇಷ್ಠರು. ವಿಶ್ವದೊಂದಿಗೆ ನಿಕಟ ಬಾಂಧವ್ಯವನ್ನು ಇಟ್ಟುಕೊಡು ಋಷಿಗಳಂತೆ ಜೀವನ ನಡೆಸಿದರು. ಅವರ ಕಾವ್ಯ ಪ್ರತಿಭೆಗೆ ನೋಬಲ್ ಪಾರಿತೋಷಕವನ್ನು ನೀಡಿ ವಿಶ್ವವೇ ಅವರನ್ನು ಗೌರವಿಸಿತು.

ರವೀಂದ್ರರು "ವಿಶ್ವದ ಜನಾಂಗಗಳೆಲ್ಲ ಒಂದು ಕುಟುಂಬ ಎಂಬ ಭಾವನೆಯನ್ನು ಜನತೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮೂಡಿಸಲು ಶ್ರಮಿಸಿದರು. ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಮೂಲೆ ಮೂಲೆಗಳಿಂದ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳನ್ನು ಆಕರ್ಷಿಸಿದ 'ವಿಶ್ವಭಾರತಿ' ವಿದ್ಯಾ ಪೀಠವನ್ನು ಸೃಷ್ಟಿಸಿದ ಮಹಾಶಿಲ್ಪಿ ಎನ್ನಿಸಿಕೊಂಡರು.

ಇತಿಹಾಸದಲ್ಲಿ ಬೆಳಗುವ ಕವಿ ಪುಂಗವರಲ್ಲಿ ರವೀಂದ್ರನಾಥ ಠಾಕೂರರೊಬ್ಬರೆಂಬುದು ಸರ್ವವಿದಿತ. ಅವರು ಸಾವಿರಕ್ಕೂ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಸಂಖ್ಯೆಯ ಕವನಗಳು, ಗೀತೆಗಳು, ಅನೇಕ ಸಣ್ಣ ಸಣ್ಣ ಕತೆಗಳು, ಕಾದಂಬರಿಗಳು, ನಾಟಕಗಳು, ಮತ್ತು ವಿವಿಧ ಪ್ರಬಂಧಗಳನ್ನು ರಚಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಶ್ರೀ ಠಾಕೂರರು ಉತ್ತಮ ಕಲಾವಂತರೂ ಆಗಿದ್ದರು. ಇವರು ಭಾರತದ, ಏಕೆ, ಜಗತ್ತಿನ ವಿಚಾರಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ರಾಜಕೀಯ, ಹಾಗೂ ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ ಸುಧಾರಣೆಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ವಿಶೇಷ ಸೇವೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಿರುವರು. ಇವೆಲ್ಲವನ್ನು ಕುರಿತು ಅವರು ಆಳವಾಗಿ ಯೋಚಿಸಿದುದಲ್ಲದೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಾಧಿಸುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಸತತವಾಗಿ ಶ್ರಮಪಟ್ಟರು. ಶಾಂತಿ ನಿಕೇತನದಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರು ಇಟ್ಟುಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಧ್ಯೇಯಗಳು ಭಾರತದ ಎಲ್ಲ ವಿದ್ಯಾಯೋಜನೆಗಳ ಮೇಲೆ ಪ್ರಭಾವ ಬೀರಿವೆ. ಇವರು ಹಾಕಿಕೊಟ್ಟ ಆರ್ಥಿಕ, ಸಾಮಾಜಿಕ, ರಾಜಕೀಯ ಪುನರ್ನಿರ್ಮಾಣ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳು ಮಾರ್ಗದರ್ಶನಗಳಾಗಿವೆ. ಠಾಕೂರರಿಗೆ ಮಾನವನ ಐಕ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ವಿಶ್ವಾಸವು ಅಚಲವಾದದ್ದು. ಒಂದೇ ಮಾತಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಹೇಳುವುದಾದರೆ ಠಾಕೂರರು ವಿಶ್ವಮಾನವನ ಆದರ್ಶ ಸಿದ್ಧಿಗಾಗಿ ಬಾಳಿ ದುಡಿದ ಮಹಾ ಸಾಧಕರು.

ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬರೂ ಈ ಮಹಾ ಪುರುಷರ ಜೀವನ ಮತ್ತು ಕಾರ್ಯವನ್ನು ತಕ್ಕ ಮಟ್ಟಿಗೆ ತಿಳಿದುಕೊಳ್ಳುವುದು ಅವಶ್ಯಕ.

ರವೀಂದ್ರನಾಥ ಠಾಕೂರರು ಕಲಕತ್ತೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ೧೮೬೫ನೆಯ ಇಸವಿ ಮೇ ತಿಂಗಳ ೭ನೆಯ ತಾರೀಖಿನ ದಿನ ಜನಿಸಿದರು. ಇವರು ತಮ್ಮ ಎಳೆತನವನ್ನು ಶೈಶವದ ಆರಂಭ ವರ್ಷಗಳನ್ನು ಜೀವನ ಸ್ಫೂರ್ತಿ ಮತ್ತು ನನ್ನ ಎಳೆತನ ಎಂಬ ಗ್ರಂಥಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ವರ್ಣಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಇನ್ನೂ ಕೆಲವು ದಿನಗಳ ಮೇಲೆ ಇವರು ನಾರ್ಮಲ್ ಸ್ಕೂಲ್ ಶಾಲೆಯನ್ನು ಸೇರಿದರು. ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರಿಗೆ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷ್ ಪಾಠ ಇರುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಇವರಿಗೆ ಎಂಟು ವಯಸ್ಸಾಗಿದ್ದಾಗ ಅತ್ತೆಯ ಮಗನೊಬ್ಬನು ಇವರನ್ನು ಒಂದು ಶ್ಲೋಕ ಬರೆ ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿದನಂತೆ. ಆಗ ಇವರು ಕೆಲವು ಮಾತುಗಳನ್ನು ಸೇರಿಸಿ ಶ್ಲೋಕ ಮಾಡಿದರಂತೆ.

ಜನಗಣಮನ ಅಧಿನಾಯಕ ಎಂಬ ಗೀತೆಯನ್ನು ಇವರು ಬರೆದರು. ಇದರಲ್ಲಿ ಜನರ ಗಣಗಳ ಮನಸ್ಸಿಗೆ ಅಧಿನಾಯಕನಾಗಿ ಭಾರತದ ಭಾಗ್ಯವನ್ನು ವಿಧಾಯಕ ಮಾಡುವ ಆ ಸರ್ವಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಕುರಿತು ಪ್ರಾರ್ಥನೆ ಇದೆ. ಈ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರಗೀತೆಯಲ್ಲಿರುವ ಚರಣಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ಭಾರತದ ಭಾಗ್ಯವಿಧಾತನನ್ನು ಕ್ರಮವಾಗಿ ಜನಗಣ ಮಂಗಳದಾಯಕ, ಜನಗಣ ಐಕ್ಯವಿಧಾಯಕ, ಜನಗಣ ಪಥಪರಿಚಾಯಕ ಜನಗಣದುಃಖತ್ರಾಯಕ, ಜನಗಣ ರಾಜೇಶ್ವರ ಎಂದು ಕರೆದಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಇನ್ನು ೨ನೆಯ ಚರಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೀಗೆ ಅರ್ಥ ಇದೆ. "ಪ್ರತಿದಿನವೂ ನಿನ್ನ ಕರೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಚಾರವಾದ ಉದಾರವಾಣಿಯನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿ, ಹಿಂದು ಬೌದ್ಧ, ಸಿಖ್, ಜೈನ ಪಾರಸಿಕ ಮುಸಲ್ಮಾನ ಕ್ರಿಸ್ತಾನಿ ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ಪೂರ್ವ ಪಶ್ಚಿಮ ದಿಕ್ಕುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸೇರಿ ಪ್ರೇಮಹಾರವಾಗಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಜನಗಣರ ಐಕ್ಯವನ್ನು ವಿಧಾಯಕ ಮಾಡುವ ಹೇಭಾರತ ಭಾಗ್ಯವಿಧಾತಾ ನಿನಗೆ ಜಯವಾಗಲಿ; ಹೀಗೆ ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟಪಡಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಇವರು ಬರೆದ ಒಂದು ಪುಸ್ತಕ ಅನೇಕ ಕವಿತೆಗಳಿಂದಕೂಡಿದ್ದು ಕಳೆದು ಹೋದದ್ದರಿಂದ ಅದು ಅಚ್ಚಾಗಲಿಲ್ಲ. ಅವರು ಬರೆದಿದ್ದ ಒಂದು ಪದ್ಯವನ್ನು ಕುಟುಂಬದ ಯಜಮಾನರಿಗೆ ಒಪ್ಪಿಸಿದರು. ಇದನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿ ಅವರು ತುಂಬ ನಕ್ಕರಿಂದು ಕವಿಗೆ ಆಮೇಲೆ ಗೊತ್ತಾಯಿತು.

ಇನ್ನು ವಿದ್ಯಾವಿಚಾರದಲ್ಲಿ ಇವರು ಶಾಂತಿ ನಿಕೇತನದಲ್ಲಿ ತಮ್ಮ ಶಾಲೆಯನ್ನು ವಿಶ್ವಭಾರತಿಯನ್ನು ಸ್ಥಾಪಿಸುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡಿದ ವಿದ್ಯಾಭ್ಯಾಸ ವಿಷಯಕವಾದ ತಮ್ಮ ಭಾವನೆಗಳನ್ನು ಕವೀಂದ್ರರು ಹಲವು ಸಂದರ್ಭಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ವಿವರಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಶಾಲೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಹುಡುಗರು ಆಟಪಾಠಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ವತಂತ್ರರು. ಮನುಷ್ಯ ತನ್ನ ಮನಸ್ಸಿನ ಗುರಿಯನ್ನು ಹರಡಲು ಮೇಲಕ್ಕೇರಲು ಕಲಿಯಬೇಕು. ಜೀವನವನ್ನು ಸಾರ್ಥಕ ಗೊಳಿಸಲು ಅಚಲವಾದ ಮನೋದಾರ್ಢ್ಯಬೇಕು. ಇದನ್ನು ಎಚ್ಚರಗೊಳಿಸಲು ಸಜೀವವಾಗಿ ಉಳಿಸಲು ಮನುಷ್ಯ ಸರ್ವಪ್ರಯತ್ನವನ್ನು ಮಾಡಬೇಕು. ಮನುಷ್ಯ ನಿಜವಾಗಿ ಮನುಷ್ಯನಾಗಲು ಕಲಿಯಬೇಕು. ಇದರ ಸಾರ ಗುರಿಯ ಉನ್ನತಿ, ವಿಸ್ತಾರ, ಆಶ್ಚಾಂತ, ಶಕ್ತಿ–ಸಂಕಲ್ಪ ಹೀಗೆ ಪೂರ್ಣ ಜೀವನವನ್ನು ಸಾಧಿಸುವುದೇ ಮುಖ್ಯ ಧ್ಯೇಯ. ಉಳಿದದ್ದೆಲ್ಲ ವಿಧೇಯವಾಗಿರಬೇಕು. ಮಾನವ ತನ್ನನ್ನು ತಾನು ತಿಳಿಯಬೇಕು. ಬರಿಯ ದೇಹದ ದಾಸನಾಗದೆ ಆತ್ಮನಾಗಿ ಬಾಳಬೇಕು. ನಷ್ಟವನ್ನು ಲಾಭವಾಗಿ ತಿರುಗಿಸಬೇಕು. ಮೃತವನ್ನು ಅಮರ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು. ಸದಾ ಜೀವದಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ ಸತ್ಯಗಳ ಫಲವನ್ನು ಸಾಧಿಸಬೇಕು. ಉನ್ನತ ಲಕ್ಷ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಮನತರಬೇಕು. ಇದು ತರುಣರಿಗೆ ಗುರಿಯಾಗುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡುವುದು ವಿದ್ಯೆಯ ಕೆಲಸ.

ಇವರ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ವಿಸ್ತಾರವ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಆಲೋಚಿಸಿದರೆ ಈ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯವ ನಿರ್ಮಾಣ ಸಾಮಾನ್ಯ ಲಕ್ಷಣಗಳನ್ನು ಕುರಿತು ನಾಲ್ಕು ಮಾತನ್ನು ಹೇಳಬಹುದು. ಮೊದಲು ಹೇಳಬೇಕಾದ ಮಾತು ಇವರ ಕೃತಿ ಒಂದೊಂದು ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಉನ್ನತಿಯನ್ನು ಮುಟ್ಟಿದೆ. ಕಾವ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಶಿಶು ಗೀತೆಗಳು ಪ್ರೇಮಗೀತೆಗಳು ಭಕ್ತಿ ಗೀತೆಗಳು ನಾಟಕಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಚಿತ್ರಾಂಗದಾ, ಅಂಚೇಮನೆ, ಚದುರಂಗ, ಜೀವನಸ್ಮೃತಿ

ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರತತ್ವ, ಮಿತ್ರರಿಗೆ ಬರೆದ ಓಲೆಗಳು ಹೀಗೆ ಒಂದೊಂದು ರೀತಿಯಿಂದ ವಿಚಾರಿಸಿದರೆ ರವೀಂದ್ರರ ಕಾವ್ಯಶಕ್ತಿ ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯದ ವಿಸ್ತಾರ ಬಹುಮುಖದ ಶಕ್ತಿಯಾಗಿ ಪ್ರಚಂಡ ಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಜಗತ್ತಿಗೆ ತೋರಿಸಿದೆ.

ಇವರು ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡ್ ಪ್ರವಾಸದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದಾಗ ಶಾಲೆಯನ್ನು ಬಿಟ್ಟು ಲಂಡನ್ನಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಒಂದು ವಸತಿ ಗೃಹದಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಂತರು. ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಡಾಕ್ಟರ್ ಸ್ಕಾಟ್ ಎನ್ನುವವರ ಮನೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಇದ್ದರು. ಡಾಕ್ಟರ ಹೆಂಡತಿ ಡಾಕ್ಟರ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿ, ಹಿಂದೂ ಸಂಸಾರಗಳಲ್ಲಿನಂತೆ ಒಳ್ಳೆಯ ಹೆಂಡತಿ ಗಂಡನ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿ ತೋರುವ ಪ್ರೀತಿ ಭಕ್ತಿಗಳನ್ನು ನೋಡಿ ನಮ್ಮ ರವೀಂದ್ರರಿಗೆ ಮಾನವ ಸ್ವಭಾವ ಎಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಒಂದೇ ಎನ್ನುವ ಮಾತು ಮನದಟ್ಟಾಯಿತು. ಅದೇ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರು ಕವಿ 'ಭಾರತಿ'ಗೆ ಹಲವು ಕವಿತೆಗಳನ್ನು, ಉಪನ್ಯಾಸಗಳನ್ನು ಕಳಿಸಿದರು. ಇವುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷ್, ಜರ್ಮ್ ಇಟ್ಯಾಲಿಯನ್, ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯಗಳ ಕೃತಿಗಳನ್ನು ಕುರಿತು ವಿಮರ್ಶೆಗಳೂ, ಷೇಕ್ಸ್‌ಪಿಯರ್ ಷೆಲ್ಲಿ, ಟೆನಿಸನ್ ಕವಿಗಳ ಕೃತಿಗಳ ಭಾಷಾಂತರಗಳೂ ಇದ್ದವು. ಇವರು ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡಿನಲ್ಲಿರುವಾಗ "ಭಗ್ನಹೃದಯ' ಎಂಬ ದೃಶ್ಯ ಕಾವ್ಯವನ್ನು ಬರೆದರು. ಮನೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಡೆದ ಒಂದು ಸಾಹಿತ್ಯೋತ್ಸವದಲ್ಲಿ ನಾಟಕವನ್ನು ಆಡಿದರು. ಕವಿ ಅದರಲ್ಲಿ ವಾಲ್ಮೀಕಿಯ ಪಾತ್ರವನ್ನು ವಹಿಸಿದ್ದರು.

The Lookout

Faith in the 'Boy'—Faith in 'Scouting'—Faith in the Scouter' himself and Faith in 'God' are the bases for the success f the Movement. To be effective, lasting and appreciative by he parents of the boys and the lay public who support the Movement, any Scouter must be an example to the 'Boy' in all spects of life and be worthy of emulation. The Scouter must ve the Promise and the ten points of the one Scout Law every- ay in his life. Remember a Scout/a Scouter promises his best nd not more: but this can never be an excuse for laziness, nwillingness or persistently fostering a weakness which has no ympathiser, no toleration and which is not an example for the Boy' but will definitely undermine the voluntary nature and ne aims and principles of the Movement..

On April 1961 I was afforded the opportunity to inaugurate ne dormant Local Association at Devanahalli, Bangalore North District by the Offg. D.C. (S), the Secretary, District Associa- on and the A.D.C(S) concerned; I am very thankful to them. t this meeting it was noticed that the enthusiasm of the Boys nd Girls was very good and that of the Scouters and Guiders as also appreciable. It is now two months over and the istrict Association, Bangalore North would do well to report rough this magazine, next time, how much the A.D.C(S) of that area has followed up and what is the progress. I request the D.C.(S) Bangalore North to lookout for this progress and cause the report to be published.

May 1961 offered chances of service for the Rovers and Rangers in the open Groups and Crews of the two districts of Bangalore. They had to help the Deputy Commissioner and the Organisers of the Tagore Centenary Celebrations, Bangalore, during the open air benefit dramas staged at the Sri Kanteerava Stadium, Bangalore, on the 27th and the 28th with Nadigar Thilagam Shivaji Ganesan as the main star in the shows. While the service rendered was good and it was appreciated by the authorities and this has been communicated to the D.Cs. (S) and the units, much had to be seen and corrected in regard to discipline and adherence to the rules of the A.P.R.O. A few points to be strictly observed and followed by service Rovers at public functions are :—

i. Service Rovers should be of good build and personality to command enough regard and response from the public. A service Rover should look after himself in addition to helping others.

ii. The service Rovers should be meticulous about their uniform in accordance with the A.P.R.O. rules, in particular rule No. 274 (1) and (2). Unauthorised decorations/badges and time barred badges of meets and Jamborees have no place on the uniform, and

iii. The temperament of the service Rovers must be ideal. The Rovers on duty should obey the leader so appointed for the day without any complex and or insubordination.

I was present on the spot during the above functions and I had to advise and guide a few of them.

Lastly I wish to reproduce the following, a part of the 'OUTLOOK, in the 'SCOUTER' of December 1960.

"LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON. (Extract from the Provost's address when the top men of the London boroughs south of the Thames paid their annual visit to Southwark Cathedral).

If father's main topic of conversation is cash, the pools and the horses, is it supprising that Ted wants easy money? If father fiddles his expense account or scrounges from the store, is it surprising that Ted becomes a thief? If father is too lazy to vote, is it surprising that Ted takes no interest in anything but rock? If father never goes near a church, who can criticize Ted for thinking it kid stuff? If father sits glued to the telly all night, who can blame Ted for finding home boring? If father treats mother as a doormat, where does Ted wipe his feet?

The main responsibility lies with two people-Mum and Dad.

The answer to all this fear and frustration is FAITH in God, a faith that is virile, sane and firm."

I desire to remember to the Scouters that these 'Mums and Dads' have sent us their sons to be trained as 'Scouts'. So let us not forget where our responsibility lies.

V. K. SUNDARAM

Welcome :

His Excellency Shri Mangaldas Pakvasa, acting Governor of Mysore

On 13th May 1961 the State Executive Committee were at home to His Excellency Shri Mangaldas Pakvasa, the acting Governor of Mysose and the Members of the Reception Committee, Third All India Jamboree December 1960, at the State Headquarters, Bangalore. The arrangements were simple and short but sincere; Scouters Shri N. S. Kulkarni, A.D.C. (S) Bangalore North District and Shri Davlur were in charge of the arrangements under the direct advise and supervision of the S.C.C. A good number of Rangers/Rovers and Guiders/ Scouters rendered valuable service to make the function colourful and successful.

Shri Mangaldas Pakvasa, the first President of the Bharat Scouts and Guides and who held that office till 12th November 1960, gave in very graciously to the present President Mrs. Ammuswaminathan to prove to all the oneness of the Scouts and Guides in the Bharat Scouts and Guides. The Chief Guest was welcomed by the State Chief Commissioner and was later offered a garland and a bouquet by the S.C. (S).

In his yarn the Chief Guest, the Chief architect of the amalgamation of the then Boy Scouts Associaticn of India, The Hindustan Scouts and the Girl Guides Association of India into the Bharat Scouts and Guides gave in an interesting aecount of how this was brought into being and how after a good deal of correspondence and personal talk with the Director of the Boy Scouts International Bureau at Bombay the Bharat Scouts and Guides was accepted as a member of the World Wide Movement. He also told the assembly that Lady Olave Baden Powell, World Chief Guide and wife of late Lord Baden Powell, the Founder of the Movement, met him at Bombay on the eve of her departure from India after her visits to the Third All India Jamboree at Bangalore in December 1960 and the various State Associations and expressed to him that she was immensely pleased with the way in which the Jamboree was conducted, the manner in which the Scouts and Guides enjoyed their camping and what a successful event it had been. She had expressed also her appreciation of the excellent way in which this combined Movement is being carried on harmoniously by the administrations at the National and all State levels, he added.

The State Commissioner (Guides) proposed a vote of thanks to the Chief Guest of the evening and to all those in and outside the Movement of various official and non-official bodies who helped to make the Third All India Jamboree and that evening's function successful. His Almighty God had to be praised specially for he had ordered a definite respite to the rain for an hour during the evening function and which rain had poured down heavily before and after this important hour.

The function which commenced at 4-10 p.m. terminated at 5-10 p.m., with the singing of the National Anthem.

iii. Age of the Course: The oldest trainee was 44 years, the youngest was 20 years and the average age of the course was 30 years.

iv. Patrols formed: The 20 candidates were formed into three Patrols, Lions-6, Hounds-7 and Wolves-7.

v. Medium of Instructions: English with Kannada, regional language as required now and then.

VI Accommodation: Tents—new chowldaries.

VII Religious Observances: Scouts' own on the morning of Sunday the, 7th daily morning and evening common prayers at the Flag Parades and at Camp Fires. On Sunday the 7th the Catholic Scouters on the Course were permitted to attend the church of their own denomination.

VIII Food: Lactovegetarian type in general—Patrol cooking was commenced on the night of arrival, 5-5-61, and was continued till the morning of the 15th when the Campers started on their return trip to the Camp from the overnight hike place. The early morning tea before the physical jerks and elementary foot drill sessions and the teas at 1030 and 1630 hours in between sessions were provided from the central kitchen which was established for the Training Team. On their return to the camp and till they left the camp at 8000 hours on 16-5-61, the Trainees were fed from the central kitchen. Boiled eggs were issued to eleven campers only as they expressed their desire to have them. Fruits after main meals.

IX Syllabus Special Features :

1 Commencement : Course commenced (on time) at 1600 hours on 5-5-61 with 19 trainees. One arrived late on 7-5-61 early morning because of postal delays in respect of instructions and telegrams sent to him by the State Hq. The course was assembled and programme commenced as per details for continuous courses laid down in DCCs' Hand Book (10 Edn), 1960, by Dr. V. K. SUNDARAM, S.M. of the course.

2 Base System : Sessions on Campcraft and Catering, Ropework, Holdfasts, Forestry I (axes, saws, expedients), Forestry II (tree felling), Training and Testing were all carried out on Base Systems as per above mentioned syllabus with workable (normal-utility sizes) models. Photos were taken of all these bases for future guidance and preparation of charts.

3 Pioneering: Separate projects were given to each Patrol. Lions—Flying Trapeze. Hounds—Aerial Runway. Wolves—Swinging Derrick on a tree. These projects were completed by each Patrol in the forenoon on 10-5-61, and left in site for demonstrations by one Patrol to the other two Patrols on the same evening and for demonstrations to visitors,, the State Chief Commissioner, Sri P. Siva Shankar, B.A., LL.B., the Headquarter Commissioner for Training, Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, B.A., DCC., Ak.L., the members of the Training Team who came for a Seminar on the 16th and other Scouters.

4 Obstacles Expedition : The obstacles put up were-crossing a broad nulla by the giant stride method using poles, crossing a 20 feet wide marshy and infested track by using stilts,, climbing a tree from one side and coming down the same by another part of the tree, first aid bandaging tests at the next base, erecting a shelter with ground sheets under a tree without using poles and pegs and walking blindfolded and backwards a zig-zag route about 100 yards including in its course crawling through an improvised low tunnel 8′ long, about 2′ broad and 3′ high. The Trainees enjoyed the last stage very much.

5 First Class Journey : The Trainees left camp at noon on 14-5-61 to ARLAMALLIGAI school building about 7½ miles by three different routes and after an overnight camping returned to the Central Camp at noon on 15-4-61. Due to fairly heavy rains on 13-5-61 afternoon parts of the route for one Patrol were slushy fields and fairly deep (waist deep) muddy streams. The Patrol braved the difficulties and reached the end of the journey well before dusk. The Training Team (S.M., A.S.Ms. and Q.M. staff) went at 2030 hours, met the hikers in their night camp, issued buns and fruits and after satisfying that they were comfortable and well returned to the Central Camp at 2300 hours. The Trainees had no casualities or any special inconveniences.

6 Weather : Weather was fine though warm in the mid-days. The rain on 13-5.61 and 15-5-61 cooled down the heat and on the whole the Course enjoyed satisfactory weather throughout and we were all thankful to God immensely.

X Standard : The technical standard of the Trainees in general was just average but the 'Spirit of Scouting' was well above average. The Patrols pulled together well to keep up the cleanliness and the camping standard of the course was very satisfactory. One of the Trainees was Cub Wood Badge holder.

XI S.T.As. : Twenty S.T.As. were given and a progress chart by Patrols for the whole course was maintained ; the final effort of each Trainee in this connection was taken into consideration of the final assessment for the issue of the Part II certificate.

XII Results: The final assessment of the results was based on the consideration of the following three factors :

a. General personal qualities,
b. S.T.As. and
c. Notes taking.

In assessing the results the whole Training Team had a conference at the end of the course ; individual opinions were expressed and discussed before the DCC in charge of the course took the final decision. On the whole 17 out of the 20 Trainees were issued the Part II certificates and these were posted to the Trainees' addresses on 18th May, 1961. The District Commissioners concerned were intimated of the results and the posting of the certificates by letters dated 19th May 1961.

XIII Visiting Commissioners: On 10-5-61 Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, B.A., DCC., Ak.L., Headquarter Commissioner for Training visited the camp, inspected all the Base Systems for Ropework,, Campcraft and catering, Holdfasts, Forestry I expedients and the tent sites and later gave a yarn to the Trainees.

ii. On 15-5-61 Sri P. Siva Shankar, B.A., LL.B., State Chief Commissioner, Sri Athmaramiah Setty, A.D.C., a Donor Patron and Sri Davlur, a veteran Scouter visited the camp inspite of inclement weather, had refreshments in the company of the Trainees, visited the tent sites and the Bases and finally the State Chief Commissioner gave a yarn to the Trainees. The DCC in charge of the course read out a written report about the Course including an abstract of the final accounts in respect of the Course.

XIV Accounts: The camp fees of the Trainees were met by the State HQ. while the T.A./D.A., were met by the Schools from where most of the Trainees came. Four came from open Groups and these were given the T.A./D.A. by the Groups from their funds or they defrayed their expenses themselves.

The Trainees, the Members of the Training Team, inclusive of the Q.M. staff and the others in the central establishment numbered 30 and the camping worked out to a total of 370 heads during the period 3-5-61 to 16-5-61. The total expenditure including the stationery, medical requirements, sundries and food amounted to Rs. 806-55 and the food alone worked out to Rs. 1-85 per head per day. The DCC in charge of the Course was in charge of the cash. The Q.Ms. four Rovers from three open Groups from Bangalore, two for catering and two for the Patrol, Troop and Pioneering Equipments, helped by Sri H. Rama Rao and Sri V. M. N. Felix respectively in catering and equipments, deserve commendation for the efficiency and upto-date maintenance of the accounts; the abstract as stated above was given out to the State Chief Commissioner.

XV Thanks: i. To the State HQ. and the HQ. Commissioner for Training for giving me this chance to conduct Course.

ii. To Sri K. Kasinath, Sri V. N. M. Felix and Sri H. Rama Rao, the three ADCCs who untiringly got up all the Bases required in the syllabus and took charge of them for demonstration purposes and spent their days in the camp from the 3rd onwards and one of them, the second, even from the 2nd of the month.

iii. To the four Rover Q.Ms. Young, energetic, ever willing and efficient these adolescents proved what Rovering means. Their services both in catering and equipment maintenance in general deserve praise and they gave an indication of what their parent units could be and what Rover Leaders they should be under. The Units are: Jhansi Rover Crew—Bangalore, Krishnananda Crew—Bangalore and Shivaji Crew—Bangalore.

iv. To the Hon. Warden and his staff for all the help rendered during the stay in the camp.

v. To the Trainees who came in that good number, 20, but for which the Course might not have materialised and

vi. To GOD for blessing the Camp with fine weather and blessing everyone in the Camp with fine health and 'SCOUT SPIRIT'.

The Third Training Team Seminar (Scouts)

Mysore State

Central Scout Camp - Doddaballapur

16-18 May 1961

The Third Training Team Seminar (Scouts) of Mysore State was held at the Central Scout Camp, Doddaballapur, from 1600 hours on 16–5–61 to 0800 hours on 18-5-61. Dr. V. K. Sundaram, M.C., D. C. C., (Lt. Col. IMS), State Commissioner, Scouts, was in charge of the arrangements and Sri. H. R. Abdul Gaffar, B. A., D. C. C., Ak. L., Headquarter Commissioner for Training conducted the proceedings on 17-5-61.

Sixteen members of the Training Team assembled in camp and spent a useful and enjoyable time. The latest methods of training the Scouters were fully explained by Dr. V. K. Sundaram with particular reference to 'Base Systems' the key note of the training principles; full size workable models for all the Bases required for the latest methods were preserved on the grounds for demonstration to the members of the Training Team. These Bases were earlier prepared for the VIII Himalaya (Scout) Wood Badge Course which was conducted at the Camp by Dr. V. K. Sundaram and assisted by Messrs K. Kasinath, ADCC., ADC., V. N. M. Felix, ADCC., DC (S), and H. Rama Rao, ADCC, ADC (S). The above team was further helped very effectively by the following Rovers from Open Groups in Bangalore-Messrs V. S. Kallianpur and Gopal of Krishnanada Rover Crew, Suresh of Jhansi Rover Crew and Nagaraj, R. L. of Shivaji Rover Crew. Dr. V. K. Sundaram gained first hand knowledge of these methods by assisting the Camp Chief Scouts, India at the National Training Centre, Pachmarhi, M. P. in Wood Badge Courses conducted there in May 1960 and by attending the Third Asian (Fifteenth International) 'Training the team Course' conducted by Mr. John Thurman, Gilwell Camp Chief at the Pedro Scout Camp, Nuwara Eliya, Ceylon, in March 1961 under the auspices of the Ceylon Boy Scouts Association.

After discussions regarding important procedures to be adopted with reference to Preliminary Training Courses and Himalaya Wood Badges Courses on the lines adopted at the Second DCCs' Retreat held at the National Training Centre, Pachmarhi, M.P. and which Retreat was attended by Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, Sri H. R. Abdul Majeed and Dr. V. K. Sundaram in March 1959, definite decisions were arrived at particularly in respect of 'Flag Parade' ceremonies and 'Grand Howl' correct positions of C.M., A.C.Ms. and V.I.Ps., etc., to ensure uniformity in the State.

Members present renewed the Scout Promise at the Camp Fire on the 17th and the Seminar was terminated after the Flag Parade on the morning of the 18th.

The catering and other food arrangements were in charge of the Rovers mentioned above ably advised by Sri. H. Rama Rao and the cost of food worked out to Rs. 2-40 per head per day including fruits after all principle meals.

4th JAMBOREE-ON-THE-AIR, 1961

October 21-22, 1961

Since 1958, on two days each year, Scouts all over the world have been able to talk with each other, to learn about each other's Scout Troop activities and to make new friends, without even leaving their home town. Everybody knows of the great World Jamborees held every four years in various parts of the world, but comparatively few Scouts are able to get to them. He who can is indeed fortunate. Nothing can compare with the experience of camping in a foreign country, and meeting and making new friends from among the thousands of Scouts all over the world.

Although you can't shake hands with them, you can meet and talk with other Scouts in the annual Radio Jamboree, which this year takes place on October 21-22, from 0001 hours on the 21st to 2359 hours on the 22nd, midnight to midnight Greenwich Mean Time. In Ottawa, Canada, for example, the Scouts will work from 7:00 p.m. Friday the 20th to 7:00 p.m. Sunday the 22nd in local time.

How can you take part in this Jamboree? If you do not know any amateur radio operators, or "hams" as they are called, get in touch with your local Radio Society. The local library can give you their address. You will find they will be only too pleased to help you find a "ham" willing to place his equipment at the disposal of your patrol or troop for a few hours over this weekend. Many local Radio Clubs will operate on a Club basis for the whole 48 hours of the Jamboree, and Scouts can take part on a District basis. On a District basis, you will have to arrange a schedule for troops so that the station does not become over crowded. While only licensed amateurs are allowed to operate the transmitters, that is, to make contact with other stations, once contact has been established, you will be able to talk.

Once you have found a "ham" willing to help, it is easy to take part in the Jamboree. The Jamboree will be held on five wave-bands: 10, 15, 20, 40 and 80 metres. It depends on prevailing conditions and equipment used, but your operator will know the exact wave-length or frequency he is permitted to use. You can use any permitted part of those bands. Secondly you can use CW (Morse Code) or voice. In the latter case, both AM and SSB are permitted. ("Hams" know what these mean, if you don't.) Having established these two things, wave-length or frequency, and method, all you do to take part is call "CQ JAMBOREE" or to answer a station you may hear calling "CQ JAMBOREE". You may hear two stations talking together and recognize from their conversation that they are Scout stations. Wait for them to finish, then call one of them.

The operator is required by law to keep a record of all his calls, stations contacted, time, etc., and you will probably want to keep your own log. "Hams" confirm their contacts by exchanging what they call QSL cards. Perhaps your "Ham" friend will let you do it on his behalf and in that way you can keep incoming QSL cards for your patrol logbook or corner. Most of these cards are very colourful either showing a picture of the operator or his home town, etc. Some Scout Groups make their own QSL cards especially for the Jamboree and send them out themselves.

The Boy Scouts International Bureau sponsors this annual Jamboree-on-the-Air and operates their own station each year under the call sign VE 3 JAM for this 48 hour period. Listen for their call. They will operate on the following frequencies, depending upon conditions:

A	B
10 metre band 28,490 Kcs.	28,510 Kcs.
15 metre band 21,195 Kcs.	21,210 Kcs.
20 metre band 14,195 Kcs.	14,210 Kcs.
40 metre band 7,210 Kcs	....
80 metre band 3,750 Kcs.	3,850 Kcs.

A.—VE 3 JAM transmissions-Canadian and foreign answers

B.—U.S.A. answers

e.g.—A contact between VE 3 JAM and a station in the United States, on the 10 metre band would be carried on with VE 3 JAM transmitting on 28,490 Kcs and the U.S. station answering on 28,510 Kcs. Two transmitters will be used, each working independently on one of the five bands. If you don't hear them on one, try another. The Bureau issues their own special QSL card and also a special certificate. The QSL card is sent to stations contacted by VE 3 JAM, but the certificate is sent to any Scout or Scout Troop sending in a report of activities during the Jamboree. VE 3 JAM will use both CW and AM again, depending upon conditions.

So there you are. Brush up on your Morse Code, get in touch with a local radio amateur and "CQ JAMBOREE".

STUDY I

Write each question on the page of your note book above your answer.

To be submitted within two months of the receipt of the Study.

1 What part does the Jungle Story play in your Pack ?

What do you think is the value of it ?

What are your ideas about the Panchatantra stories ?

2 What do you do to make your Cubs realize that they are members of (a) The Group, (b) The Scout Movement, (c) The Worldwide Brotherhood ?

3 Star work is the basis of the Cub Training Programme. How do you bring it into the programme of the Pack Meetings and how do you use it as a medium for character training ? Give two examples showing how you incorporate Star Work in your programme.

4 What records do you keep of your Pack ? In addition describe any personal records you keep to assist you in the efficient running of the Pack, e.g., Pack activities–games–yarns–information about individual Cubs, etc.

5 What action, if any, would you take if you had a) a Cub with a gift for upsetting the programme and the other Cubs, and generally making trouble?

b) a Cub's parent with a gift for upsetting you by grumbles, misunderstandings and complaints?

Please write answers to the following queries :

a) How many minutes do you take for story telling in a Pack meeting? What and how much is the most suitable time for this purpose?

b) Have you made any collection for such stories? If so, how many have you collected in your story book?

c) Please suggest any books suitable for this purpose which can be recommended to Cub Scouters in India.

STUDY II

Write each question on the page of the notebook above your answer.

Return this study within two months after the receipt of Study I.

6 How do you introduce Proficiency Badges to your Cubs, and how do you work Proficiency Badge activities into the Pack programmes?

7 How much do you use story-telling and acting and with what purpose?

8 In what ways and how much do you use your Sixers? What pitfall should you guard against in the use of Sixers?

9 How do you try to make Duty to God a practical every-day activity for the Cub?

10 Describe your last two outings, whether they were out of-doors meetings or expeditions. How do you thin these meetings could have been improved?

Please answer the following queries :

f) During the last 2 or 3 years, how many Cubs remained in your Pack for more than two years?

g) How many of them could finish the Second Star tests?

h) What tests in the Second Star were found to be comparatively difficult by your Cubs?

i) What time do you think Cubs should ordinarily take to complete their First and Second Star tests?

STUDY III

Write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

Return this Study within two months after the receipt of Study II.

11 How do you encourage your Cubs to do Good Turns? What Pack Good Turns have you done, or hope to do in future?

12 Give a copy of your last programme with rough timing. Plan another which would be a complete change.

13 What do you do about the Cub who says he is not going up because "he doesn't like Scouts"?

14 How would you cope with the ten-years old Cub who has gained his Second Star and six Proficiency Badges and who now feels that he has done everything in Cubbing?

15 If you are a C.M., explain your responsibilities towards your A.C.M. or A.C.Ms. How much part do you give them in planning and running programmes?

If you are an A.C.M., explain your particular function in the Pack, and your duty towards Akela and the Cubs.

Questions on the A.P.R.O. and the Wolf Cub's Handbook

j) What is the aim of the Bharat Scouts and Guides?

k) What are the qualifications necessary to be a Cub Master or an Assistant Cub Master?

l) What are the important rules you will have to observe for Camping for Cubs?

m) "His success will depend on himself, not on his masters or parents." In what context is this written?

n) What is the test for the Zulu boy?

o) "That is the way with Scouts—and so it is with Cubs." What is this way.

STUDY I

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

To be compleled within two months of the receipt of the Study.

1 "By teaching them useful handicrafts and services" (A.P.R.O. Rule 4) What are the methods you have adopted to carry out this objective of the Scout Movement amongst your Scouts? How do you encourage the Good Turn habit in your Troop?

2 Explain the function of the Group Council and describe briefly the last such meeting you attended.

3 Discuss the pros and cons of District Patrol Leaders' Training and comment upon the ideal size of Patrols related to the age of Patrol Leaders.

4 What is the purpose of games in the Scout programme? There are a number of games mentioned in 'Scouting for Boys' World Brother hood edition; which of these games have you played or tried in your troop meetings? What difficulties, if any, did you find in playing these games? Which games were more liked by the Scouts?

5 In what ways can the Troop help the Pack? How can the Senior Troop and/or the Rover Crew help the Troop?

STUDY II

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

Return this Study within two months of the return of Study I.

6 How do you make the Scout Law and Promise a Practical activity in your Troop? Illustrate this with special reference to Clauses 1 and 3 of the Scout Law.

7 What is the function of the Scout Court of Honour? How does it work in your Troop?

8 How is 'camp life' different from 'living under canvas'? Describe briefly how you plan for the Annual Camp under the following heads: i) Selection of site, ii) Relationship with parents, iii) Health, iv) Camps, v) Boating and bathing.

9 What guidance do you give your Scouts in regard to the selection of Proficiency Badges for which to work? What do you expect your Scouts to do about Badge subjects after they have gained the badge?

10 What ceremonies do you have in your Troop? Describe the Going Up Ceremony from Pack to Troop. What is it's purpose?

STUDY III

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

Return this Study within two months of the return of Study II.

11 What do you understand by Scout discipline? How does Scout discipline differ from the stamping and roaring (pseudo-military) type? What is the 'Scout' way of inculcating discipline?

12 A former Scouter of the Troop donates Rs. 1,000/- to your Troop to be spent on training equipment. List your present equipment and say how you think the thousand rupees would be most usefully spent. The former Scouter is particularly interested in camping, pioneering and outdoor Scouting.

13 What can be done to maintain the outdoor approach at the indoor meetings of your Troop in winter or rainy season? Give your own experiences, if any, in this respect.

14 If you are the S.M., what regular duties do you assign to your A.S.Ms.? If you are an A.S.M., what are your regular duties in relation to the Troop? If you are neither, say what regular duties you regard as appropriate to the S.M. and A.S.M.

15 What is the biggest problem your Troop faces at the present time? What are you trying to do about it?

Questions on A P.R O and Scouting for Boys–World Brotherhood Ed.

a) What are the qualifications necessary to become a Scoutmaster and an Assistant Scoutmaster?

b) What is the procedure of obtaining a Warrant?

c) When can a Scout earn Merit (Special Proficiency) Badges? How many badges can be earned before earning the First Class Badge? What is the necessity of such rules?

d) "One of the nost important things that a Scout has to learn, is to let nothing escape his attention " How can this be learnt?

e) In Scouting for Boys—World Brotherhood edition, a list of trees and birds is given. How many of these have your Scouts seen and identified? Are there any common trees or birds in your area that can be added to this list?

Please think about the following question and write an answer. Your ideas will be a great help. This answer will not be considered in assessing your work, nor are you under obligation to write an answer.

i) Do you consider it advisible that all Cubs should go to the Troop when they are 10½ years old?

ii) Are the following training targets workable, given suitable opportunities?

Tenderfoot	....	One month.
Second Class	....	One year.
First Clas	....	Two years.

iii) If the period set out in (ii) is feasible, what do you think would be the effect on (a) leakage and (b) Troop programmes? If you think none, give your reasons.

Himalaya ROVER Wood Badge Part I

STUDY I

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

To be completed within two months of the receipt of the Study.

1 "Show that you mean to take Rovering really seriously and to do your best to understand its objects and methods and to carry them out."

What do you consider are the objects of Rovering and how do they fit in with the aims of Scouting? Give your reasons and indicate briefly how the Rover method of training helps in the attaining of the aim.

2 "Now it is up to you as an individual to go and learn for yourself the things that will strengthen your character and help you to success in life by making you a man."

How true is this so far as the training of (a) Rover Squires and (b) Rover Scouts is concerned? What is the function of 'Sponsors', and how can they assist a R.S.L. in discharging his responsibilities?

3 "In my own small way I have always had a weakness for planning things, even unimportant things, before taking them on."

Discuss the objects of Collective Training and how it should be planned. Set out in brief outline (a) a Crew programme for three summer months and (b) a Crew Programme for three months in the winter or rainy season.

4 "I would lay stress on the possibility and necessity of 'service' in the ordinary surroundings of the Rover Scout's life."

What is your interpretation of the Rover Motto 'Service'? To what extent is your Rovers' training aimed at it? What advice can you give to your Rovers who can spare some time every week for 'Service'?

9 What is the total number of Rovers in your Crew? How many of them are Aspirants? How many are under 21 and how many over 21 years of age? How many of them have been Scouts previously? How will you present the Scheme of Rovering to your Aspirants?

STUDY II

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

Return this Study within two months of the return of Study I.

6 "You should think the matter over very carefully to yourself before hand."

Discuss the principles whieh lie behind and should govern an aspirant's Self Examination or Vigil, and the preparation which should precede it.

7 "The best disciplined community is the happiest community."

What are your views on discipline as applied to a Rover Scout Crew?

8 What is the key to happiness suggested by B.-P.? What are the rocks against which young persons are likely to be stranded? How are they to be avoided?

9 "I know that among our young men of today there is an earnest desire for religion—a religion they can grasp and act up to.

Is this your experience? How do you yourself interpret 'Duty to God' and to what extent do you endeavour to guide and assist your Rovers in their spiritual development?

10 In the old days, the Spartans put their boys through some very rigorous training in hardihood and endurance before they were allowed to count themselves as men. Many tribes do the same even now. Do you think it to be a good practice? Have you tried it. If so, what were your tests? How did the Rovers like them? If not, would you like to try? What tests would you give? If you do not think it to be a good practice, explain why you think so.

STUDY III

Please write each question on the page of your notebook above your answer.

Return this Study within two months of the return of Study II.

11 "For sheer enjoyment give me the open air and the countryside, even if you cannot get the backwoods and the mountains."

To what extent do your Crew programmes entitle your Rovers to consider themselves 'a brotherhood of the open air'?

12 "The danger is the risk of forgetting chivalry due to women." What about this? How would you inculcate this on the minds of your aspirants and Rovers?

13 "It is at all times a good thing for Rovers to meet together for their activities, especially is this valuable where the number in each Rover Section is small."

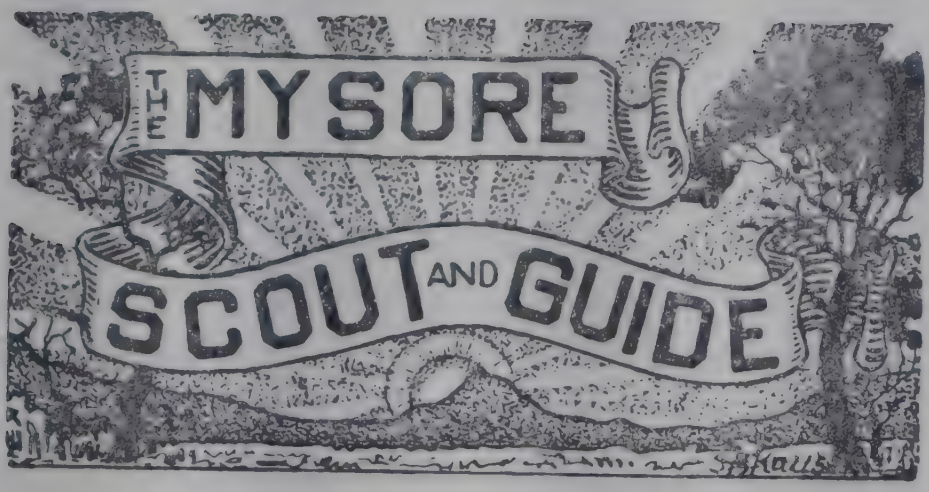
Discuss the advantages of (a) District combined activities for Rovers (b) District Crews.

Quote any examples of either of which you have personal knowledge.

14 "The duty of the citizens in each State is to get more, into mutual touch and sympathy with those of other States,"

What do you yourself know about Scouting, particularly Rovering, in other lands? Are any of your Rovers or is the Crew as a whole doing anything about it? If not, why not? When and how do you mean to start?

15 Do you think that the present Scheme of Rovering is useful and attractive? Can you suggest anything to make it more useful and attractive? Have you made any experiments in this direction with your Crew? If so, what were the experiments and what were the results?



GUIDE SECTION

Mrs. Anasuya Subramaniam

Mrs. Anasuya Subramaniam, whose services as District Commissioner (Guides), Shimoga District, for 5 full years, proved to be of great value to Shimoga District in particular and our State in, general, is laying down her office as District Commissioner(G) owing to the appointment of her husband Sri V. K. Subramaniam, as General Manager, Ashok Paper Mills at Darbhanga, Bihar. The Headquarters feels very sorry to lose a capable and efficient Commissioner like her, as the LOSS of a District is indeed the LOSS of the State too.....but, certainly this is not a tremendous loss on the whole, as the LOSS of one State will be the GAIN of the OTHER.

A person who always finds delight in the active life, a person who considers service as the wealth to enrich her soul and particularly, a person who has plunged deep into the Ocean of Guiding, can never be at peace without it. We are quite sure that she will continue her interest in Guiding even in the new place. What an amount of delight we find in the thought that her valuable services will add to the progress of Guiding in Bihar. This is the one and only consolation we have for the loss occurred to our State.

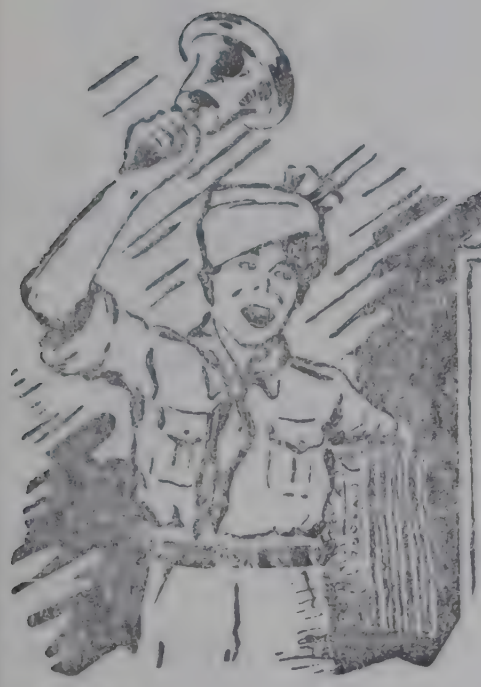
Mrs. A. Subramaniam, had been connected with the movement since her Girlhood. She was enrolled as Guide in the year 1932 at the Stanes European High School, Coimbatore. She held her rank as a Patrol-Leader in that Company. Later, she ran a Guide Company at the same place. In the year 1956 she was appointed as District Commissioner(G) for Shimoga District.

During the period of 5 years, she devoted a good deal of her time for bringing progress in the field of Guiding. Being a person of indefatigable nature, she worked hard to improve the condition of Guiding in every respect. She was aiming both at quality and quantity. The statistics reveal to us how the number of Guides and Bulbuls have been swelling from year to year. We are happy to note that there is improvement in quality too. Shimoga Dist. has got a good number of second class Guides & Bulbuls and a few first class too.

The Dist. Rallies and competitions arranged at the Dist. level were of quite good standard. She made her Dist. to contribute a good bit towards the success of the 3rd All India Jamboree by collecting lot of funds and also by sending a good number of Guides forming a Guide Contingent for the Jamboree. She also gave her valuable services on the Jamboree Ground.

It is very unfortunate that Shimoga Dist. is losing her services. She has set a good example for the new Dist. Commissioner to follow. We wish her health and strength to carry on Guiding in her new place!



NEWS FROM THE DISTRICTS.

State Scout Commissioner Inaugurates Local Association

Dr. V. K. Sundaram, U.C., State Commissioner for Scouts of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, inaugurated the LOCAL ASSOCIATION of the organisation for the DEVANAHALLI Tk. area at a meeting of the Scouter Guider representatives, local officials and non-officials held at the Devanahalli Boy's Middle School premises on the evening of Tuesday, 11th April. Sri C. H. Sreenivasa Rao, Asst. Dist. Scout Commissioner and Inspector of Schools of the Devanahalli Range, with the assistance of Sri B. S. Shankarappa, Scoutmaster of the Local Middle School had made all the preliminary arrangements for the formation of the Association.

After tea the Girl Guides and Bulbuls of the local Girls School who have been very well trained by Smt. Lakshmi, Captain of the Company and the Scouts gave a fine display of their craft and talents. Sri N. S. Kulakarni, Dist. Scout Commissioner in charge, declared the Scout and Guide Craft Exhibition open. Reports of the progress achieved so far in the area were presented by the local Scouters and Guiders.

ಮರಿಗಳ ಶಾಖೆಯನ್ನೂ ಇದರ ಮೂಲ ಅಂಗವಾದ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯನ್ನೂ ಏರ್ಪಡಿಸಿದ ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗಿನ ಆಚಾರ್ಯ ಪುರುಷನಾದ ಲಾರ್ಡ್ ಬೇರ್ಡೆಪೋವೆಲ್ ಅವರು ಮರಿಗಳ ಹಿಂಡನ್ನು ಸ್ಥಾಪಿಸುವ, ರಚಿಸುವ, ನಡೆಯಿಸುವ ಮತ್ತು ಪ್ರಗತಿಗೆ ತರುವ ವಿಧಿ ವಿಧಾನಗಳನ್ನೂ ಸಲಹೆ ಸೂಚನೆಗಳನ್ನೂ ಒಳಗೊಂಡಿರುವ "ದಿ ವುಲ್ಫ್ ಕಬ್ಸ್ ಹ್ಯಾಂಡ್‌ಬುಕ್" ಅನ್ನು ರಚಿಸಿ ಪ್ರಕಟಿಸಿದರು. ಈ ಪುಸ್ತಕವು ಸರ್ವಮಾನ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಎಲ್ಲ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಪ್ರದೇಶಗಳಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಆಧಾರ ಶಾಸ್ತ್ರವಾಗಿದೆ. ಆದರೆ ದೇಶ ದೇಶಗಳಿಗೂ ಭಾಷೆ ಭಾಷೆಗಳಿಗೂ ಹಿಂಡು ಹಿಂಡಿಗೂ ಇದು ಹರಡುವಾಗ್ಯೆ ಅನೇಕ ವೇಳೆ ಇದರಲ್ಲಿನ ಭಾವನೆಗಳೂ ಸಿದ್ಧಾಂತಗಳೂ ಸೂಚನೆಗಳೂ ಅಪಭ್ರಂಶವಾಗಿರುವುದು ಕಂಡು ಬಂದಿದೆ. ಈ ಕುಂದು ಕೊರತೆಗಳನ್ನೂ ಲೋಪ ದೋಷಗಳನ್ನೂ ಹೋಗಲಾಡಿಸಿ ಎಲ್ಲ ಕಡೆಯ ಮರಿಗಳೂ ಒಂದೇ ವಿಧವಾದ ನಡೆನುಡಿಗಳನ್ನೂ ಆಚಾರ ವಿಚಾರಗಳನ್ನೂ ತಿಳಿದು ಅಭ್ಯಾಸಿಸಿ ಅನುಷ್ಠಾನಕ್ಕೆ ತರಬೇಕಾದುದು ಅವಶ್ಯಕ. ಈ ಕಾರಣ ಈ ಅಂಶಗಳನ್ನು ಅನೇಕ ಹಂತಗಳಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಪರಿಷತ್ತು ಗಳಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಚರ್ಚಿಸಿ, ಅಂತರ್ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಕೇಂದ್ರವಾದ ಗಿಲ್‌ವೆಲ್‌ನಿಂದ ಪುರಸ್ಕೃತವಾಗಿ, ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಬಹು ಭಾಗಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸಮ್ಮತವಾಗಿರುವಂತೆ ಈ ಮುಂದಿನ ವಿಚಾರಗಳನ್ನು ಸೂಚಿಸಿದೆ. ಎಲ್ಲ ಹಿರಿಯಣ್ಣಂದಿರೂ ಇದನ್ನು ಓದಿ, ಮಥನಮಾಡಿ, ಮನನ ಮಾಡಿ, ಹಿಂಡುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ರೂಢಿಗೆ ತರುವರೆಂದು ಆಶಿಸುತ್ತೇನೆ.

೧. ಹಿಂಡಿನಕೂಗು : "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಮತ್ತು "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್, ಪ್ಯಾಕ್, ಪ್ಯಾಕ್"

ಒಂದು ಸಲ ಮಾತ್ರ "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಎಂದು ಕೂಗಿಸಿದರೆ ಮರಿಗಳು ತಾವು ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿರುವ ಕೆಲಸ ಕಾರ್ಯಕಾರ್ಯಗಳನ್ನು ನಿಲ್ಲಿಸಿ ಮುಂದೆ ಏನು ಹೇಳುವರು ಎಂಬುದಕ್ಕೆ ಮೌನದಿಂದ ಕಾಯಬೇಕು ಎಂದು ಅರ್ಥ. ಹಿಂಡನ್ನು ವೃತ್ತಾಕಾರವಾಗಿ ಸೇರಿಸಲು ಕೂಗುವ "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್,ಪ್ಯಾಕ್,ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಎಂಬ ಹಿಂಡಿನ ಕೂಗಿಗೆ ಮುಂಚೆ ಹುಷಾರಿ ಕೊಡಲು ಈ ಒಂಟಿ "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಕೂಗುಬೇಕಾಗಿಲ್ಲ. ಈವರಿಗೆ ಅನೇಕಕಡೆ "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್,ಪ್ಯಾಕ್, ಪ್ಯಾಕ್ ಎನ್ನುವುದು" ಪೆರೇಡ್ ಸರ್ಕಲ್ ವೈಹಾಳಿ ವೃತ್ತ ನಿರ್ಮಾಣಕ್ಕೇ ಎಂದೂ, "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಎನ್ನುವುದು ಇದರ ಪೂರ್ವ ಭಾವಿ ಎಚ್ಚರಿಕೆಯ ಕೂಗು ಎಂದೂ ಭಾವಿಸಲಾಗಿತ್ತು. ಇದು ಸರಿಯಲ್ಲ.

"ಪ್ಯಾಕ್, ಪ್ಯಾಕ್, ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಎಂದು ಕೂಗಿದೊಡನೆ :

(೧) ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಮರಿಗಳೂ ಚುರುಕಾಗಿ, ಘಟ್ಟಿಯಾಗಿ ಒಂದೇ ಸಲ "ಪ್ಯಾಕ್" ಎನ್ನಬೇಕು. ಪ್ಯಾ ಶಬ್ದವನ್ನು ಪೂರ್ತವಾಗಿ (ಅತಿ ದೀರ್ಘವಾಗಿ) ಎಳೆಯಬಾರದು.

(೨) ಅಪ್ಪಣೆ ಅಥವಾ ಸೂಚನೆ ಕೊಟ್ಟ ಹಿರಿಯರ ಸುತ್ತಲೂ ಎಲ್ಲ ಮರಿಗಳೂ ನುಗ್ಗಿ ಬಂದು ವೈಹಾಳಿ ವೃತ್ತ (ಪೆರೇಡ್ ಸರ್ಕಲ್) ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಬೇಕು.

ಗಮನಿಸಬೇಕಾದುದು :(೧) ಸೂಚನೆ ಕೊಡುವ ಹಿರಿಯರು ವೃತ್ತದ ಕೇಂದ್ರವಾಗಿ ಮಧ್ಯೆ ನಿಲ್ಲಬೇಕೇ ಹೊರತು ಮರಿಗಳೊಂದಿಗೆ ಪರಿಧಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಲ್ಲಕೂಡದು.

(೨) ಇತರ ಹಿರಿಯರು ಸೂಚನೆ ಕೊಡುವವರ ಹಿಂಭಾಗದಲ್ಲಿ ಒಂದೇ ಸಾಲಿನಲ್ಲಿ, ವೃತ್ತದ ಹೊರಗಡೆ ಹುಷಾರ್ (ಅಲರ್ಟ್) ಸ್ಥಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಂತಿರಬೇಕು.

೨. ಘನವಂದನೆ

"ಗ್ರ್ಯಾಂಡ್‌ಹೌಲ್"—ಘನಗರ್ಜನೆ ಎಂದಿದ್ದ ಶಬ್ದವು ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿ ಈಗ "ಗ್ರ್ಯಾಂಡ್ ಸಿಲ್ಯೂಟ್"—ಘನವಂದನೆ ಎಂದು ಭಾರತದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಾರ್ಪಾಟಾಗಿರುವುದನ್ನು ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ಗಮನಿಸಬೇಕು.

ಇದು ಕ್ರಮ ಬದ್ಧವಾಗಿ ಆರಂಭವಾಗುವುದನ್ನು ಖಚಿತಗೊಳಿಸಲು, ಎಲ್ಲ ಹಿಂಡುಗಳೂ ಕೂಡ ಒಂದೇ ನಿರ್ದಿಷ್ಟ ಸಂಕೇತವನ್ನು ಅನುಮೋದಿಸಿ ಆಚರಿಸಬೇಕು.

(೧) ಅಕೇಲ (ಹಿರಿಯ)ರು ವೈಹಾಳಿ ವೃತ್ತದ ನಡುವೆ ಇರಬೇಕು.

(೨) ಘನವಂದನೆಯ ದಳವಾಯಿ (ಮುಂದಾಳು) ಆಗಿದ್ದು ನೀವ್–ಸಾ–ಧೀ–ಸಿ ಎಂದು ಹೇಳುವ ಅರಾಳಿಯ (ಸಿಕ್ಸರ್) ಕಡೆ ಅಕೇಲ ತಿರುಗಿರಬೇಕು. ಅವಶ್ಯಕವೆನಿಸಿದರೆ ಅಕೇಲ ಹಿಂಡನ್ನು ಹುಷಾರ್ (ಅಲರ್ಟ್) ಸ್ಥಿತಿಗೆ ಕರೆಯಬಹುದು.

(೩) ಎರಡೂ ಬಾಹುಗಳನ್ನು ಪಕ್ಕಗಳ ಕಡೆ ಅಡ್ಡವಾಗಿ (ಬಾರನ್ನು ಅಳೆಯುವಂತೆ) ಅಕೇಲ ನೀಡುವರು. ಇದೇ ಎಚ್ಚರಿಕೆಯ ಸಂಕೇತ.

(೪) ಬಳಿಕ ಅಕೇಲ ತನ್ನ ಬಾಹುಗಳನ್ನು ದೃಢಚಲನೆಯಿಂದ ತನ್ನ ಪಕ್ಕಗಳಿಗೆ ಸೋಕುವಂತೆ ತಗ್ಗಿಸುವರು.

(೫) ಈ ಬಾಹುಗಳು ಇಳಿಯುತ್ತಿದ್ದಂತೆಯೇ ನಿಂತಿದ್ದ ಮರಿಗಳೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಕೂಡ ತಾವೂ ಕೂಡ ಕುಕ್ಕರಿಸುವರು. ಹೀಗೆ ಕುಳಿತುಕೊಳ್ಳುವಾಗ ಯಾವ ನೆಗೆತ ಬಿಗತಗಳಾಗಲಿ, ತೋಳುಗಳ ಬೀಸಾಟವಾಗಲಿ ಇಲ್ಲದೆ ನೆಟ್ಟಗೆ ಮುಮ್ಮೊಖವಾಗಿ ಮರಿಗಳು ಕುಸಿದು ಕುಕ್ಕರಿಸುವರು.

(೬) ಹೀಗೆ ಕುಳಿತ ಕೂಡಲೆ ಬೇರೆ ಯಾವ ಸಂಕೇತಕ್ಕೂ ಕಾಯದೆ ನೇರವಾಗಿ ವಂದನೆಯ ಶಬ್ದಗಳನ್ನು (ಹಿಂದಿನ ಘರ್ಜನೆಯನ್ನು) ಉಚ್ಚರಿಸಬೇಕು.

ಗಮನಿಸಬೇಕಾದುದು : "ವುಲ್ಫ್ಸ್ ಕಬ್ಸ್ ಹ್ಯಾಂಡ್ ಬುಕ್"ನಲ್ಲಿರುವಂತೆ ಈ ವಂದನೆ (ಗರ್ಜನೆ)ಯನ್ನು ಮಾಡುವಾಗ ಮುಂದಿನ ಅಂಶಗಳು ನೆನಪಿಡಬೇಕು.

(೧) ನೀವ್ ಸಾ ಧಿ ಸಿ ಎಂಬ ಮಾತುಗಳು ಘಟ್ಟಿಯಾಗಿ, ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿ ಚುರುಕಾಗಿ ಇರಬೇಕು.

(೨) "ನಾವ್" ಎನ್ನುವುದನ್ನು ಮಾತ್ರ ಒಂದು ಸೆಕೆಂಡಿನಷ್ಟು ಮಾತ್ರ ಕೊಂಚ ಮಾತ್ರವೇ ಎಳೆಯಬೇಕು!

(೩) ಸಾಧಿಸಿವು ಎನ್ನುವ ಶಬ್ದಗಳು ನೀವ್ ಸಾಧಿಸಿ ಎಂಬುದರ ಹಾಗೆಯೇ ಘಟ್ಟಿಯಾಗಿ, ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿ, ಚುರುಕಾಗಿ ಇರಬೇಕು.

(೪) ಘನವಂದನೆ (ಘರ್ಜನೆ) ಮುಗಿದ ಬಳಿಕ ವುಫ್ ಎನ್ನುವುದಾಗಲಿ, ನೆಗೆಯುವುದಾಗಲಿ ಬೇರೆ ಶಬ್ದ ಅಥವಾ ಇತರ ಚಲನೆಯಾಗಲಿ ಕೂಡದು. ಚುರುಕಾಗಿ ನೆಟ್ಟಗೆ ನಿಲ್ಲಬೇಕು, ಅಷ್ಟೆ.

(ಜ) ಈ ವಂದನೆಯನ್ನು ಸ್ವೀಕರಿಸುವ ಹಿರಿಯರು, ವಂದನೆ ಮುಗಿದ ಬಳಿಕ: "ಶಹಭಾಷ್" "ಭೇಷ್" ಅಥವಾ ಇಂತಹ ಬೇರೆ ಯಾವುದಾದರೂ ಪದದಿಂದ ತಮ್ಮ ಸ್ವೀಕಾರವನ್ನು ಸೂಚಿಸಬೇಕು.

(ಟ) 'ನಾವ್ ಸಾಧಿಪಿವು' ಹೇಳುತ್ತಿರುವಾಗ ವಂದನೆಯನ್ನು ಸ್ವೀಕರಿಸುತ್ತಿರುವ ಒಬ್ಬ ಹಿರಿಯರು ಮಾತ್ರ ವಂದಿಸುತ್ತ ನಿಂತಿರಬೇಕು. ಇತರ ಎಲ್ಲ ಹಿರಿಯರೂ ವಂದನೆಯ ಮೊದಲಿನಿಂದ ಕಡೆಯವರಿವಿಗೂ ಸುಮ್ಮನೆ "ಹುಷಾರ್" (ಅಲರ್ಟ್) ಆಗಿ ನಿಂತಿರಬೇಕು.

ಸಾಧಾರಣವಾಗಿ ವಂದನೆಯನ್ನು ಯಾರಿಗಾಗಿ ಕೊಡುತ್ತಿರುವರೋ ಅವರೊಬ್ಬರು ಮಾತ್ರ ವೈಹಾಳಿ ವೃತ್ತದ ನಡುವೆ ನಿಂತಿರಬೇಕು. ಒಂದು ವೇಳೆ ಬೇರೆ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರೋ ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳೋ ಮುರಿಗಳ ವಿಚಾರ ಅಷ್ಟು ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿ ತಿಳಿಯದೆ ಇರುವವರನ್ನು ವಂದಿಸಬೇಕಾಗಿದ್ದರೆ ಅಂಥವರೊಂದಿಗೆ ಅಕೇಲ ಸಹ ನಿಂತಿದ್ದು ಸಮಾರಂಭಕ್ಕೆ ತಾಳಿಕೆ ಕೊಡಬಹುದಲ್ಲದೆ ಘನವಂದನೆಯನ್ನೂ ಕೂಡ ನಡೆಯಿಸಿ ನೆರವಾಗಬಹುದು.

ವಂದನೆ ಮುಗಿದ ಬಳಿಕಲೂ ಹಿಂಡನ್ನು ಹುಷಾರ್ (ಅಲರ್ಟ್) ನಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಲ್ಲಿಸಿ ಇರಕೂಡದು. ಮುರಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಈ ವೇಳೆಯೇ ಹೇಳುವುದೇನಾದರೂ ಅಕಸ್ಮಾತ್ ಇದ್ದರೆ "ಸಾವಧಾನ" (ಅಟ್ ಈಸ್) ಹೇಳ ಬಳಿಕ ಹೇಳಬೇಕಾದ ಇತರ ವಿಜಾರಗಳನ್ನು ತಿಳಿಸಬೇಕು. ಇಲ್ಲವೇ ಮುರಿಗಳನ್ನು ಚದುರಿಹೋಗಲು ಅಥವ ಹೊರಟು ಹೋಗಲು ತಿಳಿಸಬೇಕು.

Sri K. A. KESHAVAIYENGAR, one of the Scouters of Bharat Scouts & Guides being interviewed by President Rajendra Prasad at Raj Bhavan, New Delhi in connection with St. John's Ambulance Association G. B. Meeting

Extract from World Scouting Bulletin— Volume 1, No. 3, of March 1961.

To an outsider Scouting may at first appear to be a very complex matter, and probably many decide not to become Scouters because they feel there may be an enormous versity of things they would have to know in order to lead boys.

So let's keep Leadership Training simple. Otherwise, we may fail to attract the man who has initiative, self-reliance, and imagination.

Scouter Training started with Baden-Powell's "Hints to Instructors" included in "Scouting for Boys". Some experimental courses were organised in camps in the early stages of Movement. The first Wood Badge Course was run in Great Britain in 1919. Training Courses at District Level were instituted in 1928. There were eventually replaced by the Preliminary Training Course which is a suitable preparation for the Wood Badge Course.

The Preliminary Course is for beginners and inexperienced Scouters, while the Wood Badge Course is a Leadership Training Course for Scouters who already have some experience.

"Simple" does not mean "poor". To remain simple in training is an art. Simplicity is the art of presenting the essentials of our Movement in such a way that an individual is enabled to think and act independently and in the right direction.

Let us keep Leadership Training simple and basic.

The Lookout

The National Emergency created by the once 'Hindi-Chini Bhai-Bhai' has called all of us, the members of our Movement to 'DO OUR BEST.' Our Motto 'BE PREPARED' and the promise each one of us took on the dates we got invested as members of the Movement are to be put into sincere practice, more at this juncture.

The circulars issued in this respect by the State Chief Commissioner and the State Commissioner (G) and me are reproduced in the other pages of this issue. These give an outline of what each one of us individually and in Groups is expected to do. Please 'Do your best.' The District Associations will please intimate the State Headquarterss fortnightly what has been done so that the State Headquarters can in turn pass on the information to the National Headquarters for record and publication in their special bulletins.

From the 2nd to the 10th November, 1962 and in the company of the Joint State Secretary and the A.S.O.Cs (G & S) of the Divisions concerned, I visited 4 Divisions which included 9 Districts with 25 places. The knowledge I learnt first hand is the following :—

i. As ever, and as in other countries as well, there is no dearth for the number of boys and girls to become Scouts and Guides. In fact in one Taluk Headquarters town we were presented with a Guide Company, without a Guider. There has been one such in one of the schools in Bangalore also. These young ladies got together and carried on Guiding and when they wanted guidance they have taken it from one of the lady teachers in the school though the teacher is not a trained Guider. These instances in our State today would remember to all of us in the Movement that it is the similar urge in the boys of the United Kingdom in the early years of the nineteen hundreds that impelled the Founder to carry out experimental camps in 1907 and then formulate the principles and the methods in 1908.

ii. There are adult leaders eager to do their best by way of their examples and earnestness to help the youngsters learn the game of Scouting and benefit themselves. The Movement however needs more of these selfless workers to come out of their shells, help more youngsters and feel the resultant happiness themselves.

and, iii. The Commissioners at all levels including those at the State Headquarters plus the State Headquarters Staff should do much more than at present to help the Scouters and through them the young charges under them.

I wish all 'Sisters' and 'Brothers' the best and God's Blessings in their efforts to help during the present National Emergency.

V. K. SUNDARAM
State Commissioner (Scouts)

State Chief Commissioner's Call

Dear Friend,

Last week you have all heard the message to the Nation by our Prime Minister Shri Jawaharlal Nehru in connection with the unabashed aggression by the Chinese forces. He has frankly mentioned the duties and responsbilities cast on the citizens of Bharat as a result of the National emergency thus created. The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, should rise as one man to support the Government in all possible ways during the emergency.

In his call to the Nation, Mr. Nehru has said, " We shall have to carry a heavy burden, all of us, whatever our vocations may be. The price of freedom will have to be paid in full measure and no price is too great for the freedom of our people and our mother-land."

During the Second World War the Scouts and Guides of Bharat rendered yeomen service in keeping up the morale on the Home Front. As citizens of Bharat it is once again our duty to put forth an all-out effort to help the Government in the present situation. The members of the Movement should immediately contribute their mite to the National Defence Fund. The amount collected in each area may be sent to the State Secretary, Bharat Scouts and Guides, Irwin Circle, Fort, Bangalore-2, who will acknowledge receipt of the amount. The amount thus gathered will be handed over to the Chief Minister of Mysore. Scouts and Guides should offer their service to the local authorities and local commitees formed for the said purpose. Let us intensify our training and programmes. There are several suggestions as to how we could serve the Nation at the present juncture. Contacting the famililies of the Jawans fighting in the front and helping them as much as we could, starting first-aid and nursing courses running fair price Depots, stitching and gathering woollen clothe for the Jawans fighting in the cold climate of the Himalayas deserve our immediate attention.

The State Headquarters will be glad to receive reports of help and service rendered in this behalf by Scouts and Guides all over the State so that it might be duly published for the information of the public and the members of the Movement.

Yours in service,

P. Lwn Dhankar

State Chief Commissioner

SCOUTS & GUIDES
ROLL IN NATIONAL DEFENCE ACTIVITIES

The Bharat Scouts & Guides, Mysore State have taken a great part in Defence activies such activities, such as raising funds, collecting the names of blood donors, collecting woollen clothing for the use of our Jawans and also sweets, pickles, papadam etc. Our Guides and Guiders are organising knitting work in different localities and have already supplied woollen socks for the nse of oar Jawans on the front.

It may be of interest to mention here the members of the Stat H. Q. have contributed a day's earnings towards the Jawans Welfare Fund. The Mysore City District Association has sent Rs. 100/-. Several local and District Associations have sent contributions towards the Jawans Welfare Fund in addition to the Scouts and Guides of Several units throughout the State.

Call to Youth Organisations

By Mrs. Indira Gandhi

India is facing a grave crisis. Reports coming in from different towns testify to the tremendous enthusiasm and spirit of unity which prevails amongst our people.

The youth of the country have an important part to play, especially with regard to the following points :—

1. Great care is to be taken that unscrupulous parties, political or otherwise, do not exploit the situation for their own ends - creating confusion and panic or lowering the morale of the people.

2. Warn our workers and the public not to be taken in by anti-social elements. Whatever grievances the people may have, this is not the time to air them or to attempt to weaken the Government or the solidarity of the people in any way.

3. Shopkeepers, retailers etc., should not be allowed to raise their prices.

4. Sharp look-out to be kept on rumour-mongering or spreading of panic.

5. Life must continue as normally as possible in schools, colleges, places of business and entertainment, etc. It is desirable to limit Diwali and other festivities to the minimum. Money saved in this way could be sent to the Prime Minister's National Defence Fund.

6. People should try to curb superfluous spending and should conserve electricity and other such commodities.

7. Funds should be collected only by responsible and authorised bodies. There is no harm in each city or State having a Fund drive. Later, these can be consolidated in a Nation-wide effort.

8 Students and others could make money by selling old magazines and other such articles. Children could sell comics and so on. The proceeds of these sales be donated to the Prime Minister's National Defence Fund.

9. Knitted (large man size) garments are also needed. Sweaters, mufflers, gloves, balaclava helmets, Quilted waist-coasts. These must be olive gre n or Khaki in colour.

10. The public should be urged to buy Prize Bonds, invest in National Savings Certificates and small Savings

11. Don't waste your time. Keep busy. Study hard.

12. If there is any training programme such as Home Guards, Prantiya Raksha Dal etc , in your locality, do join. Otherwise do physical exercise and keep fit.

13. Propagate grow more food campaign.

14. Persuade people to use only the absolute minimum petrol.

15. Everybody who can, should take training in first-aid, learn nursing, typing, driving and other such attainments which might be needed later on.

16. Above all everybody must keep calm and be prepared for hardship and difficulties.

Constant Propaganda amongst all sections of the people. This military action will affect everybody and it is not a party or sectarian affair, and if any group seeks to take advantage of it, it will bring disaster to the whole nation including itself.

Appeal from National Headquarters

Dear Brother,

By now you must have placed the services of all your Scouts, Scouters, Guides, Guiders, infact the entire organisation of your State at the disposal of your State Government, to meet the present National Emergency. Also I feel sure that every one connected in the movement is doing his/her best to make himself/herself useful to the country according to the needs of his/her locality. The matter does not need any direction from the National Headquarters. As, however, I have received communications from a number of friends asking for direction, I detail below some of the things that our boys and girls can take up:

1 Joining, and encouraging others to join Armed Forces, N.C.C., and other defence services, according to one's circumstances.

2 Blood donations by self and others.

3 Hospital duties for the wounded.

4 Messenger services.

5 Fire-fighting services.

6 Services to the families of the men at the front:

i) Occasional friendly visits to their homes, and attending to their difficulties and needs.

ii) Acting as liason between them and the agencies for their welfare in the area.

iii) Cheering them up in their moments of depressions.

iv) Keeping up their spirits by occasionally reading or relating to them stories of valour and heroic deeds.

7 Keeping up the morale of the people by:

i) Discouraging and discountenancing loose talks.

ii) Arranging singing parties, plays, camp fires, talks etc. depicting valour and heroism.

iii) Discounting rumours.

iv) Bringing the legetimate difficulties of the people to the notice of the relevant authorities.

8 Helping to maintain the economy of the country by constantly propagating the need of reducing wants in all directions, keeping a vigilant eye on fifth column activities.

i) Guarding strategic bridges and rail-tracks.

ii) Guarding power and electric Installations.

iii) Keeping effective watch over mischievous rumours, and other demoralising statements.

iv) Keeping a close watch on hoarders, price racketeers, and black marketeers.

Kindly note that the above list is only illustrative and not exhaustive. You can add many more items to it from your experience of the conditions in your State.

It will be greatly appreciated if you can keep the National Headquarters generally in touch with your activities in this connection.

An appeal from the President Bharat Scouts & Guide

The Bharat Scouts and Guides have a ways stood for service to the Nation. During this critical period when the Chinese have attacked our country, everything possible must be done to drive them out. I appeal to everyone belonging to Bharat Scouts & Guides and each and every Scout and Guide to do his or her part in helping the country either by actual service or by liberal contribution to the War Fund.

Ammu Swaminathan,
President,
The Bharat Scouts & Guides.

6 LAKHS OF SCOUTS FOR NATIONAL SERVICE

The Executive Committee of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, at a meeting on 25th November 1962, formed an Emergency Council to channelise and gear up its activities during the present emergency. Similar councils for the States were also formed.

The meeting decided to offer the services of more than Six Lakh Scouts and Guides for National Service in the present crisis.

The meeting decided to intensify activities in rifle training, first aid and helping the Jawans with amenities.

National Emergency

Dear Brother,

Further to circulars issued by the State Chief Commissioner and the State Commissioner (G) earlier, on this issue:—

Members of this Movement from Cubs to Commissioners would please remember that on the day each one of us was invested and embraced into this Movement, each one of us has taken the 'Promise' that he would do his best to do his duty to the country. This emergency requires us not so much to renew it but to put it into action. True to the motto 'BE PREPARED' let us prepare ourselves in collaboration with the various Emergency Committees set up by the State Government and do our best.

Since a month from to-day quite an appreciable lot of work has been done by the Members of this Movement all over our country and in our State in particular, including our sisters, from the Bulbuls to Guide Commissioners.

This circular is to give you further guidance in our activities to be continued for the duration of this Emergency, without prejudice to the pursuance of each one's vocation in life, as usual, but by donating the spare time, energy and resource. Wherever possible able bodied Rovers and Scouters can offer their personal services by getting recruited into the Territorial or the Regular Army.

It is important to remember that at all levels our Commissioners should act in consultation and in co-operation with the various Civil Defence Committees organised by State Government, at the District and Taluk levels, by providing the manpower in Senior Scouts (well built and 15+ in age). Rovers (proper) and Scouters, to make the State drive a success.

The District Commissioners (S) and their Assistant District Commissioners (S) should become members of the various Committees at the District and Taluk level. The members at the State Headquarters would be in the Committees in Bangalore.

The District Commissioners (Scouts) helped by their Asst District Commissioners (Scouts) should forthwith maintain registers of Senior Scouts, Rover Scouts, Scouters and Commissioners who should vounteer to get trained in the following:—

First Aid Sick Nursing
Fire Fighting
Home Nursing
A. R. P.
Home Guards
National Rifles and Any * other Civil Defence Squads.

* Helping families of personnel fighting in the forward—should also be under-taken in co-operation with Panchayat Samithis, Tq. Boards & Dist. Boards.

Volunteers to donate blood (21+) should be registered with the local Government Agency established for this purpose. Please note, blood donors would not be asked to give the blood forthwith as and when they get registered The name, age, address etc., would be taken first, at a later date groups of these volunteers would be classified into the various blood groups and at a still later period the blood would be collected. With all these stages involved in this matter it need not be stressed again that maintanence of a proper register is imperative. For further information I should enlighten our brothers that even after the blood is collected, it is not sent, preserved of course, direct to the needy wounded but it would be sent to special laboratories in Poona and other places where it would be converted into staple forms known as 'Plasma' etc., and finally sent to the Base Hospitals or Mobile Surgical Units in the forward areas for the wounded.

To co-ordinate the efforts of the District Commissioners (Scouts) and the Asst. District Commissioners (S), Sub-Committees should be formed with Scouters available in each District and Taluk and periodical (fortnightly) reports of work done should be sent to the State Head-quarters for on ward submission to National Headquarters, New Delhi. National Headquarters is proposing to publish a bulletin containing accounts of the work done by our members.

The District Commissioners (S) and their Asst. District Commissioners (S) would please keep an official record of the services rendered by the individual members of the various units. A proforma indicating the more important duties of volunteers as put up by the National Headquarters is enclosed for adoption and maintenance of records.

District Commissioners (S) and Asst. District Commissioners (S) please remember, not to permit or encourage Scouts to take any individual responsibility in collecting funds or any other material for the National Defence Fund, lest such an activity be misconstrued by the public, but would certainly send Senior Scouts, Rovers and Scouters to work with the Government Agencies and help them, and keep a record.

The State Headquarters would like to have the fortnightly reports to reach tho State Headquarters on the following dates of the months --10th and 25th, whatever is available even it be small, to enable the State Headquarters to compile and send the same to the National Headquarters by the 13th and the 23rd. Can I request that the first report in this respect should reach the State Headquarters by 10th December, 1962 ?.

I am sure that this report would contain enough to please the authorities concerned, for, an appreciable work has already been done in response to the first two circulars referred to at the beginning of this circular.

Finally I would give herein extracts of what we have been asked today by the National Commissioner and the Chief Commissioner (Scouts) Sri Pandit H. N. Kunzru and Sri Madan Mohan, respectely.

"Kindly convey to the members of the Movement my message, requesting them to live up to our Promise and Law and to act according to our Motto.

Sd/- H. N. Kunzru, National Commissioner.

"This is a testing time both for the ideals of the Movement and for the training that it imparts. Let each and every, boy and girl, man and woman in the Movement rise to the occasion and give solid proof of his/her staunch adherence to the first point of the Scout/Guide Promise.

Sd/-Madan Mohan,
Chief Commissioner, (S)"

I wish you all, the best in your efforts, health, strength, and the most important, God's blessings.

Yours sincerely
V. K. SUNDARAM
State Commissioner (Scouts)

Blood Bank

VICTORIA HOSPITAL, BANGALORE

AN APPEAL

It is needless to draw your attention to the fact that blood is a vital fluid which sustains life. Lack of this vital fluid reduces the vitality of man and when an appreciable quantity of it is lost, life may be impossible. Blood can help man under such ciscumstances. In the Hospitals many patients are adimitted suffering from anaemia which is a condition caused by the quantitative or qualitative deficiency of blood. Treatment with medicine for such patients is a prolonged one where the patient has to stay in the hospital for months which means great expense on the part of the Government and anxiety for the patient.

Many lives were lost in the olden times when blood transfusion was not in vogue during child birth due to loss of blood and to-day the medical profession can boast of having saved such lives with the advantage of blood transfusion.

Blood is also required during major operations, and many, operations will be impossible without blood. Lives could be saved through blood transfusion during accidents and accidents are very common these days with the increase in traffic and also in the increase in heavy industries.

All this means blood should be available in sufficient quantities at all times to meet any emergency so that lives could be saved from extinction.

It is needless to go into the technical details about blood Suffice it to say that there are four different groups of blood and one group cannot be given to another. It again means that there should be enough stock of blood in each group so that any emergency could be tackled promptly than waste time in searching for suitable donors.

Unfortunately, man has not been able to prepare blood outside his body. It is human body alone that has the privilege of preparing this vital fluid. Unfortunately again, animal blood cannot be transfused to human beings. How then can we meet such emergencies? It goes without saying that somebody who can spare blood from his body should spare it to save another life which is in danger.

Who should Donate Blood-

Any normal healthy individual without distinction of sex, between the ages of 18 and 45 years enjoys the privilege of donating blood.

Experiments have proved beyond doubt that blood donation is painless and harmless. In some instances, it has been found that some individuals have gained weight after donating blood. There are persons, who have donated blood as many as 70-80 times. Rev. Upham of Madras for instance has donated blood 73 times and hopes to donate many more times again. There are many more like Rev. Upham who have donated their blood several times to save many lives. Why not make it your chance now to save life? DONATE YOUR BLOOD AT THE BLOOD BANK, VICTORIA HOSPITAL and enlist your name in the list of saviours of life.

A list of Blood Donors will be maintained at the office of the State Headquarters, Bharat Scouts and Guides, Bangalore-2. This is the best opportunity for you to donate your blood and enlist your name in the list of saviours of life. You can give your name any time between 8 A.M. and 8 pm., every day.

How A Boy Scout Troop Secures A Scout Master in U. S. A.

A Troop Committee meeting will be called by its Chairman. This is the day when he is going to have his S. M. You will have to go to a School or a Church where the troop meets. There you will see the neighbouring Commissioners. District Commissioner and the parents of the boys that are going to form the troop. At this meeting, after formalities, the various qualities of the S. M. are discussed. The S. M.'s work is emphatically set down thus "To work with and through selected Boy Leaders and through responsible adults individually and in groups to make the Scouting programme available to boys."

Col. Charles L. Simpson, Executive Officer of the Aberdeen Proving Ground greeting the Boy Scout Commissioner from Mysore

The District Commissioner leads the discussions on the essential qualities of a good S. M. which have been set down as follows :—

A prospective S.M. should have :—

1) Some experience in co-operative group activity.

2) A Capacity for leadership with evidence of the ability to plan and delegate :

3) Liking for boys and ability to win their friendship ;

4) The ability to help Boy Leaders lead and make their own decisions ;

5) An Appreciation of the outdoors as an essential in the Boy Scout Programme ;

6) A willingness to devote a definite amount of time to training and activities;

7) Status in the community that will win the confidence of parents and institutional leaders ;

8) Willingness to accept the ideals and principles of the Boy Scouts of America.

It is the special privilege of the Chairman to present to the members of the Committee a panel of prospective Scout Masters Special emphasis is laid on the persons who are fathers of Troop members. Each prospect is rated by each member for each of the eight qualities mentioned above and his recommendation is recorded on a four point scale.

A = Excellent B = Good C = Fair D = Unsatisfactory.

The Group Committee's recommendations are pooled to find out who is A, B, C or D. If the group that is recommended is large, the Chairman appoints a 3 or 4 man Committee to finalise the selection of the S. M. Usually, he members will be those who are well acquainted with the prospects and who are also aware of the responsibilities of a S. M. It is to be noted that they do not prejudice and say that "So and so may not accept and let us go to the next." The choice of accepting or rejecting is left entirely to the prospect.

Then the Sub Committee members will fix up a date and Preferably make an appointment with Prospect 'A' in his home to discuss matters on Scouting. If all the three members cannot be present on that day, it is stated that the meeting is postponed to another suitable date.

The momentous time is when the members meet the Prospect. They explain to him of the great and responsible work the group has requested him to do and the nice chance for his rendering service. They also point out that his selection is by the group and that all of them support him and give assistance in the great job he will be doing.

It is left to the Prospect to accept or reject it. If he rejects it, the same procedure is undertaken with Prospect 'B'.

When the Prospect accepts, he is registered at the Council and now THE TROOP HAS A SCOUT MASTER.

Scouting & Guiding in National Emergency

Scouting has spread far and wide and it has attracted the young as well as the old of the world. Scouting not only trains leaders but also teaches the young to follow the leader. The aim of Scouting is service to God, and country. All our efforts are God centred. The daily good turns make us feel that we work not with the expectation of any reward.

This movement contains in it all the elements necessary to correct our social and other defects. It fills the boys and girls at the most impressionable period of their lives with an enthusiam for the welfare of the State to the extinction of purely personal wishes and engenders a spirit of service of the greatest benefit to the National Good. The importance of enlisting the help of boys and girls cannot be over-rated and the great value of this movement is that it opens the eyes of the young to the opportunities of service, suited to their age, sex and capabilities. Our country is greatly in need of Leaders and this movement is very useful in evoking the capacity for leadership and producing a spirit of fellowship so as to obtain the maximum benefit from team work and enjoyment of outdoor life, personality, tact, sympathy and broad mindedness.

It is necessary that a true change in our hearts alone can make us worthy sons of our country. Service can be efficiently offered only with pure hearts and able bodies.

B.- P., has defined Scouts as being of two kinds :-War Scouts and Peace Scouts. A War Scout is a man selected for his reliability, courage and intelligence to go ahead of a force to find out all about the enemy. On his good work and sense of duty depends very largely the success or failure of an expedition. A Peace Scout is the kind of man we find among the pioneers and trappers. For all scouts, wood craft, powers of observation, loyalty to their duty, chivalry, courage and endurnce are the necessary qualities.

During the present National Emergency, members of our movement can join Defence forces, Home Guards, Ambulance, Fire Brigade, National Volunteer Rifles and Volunteer Corps for Civil Protection etc.

Even during the II World War, the members of our movement joined the army, Navy, Air Force etc., and won some of the highest badges including the National Service and War Service Badges. Now that India is facing the menace from China, it is all the more necessary that all our Scouts, Guides, Scouters and Guiders rise to the occasion and offer themselves for service in all branches of defence and thus fulfil our Promise.

Anti-Agression Day Observed

The Bharat Scouts and Guides participated at the mammoth meeting of the City of Bangalore held on the 14th November 1962 at Subhasnagar. Sri S. Nijalingappa, Chief Minister, Govt. of Mysore, said that Bangalore had never witnessed such mass enthusiasm before. People used to gather in such large numbers during the struggle for freedom. It was indeed a matter for gratification to see that people of all sections rich and poor, women and children had risen like one man to expel the enemy. He called upon the people to be ready for any sacrifice to preserve freedom.

We the Bharat Scouts & Guides assure that we are behind our popular Chief Minister in all his endeavours.

Our State Treasurer:-Sri. G. Sivappa

We are very happy to announce here that Sri G. Sivappa, a former president of the Mysore Chamber of Commerce, President of the Local Association, Chamarajapet Area, and a Subscribing member of the Bangalore North District and the State Associations, has been unanimously elected as the State Treasurer in the vacancy caused by the resignation of Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, D. C. C., subsequent on his taking up the post of the Deputy Minister for Finance, at the 44th Annual Meeting of the General Body of the State Association held on 18th November 1962.

Sri G. Sivappa was a Scout and a Leader of the 15th Bangalore(Kantheerava)Scout Group, an Open Unit of repute and has been connected with our organisation for over three decades.

He is a business magnate of high order with pleasing manners and has a lot of zeal and enthusiasm for service to fellow beings. Generous as he is, the Scouts and Guides of the State will be largely benefitted by his unstinted service to them. We are sure that he will be able to enlist the sympathy and suppor of the generous public in the State to pep up our activities.

We wish him all success in his endeavours as our STATE TREASURER.

NEWS FROM THE DISTRICTS.

MYSORE

Proceedings of the meeting of the Local Association Mysore City held on Saturday the 10th November 1962 at 4-30 p.m. at Sri Jayachamarajendra Scout & Guide Headquarters, Mysore, in connection with the National Emergency, State Jamborette and the Annual Scout Rally.

The Dist Commissioner (Scouts) explained that the main unction and services of Bharat Scouts and Guides would be to mobilize and co-ordinate all civilian effort to meet the present National Emergency. He read the circular issued by the State Chief Commissioner. The Commissioner announced that Shri M. R Ramaswamy, Asst- D.C.C.&A.D.C (S) who was a Commissioned Officer in the 2nd World war has offered his service again to serve in the Defence Forces and thanked him on behalf of the Association.

Sri M. R. Ramaswamy expressed the following views and moved the following resolution which was unanimously passed.

"The Government of India having proclaimed a state of emergency in the country, it should be the duty of every Citizen of the Country to do his best to support the Government in this hour of trial for the Defence of our Frontiers. During the Second World War the Scouts & Guides rendered yeomen service. It is once again our duty to put forth an all out effort to save the country from the present crisis. The main function of the Bharat Scouts & Guides will be to mobilize and co-ordinate all civilian effort to meet the present National Emergency. Members of our Movement can join Defence Forces, A. R. P., Home Guards, Ambulance, Fire-Brigade, National Volunteer Rifles and National Volunteer Corps for Civil protection. Now there are many ways that a Scout or Guide can render service to the Country in all kinds of National Emergency."

Resolved to request all the members of Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore City, to face the emergency created by the Chinese aggressors with religious zeal, and full faith, and render all service, help and support to the Government.

Annual Scout Rally

It was also unanimously decided to conduct the annual Scout Rally during December 1962.

GUIDE SECTION

APPEAL

You are aware of the critical situation in which our country is placed due to the present war with China. Help in money, kind and other ways is required for the defence of our country.

At an Emergency Meeting of local Guide Commissioners held at GirlGuide Headquarters on 1-11-1962, at 11 a.m., it was discussed how best the Guides, Guiders, and Rangers could help in the war effort. The following suggestions were put forth:-

1. Knitting Sweaters, Socks, Gloves and Mittens for our Jawans in Olive Green, Khaki or grey.

2. Contributions in shape of wool and money for the purchase of wool.

3. Assisting in rolling Bandages and undertaking sewing work for the Red Cross.

4. Companies to raise funds by unit-wise Raffles, Sales, Concerts, Entertainments and contributions towards Defence Funds.

5. Offering to donate Blood and enlisting Blood Donors who are willing to donate blood in case of emergency to the Blood Bank.

6. Arranging First-Aid and Sick Nursing classes at various centres for the Senior Guiders, Rangers and Guiders. District Commissioner (Guides) must concentrate on giving intensive training in First-Aid, Emergencies and Sick Nursing to Rangers and Guiders. Some of them may only require brushing up their knowledge and renewal of Certificates.

7. Enlisting as regular Nurses for Army Service or as relieving Nurses in local Hospitals in case of emergency.

Friends, unstinted service and sacrifice is required in the defence of our country. Le us all rise to the occasion and as true Guides " BE PREPARED " for any emergency. Our combined effort can help to win the war.

Leela Anjanappa,

State Commissioner (Guides)

PATROL EMBLEMS FOR GIRL GUIDES

Patrol Emblems of the following kinds are available at the Girl Guide Headquarters, Seshadri Road, Bangalore-9.

Lotus, Lily, Cornflower, Poppy and Pansy at 40nP. each.

Reports on the First All-India Guiders' Seminar held at Pachmarhi (M.P.) are also available at 28nP. each.

Training Camps at Pachmarhi (M. P.) for Guiders:

Two training camps were conducted at Pachmarhi (M. P.) in the month of October 1962, a Handicrafts' Course and a Ranger Leaders' Course, the former from 4th to 13th October 1962 and the later from 16th October to 25th October 1962. Four Guiders took advantage of these courses from Mysore State. Miss Iffath Fathima, A. S. O. C. (G), Mysore Division, Mrs Gowramma, A. D. C. (G), Miss Radhamma, Secretary, Local Association, Visweswarapuram and Miss K. T. Banashankaramma, Secretary, Local Association, Chamarajapet.

Handicrafts' Course, Pachmarhi.

Miss Mathur from Delhi was in charge of the Handicrafts Course. The trainees were taught painting, making beautiful articles out of plaster of paris and paper pulp. They had a great fun in making donkeys out of a rope. These donkeys were not merely for fun but also for practical use. On either side of the donkey small parcels are made and these packets could be used for keeping useful things which can be easily reached.

Mrs. C. Mohini, National Camp Chief (G) was incharge of the course assisted by Miss Violet Caleb, N.O.C. (G) and others. She planned the activities so well that things went on very well all the time our guide spirit increasing.

Of the advance tests, the following were very much enjoyed by the trainees 1) Taking refuge in a natural trench and cooking breakfast without the help of utensils, 2) A wide game conducted on the 17th October 1962, 3) A overnight camp at Dhoop Garh, and 4) Blind fold game.

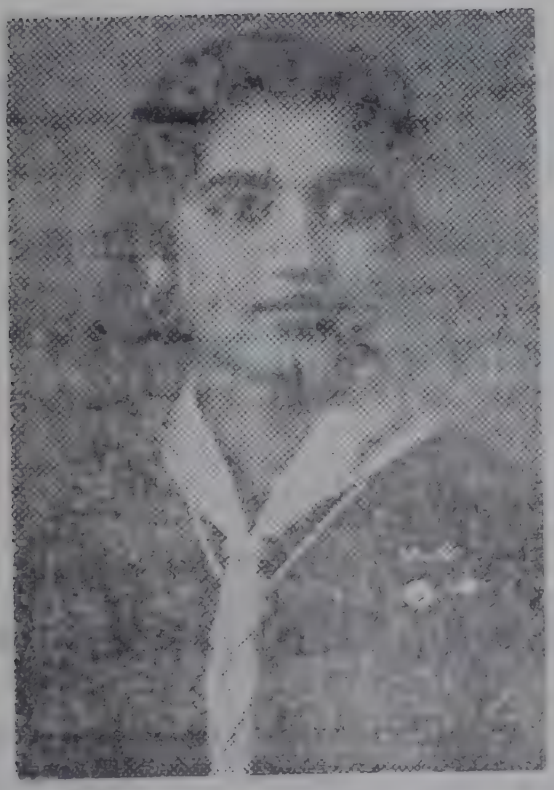
A Mysore Girl Guide in Abelboden (Switzerland)



Miss Shantha Sircar, Ranger, the Home School, Basavangudi was one of the two representatives selected by the National Headquarters, New Delhi, to attened the Juliet Low Session at Switzerland. She left Bangalore on the 9th July 1962 and arrived at Bombay on the 11th where she met Miss Yadav the other Guide selected for the project. Both of them flew to Delhi, on the 12th for a get-together camp. They left India on the 16th July and making their journey partly by air and partly by train they reached Abelboden the next evening.

They were heartily received by the other guides who had come from the other parts of the world. The main purpose of this Session was to develop more intimate contact between the guides of various countries. Eight countries of the world participated in the Sessions two from each country—Austria Brazil, Denmark, Finland, Ghana, India, Switzerland and U. S. A.,

They had regular Sessions from the 18th July 1962. Each representative had to talk on her country's tradition. History religion, customs, dress, Government Service, Projects, leadership etc., giving particular importance for the Scout and Guide Movement. In addition they had occasion to learn the songs and games of other countries which kept them lively and happy.

Discussions were not only on Guiding but on the whole movement. Simply because it was meant purely for guides, there is no reason to think for the Scouts that their problem did not come up for discussions. They had a clear appraisal of the functions of the world Bureau.

Miss Shantha Sircar, though still very young, is lucky in having had this opportunity of attending the Juliet Low sessions at Switzerland. We wish her good Guiding.

International Scout and Guide Club, Bangalore

Under the auspices of the above Club, Miss Shantha Sircar who recently attended a Juliet Low Session at Switzerland gave her experiences and also exhibited the badges of different countries she had collected. The meeting was held at Girl Guides Headquarters, Bangalore.

Mrs. Leela Anjanappa, State Commissioner (Guides) who had been to Australia as one of the two delegates to attend the Conference of "Associated Country Women of the World" narrated her experiences.

Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram, M.C., State Commissioner (S), presided. Sri E. Hanumantha Rao welcomed the gathering while Miss Padma Nair proposed the vote of thanks.

Extracts from the Log Book of a Ranger Service Camp, Pachmarhi (M.P.)

3-10-1962 : Rules and regulations regarding the use of rooms in the Guide Bhavan, Rules of Hygiene, care of camp site, camp fire etc., drafting of Do's and Dont's.

5-10-1962 : Watering the 64 representative plants from all States of India planted in the shape of Bharat Mata. This was really a job as we had to draw Water from a neighbouring Nalla.

Making a toy for Baba Arun within half an hour. The first toy which he might pick up would be adjudged the best. A big aeroplane was his choice "Zum ! ! !" he said and showed the direction up. Although there were no consolation prizes, other toys which included were a fairy, a windmill, a bird and a doll which were worth the trouble.

Daily : Gadgets :—Gadgets consisted in making tables and other useful ones which could be prepared with the material on hand.

Hike : Hike to Dhoop Garh was the most memorable event.

Visit : Visit to Military School was enjoyed very much by all.

There were quite a number of mothers that included wives of officers and subordinate staff. There were babies in arms also. We carried the infants with us outside and kept them busy playing games etc., while Di-Di gave a talk to the mothers. While the Di-Di took the mothers outside for active games we kept the children busy making toys for them.

The Call

Everything else is secondary to the freedom of our people and our Motherland. We must have faith in ourselves. We must steel our wills. We shall have to carry a heavy burden —all of us, whatever our vocations may be. The price of freedom will have to be paid in full measure, and no price is too great for the freedom of our people and our Motherland.

I want you to hold your heads high and have faith and full confidence in the great future that we envisage for our country.

The Lookout

The readers of 'The Mysore Scout & Guide' monthly magazines are requested to refer back to the October-November 1961 issue and therein the Article 'Investiture Ceremany for Cubs, Scouts and Rovers' and also to 'The Lookout' in the June 1962 issue which gives in detail the conventional procedure followed when Commissioners are appointed and issued with the warrants. The Scouters of various categories in the Cub, Scout and Rover Sections of the Movement and all the Commissioners in the Movement, in this State, need in particular make themselves fully conversant with the details of the above articles and in conjunction with the following rules of the A.P. R.O. Nos. 415, 452 and 495.

The object of Boy Scout training is to educate the boy, the individual boy, and not a mass of them at any time, by drawing out the best in the boy and helping him to learn for himself, of his own desire, the things that tend to build up 'character' in him. One of the essentials for character is discipline. Discipline in its various aspects expects one to observe rules and regulations. The Scouters who are to be personal examples to their Scouts should always do things as per A.P. R.O. of The Bharat Scouts and Guides.

Mass investiture and mass enrolment have no place in the code of Scouting. It is to suppress even a rare instance of this indisciplined practice perhaps through sheer ignorance that the above quoted articles have been published in this magazine and the trainees in the various Scouters' training courses have been imbued with correct details.

A statement on page 9 of the October 1962 issue of this magazine under the heading 'Investiture of Scouts' cannot pass off without my observations. It is an unfortunate and unceremonial affair as far as the principles of Scouting are concerned. The Scout ranks of the dignitaries named in this statement are not mentioned. I am taking up the matter to get the situation clarified. Meanwhile I wish to express hereby that I, as State Commissioner (Scouts), feel ashamed.

One of the important reasons for such unpleasant things to take place is that a few of our District Commissioners are not trained well in the methods of the Scout Mevement. A.R-R.O. rule No. 128 lays down clearly that District Commissioners should possess a knowledge of these at the time of appointment or should train themselves soon after appointment.

The State Headquarters would arrange to have a Commissioners' Course as soon as possible and I request that all the Commissioners in the State would take up this chance even if it should be a refresher course for some of them.

On the 5th of this month (October 1962) I visited a Patrol Leaders Training Course at Bidar. The camp under canvas was tolerably well run by the Scouters of the boys who took the training. A good collection of Girl Guides under their Leaders was also there that day, a visitors' day, to observe and learn camping and other arrangements. It was very heartening to see the enthusiasm of the boys and the girls and the way they were being led by the Leaders. I wish the Scouts and the Guides of Bidar continued Good Hunting and appreciate the leadership of the Scouters and the interest evinced by the Guiders.

On the 16th October 1962, I had the pleasure to visit at Manoharabad, 25 miles from Secunderabad (A.P.), another camp, a Preliminary Cub Masters' Training conducted by Sri C. Kuppurajan, D.C.C., Central Railways. The pleasure was mine to have visited another well run camp by a brother of the National Training Team.

State Commissioner (Scouts)

"THE GILWELL LETTER - JULY 1957" (reproduced)

"A Divisional Commissioner from South Africa (the equivalent of a County Commissioner in the U.K.) and an Assistant County Commissioner for Training, both attending one Wood Badge Course is not unusual, but it was unusual to see two such distinguished people taking a Cub Wood Badge Course, and how greatly I commend the idea to all Commissioners. After all, Cubbing and Cubs these days are nearly half the total strength of the Movement and I am sure that the more Commissioners know about Cubbing the more they will be able to help. After the initial shock of being in such an august presence the encouragement given to the ordinary Cub Master and Assistant Cub Master who find themselves working side-by-side with such disgnitaries is tremendous."

"Two years ago I was working with a Wood Badge Course in the United States of America and as a member of the Course was a delighful character whose age was in the upper strata and whose enthusiasm was quite unmatched. He told me then, and to my shame I did not take it seriously at the time, that if he passed he was coming to Gilwell to receive the Wood Badge. Eighteen months later to Gilwell he came, complete with his proud wife. He was not content just to have his Wood Badge presented but nsisted on spending a night camping with a Patrol so that he got, within the limitation of the short time available to him, a real taste of the Gilwell atmosphere. I have hung many Wood Badges round a great number of necks, but I do not think I was ever more pleased then at the presentation I was privileged to make to George White of the U,S.A.

JOHN THURMAN,
Camp Chief".

We have had in our State a few of the above categories of Commissioners in the past, particularly one in the so called 'upper strata' who took a Cub Wood Badge Part II, under me and who is an Assistant State Commissioner even to this day. When he took the Course in 1954, he was 65 years old. It is a pleasure to see him active enough still- I wish more of the Commissioners emulate this fine example.

25 October, 1962- State Commissioner (Scouts)

Training Camps at the Central Training Camp, Dodballapur

The Rover Scouts' Adventure and Scouts' Handicrafts Courses were conducted at the Central Training Camp. Dodballapur from 6th to 12th October 1962 and 6th to 11th October 1962 respectively. Sri H. R. Abdul Majeed, Headquarters Commissioner for Rover Scouts was in charge of the Adventure Course and Sri K. Kasinath, Headquarters Commissioner for Cubs was in charge of the Handicrafts Course. They were ably assisted by Sri D.S. Siddiah, Sri M. Venkata Krishnappa, Sri H. S. Gajanana Rao, Sri K. B. Nanjappa, Sri C. Chickkanarasappa, Sri B. Ananthaiah, Sri Vidyanand, Sri Balaram Singh - Havildar Damodardan.

The Rover Scouts were trained in pioneering projects such as building Swinging Derrick, Single Lock Bridge, Watch-cum-Signalling Tower, Load Transporter. Map making, Map reading, Hiking and Camping, Exploring and cooking in addition to usual training in Rover Scouting. There were 21 Rover Scouts from Bangalore North, South, University, Hassan, Shimoga and Gadag districts.

Scouts for the Handicrafts Course were taught, Book Binding of different kinds, File Board making, Woggle making out of leather and plastic wire, Mat weaving, Belt and whistle card making in addition to coaching them up in some Proficiency Badges. There were 13 candidates on this course from Bangalore North, University, South Canara and Hassan districts.

Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, delivered the valedictory address on the 11th afternoon and distributed the certificates. Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar appreciated the standard attained by the trainees. There were a large number of parents, officials and non-officials of Dodballapur town present on the occasion.

Our Commissioner's visit :

Sri D. S. Siddiah and Mrs. Lalitha Krishnaswamy accompanied by Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner, Bangalore Division visited Mysore on the 8th 9th and 10th to look into the arrangements in connection with the Dasara Procession Contingent and the Stalls in the Mysore Dasara Exhibition. It is gratifying to note that 350 Scouts and Guides put up a very good show at the March-Past and the Torch Light Parade and also in the Procession which was very much appreciated. Sri M. R. Ramaswamy was in charge of the Contingent.

Our stalls in the Exhibition have attracted innumerable visitors who have expressed their sense of appreciation for the excellent Exhibits displayed by the Scouts and Guides. Sri K. B. Nanjappa and Sri Gangadhara Sharma were in charge of the stalls.

As usual a service centre at the Railway Station was arranged by the University Local Association, Mysore. The Rover Scouts of University District rendered yeoman service to the innumerable innocent and strange visitors to Mysore in directing them to their proper destinations, places of interest in and around Mysore City, rendering first aid in case of need and helping them in getting accommodation in trains. Sri Panchalinge Gowda, Secretary, Local Association, University District was in charge of the Service Centre. Sri M. S. Ramachandra Rao, District Commissioner (S) was in over all charge of the Dasara Exhibition and Service Centre.

Rao Bahadur M. Ramaswamy helped the Contingent, Service Centre and exhibition through proper guidance and advice which enabled the success of our activities during this period.

Sri H. R. Abdul Majeed, Headquarters Commissioner for Rover Scouts, Sri D. S. Siddiah accompanied by Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa and Miss Maithyli visited units at Ramanagaram, Channapatna, Maddur, Mandya and Srirangapatna on 22nd and 23rd October 1962.

Rao Bahadur M. Ramaswamy, Asst. State Commissioner, Sri K. V. Venkatasubbaiah, Asst. State Organissng Commissioner, for Mysore Division, joined the party in visiting the units in Hunsur, Periyapatna, Mercara, Somawarpet, Shanivar Santhe (Arkalgud and Holenarasipur). They addressed the members of Local and District Associations at Mandya, Srirangapatna and Mercara from 23rd to 24th October 1962.

Mrs Gill joined the party on the 24th at Arkalgud. The Commissioner visited units at Arkalgud, Holenarasipur, Mosale-Hosalli, Hassan, Channarayapatna and Belur. They also met the office bearers of Hassan District Association in addition to meeting several officials of Revenue, Block Development, and Education Department. The main idea of this visit was to foster and develop the movement in these areas and acquaint the details of the XIth Mysore State Jamborette at Davanagere.

The District Commissioners and Secretaries of District Associations are requested to see that all the units in their respective areas are registered before the 31st of December 1962

Every unit which has to register for the first time will have to pay Rs. 2/- as Registration Fee. Out of this amount. the Local Association (if any) will keep Re. 1/. the District Association will keep 0—50 nP., and the balance of 0—50 nP. will be sent to the State Headquarters. Thereafter annually each Unit has to pay Re. 1/- as registration fee. Out of this the Local Association will keep 0—50 nP. the District Association will keep 0—25 nP. and the balance of 0—25 nP. will be sent to the State Headquarters. The District Commissioners (S & G) will see that all the remittances are sent to the State Headquarters and the Registration forms through the Asst. State Commissioners of the respective divisions for effecting registration at the State Headquarters.

The Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore, has been pleased to order in his Memo No. PE1. 402-149/58-59 dated 21—6—58 for the payment of registration fees from out of 25% of the Annual Sports and Reading Room funds allotted for Scouting subject to the condition that the total expenditure in a year on Scouting does not exceed the ceiling limit fixed.

Scouters and Guiders will kindly take advantage of this order and see that their units are registered forthwith with the State Headquarters.

The meeting of the State Scout Council of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State will be held at the State Headquarters, Fort, Bangalore-2, on Sunday, the 18th November 1962 at 10—00 A. M.

CALLED TO HIGHER SERVICE

The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, have lost a stalwart of the Movement in the sad demise of Sri S. D. Ganesha Rao, former District Commissioner,(Scouts), Bangalore Rural District. He was connected with the movement for over two decades and influenced a large number of persons, young and old alike, to come into the fold of the world Brotherhood of Scouting. He attended several Conferences and Rallies and represented Mysore State at the International Jamboree held at Godollo, Hungary in 1933. He was responsible for spreading Scouting into the nooks and corners of Bangalore District. He was a great supporter and sympathiser of the movement and a good friend of Scouts and also of his fellow beings. Selfless work was his motto.

May his soul rest in Peace.

Vol. 45] October—1962 [No. 7

The Lookout

I had requested in the Lookout of the August. 1962 issue of this magazine, the Dist. Commissioners (Scouts) and the Assis tant State Organising Commrs. (Scouts) to do their best to find out willing Scouters to take up the Himalaya Wood Badge Courses, one in each of the three Sections, which were to be conducted from the 1st Oct .1962. The response has been poor and so the Courses have had to be post-poned to the summer holi-days in 1963. I am sure the responsible Commissioners will ensure enough numbers to apply for the summer Courses. Cir-culars will be sent from the State Headquarters well in time.

Meanwhile I would wish to give here to the Scouters who should be interested in these Wood Badge Courses, what is meant by 'The First Gilwell Park Group'. (Reproduced from 'Gilwell Book', eighth edition, 1960.)

"THE FIRST GILWELL PARK GROUP"

This book would be incomplete if reference were not made to the 1st Gilwell Park Group and its place in the world-wide brotherhood of Scouts; the myriad of men and women who have passed through Wood badge Courses at Gilwell and elsewhere in the Scouting world and have accepted the responsibility of setting an example to all other adult members of the Movement.

The 1st Gilwell Park Group is not, as it is sometimes feared, a kind of superiority class, but there is a common bond between members who have shared and equally enjoyed an experience. It is important to realise that the scheme of Gilwell Training in its broad outline, greatly as the details have changed, remains fundamentally as B.-P. laid it down when the first Course was run; and it is this living together on a Course, this learning to be self-reliant and self-sufficient that is the real bond of sympathetic understanding that exists between all wearers of the Wood Badge.

Of the Badge itself it is sufficient to say that intrinsically it is valueless. Two pieces of wood hung on the end of a bootlace, but treasured by the aged, coveted by the young and worn with just pride by those in the middle years. It is a symbol of the universality of Gilwell and Gilwell Training. The beads themselves are copies of those from a necklace which B.-P. obtained from Chief Dinizulu during one of his many African campaigns, and Deputy Camp Chiefs and Akela Leaders, that is, those given the extra responsibility of giving Gilwell Training in their own country, wear two additional beads, one of which comes from the original necklace (if any happen to be available at the time).

The Camp Chief wears a necklace made up of six of the original beads, which was presented to him by Sir Percy Everett in 1949. Sir Percy requested that it should be regarded as a Badge of Office and be worn by all successive Camp Chiefs at Gilwell Park. It was presented to Sir Percy Everett right at the start of Wood Badge Training by B.-P. himself, and the gift to the Camp Chief was most generous and thoughtful and all the more gratefully accepted because of Sir Percy Everett's association with B.-P. from Brownsea Island onward.

The Gilwell Scarf calls for no comment other than to point out that the tartan on the back is that of the Clan Maclaren: to commemorate in perpetuity the generosity of Gilwell's donor.

The Group itself is a strange one. It does none of the things that a good Scout Group should do. It meets at most once a year (The Annual Reunion is held over the first or second week-end in September) and then its attendance is but a tithe of its numbers. Some of its members are never able even to visit the Group Headquarters. It has an annual subscription of one shilling, which some members remember to pay. B.-P. is regarded as "Group Scoutmaster in perpetuity"; it has no committees, no programme, in fact it has very little, and yet its communion, none would dispute, is tremendous and its members are proud to be members and, however far away they may be from their Group Headquarters, they recognise their responsibility, not just to Gilwell, but to the whole world of Scouting.

This then, is the Group and if you, reader, are not yet a member, the only way to become one is to take the hard way of completing your Wood Badge Training, and in that, as in all things, Good Luck, but the effort must be yours."

So now the Scouter readers of this magazine and this article please take note of the last para of the above about "The First Gilwell Park Group" and I wish again that all of you should come up in summer holidays, 1963 and derive the pleasure yourselves.

V. K. SUNDARAM
State Commissioner (Scouts)

JUNGLE DANCE

Cubs do like Jungle Dances. In fact, they would love to do it, but, it is essential that they must have been told the Jungle story before hand as to enable Cubs enjoy doing the dances. We, Cubmasters and Cub workers must realise that the Jungle Dance has a value of its own for,

The Dance of Kaa teaches instant obedience to the leader
The Dance of Bagheera teaches discipline of the body
The Dance of Baloo teaches the two points of the cub law;
The Dance of Tabaqui teaches certain very valuable and very obvious moral lessons.

It is also equally important that right from the very beginning correct method of doing the dances should be taught. For this, reference to the " Wolf Cubs Hand Book " by B.P. is necessary. Order, method, system, discipline all these come in, if the dances are done with care. Often, photos taken of these dances give us an idea of our efforts and results too! Mind, do not try to have the Jungle Dances repreatedly done at every pack meeting. After training and perfect method of doing it, leave some interval and boys themselves will ask for it. Finally, let us remember ' If a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing well. '

K. Kasinath,
Headquarters Commissioner for Cubs.

Read this and Think it over

Have we sunk into flabby, follow-my-leader respectability? If so, we are betraying ourselves, our Founder and our Cause. The crying need of the future is going to be for unstinting self-sacrifice; are we prepared to lead the van? Or are we going to let any other of the Movements that are growing up so plentifully around us steal the lead? I want to suggest that we ask ourselves all of us - have we been letting our Scouting get too soft? Are we mollycoddling our Scouts, not only physically but mentally and morally? Are we attaching too much value to nice well-warmed comfortable Headquarters? Do we bother too much about first-class new tents, perfect groundsheets, unlimited blankets, and Scout Shop gadgets galore? In short, are we concentrating on making our Scouting enjoyable? And even more on the moral plane, are we striving to teach our Scouts even the hard and thorny parts of our Code, even the dificult and unpalatable elements of the law? There seems to be a kind of strange superstition that if we have plenty of fun in camp we shall automatically become honourable, loyal, and helpful, and that if we enjoy our Troop Meetings that will make us magically kind, courteous, and pure. Did you, for example, choose your camp site last year because it gave opportunities of plenty of games and fun or was your first consideration opportunities of unselfish service and usefulness? What is the outcome of your training - could you, with your hand on your heart, say that every member of your Troop could be relied upon to choose the less pleasant of the alternatives if by so doing he would benefit anyone else, improve the standing and reputation of his troop or the Scout Movement, or develop his own character by the discipline of self-sacrifice?

(Natal Scout Trail)

The State Chief Commissioner has been pleased to make the following appointments :—

1) Smt. Chandra Rao, District Commissioner (G), Mysore Rural.

2) Miss. Chandrica Desai, District Commissioner (G), Kolar North.

3) Smt. Sarojini Subramanyam, District Commissioner (G), Kolar South.

The Scout Sub-Committee met on the 19th September 1962. The State Executive Committee met on the 23rd September 1962 at the State Headquarters, Bangalore. Sri P. Siva. Shankar, State Chief Commissioner presided.

The Himalaya Wood Badge Courses Scout, Cub and Rover, scheduled to be held at the Central Scout Camp, Dodballapur, from 1st October 1962, have been postponed to the Summer of 1963.

The (Scout) Handicrafts and Rover Adventure Courses will be held at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur, from the 6th to 12th October 1962.

The Annual Meeting of the State Council will be held on the 18th November 1962 at Bangalore instead of on the 14th October 1962 at Mysore.

S. B. Kausik
State Secretary.

DASARA PROCESSION CONTINGENT OF THE SCOUTS AND GUIDES.

A smart Contingent of 350 Scouts and Guides participated in the Dasara Procession. The March-past before His Highness the Governor, the Patron of the Association, has been very much appreciated. Sri M. R. Ramaswamy, Asst. District Commissioner (S) was in charge of the contingent.

Flowers were offered to His Highness the Governor during the Procession when His Highness passed in front of the Scout Arch.

COMMISSIONERS' VISIT

The State Commissioners (S & G) accompanied by the State Organising Commissioners (S & G) toured in the Districts of Davangere, Shimoga and Hassan. They addressed the members of the XI Jamborette Reception Committee at Davanagere on the 16th September 1962, when several District Commissioners (S & G) were present in connection with the organisation of the Jamborette.

THE FORMER SCOUTS AND GUIDES

The former Scouts and Guides met at the State Head quarters on the 21st September 1962 under the Presidentship of Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain. Several plans and programmes were discussed to help the organisation in its development by becoming active members of the Group Committees, Local Associations, delivering lectures, acting as advisers and counsellers in the respective areas where the Former Scouts and Guides are residing. An outing to Thippagondanahalli on the 21st October 1962 has been planned. All are welcome to join the trip.

DASARA EXHIBITION

An attractive Scout and Guide Handicrafts Stall has been set up at the Dasara Exhibition. The Stall has attracted many parents and sympathisers who have appreciated the exhibits made by the Scouts and Guides. Sri K. B. Nanjappa and Sri Sharma of University District, are in charge of the Stall. Sri M. S. Ramachandra Rao, District Commissioner (S), University District is in over all charge.

XIth MYSORE STATE JAMBORETTE.

Sri Jayanna M. Chigateri, District Commissioner (Scouts), Davanagere, convened a meeting of the District Scout and Guide Commissioners (of the State) and the Com nissioners of the State Headquarters on the 16th September 1962 at Davanagere, to discuss and finalise the arrangements in connection with the holding of the XIth Mysore State Jamborette from 26th December 1962 to 30th December 1962.

Mrs. Leela Anjanappa, Dr. V. K. Sundaram and several other Commissioners were present in addition to a large number of Reception Committee members, Scouters and Guiders of Davanagere.

It was decided to have only II Class and above Scouts and Guides in the Jamborette. Patrol cooking to be strictly followed. More of camp crafts and displays be encouraged during the period of Jamborette. It was the opinion of the house that more free time be allowed to meet one another, know one another and learn from one another. The members inspected the Jamboree site and appreciated the selection.

Sri S. M. Wali, Chairman of the Reception Committee presided over the meeting. Sri Jayanna M. Chigateri played the host to the visiting Com nissioners.

The Lookout

Unavoidable circumstances prevented Shri. H. R. Abdul Gaffar, B. A., D. C. C., Ak. L., Headquarter Commissioner for Training from attending the First Conference of the Headquarter Commissioners for Training of all the States of the Bharat Scouts & Guides held on the 21st, 22nd and the 23rd of August 1962 at the National Training Centre, Pachmarhi, M. P. and so I had the privilege of representing him and incidentally I enjoyed the salubrious climate of that hill station. The entire Scheme of Training was gone through and a number of suggestions to bring the Training of Scouters as desirable as possible and to cater for the latest trends of this world-wide Movement have been suggested to the National Executive Coucil for approval at its next sitting.

While all of us of the Training Team should wait for the final results of the above conference from the National Headquarters I wish to bring to the notice of all the members of the Training Team in the State the following for careful watch and strict compliance, as per Scheme of Training of 1959 with mendments of March 1960.

Himalaya Wood Badge :

i. "At least six months practical experience as a warranted Scouter in the appropriate section of the Group is normally required before permission can be given by the Commissioner to his candidate for writing Part I of any Wood Badge Course. A similar qualification is also necessary for Part II and none can appear without the Preliminary Training under any circumstances."

ii "Part I- the three studies are to be submitted one after the other-to the Headquarter Commissioner for Training of the State who would arrange for the Readers. All the three studies should be completed in twelve calender months from the date study I is sent.

iii. "All the three Parts of every Wood Badge Course must be completed in five years."

iv. "Those who have taken either Part I or Part II earlier than 1960 should complete the remaining Part and Part III before December 1965. If this is not done the Scouter has to do all the three Parts over, once again. No further extension of this concession will be permitted by the Camp Chief (Scouts), India."

Scouters please remember the above rules.

I request the S. O. C. (S) and the A. S. O. Cs (S) to bear this in mind and bring these home to the Scouters whom they meet during their tours.

೧೦೫ನೇ ಬೆಂಗಳೂರು ಗೀತಾ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಗ್ರೂಪ್‌ನ ಸೇವಾ ಕಾರ್ಯವನ್ನು ಮೆಚ್ಚಿ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಪ್ರಧಾನ ಕಛೇ ಶ್ರೀ ಪಿ. ಶಿವಶಂಕರವರು ಈ ದಳದ ಬಾಲಕ ಬಾಲಕಿಯರಿಗೆ ೨೪ ಟೋಪಿಗಳನ್ನು ೨೪ ರವಿಕೆಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಡಿ ಪ್ರೋತ್ಸಾಹಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಮೈಸೂರು ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಕೋ-ಆಪರೇಟಿವ್ ಸೊಸೈಟಿ ಲಿ. ರವರು ಇದೇ ದಳಕ್ಕೆ ೨೪ ಕಂಠವಸ್ತ್ರಗಳನ್ನು ಉದಾರವಾಗಿ ನೀಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಈ ದಳದ ನಾಯಕ ಶ್ರೀ ವೈ. ಯಾವುಣ್ಣನವರಿಗೆ ಈ ಹಿಂದೆಯೇ ಗೊತ್ತು ಮಾಡಲಾಗಿದ್ದ ಪ್ರಶಸ್ತಿ ಪದಕವನ್ನು ಸಪ್ತಾಹದ ಕಡೆಯ ದಿನದ ಗ್ರಾಂಡ್ ರ್ಯಾಲಿಯ ವೇಳೆ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಪ್ರಧಾನ ಕಮೀಷನರವರು ವಿತರಣೆ ಮಾಡಿ ಗೌ-ಲ-ಟ್ರಿ ರಂದು ಸನ್ಮಾನಿಸಿದರು.

ಗೀತಾ ದಳವು ೧೯೫೯ನೇ ಫ್ರೀಇಂಡಿಯ ರೋವರುಗಳಿಂದ ಆರಳೆಪೇಟೆಯ ಕೊಳಚೆ ಪ್ರದೇಶವಾದ ಭಕ್ಷಿಗಾರ್ಡನ್ ಪ್ರದೇಶದಲ್ಲಿ ೧೨ ವರ್ಷದ ಹಿಂದೆ ಆರಂಭವಾಗಿ ಅಲ್ಲಿನ ಮಕ್ಕಳಿಗೂ ಯುವಕರಿಗೂ ಸೇವೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುತ್ತಿದೆ.

ಮೇಲ್ಕಂಡ ಸಂಘದ ವಾರ್ಷಿಕ ಸಭೆಯು ಸಂಘದ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರಾದ ಶ್ರೀ ಟಿ. ಹೆಚ್. ದಾಸಪ್ಪನವರ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷತೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ೧೧-೭-೧೯೬೨ ರಂದು ನಡೆಯಿತು. ಕಾರ್ಯದರ್ಶಿ ಶ್ರೀ ಟಿ. ಆರ್. ರಾಜಣ್ಣನವರು ವರ್ಷದ ವರದಿಯನ್ನು ಒಪ್ಪಿಸಿದರು. ಕಳೆದ ವರ್ಷದ ಸಂಘದ ಕೆಲಸವನ್ನು ಮೆಚ್ಚಿಕೊಂಡ ಸದಸ್ಯರು ಈ ವರ್ಷ ಕೆಳಗೆ ಕಂಡ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಲು ಒಪ್ಪಿಗೆಯನ್ನು ಸೂಚಿಸಿದರು—

i ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್ ಸಪ್ತಾಹದ ಅಂಗವಾಗಿ ಊರಿನ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ದೇವಸ್ಥಾನಗಳನ್ನೂ ಶುಚಿಗೊಳಿಸುವುದು.

ii ತಾಲ್ಲೂಕು ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್ ರ್ಯಾಲಿಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸುವುದು.

iii ಪೆಟ್ರೋಲ್ ಲೀಡರ್ಸ್ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಶಿಬಿರವನ್ನು ನಡೆಸುವುದು.

iv ಕ್ಯಾಂಪ್ ಫೈರುಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸುವುದು.

ಸಂಘದ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮವು ಬಹಳ ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗಿ ನಡೆಯುತ್ತಿರುವುದರಿಂದ, ಸಂಘವು ಕಟ್ಟಡವನ್ನು ಕಟ್ಟಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಅವಶ್ಯಕವಾದ ಸೈಟ್ ಒಂದನ್ನು ಉಚಿತವಾಗಿ ಕೊಡಲು ಪುರ ಸಭಾಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರು ಒಪ್ಪಿಕೊಂಡರು. ಈ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಉದಾರವಾಗಿ ಧನ ಸಹಾಯ ಮಾಡುವಂತೆ ಸರ್ಕಾರವನ್ನು ಮತ್ತು ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ನಿರ್ಣಯವನ್ನು ಮಾಡಲಾಯಿತು.

ಸಂಘಕ್ಕೆ ಅವಶ್ಯಕವಾದ ಧನ ಸಂಗ್ರಹಣೆಗಾಗಿ ನಾಟಕಗಳನ್ನು ಆಡಲು ನಿರ್ಧರಿಸಲಾಯಿತು. ಹೈಸ್ಕೂಲು ಉಪಾಧ್ಯಾಯರಾದ ಶ್ರೀ ವಿ. ಮಲ್ಲಪ್ಪನವರು ಇದಕ್ಕೆ ಬೇಕಾದ ಏರ್ಪಾಡುಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾಡಲು ಮುಂದೆ ಬಂದರು. ಶ್ರೀ ಟಿ.ಆರ್. ರಾಜಣ್ಣ ಮತ್ತು ಕೆ. ಆರ್. ಶ್ರೀನಿವಾಸರಾವ್ ಇವರುಗಳು ಚಿತ್ರದುರ್ಗ ಡಿಸ್ಟ್ರಿಕ್ಟ್ ಅಸೋಸಿಯೇಷನ್ ಪ್ರತಿನಿಧಿಗಳಾಗಿ ಚುನಾಯಿಸಲ್ಪಟ್ಟರು.

ಉಪಮಂತ್ರಿಗಳಾಗಿ ನೇಮಕವಾದ ಶ್ರೀ ಹೆಚ್. ಆರ್. ಅಬ್ದುಲ್‌ಗಫಾರ್ ಮತ್ತು ಕೊಂಡಜ್ಜಿ ಬಸಪ್ಪ ಇವರುಗಳನ್ನು ಅಭಿನಂದಿಸುವ ನಿರ್ಣಯಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾಡಲಾಯಿತು.

ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರು ಸಂಘದ ಅಭಿವೃದ್ಧಿಗೆ ಮಾಡಬೇಕಾದ ಕಾರ್ಯಗಳ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಹಿತವಚನಗಳನ್ನು ಇತ್ತರು.

ಉಚಿತ ನೇತ್ರ ಚಿಕಿತ್ಸೆ ಶಿಬಿರದಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳ ಸೇವೆ

೧೬-೮-೧೯೬೨ ರಿಂದ ೨೬-೮-೬೨ರ ವರೆಗೆ ಮೈಸೂರು ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಸಂಚಾರಿ ನೇತ್ರ ಚಿಕಿತ್ಸಾ ತಂಡದವರು ಹೊಸದುರ್ಗದಲ್ಲಿ ನೇತ್ರ ಶಸ್ತ್ರ ಚಿಕಿತ್ಸಾ ಶಿಬಿರವನ್ನು ಏರ್ಪಡಿಸಿ ೨೬೦ ಜನಗಳಿಗೆ ಶಸ್ತ್ರ ಚಿಕಿತ್ಸೆ ನಡೆಸಿದರು. ಈ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಹೈಸ್ಕೂಲಿನ ಮೂವತ್ತು ಜನ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ಗಳು ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ಮಾಸ್ಟರ್ ಶ್ರೀ ಟಿ. ಆರ್. ರಾಜಣ್ಣನವರ ಮುಂದಾಳುತ್ವದಲ್ಲಿ ಅಮೋಘವಾದ ಸೇವೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಿದರು. ಇವರ ಸೇವೆಯನ್ನು ಪ್ರಶಂಸಿಸಿದ ಶಿಬಿರದ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರು ಈರೀತಿ ಹೇಳಿದರು: ಹೈಸ್ಕೂಲಿನ ೩೦ ಜನ ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳು ೧೬ನೇ ತಾರೀಖಿನಿಂದ ೨೬ನೇ ತಾರೀಖಿನವರೆಗೆ ಹಗಲು, ರಾತ್ರಿ ಆಹಾರ ನಿದ್ದೆಗಳನ್ನೂ ಬಿಟ್ಟು ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಬೇಧಭಾವಗಳನ್ನೂ ಮರೆತು ರೋಗಿಗಳನ್ನು ಉಪಚರಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಹಗಲಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಸುಮಾರು ಮುನ್ನೂರು ಜನಗಳಿಗೆ ಪ್ರತಿ ನಿತ್ಯವೂ ಕಾಲಕ್ಕೆ ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ಊಟವಿಟ್ಟಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಕೆಲಸದಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರು ತೋರಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ಶ್ರದ್ಧೆ, ವಿನಯ, ವಿಧೇಯತೆ ನಿಜವಾಗಿಯೂ ಪ್ರಶಂಸನೀಯವಾಗಿತ್ತು.

ಇದೇ ಅಭಿಪ್ರಾಯವನ್ನು ಶಿಬಿರದ ವೈದ್ಯರಾದ ಡಾ|| ಎಸ್. ವಿ. ಕೋದಂಡ ಪಾಣಿಯವರೂ ಸೂಚಿಸಿದರು. ಅವರುಗಳ ಸೇವೆಗೆ ಮೆಚ್ಚಿ ಅವರಿಗೆ ಪ್ರಶಸ್ತಿ ಪತ್ರಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಡಲಾಯಿತು. ಮತ್ತು ಉತ್ತಮ ಸೇವೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಿದ ಕೆಳಗೆ ತಂಡ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ಗಳಿಗೆ ಸಮಾಜ ಕಲ್ಯಾಣದ ಆರ್ಗನೈಜರ್ ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ಎಸ್. ಟಿ. ಪದ್ಮ ಅವರು ವಿಶೇಷ ಬಹುಮಾನಗಳನ್ನು ಕೊಟ್ಟರು. CHIEF MINISTER OF MYSORE operation, the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, is hopeful that Scouting and Guiding in the State will be enriched and strengthened to produce many more such worthy citizens.

Miss Shantha Sirkar, a very zealous Ranger in the State and one of the very useful members of the Home School Group, Bangalore, is proceeding on 9th July 1962 to Switzerland as one of the two Rangers deputed by the National Headquarters, Bharat Scouts & Guides, New Delhi, to participate in an International Ranger/Guider Conference to be held there for three weeks from the 17th July 1962. The Bharat Scouts & Guides, Mysore State, is proud and wishes her all well during her sojourn abroad.

V. K. SUNDARAM,
State Commissioner (Scouts)

WE CAN BE

We can be firm, without being tough
We can be humble, without being weak
We can be positive, without being arrogant
We can be gentlemen, without being soft
We can respect the other man's customs
Without being emotional ourselves
We can lead by selling, instead of telling.

National Training Centre at Pachmarhi

The National Training Centre is very busy in June Camps abound. Both Camp Chiefs are there. Hence an abridged account from Justice Vivian Bose's article will be certainly entertaining to our Readers. —EDITOR

Pachmarhi is a nice place for a quiet restful holiday. Though I have sampled most of the hill stations of India, I still prefer it for a holiday.

It is situated in the State of Madhya Pradesh, almost in the centre of India, about 165 miles by road from Nagpur. The railhead at Pipariya is on the main East West line and can be reached almost easily from the North and South via Itarsi From Pipariya there is a drive of 32 miles by bus over a good road through lovely jungle.

When you reach the top you are on a plateau 3,500 feet high. The climate is dry. The hottest month is May. After that it cools down. Winter months are by far the nicest. The rainfall is 77 inches in the year, nearly all of which falls in July, August and Sep ember with a few showers in June. As soon as the first showers fall, the place cools down at once and is then delightfully pleasant.

One of the delights of the place is its ever green trees. The plateau is cut into steep gorges and deep ravines at the bottom of which flow streams of pure crystal water which is safe to drink without boilin Pachmarhi was discovered in its modern sense by Capt. Forsyth of the Bengal Lancers. But it was known to the Korkus and Gonds long before. There is plenty of rock climbing. I have frequently taken parties of Scouts, and even ladies, up many of them.

The place derives its name from five caves hewn out of a large rock which rises out of the plateau. According to tradition, the Pandava brothers stopped there. There is another kind of cave to be found all round the plateau, a sort of rock shelter with three distinct types of monochrome painting on the walls, pink, cream and yellow ochre.

It is interesting to see how different persons react to these paintings. The antiquarian and historical look for traces of their age, also the archaeologist. The geologist, finding traces of iron in the rocks around, concludes their arrows must be iron-tipped. Out comes his magnifying glass and a long and careful scrutiny of the arrow-heads. The musician sees a woman dancing. "Dancing" he says, "Ah, there can't be dancing without music. I wonder what kind of instrument they used". But whichever view you take, if you are a photographer, there is your chance for some first rate documentaries. About 30 of these caves have been discovered on the plateau and some 65 in the district.

Nor are the paintings all. Major Gordon discovered some beautiful specimens of flint arrow-heads and tools by digging in the floor of some of them. That encouraged Dr. Hunter to do the same and he was greatly excited when he came across a female skeleton under some layers of earth. He took it to the British Museum for examination, being convinced he had a prehistoric find.

Haven't I said enough to show what a delightful and fascinating place it is? Climb up to the top of these peaks on a winter morning, drink in the wonderful view and breathe the invigorating air, Climb, picnic, swim, photograph, explore or just plain laze. Go once, and like me, you will go again and again, and if you don't believe me, still give it a try.

But I speak to the elite to those of all ages who like to live and keep their bodies and mind fresh and young and invigorated. I do not recommend it to sophisticated fops whose horizon is limited by cinemas and restaurants and crowded streets with their daily fashion parades.

From The Bharat Scouts and Guides.

WHAT IS SCOUTING?

'What is Scouting ? I will tell you Son.
It is being happy and having fun.
It is like the mountains, ever so high.
Its camp-fires and singing beneath God's starlit sky.

'What is Scouting ? I will tell you, son
It is a Good Turn, a job well done
It's loving nature, her hills and stones
Her animals, her warm sun-beams
It is being a man. It is aiming high.

What is Scouting ? I will tell you Son
It is being a sport, When you have lost or won
It is being a Pal to the other guy.

Dr. Jim Yermounts.

WORLD SCOUTING

CANADIAN ROVER MOOT

The 4th Canadian Rover Scout Moot will be held from August 27th to September 4th St. Roche-de-aekinac, Quebec. La Federation des Scouts Catholiqued de la Province de Quebec will be the host for this Moot and it is expected there will be an attendance in excess of 1,000 Rovers and Scouters.

BOOKS FOR BLIND CUBS AND SCOUTS

Blind Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts or members of the Boy Scouts of Canada can now enjoy reading the two basis Scouting Handbooks of that country, "Tenderpad To Second Star" for Wolf Cubs and "Tenderfoot To Queen's Scout" for Boy Scouts in braille. The books were produced at the library of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind and are being sold through the Stores Department of the National Headquarters of the Boy Scouts of Canada in Ottawa.

FORMER SCOUTS IN ACTION

When a customer in a large supermarket in Western Ontario, Canada, suffered a seizure and was choking on his tongue, thus be-coming quite violent, five customers went to his aid. His tongue was pulled forward; he was restrained from harming himself and others; a doctor was called, and general First Aid was applied. Out of a large store full of people these five took action. A Boy Scout, A Scoutmaster, a former Scout, a Scout Leader and District Cubmaster.

AN INTERNATIONAL GOOD TURN

In 1959 a Scouter of the Boy Scouts of America, Mr. Milton Rogers of New York City, asked the World Bureau to help him perform an International Good Turn by providing the names of the headquarters of each member country of the Boy Scouts World Conference. This Scouter wished to send a small donation to each of the Associations recognized by the Boy Scouts World Bureau as his way of demonstrating that he was truly interested in the World Wide Brotherhood of Scouting. At the moment Scouter Rogers has sent his contribution to sixty-five different countries and intends to complete his donations to the eight new members of the Boy Scouts World Conference in the very near future.

We are sure that all readers of the World Scouting Bulletin will join in commending this Scouter for his unique and outstanding International Good Turn.

THE BANGALORE SOUTH DISTRICT

Ten Aircraft Rover Scouts of the H. A. L. camped out at Kanva on the 12th, 13th and 14th April, 1962 After reaching Channapatna by train, the Rovers purchased the necessary rations and were ready for their onward journey to Kanva inspite of the threatening rain. Sri G. Parthasarathy who was very much interested in Scouting persuaded them to stay on and offered them shelter for the night, and gave them break fast next morning. Thanks to Sri. Parthasarathy.

The Rover Scouts walked across to Kanva and kept up their true spirit in spite of the inclement weather. After food the Rover Scouts had an expedition to the nearest hill and several other activities for the next two days.

They celebrated the Tamil New Year's day over a nice dinner and reached Bangalore after completing their programme at Kanva.

REVIEWS :

SCOUTERS' POCKET BOOK: by Sri K. G. Warty M. A, B. T. District Scouct Commissioner, 117, Tilakwadi, Belgaum, Price—Re.1/-

This is a well got up pocket size book for Scouters containing useful information on various subjects. The information contained in it has been culled from various sources, and Sri Warty, who has been actively associated with the movement for several years has done a good turn by producing this book at a low cost. We have to point out that the information given on pages 95 and 101 are not however correct. The Cub salute reminds of the two points of the Cub law and not the promise. The Cub law given ought to have been "The Cub gives in to the elders ; The Cub is clean and courteous." We are sure these corrections will be carried out in the next edition.

MARIGALA PRAGATHIYA DAKALE PUSTAKA : This attractive pocket record book for cubs, contains all cub tests in Kannada. The possession of this book by cubs will give them an incentive to work for varlous cub tests and to qualify for the 1st and 2nd stars as also various cub proficimency badges. The book is priced at 12 nP. only and has been compiled by Sri M. H. Ramachandra Rao, one of our veteran Scouters.

Both the above books can be had of: The Mysore Scout Co-operative Society Ltd., Post Box 723, Bangalore-2.

Mysore Girl Guide to Switzerland

A delightful function was got up by the Basavanagudi Local Association to wish a happy journey to Miss Shantha Sircar, Ranger, the Home School, Basavanagudi, who has been selected by the National Headquarters Delhi, to be one of the two representatives from India to attend the Juliet Low Session at Switzerland.

Sri H. Rama Rao Asst. District Commissioner (S) welcomed the members. Sri. B. H. Lingaiah, Secretary read a brief note about the guide activities of Miss Shantha Sircar. Miss A. B. Madappa, Principal of the Home School, next spoke and said that she was proud that Miss Shantha Sircar has been selected and stated that she had known Miss Shantha right fro n the nursery school stage and was confident that as a representative from Mysore State and India Miss Shantha would prove as an able Guide.

Dr. (Lt. Col) V. K. Sundaram, State Commissioner Scouts next spoke. Sri B. Vasudevamurthy President of the Association said that he was proud that within about three years The Home School, is able to send another Guide abroad for an International Guide Gathering. He also presented a purse on behalf of the District Association as also from the Scout and Guide members of the Home School.

Miss Shantha Sircar replied expresseing her grateful thanks for all the kind words said about her and assured that she would do her best for the cause of Guiding even after her return.

Know the Rules and Play the Game

Apro Rule No. 205:—The effect of registration as Sponsored Group is as follows :—

The Sponsoring Authority shall not admit into its groups boys/girls who are not under its control, except with the express sanction of the D. C. concerned.

Non-observance of this provision does not of itself change the nature of the registration, but if deliberate, forms a valid ground for recommendation to S. H. Q. by the L. A. and the D. C. that the registration should be altered.

Where, however, in their opinion it is desirable the L. A. and D. C. may give permission for such other boys/girls to be admitted to a sponsered group, but in such cases the Group must be subject to the provisions of Rule 17.

(2) The Sponsoring Authority obtains the right to nominate persons for appointment as Scouters/Guiders of the Group in accordance with Rule 249. The L. A. and the D. C. may not consider any person for such appoinment until so nominated. After such nomination, the application follows the ordinary course as laid down in Section IX.

(3) The Sponsoring Authority has the right to be heard by the L. A. and D.C. in all matters concerning any refusal of alteration in or cancellation of the Group registration the issue/suspension, or cancellation of the warrant of any Scouter/Guider of the Group, or in the circumstances set out in Rule 219 (3) dismissal of any Scout/Guide in the Group.

(4) The Sponsoring Authority is responsible in certain cases under Rule 17 for the religious training of the Scouts/Guides, but, in no case, is concerned as such, in matters relating to Scouts/Guides training for which the G. L. S/G. L. G. is responsible to the L. A. and D. C.

(5) The Sponsoring Authority is responsible for, and must undertake the general support and encouragement of the Group, and endeavour to maintain the continuity of the Group.

The Lookout

Much has happened within the last month in Scouting in Mysore State.

The State Headquarters has been quite busy and active. The earth work excavations of the foundation of the Scouts' Club have been done. In due course the Club room will be up for the benefit of all local Groups. The local Groups must send Patrols of Rovers and Senior Scouts to help in the work as per Headquarters circulars and feel proud of it when completed and make good use of it later.

The International Scouts and Guides Club has been induced into effective action by the State Chief Commissioner. The Club has had two useful meetings already and a couple more are scheduled to come off in the next fortnight. The 'Call to Youth' by General K. M. Carriappa, O.B.E., on the 17th March 1962 was a truly instructive one. The salient points on which the General based the 'Call' are 'Mathru Bhakthi', 'Guru Bhakthi' plus 'Deiva Bhakthi' not in anyway new or odd to any of our Youths in India and another triple requisite viz., 'Physical Fitness', 'Mental Alertness' and 'Moral Character', in the ascending order of loyalty to elders and God in the former case and in the same order of duties to one self. Youths with these qualities are sure to be the most desirable citizens in their days to be. Youths of today are Leaders of tomorrow. It is our duty as the elders to live the Scout/Guide Law and Promise in our daily lives and lead the Youths.

The most recent function in the State Headquarters was the felicitations to the three Commissioners who were presented with National Headquarters awards. Apart from the ceremony of presentation of awards the colourful and very entertaining Camp Fire which followed requires commendation. The little participants, the Guides and Scouts and the Guiders and Scouters who organised the show deserve congratulations. A Scout award is not meant as a final appreciation of the work rendered by the Scouter till then, but unfortunately it is a reminder for the receipient of the award to do more good work and to live the Law and the Promise in his daily life and be true till death. I feel that I am cast in the throes of greater responsibilities by the award. I pray to God that I may be given the strength of mind and body to discharge my duties to the 'Boy'.

The State Organising Commissioner (S) and I visited a Service Camp at a temple annual jatra. While I wish to commend the idea of the service activities, with reluctance I have to advise the Commissioner in charge that he should pay more attention to the turn out of the Scouters rendering the service for it is the smartness and correctness of the uniform which would speak for the discipline of the Organisation. If for reasons unavoidable correct uniform cannot be obtained the Commissioner would not be wrong in taking the services of the volunteers in own 'mufti'. All Scouters and in particular Commissioners are once again reminded of rule No. 274 of A.P.R.O. Part I, for strict compliance.

Another good thing I witnessed was an annual camping of the Scouts, about 40 (forty) of a school from the Civil Area, Bangalore, with their only Scout Master and that at the entral Training Camp, Doddaballapur. The boys were made to live in tents; a very good thing indeed and they should have enjoyed very much, for, the climate was ideal for camping. The Scout Master is a full-fledged member of the 1st Gilwell Park Group. He was evidently handicapped with the sequence of an unfortunate illness but this may disappear in course of time. I am however forced to make the following observations with the idea that the same Scout Master or any other Scouter will not make similar mistakes in future.

i. The Scout Master's uniform was not the appropriate one and he could not have claimed himself as one in the Movement for, he had no membership badge on his shirt. The wood badge he was wearing round his neck was under the circumstances out of place.

ii. The Scouter had not made an advance trip to make proper arrangements.

iii. For one Scouter the number of boys was too unwieldy.

iv. Cooking was central with professional cooks from the school. I am doubtful if at least one meal was made to be cooked patrol-wise. If this had been done the boys would have learnt something and would have enjoyed real camping and

v. lastly, the Scout Master was living in tne permanent building at the Camp with his family and servants.

I feel this show should be called an excursion of Scouts and not camping of Scouts.

The last item for this LOOKOUT is my visits to two of the Preliminary Training Camps conducted by senior members of our State's A.D.C.Cs. Group. I would request and advise the A.D.C.C. in charge of any such Training Course to be very meticulous about his own uniform whenever he is taking a session and insist on the same about his assistants. The trainees on Preliminary courses if they are not in possession of correct uniform can be in decent mufti. No scarf and woggle will be permitted to be worn or issued to be worn. By the time the course comes to a close if the trainees should be in possession of the uniform (clothing) the training scarf and the woggle can be lent to each one of them and the membership badge also presented after taking from each trainee individually the Scout Promise, even though it may be a Cub Course. When later the trained Scouters open Troops and Packs they can have their own scarfs and woggles.

In conclusion I wish to reproduce here extracts from a letter written by the Founder of this Worldwide Movement on 18th July 1923 to a Scouter in England and reproduced in the November-December 1961 issue of 'The Scouter' by the present Chief Scout of the Commonwealth in his OUTLOOK.

".....Moreover I shall first have to enquire from their Commissioner or others whether the Troop I am to visit is in every way a true Scout Troop (so many call themselves "Scouts" and in reality working on other lines than ours): e.g. in the present case the Troop you mention appears to be 70 strong whereas 32 is the extreme number that is laid down for our Troops. Since I am certain from experience that no man who is not a superman can give real individual character training to more than that number.

I found in my own case that 16 was enough for me, and I have allowed for other Scoutmasters being twice as capable. Hence the 32 limit!

Yours sincerely,
Robert Baden-Powell"

V. K. SUNDARAM
State Commissioner (Scouts)

Deputy Minister Sri ABDUL GAFFAR, Our State Treasurer

Our heartiest felicitations to Sri A. R. Abdul Gaffar, our State Treasurer, and Headquarters Commissioner (Training) who has been recently taken to the Mysore Ministry being one of the few active men who has been serving the Movement for the past 35 years. If I remember correct, he underwent Preliminary Scout Master's Course at Sree Ramadevara Katte in May 1927, while he was the Head Master of the Govt. Urdu Middle School, Hassan. In camp, he used to impress the other members by his punctuality, eagerness to do things and more than all, as a Patrol leader. He served the Movement for some time as the Organing Secre-tary. Always s m i l i n g, punctual in habits, Sri Gaffar is a person who is easily accessiable to all.

Go to him at any time for suggestions or advice, he always receives you kindly and whatever may be his physical or mental fatigue, he will come forward with his suggestions. His interest in Scouting urged him to take all the three Wood Badges and finally he was the first Mysorean to be awarded the Honourable charge of the D.C.C. He has conducted a number of Wood Badge Courses organised by the State as well as by the National Headquarters.

One must hear him speaking on the Scout Promise and Law. He takes you to that land of ecstacy where you really forget the small differences of caste or creed or nationality and live in the bliss of world brotherhood. He is one of those who believes in personal example and not merely in precepts. He is now one of the Senior D.C.Cs. of Mysore State in addition to his being the Headquarter Commissioner for Training. The part played by him in orga nising and supervising the several Shramadan and communit Development Camps sponsored by the Government of Indi has not only won for him the laurels of the people but also th the appreciation of the National Headquarters.

In recognition of his valuable services rendered to the Move ment he was awarded 'The Silver Gandabherunda' and "Silve Star", though he is one of those who toil for the movemer definitely not with the expectation of any award or reward We are very happy that the one who sincerely worked for th Movement is getting the award He is working for the goo of the Movement even at the National level, for he is an electe member of the National Council as well of the National Exe cutive, Bharat Scouts and Guides, India.

He comes from a very respectable family of Hassan Tow and Hassan may well be proud of a son who is now raised t the rank of a Deputy Minister. In turn the Bharat Scout and Guides, Mysore State, feels proud of such a member of th Movement. May God shower his choicest blessings on Sr H. R. Abdul Gaffar. We wish him a very successful caree as a Deputy Minister and wherever he is, we are sure that w have his co-operation and help for the Movement to which h has dedicated his whole life.

STALKER

"Do unto others as you would have others do unto you".

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

With the rapid growth of Scouting in our State, the establishment of a permanent Camping Centre for 'The Boy Scouts of Mysore' was engaging the attention of our elders. 'Namada Chilume' at Tumkur, first came into the picture. Next came Jakkur Aerodrome area, but this had to be dropped as it was found suitable for an aerodrome. The search for a camping centre continued. Rajamanthra Praveena Sri K. V. Anantharaman, Revenue Commissioner, during the State Rally at Chitradurga in 1938 mentioned about Doddaballapur and on 1-3-1939 possession of the camping area was taken. Sri Anantaram himself performed the opening Ceremony on 15-4-1939 and expressed the hope that the Central Scout Camp would prove to be a big power house from which good Scouting should be generated and distributed to the four corners of the State. Since then numerous training courses have been conducted. The first resident Headquarters Commissioner for Training was Sri S. Bhyrappa, B.A., LL.B.

All-India Training Centre—in view of the vastness of the area and various facilities available, the camping centre was thought of for an All-India Training Centre but as Bangalore was not centrally situated the idea was not persued. Neverthless, many a camp was held wherein leading Scouters from all over India had assembled and a perusual of the Camp-log Book will reveal the varied ways of appreciation recorded therein. Scouters from abroad too had seen the area and mentioned it as a Gilwell of South India.

Well equipped—The area covers over hundred acres, containing besides permanent buildings, shady trees and glades for pitching tents. Equipment, Camp gear, etc., are available in adequate measure to facilitate well nigh 200 members to camp at a time. To many a Scout and Guide the charm of the Camping Centre has been such, that silently they have expressed often, "Yes, we shall come and camp here again". There is plenty of scope for wide games, pioneering activities, night games, long distance signalling, aerial runway etc., etc.

Greater facilities—The development Committee has been meeting to review the facilities available and to provide increased amenities. One very important thing thought of is a much needed 'Swimming Pool'. There will also be tent R.C.C. bases, Bathing cubicles, permanent lavatories etc., etc. So then, come to Dodbaḷapur CAMP, CAMP and CAMP—

Over 100 acres are yours—use it.

MONTHLY MISCELLANY

28th February—Visited Mandya and Mysore in the company of the State Organising Commissioner (S) and the Manager of the Office to look into the accounts of the District Associations. At Maddur we had the pleasure of addressing Scouts and Guides in connection with the Founder's Birth-day District Camp

15th March—We were all delighted to see the news in the apers of the appointment of Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, State Treasurer as a Deputy Minister to the Government of Mysore. We offer our sincere felicitations to Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar on his being appointed to this distinguished position. We feel that it is an honour done to the Movement.

17th March—Our old friend and supporter Gen. K. M. Cariappa visited the State Headquarters and addressed the members of the International Scout and Guide Club and appealed to young men and women to develop character, endurance and sincerety to carry on their tasks in life as they are to be the future citizens of our country.

18th March—A delightful trip to Dodballapur for the meeting of the Development Committee. This was a nice outing and at the same time we could carry through a lot of business on the agenda of the meeting on the spot.

24th March—A very pleasant evening at the State Headquarters when a big gathering of Scouts and Guides, Scouters, Guiders, Commissioners and other friends participated in felicitating Mrs. G. Firth, former State Commissioner (G), Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, State Treasurer and Deputy Minister and Dr. V. K. Sundaram, M.C., State Commissioner (S), the first of them being awarded the Silver Elephant and the two others the Silver Star by the National Headquarters in recognition of their distinguished services to the Movement. A brief camp fire with pleasant items followed the assembly programme before the function terminated later in the evening.

WORLD SCOUTING

International Fellowship of Former Scouts and Guides

One hundred delegates and observers from fourteen countries met at Zeist, Netherlands on 26-30 October, 1961 for the General Assembly of the International Fellowship of Former Scouts aud Guides. Mr. J. F. Colquhoun, England, represented the Boy Scouts World Committee.
Of special interest are the following decision :

1. The Secretariat will be moved from Copenhagen to Brueelles, Belgium
2. Australia, Ceylon and Venezuela were admitted as new members.
3. Ties with the World and Guide Bureau will be strengthened.
4. The present low membership fee will stand, but member countries will be encouraged to make voluntary contributions.
5. A revised publicity pamphlet will be published.
6. A basic handbook; which will include the history of national guilds, will be published.

The assembly will meet again in 1963 and the rendezvous will probably be in Italy. The date has not been fixed, but it will not conflict with the World Scout Jamboree or the World Conference.

TILL ALL MEN LIVE LIKE BROTHERS

Give us Lord a bit of sun, a bit of work and a bit of fun,
Give us all in the struggle and splutter,
Our daily bread and a bit of butter.
Give us health our keep to make,
And a bit to spare for poor folks' sake,
Give us sense for we're some of us duffers,
And a heart to feel for all that suffers,
Give us too a bit of song, a tale and a book to help us along,
Give us our share of sorrows lessened,
That we may prove that grief's a blessin'
Give us Lord a chance to be,
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free,
Our goodly best for ourselves and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers.

SCOUTING AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

"Training and associations of Boy Scout Life are invaluable to individual development of young men and to the quality of community life. More than 30,000,000 persons have taken an active part in the Scout Movement (in the United States) since its foundation. It has been a most valuable influence in our nation's life, and I know that future energies of the Boy Scouts will add even more to the vigor and strength of our Nation".

Statement by President John F. KENNEDY.

"If Scouting is to continue to exert a dynamic, expanding influence on youth, it must re-emphasize a rigorous, rugged programme. This programme must be rich in resources to keep alive the old-fashioned virtues on which a pioneering democracy was built. At the same time, however, it must carry forward the programme that will stir the imagination of our youth, demanding their toughest abilities, enlisting their idealism, seeking their most rigorous efforts and accepting nothing else."

A statement by the Hon. Abraham A. Ribicoff, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, United States of America.

11TH WORLD JAMBOREE—AUGUST 1963

Theme : "Scout Higher and Wider"

Jamboree Programme—This includes an Opening Campfire, on 1st August 1963, the closing Ceremony on August 11th, and the local hospitality period, from August 12 to 20th 1963. Nautical activities will be a highlight of the Jamboree Programme.

Camp Set-up—Accommodation is being arranged for 10,000 Overseas Scouts and 1,000 from the Host Scout Association, who will be distributed in 11 Sub-Camps. Another 1,000 campers who will compose the Jamboree Staff and Service Personnel, will be quartered at the 12th Sub Camp, to be known as "Mercury."

Apart from the Jamboree and administrative facilities, other camp facilities, such as postal service, booking service, wireless services, snack-counters, refectories, food supplies stores, printing shops and canteens will be established at the Jamboree site.

Jamboree Journal—The title of the Jamboree Paper is "Marathon Courier". Jamboree Song : It is in the course of preparation.

Jamboree Weather—The weather fore-cast for the Jamboree is that no rain is expected to fall, during the Jamboree period. There will be cold, pleasant mornings and evenings, low relative humidity and the highest temperature of 30°C, between 11 and 17.00 Hours.

Jamboree Cooking—Wood charcoal will be used, as fuel, for cooking in the camp. Travel Facilities: The Host Scout Association is making arrangements with the Transport Companies of Greek ownership, for substantial reduction in land, sea and air fares, for ail those who will attend the Jamboree.

JAMBOREE - ON - THE - AIR

Plans are already under way for the 1962 Jamboree-on-the air. The World Bureau has just been assigned new call letters which we would appreciate your passing along to all those who might be concerned. Our new call sign is VE3WSB.

It is hoped that the report on the 1961 Jamboree-on-the-air will be available shortly."

SCOUTING IN A CHANGING WORLD

The world has changed, Scouting has changed. The world has become smaller, Scouting has grown larger.

In the early days Scouting offered to boys something unique. Scouts were in fact first campers. Now our activities are enjoyed by people all over the world - and we should take it as a compliment. Yet no other organisation has succeeded in capturing the spirit of Scouting. Scouting is not so much a matter of what you do, but largely a matter of the way you do it.

This Scouting spirit is only achieved when the boys and the Scouters try to put the Promise into action. Unity of spirit and method must be maintained if we are to achieve our aims and the one without the other is useless.

The spirit should be founded on straight-forward fundamentals. The method should stem from the teaching of the founder, but evolving and developing, ready to accept new opportunities and new challenges.

There are certain dangers in the pattern of Scouting to-day !

An outdated traditionalism which rejects any new idea because it is new.

An effort to discard everything that is old, simply because it is old. The test should be : does it still work to-day ?

Too great a clamour for numbers, instead of for individual progress and quality.

Administration becoming all important. The boy is not there to serve our organisation and administration.

Losing the missionary spirit, turning ourselves into a movement for good boys.

Not recognising our limitations ? We are not a cure-all for the world's evils, We can only help boys who want what Scouting has to offer and cannot adapt it to suit all boys.

The danger of riding our own hobby horse, presenting something that has no relation at all to Scouting. Those who want to do something other than Scouting are free to do so but not within our Movement.

The refusal to experiment.

The fear of failure.

We live in a competitive age. Every boy in every country has more opportunities than when Scouting started. So Scouting must be good and so we need a higher standard of leadership than ever before.

Scouting developed because it fulfils the needs of boys.

People of many talents can be used and variety of personalities is a good thing. Scouting developed because of the methods of leader-training, which leaves freedom of method and personality.

I commend to you the attitude of the good missionary as I have come to know him in many lands :

he believes profoundly in his task ;

he accepted the available training ;

he has the patience to wait for results and achievements ;

he has the courage to attempt what is difficult, as he is not afraid to fail.

Without that kind of approach, no Scouter can make the full contribution of which he is capable.

JOHN THURMAN.

COMMISSIONERS FELICITATED

To felicitate the recipients of the awards by the National Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, New Delhi, a delightful meeting was held at State Headquarters Bangalore, on Saturday the 24th March 1962.

Dr. S. B. Kausik, the State Secretary welcomed the members and said that it was a happy occasion for all, as three of our very good workers viz., Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar (State Treasurer) Dr. V. K. Sundaram, (State Commissioner (S) and Mrs. G. Firth Former State Commissioner (G)) were awarded distinctions in recognition of their excellent services to the Movement.

Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S) read messages received from various persons and Institutions wishing the function every success.

Smt. Leela Anjanappa, State Commissioner (G), spoke of the work done by Mrs. Gladys Firth, Former State Commissioner (G), Mysore State, for a period of over 15 years in various capacities and for having brought the standard of Guiding to a high level. Mrs. Firth, Mrs. Anjanappa continued, was already the holder of 'Silver Beaver' award of the British Girl Guides Association.

Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram, then referred to the services of Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar who has been actively connected with this Movement for over 42 years. Mr. Gaffar, he said, played a prominent part not only in organising several rallies and conferences but also in organising and supervising State-wise Shramadan and Community Development Projects. Mr. Gaffar's services practically in the recent Third All-India Jamboree held in Bangalore were noteworthy. Mr. Gaffar already holds the 'Medal of Merit' given by the former Boy Scouts Association in India and also the Silver Gandabherunda (the highest award of the then Boy Scouts of Mysore).

Col. Sundaram concluded by saying that Mr. Gaffar is one of the pioneers and makers of Scouting in Mysore State.

Sri K. Kasinath, spoke about Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram's services in the Movement. Col. Sundaram, Sri Kasinath cited, had done excellent work not only in the Scout Movement but also he rose to the rank of Lt. Col. by virtue of hard work and had a brilliant army career and in recognition of his active services, Col. Sundaram was awarded several Medals, the most noteworthy one being the M.C. (Military Cross) for his act of bravery.

Col. Sundaram's Scouting experience has been many and varied, both of National and International Character. His services were not confined to Mysore State only but also at the All-India level. He has attended foreign Jamborees and has taken training at the International Training Centre "Gilwell" and also visited various countries including America and Canada. Col. Sundarum, Sri Kasinath continued, was a strict disciplinarian and always laid stress on wearing the correct uniform and on punctuality. Col. Sundaram is a life member of many Local and District Associations and also of the Mysore State Association. He has donated towards the building fund of B-P Bhavan at Pachmarhi and the National Headquarters building, New Delhi.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, the State Chief Commissioner, presented the awards viz., 'Silver Elephant' to Mrs. Firth, 'Silver Star' to Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar and Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram amidst thunderous applause. Sri Siva Shankar, as head of the Bharat Scouts and Guides of Mysore State, offered his hearty felicitations to the three recipients and particularly referred to the appointment of Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, one of our experienced members, as the Deputy Minister of the Government of Mysore. This elevation he said, has given greater prestige to the Movement. He also expressed the hope that all the three would continue to render their services to the Movement and inspire youngsters to carry on Scouting with greater vigour and enthusiasm.

Srimathi Lalitha Krishnaswamy, Joint State Secretary, proposed the vote of thanks The members then adjourned to the grounds to witness a lively camp fire. The items were brief, selected and very enjoyable.

Smt. Hamida Rahmon, State Organising Commissioner (G) and Sri M Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner (S) were in charge of the Camp Fire assisted bg Sri B. Ananthaiah, District Scout Master and Sri Vidyanand Secretary of Malleswaram Local Association. Rangers and Rovers of Home School, Jhansi's and Free India were on service duty.

On behalf of my wife and myself I would like to offer my sincere thanks to the Staff of the Mysore State Headquarters, Rovers, and friends who have extended to us true Scout hospitality during our unfortunately short stay in Bangalore. May I wish sll Scouts and Guides in the State of Mysore "Good Scouting and Guiding", and sincere best wishes for a successful future.

The Lookout

I am writing this from the lovely and pleasant National Training Centre of Bharat Scouts and Guides, Pachmarhi M.P.

The Third Himalaya (Cub) Wood Badge Course is in full swing. 'Mowgli', who was carried away by the 'Banderlogs' because they wanted him to work for them as in him they found a clever and active youngster, has just been released and brought back to his own den by the timely and determined efforts of the friend Kaa on the request of Mowgli's guru Baloo and benefactor and Instructor Bhageera. After the strenuous day while everyone is asleep I have found the time to finish this much delayed Lookout.

Seventeen Cubmasters from Kashmir, Madras, Bengal Madhya Pradesh and Maharastra are doing their best to learn the art of training the youngest of the lot in this great world-wide movement under the fine leadership of the Camp-Chief (Scouts), India.

It is hoped that this ardent Cubmasters would do their best to spread inwards from the North, South, East and West Cubbing to the needy young ones and thus strengthen the foundation in its quality and gradually in quantity.

I am glad I am here. My presence here has been made possible by the demand from the Camp Chief (Scouts), India, by the kind permission accorded to by the State Chief Commissioner, Mysore State, and the Chief Commissioner (Scouts), India and by my release from other important duties by the two who I love most and who are ever interested in my health and well-being. I am grateful to all these and to this wonderful Movement.

Pachmarhi, M,P.

Scouting Abroad

Helping Scouts in Far-away Places

Have you sent any stamps to the Bureau Stamp Scheme? A house-to-house collection by the lads of your Pack or Troop, preceded by a warning to householders to dig out old albums, duplicates or envelopes from old correspondence would produce a grand contribution.

The stamps you send to the Bureau will be sold to help finance Handicapped Scouts in those parts of the world where they need assistance and guidance. You can help other boys in far-away places to enjoy the game of Scouting by this Stamp Scheme.

IT'S HARD

The source is unknown, but I think some of you may get pleasure from this:

It's hard
To apologize,
To begin over,
To admit error,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To keep on trying,
To think and then act,
To profit by mistakes,
To give and then forget,
To take a deserved blame,
BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS.

GONE HOME — Dr. E. F. De MOLNAR

It is with great regret that we record the sudden death of Dr. F. M. de Molnar, former International Commissioner of the Hungarian Boy Scouts Association and later Headquarters — Commissioner in Australia. Dr. Molnar has left his entire estate to the Scout Movement.

ACTIVE 20–30 INTERNATIONAL

For many years past the Scout Movement has received much help and encouragement from the various Service Clubs, of which Rotary, Kiwanis International are good examples. This year, Active 20-30 International, membership of which is restricted to young business and professional men between the ages of 20 and 36 years, has adopted Scouting as an official international project. Active 20-30 International has clubs in many of the countries of the Western Hemisphere and is part of the World Council of Young Men's Service Clubs. Amongst its objectives it endeavours to provide a practical means of forming enduring friendships and goodwill amongst its members in their communities, their country and throughout the world, or as we ourselves would put it "A Scout is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout."

WHAT IS SCOUTING?

Within the last thirty days, the Boy Scouts World Bureau has received no less than twelve calls for pictures telling the story of Scouting in various countries throughout the world. These requests all come from outside of the Movement and offer a unique opportunity to not only tell the story of World Scouting but of increasing knowledge of various countries in the minds of those who see these pictures. Unfortunately our picture files are very inadequate to allow us to answer many of these requests. We would urge all readers of this Bulletin to accept this as a personal challenge and attempt to provide the Boy Scouts World Bureau with at least two clear black and white action pictures of Scouting in their particular country or section of the country. Please make sure the picture is clear and that a caption appears on the reverse side of the picture. Any size can be used but we would prefer to have prints of 5" × 7" or larger.

MESSAGE

on Founder's Day — 22nd February, 1962

From Maj-General D. C. Spry, C.B.E., D.S.O., C.B.

Director, Boy Scouts World Bureau

On this, the Anniversary of B-P's birthday, let all of us remember the great gift he gave to us and all the world. Let us, at the same time, ask ourselves what gift we have given to Scouting. Exactly what has each of us given to the Movement? What have we done, or said, of real and continuing values?

Can each of us honestly answer in the affirmative? We, as individuals, merely pass through the Movement, for various lengths of service. Some can give more good to Scouting, in three years than others, in thirty years.

How much of each of our characters and personalities have rubbed off on the Movement? What have we really contributed?

B-P. would have liked to have heard our answers.

Monthly Micellany

1st February—Were you looking for the Monthly Miscellany in the last issue of the magazine? I had the matter ready, but failed to hand it over to the Editor in time, and I say this just to tell you that, if you have anything for the magazine, you should send it promptly. This will help you to get your contribution in, and the Editor to get the magazine out in time.

3rd February—As a consequence, doubtless, of the much-feared malific influence of the planetary conjunction, Ashtagraha Koota, there was very poor attendance of members at the meeting of the State Executive Committee held to-day! We could just manage to get the quorum to get through the meeting.

Before commencing the meeting the State Chief Commissioner presented the additional Honourable Charges as Deputy Camp Chiefs for Cubbing and Rovering to two of our Training Team, Dr. V. K. Sundaram and Hajee H. R. Abdul Majeed. We congratulate them and also ourselves that we have now in our State three Deputy Camp Chiefs holding charges for all the three sections and one for Cubbing and Scouting.

10th February—Scout stamp collections are richer now by two recent additions, one a very colourful set of six Scout Stamps from Togo issued in September 1961 to mark the 50th Anniversary of Scouting, with the values 50 c. (Daniel Beard, the great American Scout), 10 f (the well-known Jagger portrait of B.-P.), 10 f. and 25 f. (Togolese Scout portraits and badges of the French Associations and the flag of Togo respectively), 30 f. (Camp-fire) and 100 f. (Scout badge and three hands giving the Scout salute), and the other, a set of three prety stamps from Thailand, 50 s., 1 b. and 2 b. issued on the 19th November 1961 for the 50th Anniversary Jamboree held in Bangkok. I received both these sets for my collection to-day.

19th February—Polling for the General Elections in the State begins to-day. Some of our members are contesting, and to them we say GOOD LUCK and GOOD HUNTING!

22nd February—A day sacred to all Scouts and Guides throughout the world, for it was on this day exactly 105 years ago that our Founder B.-P. was born, to whom we give thanks for his gift of Scouting and Guiding to us and rededicate ourselves to do our best to serve the cause of the twin Move. ments to which we have the proud privilege of belonging.

How many of you know that Lady B.-P. was also born on the 22nd February? She is 74 years now and we wish her many happy returns of the day.

26th February—On this day, according to an announcement which appeared recently in a Scout magazine, a special Scout Stamp is to be issued by Ceylon Association's Golden Jubilee Jamboree, also Souvenir First Day Covers. Interested readers may write to the Ceylon Boy Scouts Association for both these items well in lime.

Abdul Majeed, M.A., D.C.C., Ak.L., will be available to help the other D.C.Cs for all the courses and in particular on the Himalaya (Rover) Wood Badge Course. Experienced A.D.C. Cs of the State will be assisting the D.C.Cs. on all the courses. The camp fee will be met by the State Headquarters and the District Associations or the Scouters selected will have to meet the journey expenses (to and pro).

President's Scouts and Guides Get-to-gether

The President's Scouts and Guides who had been to Delhi recently to receive the certificates at the hands of our Vice-President Dr. Radhakrishnan gathered at 'Panchavati', Malleswaram in the compound of the residence of Lady Lokasundari Raman on the 14th January 1962. The members narrated their experience to Delhi and back in an interesting manner. including a meet with our Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and the world popular Mejor Yuri Gagarian who was at Delhi at that time.

Lady Raman, President of the Malleswaram Local Association welcomed the gathering. The Guides and Scouts also gave interesting Camp Fire items.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, B.A., LL B., State Chief Commissioner, Presided over the evening's function and appreciated the experiences narrated by the members and asked them to live up to the high standard of efficiency as 'President's Scouts and Guides'.

Sri Vidyanand, Secretary, proposed the vote of thanks.

University

The Scouts and Scouters of the First Grade College Chitradurga assembled in the College premises on 26th January 1962 at 8 a. m. to celebrate the Republic Day. After the prayer was read by the Scout Master, Shri B. Nanjundiah, Lecturer in Kannada, addressed the group on the importance of the day. Shri N. K. Telkar, M.A., spoke on the occasion. Dr. P. S. Venkataswamy Setty presided. The scouts participated in sports conducted. Members of the staff played a soft ball match as part of the celebrations.

NATIONALITY, RELIGION, LANGUAGE THESE ARE NO BARRIERS TO THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

By

Roy Nash

As a small boy. I remember asking a sailor uncle who had spent a lifetime at sea if he had discovered anything that was common to all the countries he had visited. "Yes," he said, "Boy Scouts".

As any world traveller will confirm, there is something about this youth movement which leaps across barriers of nationality, religion and language.

Almost from the beginning the Boy Scout was an international figure. Hardly had Lord Baden-Powell launched the Boy Scouts Association in 1908 than Scouts were on patrol, half a world away, in Chile, the first country outside Britain to adopt the movement; and when "B.P." visited Canada and the United States of America in 1910 he found Scouts were already lighting their camp fires in these countries, too.

Today there are nearly 9,000,000 Scouts and "B.P.'s" book, "Scouting for Boys", still the basis of all Scoutlore and the world's third best-seller after The Bible and Shakespeare, has been translated into 35 languages.

Adaptable

Talk to a group of Scouts at an international jamboree (the next one will be held at Marathon in Greece in 1963) and you will notice at once subtle differences in their uniforms, training methods and Scouting activities.

Sudanese Scouts wear turbans. In Israel, the Scout organisation includes girls. Australian Scouts never carry a staff. In Sweden, parents sometimes make the Scout Promise along with their sons. And the aim of every Mexican recruit is to become a Caballero (or Gentleman) Scout, the equivalent of a Queen's Scout in Britain.

Differenees of climate, national outlook and local conditions are responsible for these variations. Scouting has always been adaptable and it was quickly realised that to an African boy living in the open air in Bechuanaland there was no romance in camping and that swimming tests were hardly suitable for Scouts whose home is in a desert.

Basic Law

But, while Scouting in the United States of America includes Den Mothers, to look after the younger boys, and Scouts in Iran raise funds by running a poultry farm, one thing does not alter from country to country. This is the basic Scout law, founded on "B.P.'s" teaching, which, with its appeal to the adventurous hearts of boys everywhere, is the secret of the movement's long-lasting success.

Even totalitarian countries, which have suppressed Scouting for political reasons, freely acknowledge that they use its methods for training their children. When more democratic forms of government return to these countries, Boy Scouts associations are re-formed and quickly grow in popularity. This has happened since World War II in Italy, where Mussolini banned Scouting, and in West Germany, where it was replaced by the Hitler Youth during the Nazi regime.

World Headquarters of the Boy Scouts is an International Bureau in Ottawa, Canada, run by a lively-minded Canadian soldier, Major-General D. C. Spry, who has personally passed through all stages of Scouting from Wolf Cub to Chief Commissioner. With a small staff, General Spry tackles all questions of international policy and liaison.

Much of the work is carried out by direct contact with the Bureau's 70 member countries and the General and his staff may travel 150,000 miles a year, mostly by air.

World Conference

Each member country is entitled to send six delegates to the International Conference of Boy Scout leaders. In 1961, the 18th International Conference is being held in Lisbon, Portugal, from September 19 to 25. Among other things, it will discuss the future of Scouting in Africa and other parts of the world where new nations are emerging to control their own destinies.

Can Scouting retain its popularity in these countries? With its proved ability to promote citizenship and international understanding, there seems little doubt that it can. In India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Ghana and Malaya there are more Scouts today than there were before these countries gained their independence.

STATE CHIEF COMMISSIONER'S VISIT

Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner accompanied by Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S) visited Gulbarga, Hubli, Dharwar and Belgaum Districts from 21st to 31st January 1962. On the 22nd January 1962, he addressed a Scout and Guide Rally at Gulbarga Town at Sri Sharanabasaveswara High School Grounds wherein more than 300 Boy Scouts and Girl Guides participated. A large number of parents and leading citizens were also present.

Earlier, Sri B. C. Patil, Secretary of the District Association welcomed the gathering. An interesting programme of Display was given by the Scouts and Guides.

Later, Sri P. Siva Shankar, was entertained at a party when he appealed to the Scouters and Laymen assembled to strengthen the Scout and Guide Movement by unstinted support. Many problems concerning day to-day work, were discussed and suitable solutions arrived at.

The Dist. Association is making efforts to put up a hut to locate their head-quarters in a prominent place of the town.

On the 23rd January 1962, Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S) accompanied by Sri Venkayya Patil, Asst. State Org. Commissioner (S) Gulbarga Division and Mr. Desai, visited a number of Local Units.

The Dist. Association, Dharwar, stood an 'At home' to the State Chief on the 24th January 1962 at Basel Mission Boys' High School when a number of Scouters, Guiders, and members of the Dist. and Local Associations were present. Sri P. Siva Shankar addressing, gave a brief account of the history of Scouting in Mysore State and the fine tradition it has built up and requested the members present to support the organisation in the Dist. He also called upon the Scouters and Guiders to train children to be better citizens of Free India. He explained the necessity of non-officials coming into the fold and how the movement is thriving in western countries without much aid from the Government. Dr. N. B. Kabbur who presided over the function appreciated the work done by the organisation and called for greater support from the parents and non-officials to the organisation. Sri D. S. Siddiah while speaking explained the organisational set up and requested for the formation of group committees, and local associations and to enthuse Scouts and Guides for Badge work. On the 25th, the State Organising Commissioner acompanied by Mr. & Mrs. Gajanana Rao and Secretaries of the D. A. visited several units at Dharwar.

"Scouting and Guiding have no barriers and train boys and girls in every nation, to be better citizens" said Sri P. Siva Shankar while addressing the Scouts and Guides at the Town Rally organised in his honour on the 28th at Belgaum. He narrated several instances how Scouting and Guiding have helped Scores of people to become good leaders in several walks life. He also pointed out how the movement helful towards the emotional integration of the county. He appealed to parents to evince more interest in the activities of their own children by attending such functions in greater numbers.

Sri K. G. Warty welcomed the gathering, and Sri S. B. Kurne, Secretary of the Dist. Association proposed a hearty vote ofthanks. The highlight of the day was an interesting programme of entertainment at the Camp Fire circle immediately after the Rally. The Chief addressed a meeting of scouters, and members of the association at the St. Paul's High School on the following day when Sri G. V. Sharoff, President of the Dist. Association Presided.

Gadag 26th—At a meeting of Scouters, Guiders and members of the Association, Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner presented the Warrant of Appointment as the Dist. Commissioner (S) Dharwar East Dist. (Gadag Dist.) to Sri C. S. Patil and requested the members to help Sri C. S. Patil in his endeavours in spreading the movement in the area. Sri D. S. Siddiah, explained the members the functions of the Local and Dist. Associations. Sri Rachappa presided over the function. Sri C. S. Patil proposed a vote of thanks. Several experienced Scouters who were present on the occasion put forth a number of suggestions for the improvement of the movement.

Sri D. S. Siddiah visited Bijapur on the 29th and 30th January 62.

THE FIRST DELHI STATE ROVER SCOUT MOOT

"A Brotherhood of the Open Air and Service" was our Founder's definition of Rovers. The movement has to its credit a glorious record of activities. In every aspect, the significant role of the movement has been recognised as auseful instrument to inculcate in the younger generation the spirit of patriotism, comradeship, love of humanity, and service.

We have had several provincial jamborees and three National Jamborees in the past, but this is the first time when the Delhi State made a successful effort to bring to-gether a large nuber of Rover Scouts from various states to-gether and have a real representative gathering.

Ten Rover Scouts from our State had the privilege of attending this Moot. We had a formal get-to-gether meeting with our Headquarters Commissioner for Rovering Mr. Abdul Majeed at the State Headquarters, before we left for New Dolhi.

On the 24th January, 1962 the Moot was inaugurated by Smt. Vijayalakshmi Pandit, former Indian High Commissioner in U.K. She gave a very interesting talk and reminded us that it was by such gatherings that the young men of India will broaden their outlook and begin to think in terms of our country. She explained to us the ideals of Scouting and called upon us, to do our best in building a Free India.

The same day a Seminar was held, the subject being "Rovering, its place in the movement and how to popularise it". Most of us gave our views in this matter. Sri Shrimannarayan, Member, Planning Commission, Government of India, addressed the gathering.

On the 25th morning, we met Pandit Nehru at his residence. He was happy to see us and made kind enquiries.

A Seminar on "National Integration" was conducted. The Union Home Minister Shri Lal Bahadur Shastry addressed us and Mr. Bhagwan Sahai, Chief Commissioner (Delhi Adm.) presided.

We were taken round New and Old Delhi by the Delhi veteran Scouter Mr. Kartar Singh Bedi whose hospitality we shall not forget.

26th of January was a memorable day. We had quite an adventurous time in getting to the block at Rajpath reserved for us to witness the Republic Day Parade and Tableaus, thanks to our Union Home Minister Shri Lal Bahadur Shastry, who helped us to secure the tickets and place. The continuous downpour had no effect on the participants or the spectators who had gathered in the early cold morning for the great event. The beautiful tableaus from various states reminded us that from the Himalayas to Cape Comorin, we are all one through culture, progress and affection.

Srl A. Saksena, Headquarters Commissioner for Rovering. Delhi State officially closed the moot the same day.

The Rangers of Delhi State rendered very good service a the moot.

The Delhi State has made a start. I wish the other States will follow and create opportunities for the Rover Scouts of our country to meet more often.

THE INTERNATIONAL SCOUT AND GUIDE CLUB, BANGALORE

Under the auspices of the club Shri Sreenagabhushana, Principal of the S. K. Technologial Institute, Bangalore, and President, University Local Association, who recently toured the U.S.S.R., delivered a lecture on "The Youth of Russia" on Friday the 16th February 1962, at 7-30 p.m. at the State Headquarters, Bangalore. Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain was in the chair. After welcome by Smt. Padma Nair, Joint Secretary of the club, the honoured guest spoke at great length on the system of free education in Russia from the Kindergarten stage to the University standard, how from the very beginning of a of a child's career, the idea of state was inculcated in the mind; how every shop, factory, industry, and even barbers' shops and laundries were state—controlled and how the men and women of Russia foreget the individual selves to work for the good of the state. The lecturer very much admired the importance given to physical education in the U.S.S.R. and explained the importance of pioneering camps organised for the youth of the country. For the Russian, the state and state alone was God.

Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain in his closing remarks thanked the speaker for the eloquent way in which he spoke about the youth of Russia and said that the pioneering camps of Russia resemble the Scout Camps of our country. We wanted every Scout and Guide to grow strong and healthy. In his opinion, the state control would kill individual initiative and the kind of democracy prevailing in our county would give plenty of opportunity for the individual growth which in turn will help to build a society based on Dharma for which our country stands.

Sri E. Hannmantha Kao, Secretary, proposed a vote of thanks. The function terminated with a nicely got up Subscription Dinner. Sri P. Sivashankar, the State Chief Commissioner, the S.O C. (S), Headquarters (Cubs and Social Service) Commissioners, and members of the former Scouts Association were among the participants

"Scouting is a game and life's game is Scouting"

Our State Commissioner (Scouts)

When we are in doubt relating to the technique of Scouting, there is one person who can enlighten us in Mysore State and that is Col. Sundaram. With him Scouting is life and life is Scouting. Born on 5th June 1904 and qualifying himself in the medical profession, he joined the military service. He was awarded the Military Cross for gallantry in the field in Burma during the Sittang Bridge Battle, South Burma in 1942.

He served in several capacities and was raised to the rank of Assistant Director of Medical Services in the field in Burma during the Second World War. He retired from service in February 1959 and after retirement, began to grow younger on accout of his full time contact with Scouting. He was unanimously elected as the State Commissioner (Scouts) in 1960.

At the first meeting of our State Commissioner, one is apt to think that coming as he is from the military ranks he is a very hard Colonel. Yes, the shell of the cocoanut is very hard to break. But after breaking it, we have fine and soft kernel. So is the case with our Colonel. With grim exterior but a very soft interior, his friendship is unbounded only thing is he is not a man to yield himself very easily. Once he yields he gives forth every thing of his. To give you a small instance, once a Scouter a friend of his, had a small accident while riding on his bicycle. The Colonel with the rough exterior came to know of this. He immediately rushed up to the friends house in his car to know what the matter was and to do his best as a Doctor. His kindness is unbounded. He is also as strict as he is kind. Once two of his Scouters were asked to meet him at a particular place to go to a function for whom he had promised a lift. He had asked them to be present at a particular hour. The Scouters who knew his kindness, went to the place a little late. The Colonel came to the place at the correct minute and not finding the Scouters there drove away directly to the function. That is the kind of punctuality that he keeps up and that he wants others to observe.

Smartness and punctuality are a part of his nature. You might see a number of Scouters who may not come in correct uniform to a Scout function; but our State Commissioner (Scouts) invariably appears in smartness at the right time. He is one of those who has dedicated his life for Scouting. A man, practically self-made and who comes of a middle class family only; his sympathy and attitude to do his best to those that are in want is none the less.

He always gives practical suggestions with regard to Scouting. With all his grimness of exterior he his not without humour. His humours are always subtle and delicate He has the capacity of creating humour among the young and the old alike.

He did not rise to the rank of the State Commissioner (S) all on a sudden, nor was he pushed up by any one. At the time of election of the new cabinet in the Scout Movement of the Mysore State, he published a manifesto called "a Scout's Manifesto" in which he styled as 'KIM', gave out details of his experience in Scouting. He was not one of those who would canvas for votes like political leaders. He wanted the voters to know what he was and what they should do in the interest of Scouting.

He has served the Movement in various capacities, as a Secretary of the Local Association, as a Secretary of the Dist.

Association, Asst. District Commissioner, President of the Scout Masters' Association, Bangalore, Vice-President of the District Association of Bangalore and Headquarters Commissioner for Scouts. He is a D.C.C., of international order since 1950. In recognition of his merit and experience he received the additional Hon'ble Charge of D.C.C.(R) and Ak.L. He has helped in conducting many Wood Badge Courses in the Mysore State, and at the National Training Centre, Pachmarhi. He attended many Jamborees and Moots held in foreign countries at his own cost, and in India he is one of the few persons who can speak with practical experience on International Brother-hood. He had also had the opportunity of visiting Gilwell (London) and attending 3 Re-Unions and took four Courses at Gilwell. Besides being the only life member of our State Association, he is a Subscribing member of the Gilwell Park and he has paid his subscription in advance up to the end of the year 1959. He was awarded a Medal of Merit for services to the All India Contingent, 150 strong to the VI World Jamboree in August 1947 at Moison near Paris in France.

He is an example to all of us Scouters, that we can also rise high by dint of hard work and sincerity. He is not one of those who is aspiring after quantitative expansion in Scouting. He always lays stress on quality. One Good Scout is enough to inspire others rather than having many indifferent Scouts. His motto is B P. and T.T.D. and live up to the Scout Promise and all the ten points of the Scout Law in daily life

May God the Almighty shower him with choiscest blessings to inspire us for years to come. Satyam, Shivam, Sundaram.

SOMETHING OUT OF NOTHING!

Sayings, proverbs or adage, call it what you like, are always good and inspiring but how far we try to act, follow or practice is all that counts. Coming to Scouting, do we Scouters endeavour to exert ourselves at least to some extent to make the troop meetings interesting, attractive and adventurous? Well, it is not possible to do so a "Just like that method" Oh! no there is no magic wand for you to achieve this. It has got to be done by proper attention being bestowed beforehand and by careful planning.

x x x

Come on, be Honest. We easily have many excuses up our sleeves and say there is the A.C.C., N.C.C., and other youth organisations taking away our boys. But let me tell you honestly, having been one of those actively connected with the movement for over three decades—of other movements it can be boldly said—"Often imitated, never equalled". Yes, no other organisation has such an attractive programme as ours. If, we Scouters, despite the many genuine statements made now-a-days like: Financial stringency, economic depression, wide spread unemployment, high cost of living etc., carefully consider that at any cost we cannot afford to neglect the good training of the young, then we will certainly determine to make any sacrifie, if necessary, as to ensure for the right upbringing of the present day generation of youngsters.

x x x

"Do it well or leave it alone"—should be our motto. Mere indoor meetings won't do. Half a day and full day outings; Week-end and Standing Camps, satisfy the lure for the outdoor activities the boys want. Indirectly these outings and camps tend to build up the health of the youngsters and make them realise and admire this Creator who made all things beautiful, the flora and fauna of the country side.

We must draw inspiration from Kipling's saying :—

"Oh ! What a lot of these,
There is to go and see, to go and see,
To go and see some more."

x x x

Finally, here is an extract from what Smt. Ammu Swaminathan, President of Bharat Scouts and Guides recently said :

"The top officers must give enough of their time and energy for the promotion and development of our movement.....If a person is already loaded with other work, however brilliant and desirable he might be, he should not be called upon to shoulder the responsibilities of a senior officer in the movement.....You should choose persons who are willing, earnest and will have time to spare for this labour of love"

—SHADA

"In a big Movement for a object there is no room for little personal efforts ; We have to sink minor ideas and link arms in a big 'combine' to deal effectively with the whole.

'B-P. May, 1910.

The City North Area Local Association celebrated the "Thinking Day" (Founders Day) on 22nd February 1962, at "Panchavati", 8th Main Road, Malleswaram, Bangalore-3, at 4-30 p.m

A Scout of Sevashram Scout Groups, a guide of Govt. Girls' Higher Secondary School, Malleswaram and a guide of Cluny Convent High School, Malleswaram, spoke excellently on the life of Baden Powell in Tamil, Kannada and English respectively.

Smt. Lokasundari Raman, the president of the Local Association, presided over the function and gave an interesting Yarn. The function was well attended and came to a close after a variety Entertainment consisting of sing-songs, plays displays.

Sri Vidyanand, Secretary, proposed a vote of thanks.

Under the auspices of the Chamarajapet Local Association B. P.'s Birthday Rally was celebrated at the Scout Headquarters Fort, Bangalore-2. Sri B. Mari Raj, M. A., B. T., A. C., Dip-Edn Deputy Director of Public Instruction, of Bangalore Division Bangalore presided. After welcome by Sri Ananthiah, District Scout-master Dr. (Mrs) A. Abraham, L. M. P., Asst. District Commissioner (Guides) spoke about the life of the Founder Baden-Powell. In the course of her talks she said the world at large is greatly indebted to him for ever for the wonderful movement he has given to the boys as well as the girls.

After some interesting items of displays, songs and yells by several units, Dr. S. B. Kausik, D.SC., D.C.C., Ak. L., State Secretary cited some interesting anecdotes from the life of B.P. and said how during the first part of his life B.P. proved as a brilliant and efficient soldier with extraordinary capabilities. Continuing his talk, Dr. Kausik said that B.P. was the greatest leader of youth for all time. Then he recalled to memory the third All India Jamboree held at Bangalore which was attended by Lady Baden-Powell who, he said, is now 74 years young and going round the world to see the large family of Scouts and Guides.

Sri Mariraj then gave the President's yarn and said that he was greatly inspired by the interesting and pleasant function of the evening. He congratulated the Chamarajpet, local Association for conducting this Rally, but at the same time expressed his disappointment at the small number of Scouts and Guides assembled compared to the number of institutions in the locality. He further expressed that a movement like this required no canvassing as it had a programme which was quite interesting and attractive. He appealed to the heads of institutions to evince greater interest.

Scouting, he continued, is outing and camping. Referring to the gigantic event, the third All India Jamboree at Bangalore he said that it was a great and inspiring occasion when the several contingents gathered from different parts of India marched part with their colourful banners Finally he made a special mention of many old people still active as Leaders in the Movement and looking young presumably because of their active touch with the younger generation. Once again he congratulated the authorities of the Local Association for having given him an opportunity to participate in the pleasant function and for the two interesting talks by Dr. (Mrs) A. Abraham and Dr. S. B. Kausik.

Sri Krishnaji Rao Bhounsley was in charge of the parade.

Smt. K. T. Banashankaramma, Secretary, proposed the vote of thanks.

Handicraft in Training Flock-Leaders

By

Mrs Hamida Rahman, S.O.C.(C.)

Flock-Leaders, being important members of Guide Family, play an important role in moulding the character and developing the talents of our children. They deal with the children of the age of between 7 and 11. Children in this initial stage show lot of curiosity and interest in learning new things. It is up to the Flock-Leaders to watch and find what special inclination and aptitude the children have. They must be able to create and feed the growing interest in children. It is their pleasant job to develop the inborn talents and never to curb them. The following lines from Gray's elegy are worth remembering for the Flock-Leaders.

" Full many a Jem of purest ray serene,
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear,
Full many a Flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness in the desert air."

Flock-Leaders require lot of ideas and material at hand to satisfy the growing interest in the children. Handicraft is one of those four sign posts of Guiding that aim at turning a child an all round person.

It is highly essential that we should awaken the interest of Flock-Leaders in this line and instil in them the real appreciation of original work and the skill of craftsman. Unless and until, interest is there in the Flock-Leaders, they will not be able to encourage the Bulbuls to develop their talents.

Training in Handicrafts affords a golden opportunity to a child to discover abilities and the satisfaction of producing something with her own hands. She learns to apply her skill with different materials and also learns to appreciate beauty in form, colour, harmony and design.

Handicraf is an expression of aesthetic taste of a person as the art of Painting and drawing are the expression of the power of imagination. Excellence in crafts has been attained only by those who have found satisfaction in the bea things produced. Fine arts and handicrafts are ever pleasing. In the words of Keats:

"A thing of beauty is a joy for ever."

Handicraft occupies a prominent place in the training that Guiding provides. It develops the skill and intelligence of the children by giving them a chance of self-expression.

For children we start with simpler and easier things. When Flock-Leaders appreciate and encourage them in these, it naturally helps them to develop their talents and produce better results

The interest in the field is created in Bulbuls, in the Komalpad stage, by teachlng knotting and plaiting. In second class, they learn how to sew a botton and to make an useful article. The Bulbuls in their journey to first class, come across knitting and sewing the garment. Besides these, Bulbuls are encouraged to work for the profeciency badges. They have artists', toy maker's and Needle worker's badges. They are taught to make models out of Clay, card board, broken toys and papers.

Handicraft is an outlet for the excessive energy. It can divert the destructive inclination of the children, to some constructive activity, as it is an antedote to mischief, destructiveness and carelessness. It gives the children a chance for self-expression and trains them in the virtue of patience, and self-centrol, observation and concentration. It teaches them to stick to a thing not to be satisfied until it is accomplished.

Handicraft is a useful hobby too. The hand work produced by the Bulbuls can easily fetch money for the Flock fund. The hobby in various arts and crafts, may lead in determining the future profession of some of the children. Thus training in Handicraft is invaluable for the Flock-Leaders as the responsibilty lies on their shoulders to train the Bulbuls.

BANGALORE NORTH

The Rangers of the Home School Group Basavanagudi arranged a Camp Fire on Saturday the 10th February 1962 in the school premises. Miss A. B. Madappa, President of the Group welcomed the gathering and in the course of her speech she said that it was a happy thing to note that the girls who joined as Bulbuls in their young age, became guides and now although they have passed out of the school nad of them still studying in colleges, continued their interest in Guiding as 'Rangers'.

Miss Nalini Serpeshkar, Ranger Leader, read a brief report of the doings of the members participation in Camps held at Pachmarhi, receiving the President's Guides Certificate at Delhi, joining the Mountaineering Course — a thrilling experience indeed, were some of the important items.

The Bulbuls, Girl Guides and Scouts also gave some items. Col. V. K. Sundaram, M.C., State Commissioner (Scouts) spoke to the invitees present and requested for their co-operation and assistance to the Movement. Sri D. S. Siddiah, B. Sc. B. Ed., State Organising Commissioner (S) and Mrs. Hamida Rahmon, State Organising Commissioner (G) were also present.

St. Joseph's College Rovers who were present by invitation gave a song.

The programme was short and contained items of interest entertaining and impressive. Incidentally, it may be stated that the Home School has a full compliment of all the sections in the Movement viz., Bulbuls, Girl Guides, Rangers, Cubs and Scouts. The meetings are held regularly and planned activities are carried out, with periodical outings, camps etc.

Miss G. M. Donne and Miss M. E. Robinson, both of revered memory, have laid a good foundation and the school is serving the children of the locality well.

We wish the school 'Scout aud Guide Group' all success for many years to come.

GUIDE SECTION

Girl Guides Celebrate Thinking Day

A Girl Guide Thinking Day Rally, to celebrate the birth-day of Lord and Lady Baden-powel, the architects of the Scouts and Guides Movements, was held in Bangalore on Saturday at the Smt. Kamalabai Girls High School under the auspices of Bharath Scouts and Guides, Civil Area.

A pageantry depicting the cultural traditions of various nations by the Companies and Flocks from various girls, schools of the Civil Area was the high-light of the celebrations. A scene in which a Red Indian chieftain, encircled by a horde of his clansmen shrieking 'war cries', was quite eye-catching.

The ceremony commenced with invocation by the Guides. After Mrs. Vittal Rao welcomed the gathering, one of the patrol leaders who had participated in the Pachmarhi patrol leaders camp gave an account of the camp.

Smt. Lokasundari Raman, was the chief speaker. Later she distributed the proficiency certificates to the girls. Mrs. Kochar, who was the guest of honour, distributed badges to the winners of Tagore centenary competitions.

Among those present were Mr. P. Sivashankar, State Chief Commissioner and Mr. Mark Thangayya, President, Y.M.C A. The commissioners and guiders were also present.

Mrs. Lalitha Krishnaswamy, Jnt. State Secretary S.O.C. (G) Soc. (S) were present.

Mrs. V. J. Issac, District Commissioner, who proposed a vote of thanks, read out messages received from among others, Smt. Leela Anjanappa, State Commissioner for Guides, Mrs. Mujumdar and Miss. Asha of Bombay.

ಮರಿಗಳಿಗೊಂದು ಹೊಸ ಆಟ

ಮರಿಗಳು ಟೋಪಿ ಸಹಿತ ಗುಂಡಾಗಿ ಕೂತಿರುವರು.

ಒಬ್ಬಮರಿ ತನ್ನ ಕೆನ್ನೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ಒಂದು ಬೆರಳಿನಿಂದ ಹೊಡೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತ "ಟ್" ಎಂದು ಲೊಟಿಕೆ ಶಬ್ದ ಮಾಡುವನು. ತಕ್ಷಣ ಅವನ ಎಡಗಡೆಯಿರುವ ಮರಿಯೂ ಹಾಗೆಯೇ ಮಾಡುವನು. ಕೂಡಲೆ ಇವನ ಎಡಗಡೆಯಿರುವವನು-ಹೀಗೆಯೇ ವೃತ್ತದ ಸುತ್ತಲೂ ಅನುಕ್ರಮವಾಗಿ ಲೊಟಿಕೆ ಶಬ್ದ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು. ಲೊಟಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ಹೊಡೆಯಲು ತಡಮಾಡಿದ ಸರಿ, ಅತಿ ಮುಂದಾಗಿ ಲೊಟಿಕೆ ಹೊಡೆದರು ಸರಿ, ಅಂಥ ಮರಿ ತನ್ನ ಟೋಪಿಯನ್ನು ನೆಲದ ಮೇಲಿಟ್ಟು (ಮುಂದೆ ಲೊಟಿಕೆ ಹೊಡೆಯದೆ) ತೆಪ್ಪನೆ ಕೂತಿರಬೇಕಾಗುವುದು.

ಆಟವೇನೋ ತಮಾಷೆಯಾಗಿರುತ್ತದೆ. ಆದರೆ ಸಮವಸ್ತ್ರದ ತನಿಖೆ ಆದ ಮೇಲೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ಆಡಬೇಕು, ಅಷ್ಟೆ.

The Lookout

OUR dear State Chief Commissioner, Sri P. Siva Shankar B.A., LL.B., has retired from his office as Principal of the Law College, Bangalore. From December 1961 he has all his time for Social activities of which Scouting comes foremost. He is already busy touring various districts of the State. May I request all the District Commissioners (S) to emulate his example, tour all the taluqs in their own Districts and help the Local Associations and the Scouters to give better Scouting to all the Scouts.

I was again in Madras for a fortnight from 9-1-62. On 15-1-62 the State Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Madras State, brought off a simple yet delightful and useful party to meet Mr. Clive E. Bemrose, M.A., J.P. County Commissioner (equivalent to Dist. Commr.) of the Boy Scouts Association, Derbyshire. Mr. Bemrose was on a private visit in India. His appearance in simple but correct uniform was to all of us present at the function a lesson as to the discipline he was particular about. In his informal talk he enlightened us on the ways and means used by him to raise funds for his County Association. He said that he invited the big and influential officials, land lords and good business people of the County for a party and treated them with refreshments and Scout shows. A couple of days later he sent them printed appeals to help the County Association with cash and kind as much as they could. This way he stated that he has built up sufficient funds to help various activities in the County.

The above methods taken in our State would certainly help us build our own finances which could be more useful to the Scouters and the Scouts and help them to take Scouting to the boys.

All my best wishes for first class Scouting in the districts of the State, in 1962 and for many years to come.

V. K. SUNDARAM,
State Commissioner, Scouts.

ROBERT STEPHENSON SMYTH BADEN-POWELL

BADEN-POWELL was born on 22nd February 1857. On 22nd February 1962, let each one of us think of what we, and so many millions of boys and girls, men and women, owe to his vision and genious.

B-P's great contribution to civilization was a method of training boys in happiness so that they could spread happiness. So let our thoughts on "The Founder's Day" be of gratitude to him for all he gave us and our boys. That gratitude we can best show in a renewed devotion to the task he has handed on to us.

Here is what Lady Baden-Powell writes of B-P.

" It is not easy for me to write dispassionately about the man who was so completely every thing to me personally. But since I was willing to share him with his Scouts and Guides during our married life, so too I ought to be willing to share memories of him especially with those who worked with and for him during so many years.

"All day and every day, and even by night, he would be thinking and planning and devising ways and means by which his scheme could be promoted more fully and on an ever-increasing scale, so that it might be brought to fulfil its highest mission for the boys and girls and men and women who came under its influence. Even during those morning walks, while he was revelling in the sunshine and colour, and absorbing the beauty of scenery and trees and birds and flowers, he always carried in his pocket a note book and pencil, in which to note down quickly and on the spot anything that might be of interest and of value for the boys and girls, for whom he wrote and drew so regularly in books and journals.

"If ever a man lived a disciplined life and subjected himself to a never ending giving out of his best, for the sake of an ideal, that man was "OUR FOUNDER"—the inspirer to all Scouts and Guides the World over".

"Our Scouting is one Great Brotherhood,
We learn to play the game,
How much happier would the nations be
If they could do the same,
Then thanks to our Founder B.-P.
Whose work will never cease,
For he has set the youngsters going
On the royal road to peace".

WHY?

Are the following correct? What is your answer and Why?

1. Use the Centre of the path or road while laying the track.
2. When laying a ground sheet, put the non-shiny side next to the ground.
3. A gadget is to be used for a fractured rib.
4. A splint is to be used during a fractured rib.
5. Tie halyard (hoisting rope) to the loop with a bowline.
6. While putting a diagonal lashing start with a clove hitch and end with a timber hitch.
7. If there is heavy dew at night, the next day will be a stormy day.
8. It is usual to camp too near a river bed.
9. The camp kitchen should be reasonably near water and should not be on the leeward side of the camp.
10. Pole star is situated exactly over the terrestrial South pole.

Don't Look at it, Climb it.

Our State Chief Commissioner Shri P. Siva Shankar, who recently retired as the Principal of the Government Law College, Bangalore, climbed the ladder of Scouting and did not merely look at it. He rose from the ranks and whosoever he came into contact with, he infused them with Scout spirit.

In private life, he began as an advocate and had the opportunity to be the President of the erstwhile City Municipal Council of Bangalore. His interest is not in Scouting only. True to the saying "He who is busy finds time to do all the more". Shri P. Siva Shankar is connected in one capacity or the other with various youth organisations and institutions such as Seva Ashram, Bharat Sevak Samaj, Rotary International etc.

During the time he was the District Scout Commissioner of Bangalore City, the IX Mysore State Rally was conducted and it can be boldly said that after this event there has not been a Jamboree of its type both as regards numbers and popularity.

In 1949, when he was the Deputy Chief Scout Commissioner of the Boy Scouts of Mysore, the highest award i.e., the SILVER ELEPHANT granted by the then General Headquarters, Delhi, in recognition of his most excellent services to the Boy Scout Movement, was presented by His Highness Shri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, the then Chief Scout at a Scout Camp at Nanjangud. The highest award of "The Boy Scouts of Mysote" "GANDABHERUNDA" was given to him in 1956.

Shri Sivashankar was a member of the General Headquarters Council and is now on the National Headquarters Council. He has attended three World Jamborees. At the International Conference held at Paris in 1947, he was one of the six Delegates from India. In 1960 at the Third All India Jamboree held at Bangalore, he was the Jamboree Camp Chief. To have headed the responsibility of organising a huge camp for a gigantic number of well over 10,000 was not an easy matter. He gathered a team of workers and saw the memorable event through and the tribute paid by Lady Baden Powell, who was present on the occasion is quoted here below :

> "May I offer to you, and to all concerned my very warmest congratulations too on the MAGNIFICENT way in which you planned and carried through that immense affair ".

Shri Siva Shankar, has a broad smile stamped on his face. He always talks encouragingly He is an optimist. He is a firm believer in our Movement. He does things in an unostentatious way. He practises what a great man said: "He who has most friends, remains young ". Yes, he has very many not only in our Country but all the world over. During his tour, almost a World Tour, he made it a point to contact various Scout Heads and has gathered a fund of information about world Scouting. Although retired from his professional career we are confident that he will endeavour his very best to make Scouting and Guiding the best for years to come. He is a believer in the saying " Talk less and do More ".

The Scouts and Guides of Mysore State wish him all that is best for continued years of good Scouting !

A DOZEN ITEMS BY PATROL LEADERS

Pioneering—There's plenty here for your Patrol even when it really is too nasty for outdoor stuff. Have time trials on a 2nd Class trestle. Model bridges, too, can give you a great deal of fun, keep you in trim, ready for the spring and be jolly good for putting on a show at the next parents' and friends' evening.

Axemanship—Make sure the Patrol hand axes are in good shape and get some practice by chopping firewood for the old people

Tracking—Tracking is great fun. Another idea for a Good Turn here, too! Get the Patrol to decide now on three people's paths which they will clear. There are quite a few people who cannot sweep their front path.

Railways—This may not be much of a subject if you have no railway lines in your part of the world but for many there is much of interest here. What is the history of your local railway? Why is the station two miles away from the town? When did the first railway line come to your town or village? Have you a dis-used line, if so when was it last used and why was it closed down?

Observation—Take a look at the conditions of the Observer Badge which must surely rank as a lazy man's guide for a Patrol Meeting. I cannot understand why more Scouts have not got this Proficiency Badge. You can learn the ropes at Patrol Meetings and make you get this badge which every Scout ought to have.

Life Saving—Get your Patrol out of their easy chairs and see just how good—or bad—they are at throwing a life-line. Do they measure up to the fourth requirement of the Lifesaver Badge?

Leadership—This is for you, the P.L, but whether you have any of this or not will depend on the success or otherwise of your Patrol. If there is a Training Course for P.Ls being held locally get your name down for it as you are bound to learn something to the advantage of your Patrol and yourself.

Estimation—An activity which can provide a lot of fun as well as giving useful training towards the 1st Class test of this name. Very few people are much use at estimating numbers and only constant practice will make you any good. Just think how many cakes you and your Scouts could win at Bazaars if only you all know how to "Guess the weight"!

Accidents—There are too many of these in the home, on the road and in the water. Do you and the Patrol know what to do when an accident happens—and, just as important, do they all know how to prevent accidents? Scouts worthy of the name should know both. This is no dull subject and in any case too many people are killed for us to ignore one of the parts of our Scout Promise—a part which B.P. thought so important he made it Part of Scout Law (No. 3) as well.

Designer—Another badge and I make no apology. Just take a look at the rule book and see the possibilities listed here like plums ripe for plucking. A good old fashioned messy Patrol Meeting for the asking! How many of you have done carving in soap? That's what the badge requirements say, so get on with it—it's all clean fun (sorry!).

Entertainment—No. I am not thinking of either TV or Bingo! Too many Patrols are content with the same old camp fire turns on every occasion. Think up some new ideas and rehearse them at Patrol Meetings. Or as another possibility make some puppets and then give a show when one of the Scout's younger brother or sister has a party.

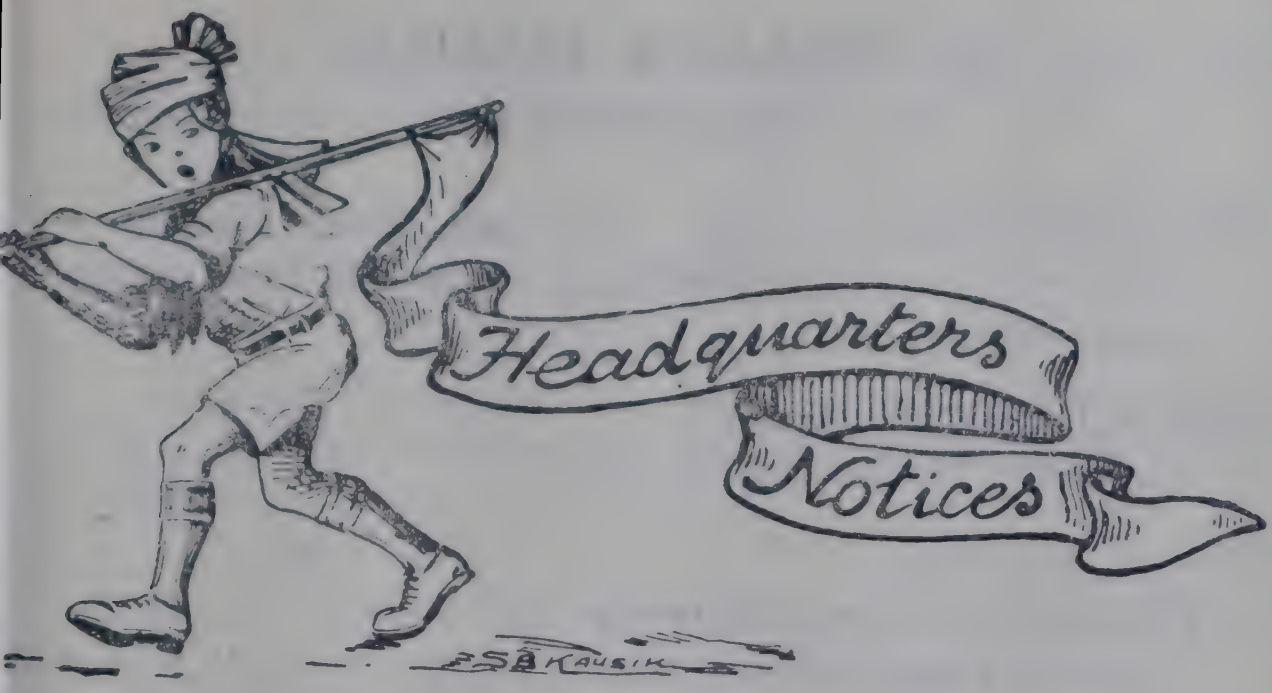
Refreshment—A very reasonable suggestion with which to finish. Can all your chaps make a good cup of tea, coffee, cocoa, and the like. A really good cup? So many people are not very good at this and what rotten hosts they make. Go further, make sure that your Patrol knows how to cook so that when you go camping they are the envy of everyone around.

From The Scout of 2nd Dec. 1961.

ANSWERS

1. Only the side of a road or path is to be used. Pedestrains and vehicles may pass on the track mark and the following party may not be able to follow the track.
2. Always use the shiny side next to the ground. The shiny side avoids damping as it does not absorb moisture, whereas the non-shiny side absorbs the moisture.
3. A gadget is an ingenious skilled article made by a Scout out of the materials available during a camp. It is very useful in camps where Scouts can keep their things in their own way in good order.
4. A splint should not be used during a fractured limb. A splint is to be used only in case of a fractured limb.
5. While tying the halyard to the loop of a flag, sheet bend is to be used or two ropes of unequal thickness may be used.
6. While tying a diagonal lashing, it is to be started with a timber hitch and ended with a clove hitch. The timber hitch becomes more tight when drawn and when ended with a clove hitch the lashing does not become loose.
7. The next day will be a clear day with fine weather. Wind and sun does not favour formation of dew.
8. It is a mistake to camp too near a river from which mist may arise The camp site should be convenient for the good supply of water.
9. The camp kitchen should invairably on the leeward side of the camp. The smell of dinner may be pleasant but smoke blowing across the camp and into the tents is a nuisance.
10. Pole star is situated exactly over the terrestrial North Pole. During night, North is located with the help of the pole star.

H. Y. RAMAIAH
Scout Master, G.H.S. Chikkamagalur



Training Team—We are happy to announce that Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram, M.C., State Commissioner (S) and Sri H. R. Abdul Majeed, M A , Headquarters Commissioner for Rovers who now hole the charge as D.C.C., for Scouting have recently received the additional Honourable charges as Deputy Camp Chiefs for Cubbing and Rovering. We offer our heartiest felicitations to them on this distinction.

Warrants—As per Rule 245 of the A.P.R.O., the Warrants issued to Scouters/Guiders are valid upto the end of 31st December 1961 or otherwise as stated on the Warrant.

The Dist. Commissioners (S & G) are requested to call for such warrants immediately and forward them for renewal to the State Headquarters with a short report of work done by the concerned persons for the period the warrants have been valid, along with their recommendations.

Our Trip to Delhi

By Miss U. SUSHILA KINI

Cluny Convent H.S. Company, Bangalore North Dist.

In the last week of November eleven girls from our company went to Delhi to join in the Rally of the President's Scouts and President's Guides. We were very proud, for we were representing Mysore State.

We left Bangalore on the 23rd November 61 by Madras Mail, took the Grand Trunk express at Madras and arrived at Delhi on the 26th at 8-30 a.m. We were met by Bro. Sripati Kumar, the Scout Master who had travelled with the Scouts one day ahead of us. He took us to the camping ground which was adjacent to Humayun's Tomb about 5 miles away from Delhi. The place is very nice and thrilling for camping.

We had expected to be put into patrols according to our States but were greatly disappointed to find that all States were mixed up. One draw back in this was our difficulty to speak Hindi. Still we co-operated with the other girls in making gadgets and cleaning of tents. We managed to be understood by speaking in a mixture of Hindi and English.

Food in the Camp was very regular. Morning breakfast was at 8 a.m , lunch at 12 noon, tea at 4 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m. Rouse was at 6 a.m. Early in the morning there was flag hoisting, followed by a short marching practice. Inspection of tents was at 9 a.m.

On the 27th morning we had a rehearsal of the rally to be held the next day at the Rastrapati Bhavan. In the afternoon all guides had a short test. The answering of a few short questions, estimating as to how many people could be seated in a stadium, and practical tests like square lashing and skipping. In the evening there was a rehearsal of the camp fire to be held the following evening.

28th was a very busy day. In the morning there was another rehearsal of the rally and camp fire programmes. This was over exactly at 12 noon. Soon after lunch we left the camp at 1-15 p.m. in two buses. We were first taken to the Houses of Parliament where we listened to a session and met the speaker, Sri Ananthashayanam Iyengar. From there we marched to the Rastrapati Bhavan. Our Vice-President, Dr. Radhakrishnan arrived at 5 p.m. On his arrival the National Anthem was sung on the band. This was followed by the Prayer song. There were two short speeches, one by the Vice-President and the other by our National Commissioner Dr. H. N. Kunzru. After this there was awarding of the certificates by Dr. S. Radhakrishnan followed by light refreshments offerred by him. Next we left the Rastrapati Bhavan and returned to camping grounds far a camp fire with very friendly atmosphere. The whole programme was over in an hour and concluded by the 'Taps' and the National Anthem. Then there was a grand dinner.

29th was for sight seeing. We were taken in a bus to Raj Ghat (where we paid homage to "The Father of the Nation")

Red Fort, Birla Mandir and the Kutub Minar. We returned to camp for lunch after which we visited the Industrial Fair.

On the 30th morning we were dropped by bus at the India Gate and marched with the Scouts to the Prime Minister's residence, There was an informal meeting with the Prime Minister where also we met the Russian Cosmonaut Major Yuri Gagarin.

That evening the Guides and Scouts from Mysore visited Sikandra, the tomb of Akbar, with torches and a lantern. We had our lunch in a hotel and slept in the bus itself.

The next day we visited Fathepur Sikri for an hour and went to the Taj Mahal and the Agra Fort and returned to Delhi. At 5-30 p.m. we got on the Grand Trunk Express and were on the way home, "Home Sweet Home". I am certain we will always carry sweet memories of this trip to Delhi for ever.

"MOUNTAINEERING" for Guides

After much anticipation we arrived at Pachmari and went straight to bed in tents as we had come in the dead of the night. We eagerly woke up the next day only to be told at ceremonials that our instructors, who were to conduct our 'Mountaineering Course' had been delayed and were expected next morrow. Well, we occupied ourselves making gadgets, in general, making ourselves comfortable. The next day also we had disappointment in store for us, and we almost lost heart, wondering whether our instructors would arrive at all. Each bus was met and by the evening we had reached the height of our speculations; but once again we retired to bed still in doubt.

The next morning we were introduced to our instructors and once again our spirits sored. One of them was Angtharnba and the other Nima Dhundlup. After breakfast we had a session on a short history of Mountaineering and also the necessary equipments. All the materials like sleeping bags, shoes, gloves, caps, nylon ropes, pittons, carabara for repelling, hammers, axes, slings and many others were exhibited as they drew them out one after the other from their rucksacks. We were engrossed as they explained the use of each of them, even though we were hazy about it all at the beginning. We also learnt some knots, like "Endman's knot." 'Middlemans,' "Double knot," and the shuolder and hand coil, most of which one used in Mountaineering.

A short time later we went out for our first climb. Our instructors looked round for a place for us to climb and finally made us climb a short height on one of the Mountains near the camp. We were tied to each other and our dreams of Mountaineering were about to be realised. Each one of us started as our turn came with a palpitating heart and shivering limbs. Well! we reached the top and got down as well, but we had some more short climbs also. In all we were nine of us together but we formed two groups of four and five under the two instructors. We had a break for lunch and again in the afternoon tried another place for our climb. This time we really were thoroughly frightened as we had to climb a gap between two mountain sides, or a crevasse as it is known, supporting ourselves oneside with our backs and the other with our legs and feet touching that side, as if we were sitting in our chairs with our legs put out. With much coaxing and encouragement from our Instructors we reached the top and before we recovered our breaths, we were trudging along to find a place where we could get down. Now we were able to use some of the equipment. A sling was put round the waist and with a carabara with safety lock attached to it and a long rope running through it. We glided down the mountain side with one foot put out touching the side. This way of getting on is known as 'Repelling'. We were uneasy to try it, but once we got on to it, we just enjoyed it.

The next day we climbed the Pachmari Hills. We left camp in the morning at 8 a.m. with our lunch packet. We had to climb higher this day and got down a cravasse 30 ft. or so in depth. We came back to camp late in the evening, tired but happy. We also dreamt of the 'Hand holes', Feet holes, Hand press, and such other instructions we had received.

The next day we left for 'Jetashankar', a renowned place in Pachmari. We climbed quite high in the morning and got down and again in the afternoon we gave a demonstration to a whole Military Battalion, along with their Colnel and they thought we had progressed much in just three days. We were all eager to learn as much as could be crammed into just these four days. By this time we were quite confident and so did not feel any qualms about climbing higher. The Instructors enjoyed themselves at our predicaments, which were usualy imagined by us rather than real, and sometimes when we were stuck, half way up, but the infinete amount of patience and understanding they showed towards us, novices, was remarkable.

The last day dawned, we once again attempted to climb a 'Jatashanker' and tried to learn Stomach Repelling, but we were only able to crashl and on our hands and never the right way. As time did not permit we had a cut short and turned back to camp. We all vowed that we would avail ourselves of another opportunity at Mountaineering and thus better our knowledge. We were looked after very well in the camp and we are ever so grateful to the camp authorities. In conclusion I can say that ordinarily we would be overawed by the magnificient heights of the mountains and wonder if it is ever possible to scale them; but once we actually took to climbing them, we loved every moment of it.

೧೧ನೆಯ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್‌ಗಳ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಜಾಂಬೋರಿ

೧೯೬೮ರ ಡಿಸೆಂಬರ್ ಕಡೆಯ ವಾರದಲ್ಲಿ ಮೈಸೂರು ರಾಜ್ಯದ ೧೧ನೆಯ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್ ಜಾಂಬೋರಿಯು ಈ ಸಲ ದಾವಣಗೆರೆ ನಗರದಲ್ಲಿ ನಡೆಯುವುದು. ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಎಲ್ಲ ದಳಗಳೂ ಇದರಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸಲು ಈಗಿನಿಂದ ಸಿದ್ಧಗೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕೆಂದು ಸೂಚಿಸಬಯಸುತ್ತೇವೆ.

ಸ್ಥಾಪಕರ ದಿನ

೨೨ನೆಯ ಫೆಬ್ರುವರಿ. ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥಾಪನಾಚಾರ್ಯ ದಿವಂಗತ ಲಾರ್ಡ್ ಬೇಡನ್ ಪೊವೆಲ್ ಮತ್ತು ಅತ್ನಪತ್ನಿ ಪ್ರಕೃತ ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಪ್ರಧಾನ ಗೈಡ್ ಆಗಿರುವ ಶ್ರೀಮತಿ ಓಲೇವ್ ಬೇರ್ಡೆ ಪೊವೆಲ್ ಇಬ್ಬರೂ ಜನ್ಮತಾಳಿದ ವರ್ಧಂತಿಯ ದಿನ. ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳು ಇದನ್ನು ಸಂಸ್ಥಾಪಕರ ದಿನೋತ್ಸವ ಎಂದೂ, ಗೈಡ್‌ಗಳು ಸದ್ಯೋಚನಾದಿನೋತ್ಸವ (Thinking Day) ಎಂದೂ ಜಗದಾದ್ಯಂತ ಆಚರಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ. ನಮ್ಮ ನಾಡಿನ ಎಲ್ಲ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್ ದಳಗಳೂ ತಪ್ಪದೆ ಈ ಉತ್ಸವಗಳನ್ನು ಆಚರಿಸುವರೆಂದು ನಂಬಿದ್ದೇವೆ. ಸ್ಥಳೀಯ ಸನ್ನಿವೇಶಗಳಿಗೆ ಹೊಂದಿಕೊಂಡು, ಸಭೆ, ರ್ಯಾಲಿ, ಪೆರೇಡು, ಜೀವನ ಸಮರ್ಪಣೆ, ಮನರಂಜನೆ ಮುಂತಾದ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಬಹುದು. ಅಲ್ಲದೆ ಅವರವರ ಶಕ್ತಿಗೆ ಸಾಧ್ಯವಾದಷ್ಟು ನಿಧಿಯನ್ನು (ನಯೇಪೈಸೇಗಳೇ ಆದರೂ) ಶೇಖರಿಸಿ ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಅಥವಾ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಕಛೇರಿಯ ಮೂಲಕ ಯಾವುದಾದರೂ ಉತ್ತಮ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಸಹಾಯಮಾಡಬಹುದು.

ಪುಣ್ಯಸ್ಮರಣೆ

ಡಿಸೆಂಬರ್ ೬೧ರ ೨೫ರಂದು ಭಾರತೀಯರಿಗೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಚಳುವಳಿಯನ್ನು ದೊರಕಿಸಲು ಹೋರಾಡಿ ವಿಜಯಶಾಲಿಗಳಾದ ಪಂಡಿತ ಮದನಮೋಹನ ಮಾಳವೀಯರ ಶತಮಾನೋತ್ಸವ ನಡೆಯಿತು. ಈ ವರ್ಷವೆಲ್ಲವೂ ಆ ಪುಣ್ಯ ಪುರುಷರಿಗೆ ನಮ್ಮ ಕೃತಜ್ಞತೆಯನ್ನು ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುವ ವಿಶೇಷ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಬಹುದಾಗಿದೆ.

೧೯೬೨ರ ಜನವರಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಅಂತೆಯೇ ಭಾರತೀಯರ ಸುಪ್ತವಾಗಿದ್ದ ಚೈತನ್ಯವನ್ನು ಜಾಗೃತಗೊಳಿಸಿ, ಸನಾತನ ಧರ್ಮದ ಮಹಾ ಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಜಗತ್ತಿಗೇ ಎತ್ತಿ ಕೊಟ್ಟ ಸ್ವಾಮಿ ವಿವೇಕಾನಂದರ ಶತಮಾನೋತ್ಸವವೂ ಅನೇಕ ಕಡೆ ನಡೆದಿದೆ. ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳೂ ಗೈಡುಗಳೂ ಈ ಮಹಾ ಪುರುಷರಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಕಾಣಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ಹೇಗೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಬೇಕು? ಯೋಚಿಸಿ ಅದರಂತೆ ನಡೆಯಬಹುದಾಗಿದೆ.

ಮರೆಯಲಾಗದ ವಿಜಯಗಳು.

ಗೋವ ! ನಾಲ್ಕುನೂರು ವರುಷಗಳಿಗೆ ಮಿಂಚಿ ಪೋರ್ಚುಗೀಸರ ಆಡಳಿತದ ದಾಸ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ಭಾರತದ ಅವಿಭಾಜ್ಯ ಪ್ರದೇಶವಾದ ಗೋವ ಅನ್ನು ಭಾರತದ ಸೈನ್ಯ ವ್ಯೂಹವು 61ರ ಡಿಸೆಂಬರ್ 18ನೆಯ ಬೆಳಗಿನಝೂವ ವಶಪಡಿಸಿಕೊಂಡ ಅದ್ಭುತ ಆಕಸ್ಮಿಕ ವೆಂಬಂತೆ ತೋರಿದ ಘಟನೆಯನ್ನು ಯಾವ ಭಾರತೀಯರೂ ಎಂದೂ ಮರೆಯಲಾರರು. ಅಂದಿನಿಂದ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷರು, ಫ್ರೆಂಚರು, ಕಡೆಯದಾಗಿ ಪೋರ್ಚುಗೀಸರು ಈ ಯಾವ ಪರಕೀಯರಿಗೂ ಭಾರತದ ಯಾವಭಾಗವೂ ವಸಾಹತು ಆಗಿಲ್ಲ ವೆಂಬುದನ್ನು ನಾವು ಸ್ಮರಣೆಯಲ್ಲಿಟ್ಟಿದ್ದರೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ಸಾಲದು. ನಮ್ಮ ತಾಯ್ನಾಡಿನ ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ ಸಂರಕ್ಷಣೆಗಾಗಿ ಸಹಾ ಎಚ್ಚರದಿಂದಲೂ ಸಾಧನ ಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯ ಸಂಘಟನೆಗಳಿಂದಲೂ ಸನ್ನದ್ಧರಾಗಿರಬೇಕಾದುದು ಅತ್ಯವಶ್ಯಕ.

ಕ್ರಿಕೆಟ್ ! ಕ್ರೀಡಾಂಗಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಕ್ರಿಕೆಟ್ ಟೆಸ್ಟ್ ಪಂದ್ಯಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ವರೆಗೆ ಭಾರತವು ಗಳಿಸಿರುವುದು ಏಳೇ ವಿಜಯಗಳು. ಅದರಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಇಂಗ್ಲೆಂಡಿನ ಎಂ. ಸಿ. ಸಿ. ಟೀಮಿನ ಮೇಲೆ ೧೯೫೨ರಲ್ಲಿ ಮದರಾಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಪಡೆದ ಮೊದಲನೆಯ ವಿಜಯದ ಹಿಂದೆ, ೧೯೬೨ರ ಜನವರಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಆಡಿದ ೪ನೆಯ ಪಂದ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಗೆದ್ದಿರುವುದೇ ಎರಡನೆಯ ವಿಜಯ. ಎಲ್ಲವನ್ನೂ ಮೀರಿಸಿ ಮದರಾಸಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಆಡಿದ ೫ನೆಯ ಪಂದ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಗೆದ್ದು ಭಾರತದ ಕ್ರಿಕೆಟ್ ಇತಿಹಾಸದಲ್ಲಿಯೇ ಪ್ರಥಮವಾಗಿ "ರಬ್ಬರ್" ಪಾರಿತೋಷಕವನ್ನೂ ನಮ್ಮ ತರುಣರು ಗಳಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಈ ಅಸಾಧಾರಣ ವಿಜಯಗಳಿಗೆ ಕಾರಣರಾದ ನಾಯಕರನ್ನೂ ಅವರಿಗೆ ಸಹಕಾರ, ಪೋಷಣೆ ಮತ್ತು ಆದರ್ಶ ಅನುಯಾಯಿಗಳಾಗಿ ವರ್ತಿಸಿದ ತಂಡದ ಎಲ್ಲರನ್ನೂ ಹೃತ್ಪೂರ್ಣ ಅಭಿನಂದಿಸುತ್ತೇವೆ. ತರುಣರಿಗೆ ಉತ್ತಮ ಆದರ್ಶವೆಂದರೆ ಇವೇ ! ಮೈಸೂರಿನ ಸ್ಪಿನ್ ಬೌಲರ್ ತರುಣ ಪ್ರಸನ್ನನು ಈ ಎರಡು ಪಂದ್ಯಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಶ್ರೇಷ್ಠತಮವಾಗಿ ಆಡಿ, ವೆಸ್ಟ್ ಇಂಡೀಸ್ ಕ್ರಿಕೆಟ್ ಪ್ರವಾಸದಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾರತವನ್ನು ಪ್ರತಿನಿಧಿಸುತ್ತಿರುವುದಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಅತನಿಗೆ ವೈಯಕ್ತಿಕ ಅಭಿನಂದನೆಗಳು ಸಲ್ಲತಕ್ಕದ್ದಾಗಿದೆ.

NEW YEAR

Let's Sing the Days that are coming,
And away with the days that are gone
The Old year is done,
A New Year begun,
And there is nothing like looking ahead.

The Lookout

Dear Sisters and Brothers—last year by this time all of us were busy in our own ways getting things ready for and preparing to participate in that memorable event. The Third All Indian Jamboree, at Bapujinagar, Bangalore. All efforts and sincerity were crowned with laudable success.

Following the event this year so far all of us may satisfy ourselves as having done our 'own best'. A fairly good number of trainings and other camps plus an appreciable amount of touring by responsible persons to study situations first hand have been done. Yet a great deal has to be done to give "Better Scouting to a greater number of boys."

On the eve of the new year 1962 shall we all renew our Promise to do "our best" to the youngsters under our charge and to do this shall we continue to live the Law and the Promise in our daily lives, as examples to the youngsters.

All best wishes for the Season and for a Very Happy New Year with plenty of Good Hunting.

Monthly Miscellany

5th December—It was most pleasant to hear from Col. J. S. Wilson, formerly Camp Chief of Gilwell and Director of the Boy Scout International (World) Bureau, who has written to say how much he appreciates getting copies of this magazine. His letter was reproduced in the December 1961 issue of this magazine.

14th December - Did it occur to you about anybody being born on the 29th February? In the 1961 "Sixer Annual" is a reference to this, to quote which—

"To be born upon this Leap Day
You may find is rather queer,
For it means that you will have only
A birthday each Leap Year,
But Leap Year folk are lucky,
For they will never be
As old as folk who have been born
In other years, you see!"

A. E. Passmore.

16th December—It was nice that we had to-day, when the State Executive Committee held a well-laid out full-scale lunch at the State Headquarters because the members had to sit through the meeting practically the whole day. Whole day meetings can be worthwhile this way, and a lot of business can be gone through too.

At the end of the meeting the State Headquarters and members of the Executivs Committee met the "President's Scouts and President's Guides" at Tea on their return from Delhi after attending the President's Reception at Rashtrapathi Bhavan. We congratulate these Scouts and Guides on this distinction earned by them.

19th December—It is great fun, and often profitable too, collecting postage stamps. Collecting stamps on any particular subject or theme is thematic philately, and included here, among others, is collecting Scout and Guide Stamps. Over the years many such stamps are issued from time to time by various countries of the world. Recently, to be exact, four months ago, Surinam issued a set of five beautiful multi-coloured stamps showing the Girl Guides at various activities. The set commemorates the Caribbean Girl Scouts Jamborette.

Can you guess where Surinam is?

22nd December—Turning the pages of some old issues of "The Mysore Scout"—that was what this magazine was then it was gratifying to find a line drawing of our Founder B-P: which I had made and was printed in a monthly issue for 1935. It was pleasant to think of those old times.

31st December—The year is now going out, and the New Year will be with us as we wake up. Best of wishes for the New Year to all our readers.

S. B. Kausik

"In men whom men condemn as ill,
I find so much of goodness still;
In men who men pronounce divine,
I find so much of sin and blot,
I hesitate to draw a line
Between the two, where God has not".

C) Cautionary Command —must be prolonged as much as necessary depending upon the size of and the distance from the main body of the parade.

E) Executive Command —must be very short and equally sharp and as loud as required depending upon the size of and the dlstance from the main body of the parade.

Note: The response by the participants in a parade correctly and sharply depends on the correctness and the sharpness of the commands. Scouters taking parades will please note this and train themselves with proper guidance from good drill instructors attached to schools or colleges. The importance of this need not be stressed here. All Scouters will understand that without a good standard of foot-drill our youngsters cannot claim to take part in public parades with the Army, Police and N.C.C. units.

The above words of command are National and have been published in the National Headquarters Bulletin some time ago.

President's Scouts and President's Guides

(By Lakshmi Mazumdar)

The ideals of the Scout movement and its potentialities for the training of young boys and girls have been acclaimed by the educational and social workers all over the world. When the late Lord Baden Powell conceived of the movement and its programme of activities, the informed public in many lands were struck by the original and bold approach to the problem of moulding the mind and character of youth. More than fifty years have passed since then, yet the vitality and comprehensiveness of the earlier scheme of training and the ideals remain unimpaired to this day; indeed they fit in the present times as much as they did when they were first thought of years ago. Many new youth welfare schemes for the training of the young have been since evolved and several new organisations and authorities have been set up; but the fundamental ideals and spirit of scouting have reflected directly and indirectly in all such new schemes.

The main strength of scouting lies in the hard core of practical realism of its basic ideals as set out in its Promise and Law, and in the flexibility of their formulation which makes it easy to adjust the training to suit individual trainee and his or her environment. There are as many as 140 Schemes of test works. A boy or a girl can develop his or her talent by undertaking any of the test works set out in the scheme of training.

Scouts and Guides are not "social workers" in the sense we understand them in our country at present. The main purpose of Scouting is to train a boy to prepare himself while he is still young for the responsibilities of his later life, irrespective of the vocation which he may choose so that he may be useful to himself and also to society. The boys and girls are thus trained in those essential habits of mind, thought and conduct which alone can fit them adequately into the environment in which they may be placed; it is in this that they qualify to be the social workers of the society. Through the different stages of training viz., tenderfoot, 2nd class and 1st class a boy acquires the elementary technical skills and develops those interesting social traits in his character which will fit him for good citizenship in future. The leaders of the movement realize that along with training, the boys and the girls should be encouraged to apply skill and knowledge. In the course of their early training, the scouts and guides are taught to work in their immediate surrounding i. e. at home or in school and among friends. In order to enable them to learn higher skills and to qualify in more arduous tests a higher certificate over and above that of the 1st class has been devised. To attain this higher standard, the boys and girls have to obtain proficiency in subjects set out for the 1st class certificate and also to go through an additional number of four more tests. Besides, they must also have a record of sustained service to the community viz., helping in hospital or other charitable or philanthropic organizations or in any particular home The leader of the Group to which the boy or the girl intending to appear at this special test may belong, should further testify to the fact that he or she is making every effort to follow the Scout, Guide Promise and the Law.

In England, the holders of this special certificate, are known as the Queen's Scouts and Queen's Guides. On October 3, 1909 Baden Powell was received by King Edward VII at Belmoral Castle& invested with the honour of a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorial Order. It was after dinner the same evening that the King suggested to Baden Powell that Scouts who attained a certain standard should be given the title of King's Scouts and wear the Royal crown on their arms.

According to the original requirements a 'King's Scout' had to be a First Class Scout who held the Pathfinder Badge or any three of the following badges :

Cyclist, Seaman, Marksman, Signaller, Bungker and Ambulance.

In December, 1909, Patrol leader Victor Watkins of Broadstine, Dorset was the first to win the King's Scout Badge.

Scouting was introduced in India in 1901, but in the beginning only the Europeans and Anglo-Indian boys and girls were enrolled in the movement. In response to the strong demand by the public in this couutry, since 1916, Indian boys and girls began to be registered as Scouts and Guides. Through the efforts of the Scout and Guide Associations registered in England as well as of the Seva Samiti movement, larger number of Indian boys and girls were introduced to the movement. Very little recorded information is available about the pioneer Indian Scouts who became the King's Scouts. It is to be hoped that when thorough study of the Scout movement and its growth in this country is undertaken, it will throw up a great deal of valuable information on this subject. In any case, probably, the first full-fledged King's Scouts were recorded in the year 1926.

From the available early records of scouting in Bengal which claims to be one of the pioneer States in India where scouting was first introduced, it appears that the Scouts having the requisite qualification of a King's Scout were to be called Governor's Scouts. The following extracts from a statement received from the West Bengal Branch of the Bharat Scouts and Guides will be found revealing :

"About forty-six years back when scouting was first started in the Province it was restricted to European and Anglo-Indian boys and the Troops that existed were confined to Calcutta only. With the Movement not being open to Indian boys the result was that when a few Troops were formed with Indian boys in and around Calcutta they were refused recognition. It sounds strange to-day but there it was these isolated Troops had to carry on as best as they could. It was only in 1915 that serious and organised efforts were made to form an Indian Boy Scouts Association in Calcutta. The Movement spread and shortly a number of Scout Troops came into existence The Pioneers approached the authorities for the recognition of these Troops. With the affiliation having been refused the organisation came to work as an independent body under the name of "The Bengalie Boy Scouts League." The Movement was able to draw the kind sympathy and keen interest of His Excellency Lord Ronaldshay, the then Governor of Bengal who agreed to become the Patron of the "Boy Scouts of Bengal" as it came to be named then. A big Rally was held at the Government House in honour of the Patron. As the Association was not officially recognized by the Boy Scouts Association, London, the use of the name of King's Scouts was not allowed. Even the emblems of the Proficiency badges were not permitted. Instead the then Proficiency badge holders put on the names written on the ribbon of the said badges on their arms. When the question of King's Scouts Badge came up, His Excellency gave his consent to use Governor's Scout instead. The Badge was a Six-pointed star embroidered in Silver thread on a blue background. The shape of which was same as that of the Queen's Scout Badge today. The first and only recipients of the much coveted Governor's Scouts Badges are

Governor's Scouts

1. Shri Amar Bose — Medical Practitioner.
2. Late Anil Dutt — He was a Solicitor. He served as Assistant District Commissioner (Cub) in 2nd Cal. Local Association till his death. Wood-Badge holder.

3. Shri Ashim Dutt — Businessman. Now Hq. Commissioner, West Bengal. Attended 5th World Jamboree and a Course of training at Gilwell.

4. Shri Biren Bose — Zamindar.

5. Shri Provash De — Liaison Officer, Rly. Heavy Engineering. He attended the second World Jamboree and a course of training at Gilwell.

6. Shri Subodh Dutt — Engineer.

Meanwhile the Imperial Headquarters of the Boy Scouts Association in London was approached again and sanction was obtained to have the Boy Scouts of Bengal affiliated with the present body. Till the formation of Bharat Scouts and Guides a number of scouts have obtained the King's Scout Badges.

The following are the available names of those Scouts who obtained their King's Scout Badges during the years 1920 and 1930.

From the report of Mysore, it reveals that the Mysore Scouts Association had no provision for the award of the badge for King's Scouts. The scouts attaining the highest standing were known as Maharaja's scouts and the troops which had the largest number of Maharaja's scouts were presented with a special flag known as Maharaja's flag.

Information received from the Punjab State Bharat Scouts and Guides shows that the first batch of King's scouts was recorded in 1 26. The King's Scouts in the Punjab who subsequently proved their worth in their respective field of activity included

General Pratap Narain
Shri I. S. Chopra, Indian Ambassador is Lebanon
Shri S. P. Chopra, the eminent Chartered Accountant in India.
Shri Harbans Singh
Col. Bahl

Similarly in other parts of India, several King's Scouts were appointed who later on became worthy citizens of the country and filled resposible positions in life. I am sure the Bharat Scouts and Guides will in due course be able to collect full particulars of those pioneer Scouts and again enlist their active interest in the movement.

In 1938, after the amalgamation of three Scout associations which were established in response to the independent demand of the public and did not like to be registered with the Imperial Headquarters of the Boys Scouts Association in London, resulting in the formation of the Hindustan Scouts Association, the new association adopted a system of recognising the best Scouts and Guides as 'Hind Scout' and 'Hind Guide'. It was a matter of great satisfaction to all those who were interested in the movement that in 1951 all the associations viz., the Boy Scouts Association, the Hindustan Scouts Association and All India Girl Guides Association merged into one body under the banner of the Bharat Scouts and Guides. In the new Association, a provision was made to honour the best Scouts and Guides in the country as the 'Bharat Scouts' and 'Bharat Guides'. Only first class scouts and guides below the age of 17 are eligible for qualifying themselves for this honour.

From the beginning, many of the leaders of the movement did not approve of the new name viz. Bharat Scouts and Bharat Guides because they feared that this description might create needless confusion in the public mind The newly merged organisation had been named as the Bharat Scouts and Guides. All Scouts and Guides belonging to this organisation could, therefore, legitmately claim to be called Bharat Scouts and Bharat Guides. It was felt that another significant designation should be found for the best Scouts and best Guides. Many suggestions as for example Dhruba Scouts' and Dhruba Guides 'Ashoka Scouts' 'and Ashoka Guides' were made but these names did not find general acceptance. Subsequently, a great desire was expressed that description of the best Scouts and the best Guides should be somehow associated with the designation of the head of the State who is the official Chief Patron of the Movement.

It is a source of deep joy to all of us that the President has graciously agreed to permit us to call our best scouts and best Guides as ' President's Scouts and Presidents's Guides'

It has been further agreed that these scouts and guides will be awarded certificates bearing the insignia of the State over the signature of the President of India. Besides, they will be permitted to wear badges bearing the insignia of the State with the inscription 'President's Scout' and 'President's Guides' embossed on them.

It is estimated that 222 Scouts and 76 Guides have qualified to be called as 'President's Scouts and President's Guides. The first rally in which eligible Scouts and Guides were awarded the honour by the Vice-Paesident of India, Dr. S. RadhaKrishnan was held at the Rashtrapati Bhawan on the 28th November, 1961 at 5 p.m. 100 Scouts and 56 Guides came to Delhi for receiving their certificates from different States in India on this occasion. On the following day, the Prime Minister of India, Shri Jawaharlal Nehru received them in the Prime Minister's House. Major Gagarin, the first cosmonant was also present on this occasion and met the boys and girls.

All leading educationists, social workers and the informed members of the general public appreciated the services rendered by the Bharat Scouts and Guides and acknowledged the immense possibilities of the movement in future for the promotion of the welfare of the youth. The Central and State Governments support the Bharat Scouts and Guides as an educational movement which can play an important part in helping to develop the young boys and girls into better men and women. Internationally, the movement is recognised to be an ideal peace movement. The honour of bearing the name of the head of the State on their badges will provide the deserving Scouts and guides with added inspiration to do their best for the good of their fellowmen and the country. I feel sure that the fortunate recipients of the special certificates will appreciate the significance of this honour and will try their utmost to be worthy of the additional responsibilities which come to them along with the special honour which they will receive from the President of the State.

President's Scouts and President's Guides Honoured

The Ashoka Hall of Rashtrapati Bhavan was packed on 28th November 1961 when 167 "Pre.ident's Scouts" and "President's Guides", were assembled to receive Certificates for high distinction as the best qualified Scouts and Guides, from the Vice-President of India Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, who is also their patron.

The imposing Ashoka Hall, normally reserved for the reception of high dignitaries,had on this unique occasion in the history of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, these young citizens of tomorrow, cheerfully looking forward to receive the much coveted certificates.

Exactly at 5 p.m. Dr. S. Radhakrishnan accompained by his bodyguards entered the hall. All the Scouts and Guides who had come from 13 States in the country stood up to greet their patron. This function which was in keeping with the dignity of the Ashoka Hall, started with the President's band playing the National Anthem 'Jana Gana Mana". It was followed by the prayer song of the Bharat Scouts and Guides: Daya Kar Dan Bhakti Ka.

Dr. H. N. Kunzru, the National Commissioner, and all Scouts and Guides reaffirmed their pledge to serve their country, God, their fellow-men, and ever remain loyal to the Scout Law. Dr. Kunzru thanked the Vice-President for so kindly agreeing to award the certificates and said that the change in the nomenclature of the Scouts and Guides, having won the highest efficiency badges, had created great enthusiasm among Scouts and Guides all over the country. Every Scout and Guide was eager now to become "President's Scout" or "President's Guide". He was sure that next year the number of Scouts and Guides who would qualify themselves for this award, would go up by leaps and bounds. At present there were only 250 President's Scouts and 100 President's Guides in the country.

Dr. S. Radhakrishnan addressing the Scouts and Guides, reminded them to remember that they had to serve the country and their fellowmen. They should strive to be youths of adventure. The Nation needed the services of all young men to make integration a reality. He advised them to sul ordinate their caste, community and other parochial interests to build up the country. The President is the symbol of the country and as such their first loyalty should be to their motherland. He congratulated them for their status being raised to that of the President's Scouts and President's Guides. He added, "When the change of name was suggested to me, I readily agreed to it."

The Scouts and Guides received their Certificates from their Patron. There was a smile on their faces, a twinkle in their eyes and joy in their hearts.

The Vice-President at the end treated them to tea and kindly went round meeting these happy boys and girls, asking a question here and a question there.

This will be a very happy occasion in the life of these children.

The following President's Scouts and President's Guides of Mysore State who received their Certificate at Delh this year were entertained at tea by the State Headquarters on the 16th December 1961 at the State Headquarters, Bangalore when a large number of the State Executive Committee members, and other Scouters and Guiders were present.

Prime Minister Blesses President's Scouts and President's Guides

Sri Jawahar Lal Nehru, our Prime Minister was kind enough to spare some time amidst his numerous pre-occupations to meet the President's Scouts and President's Guides at his residence on 30th November 1961 at 9 a. m. The Prime Minister, accom-panied by Major Yuri Gagarin and his wife Valentina came to meet them. He went round talking to the Scouts and Guides who were feeling very happy for the affection the Prime Minister showed to them.

Dr. H. N. Kunzru, the National Commissioner, thanked the Prime Minister for giving such encouragement to the Scouts and Guides. He expressed his gratitude to the Ministry for the help given to the National Training Centre, Pachmarhi, for construction and equipment. He also thanked the Educa tion Ministry for giving assistance for the construction of the National Headquarters building in New Delhi. He stressed the fact that U.S.A., U.K., and other Commonwealth countries had given protection to the Scout and Guide Movement in their countries. Such protection meant safeguarding the name, uniform and insignia of the Movement. He hoped that the interest taken by the Prime Minister in the Movement, would ensure this protection.

The Prime Minister while giving his blessings asked the President's Scouts and Guides to make good progress in life. He wished them all well.

Grand Camp-Fire

The President's Scouts and President's Guides had a Grand Camp-Fire at the Delhi Camp site near Humayun's Tomb on 28th November 1961. The guests had come in good numbers. The fire was lit with the usual ceremony and the items presented were quite interesting and entertaining. The songs and dances were greatly appreciated, specially the Qavalis.

18th World Scout Conference, 19th to 25th September, 1961.

The World Conference elected the following Scouters to Serve on the World Committee :

Mr. William D. Campbell	to	1967
Sir Hermenegildo B. Reyes (Philippines)	,,	,,
M. Jean Salvaj	,,	,,
Mr. Philippe Tossijn	,,	,,
Mr. C. C. Mojekwu (Africa, being the Chief Commissioner of the Boy Scouts of Nigeria).	,,	1963

It is delightful to learn that the World Committee have appointed Lady Baden-Powell to be Hon. Vice-President for the ensuing two year period. Our heartiest congratulations both to the committee and Lady Baden-Powell.

We learn with pleasure that Major-General D.C. Spry has accepted the invitation to serve as Director of the World Bureau of Scouts for a further period of four years. We extend to him a warm welcome and plead all allegiance to him.

The World Committee has awarded the Bronze Wolf for outstanding services to the World Movement to the following Scouters:

Don Juan Laine

General Sir Rob Lockhart K.C.B.

Mr. Michiharu Mishima,

Mr. John M. Schiff,

Major-General D. C. Spry.

We convey our sincere congratulations to these fine trusted leaders of the movement.

The World Conference devoted a lot of time to consider revisions to the constitution. Our titles have been changed to World Conference, World Committee and Bureau, but meetings of the conference are to continue at two-yearly intervals.

The World Conference confirmed the international recognition accorded during the past two years to Laos, Ghana, Madagascar, Nigeria, Cyprus and Morocco. Morocco is the seventy-second member country which has achieved recognition.

We extend a very warm welcome to these countries for joining the world brotherhood of Scouts.

Major-General Spry is of opinion that we should keep our kit simple and inexpensive. It would be so nice if Scouts are encouraged to make more of their own kit; hat bands, belts lanyards and other bits and pieces can be made by Scouts.

International Study Committees

Two Study Committees have heen formed to find new ways in Cubbing and in Rovering. The cub study committee has representatives from Brazil, Canada, Cuba, France, Germany, U K., India, Iran, Israel, Japan and U.S.A.

The Rover Study Committee is represented by Denmark, Eygpt, U.K., Netherlands, New Zealand, Mexico, Pakistan, Switzerland, South Africa, U.S.A. and Vanezuela.

We are sure new ideas will emerge for the improvement of both Cubbing and Rovering.

Scout Home, Rotterdam

The Scouters of Netherlands have constructed a "Scouts-Home" hostel in Rotterdam. All members of the movement visiting Rotterdam may be sure of a warm welcome in this hostel. Further information may be obtained from—

B.P. House

Scouts of U.K. realised their ambition; in the erection o a residential and social centre, where Boy Scouts from all over the world may stay while they are in England. It has costed £450,000 and nearly 20 years of devoted efforts to build, furnish, and endow this magnificent living memorial to the Founder of Scouting. It was opened by Queen Elizabeth II on July 12, 1961. It is situated in South Kensington, London.

British Sea Scout Gathering

Nearly 1,000 Sea Scouts throughout U.K. recently took part in the 1961 London Sea Scout meet at Chatham in Kent. The gathering was honoured by the presence of the First Sea Lord, Admiral of the Fleet Earl Mountbatten, who tourcd the campsite and showed great interest in this large Sea Scout gathering.

Such a meet should be organised in India also.

World Scouts Flag

The 18th International Coference in Lisbon approved the design (Resolution No. XII) for the world Scout flag.)

1) The flag will be in the proportion of 3 to 2.
2) The fleur-de.lis in the centre will be 'solid'.

Two sizes of the new flag are now available, in purple, all wool bunting, with the design appliqued at centre in whitl cotton fabric so as to show on both sides, roped and toggled.

The sizes and prices are:—

6ft by 4ft	....	$11.00 (U.S.) or £3.17s. Od. stg.
3ft by 2ft	....	$ 6.56 (U.S.) or £2. 5s. Od. stg.

Orders for these flags thould be sent to the World Bureau, accompanied by a remittance to cover the cost and estimated postage of $1.50 (10s. Od.) per flag. Any excess postage will be refunded or held to the Association's credit as desired.

Sri D. S. Siddaiah, B.Sc., B.Ed.,

Our State Organising Commissioner (S)

We are proud to have an young, energetic and enthusiastic State Organising Commissioner who has risen from the ranks, having been a cub in his younger days. He became a keen scout of one of the popular open groups of Bangalore viz : Sri Kanteeravas (15th Bangalore), where he ultimately became a Scouter too. Gradually, after holding several positions he became an Assistant District Scout Commissioner of Bangalore North Dist. Association.

Sri Siddaiah earned his Wood Badge (Scout) with practical at Pedro Camp (Ceylon) and in 1957 attended the JIM the B. P. Centenary Jamboree, Indaba and Moot at Birmingham (U.K.)

His interest in the young ones is unlimited. Twice he organised the annual meet, Carnival and exhibition of the Pioneer Childrens institution in Mysore State the, 'AKHILA KARNATAKA MAKKALA KOOTA' very successfully.

As convenor of the 'SCOUT AND GUIDE WEEK' sub-committee of Bangalore North District Association he showed great capacity to get things done with the result his services were utilised at the Third All India Jamboree held at Bangalore in 1960. To make arrangements to meet the demands of well over 10,000 members was not an easy task but he performed his duty efficiently with the help of the committee appointed for the purpose, with admirable success.

Sri Siddiah, is not used to mincing matters and invariably talks straight. His laughter is contagious. That a person of this type has been chosen as an organising Commissioner of our State is highly commendable. He has already proved popular and is always on the move to put Scouting in our State on a footing with increased efficiency.

We wish him all luck as S.O.C. (s)

Dharwar District

State level Youth Camp, Dharwar

From 14-11-61 to 20-11.61.

Under the auspices of the Development and Rural Administration Department, Govt. of Mysore, a State level training camp of trainers for Rural Youths was conducted at the Grama Sevak Training centre, Dharwar. The place selected was very well suited for running a Camp. The object of the Camp was to train the campers in the work of training the Rural Youth leaders and organisers for building a dynamic Rural Youth movement in the country. The representatives of voluntary organisations interested in the Youth movement were also selected to undergo the training in addition to Govt. officers. The main reason being to have Cordination of work with the other organisations working for the welfare of the Youth in our country. Sri B. Ananthaiya, D.S.M Bangalore North District and Sri Venkayya Patel Divisional organisor(S) Gulbarga Division were the representatives of the Scout movement who participated in the Camp.

On the opening day, the representatives of the voluntary organisations were called to explain the means and methods employed by them for the uplift of the Youth in our country. Speaking on behalf of the Scout movement, Sri B. Ananthaiya said that Scouting provided a Systematic method of Education in training the Children of our country. He traced the history of this international movement and dealt at some length on the organisation of Scouting based on age groups, the first group consisting of cubs between the age of 7 and 11, the second group of Scouts between the age of 11 and 18 and the third group of Rovers beyond lhe age of 18. He dealt at length the system of Proficiency badges introduced in Scouting which succeeded in providing the Youth with opportunities to learn and become proficient in any craft such as Beekeeping, farming etc. He pleaded that all through the various stages, the interest of the members was sustained and at no stage there were any lose ends. Their discipline, outdoor camps and physical exercises and games would enable them to become the model cilizens of our country. He further said that there was still a great field unexplored by the movement. By this he meant that there was a great possibility for the movement to go deep into our villages. He assured that with the co-operation of the Rural Development Department Scouting could go to the innermost corners of the country to help the Rural Youth in becoming healthy and helpful citizen of our motherland.

The other organisations that were represented were, the Bharat Sevadal, Bharat Sevak Samaj, the Y.M.C.A., Y.F.A., N.C.C. and A.C.C.

The members were divided into groups commonly known as workshops in which they discussed the several items of the Youth programmes such as 1) organisation of occupational projects for Rural Youths 2) organisation of Physical Education Activities for Rural Youths, 3) Organisation of cultural and Social activities for Rural Youths and 4) Youth organisation and training of Leadership through the conduct of Regional Camps.

The ideas given by each were discussed freely at the next day's plenary sessions and decisions were taken.

On the closing day Sri M. C. Nanavati, Director of Social Education, Ministry of Community Development and Co-operation, Govt. of India, New Delhi addressed the Campers and he very much appreciated the methods used in Scouting for training the youngsters in our country particularly in discipline, smartness, vocational training, self reliance and Leadership.

So Scouting has really impressed upon the Public at large and it is up to us Scouters to train our Youngsters in the manner described above.

Dear Sir,

I am very glad to send hearty thanks to your Movement because of my daughter Smt. Jayamma, was saved by your Scout at 10 p.m. from Kempambhudhi Tank. I found very difficult to trace his name. At last I came to know that he is a Scout. My danghter said he was talking Marati. So, if possible trace and convery my hearty thanks to him. God may bless him and you. I cannot tell the story. Please ask your Scout he will tell. I have already announced this in papers. I am ever grateful to your Movement.

" ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಎಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಸ್ನೇಹಿತನು "

" ಸ್ಕೌಟರ್ " ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾದ (ಆಫ್ರಿಕಖಂಡದ ಉ ಗಾ ಂ ಡ ದೇಶದ ಕಿಟೋಯು ಪ್ರಾಂತ್ಯದ ಮುಸಾಕ ಊರಿನ ೬ನೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಟ್ರೂಪಿಗೆ ಬಂದ) ಪತ್ರದ ಅನುವಾದ:

ಮಹನೀಯರೆ,

ನನ್ನ ಲಗ್ನದ ದಿನವೇ ನನ್ನ ಅಡುಗೆಮನೆಗೆ ಬೆಂಕಿಬಿದ್ದು ಪೂರ್ತಿ ಭಸ್ಮವಾದಾಗ ನಾನು ಪಾತಾಳಕ್ಕಿಳಿದು ಹೋದೆ. ಅದೇ ಬೆಳಗಿನಲ್ಲಿ ನಾನು ಹೇಗೆ ತಾನೆ ಅದನ್ನು ಮತ್ತೆ ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಲು ಸಾಧ್ಯ? ಅಲ್ಲದೆ ಮನೆಯ ತುಂಬ ಬಂಧು ಬಳಗ ತುಂಬಿದ್ದು ನಾವೆಲ್ಲಾ ನನ್ನ ವಧುವಿಗಾಗಿ ಕಾದಿದ್ದೆವು.

ಹೀಗಿರುವಾಗ ಹಠಾತ್ತಾಗಿ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಹುಡುಗದನೇಕರು ಖಾಕಿ ಸಮವಸ್ತ್ರಧರಿಸಿ ಜೊಂಬು, ಹುಲ್ಲು, ಹತಾರಗಳನ್ನು ಹೊತ್ತು ಚೈತನ್ಯ ಪೂರ್ಣರಾಗಿ ಧೈರ್ಯದಿಂದ ನಮ್ಮ ಮನೆಗೆ ಬಂದುದನ್ನು ಕಂಡು ನಾನು ವಿಸ್ಮಿತನಾದೆನೆಂದು ಹೇಳಲು ಮಾತೇ ಸಾಲದಾಗಿದೆ.

ನಮ್ಮ ಹೊಸ ಅಡುಗೆಮನೆಯನ್ನು ಎಲ್ಲಿ ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಬೇಕು ಎಂದು ಅವರ ಲ್ಲೊಬ್ಬ ನನ್ನನ್ನು ಕೇಳಿದರು. ದಿಗ್ಭ್ರಾಂತನಾಗಿದ್ದ ನಾನು ಒಂದು ಸ್ಥಳವನ್ನೇನೋ ಅವರಿಗೆ ತೋರಿಸಿದೆ. ಕೂಡಲೇ ನಾನು ನಂಬಿರುವಲ್ಲಿಗೆ ಹೋಗಿಬಿಟ್ಟೆ. ಅವರು ಏನು ಮಾಡಿದರೋ ಹೇಗೆಮಾಡಿದರೋ ಒಂದೂ ನನಗೆ ತಿಳಿಯದು; ಇನ್ನೂ ಎರಡು ಗಂಟೆ ಕೂಡ ಕಳೆದಿರಲಿಲ್ಲ; ಒಬ್ಬ ಕುಮಾರನು ಬಂದು ಎಲ್ಲಾ ತಯಾರಾಗಿದೆ ಎಂದು ನನಗೆ ವರದಿ ಹೇಳಿದ. ನಾನು ಬಹುವಿನ ನಿರೀಕ್ಷೆಗೆ ಯಶ್ಟಿದ್ದ ಸ್ಥಳ ಬಿಡಲು ಆಗದೆ ಇದ್ದುದರಿಂದ ನನ್ನ ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರೊಬ್ಬರಿಗೆ ಹೋಗಿ ನೋಡಿ ಬರಲು ಹೇಳಿದೆ. ಅಲ್ಲಾ (ಭಗವಂತನು) ಮಹಾಮಹಿಮನು! ನನ್ನ ಕಣ್ಣುಗಳನ್ನು ನಾನೇ ನಂಬಲಾರದೆ ಆಗಿತ್ತು; ನಾನು ನೋಡುವಲ್ಲಿ ನನ್ನ ಹಳೆ ಅಡುಗೆಮನೆಗಿಂತ ಮಿಂಬ ವಿಶಾಲವೂ ಉತ್ತಮವೂ ಆಗಿದ್ದ ಬೇರೆ ಪಾಕಶಾಲೆಯೇ ಸಿದ್ಧವಾಗಿ ನಿಂತಿತ್ತು.

ಆವೇಳೆ ನಿಮಗೆ ನಾನು ಟೀ ಸಹ ಕೊಡಲಿಲ್ಲ, ಕ್ಷಮಿಸಬೇಕು. ನಾನು ಕಂಡದ್ದರಿಂದ ಚಕಿತನಾಗಿದ್ದ ನನಗೆ ಆ ಮಧ್ಯಾಹ್ನವೇ ಮಾಮಸೆಯೆಂಬುದೂ ಸಹ ಮರೆತುಹೋದಂತೆ ಇತ್ತು. ಅದರಿಂದಲೇ ನಿಮಗೆ ಈಗ ಕಾಗದ ಬರೆಯುತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ನೀವು ಕೆಥೊಲಿಕ್ ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳು; ಮುಸ್ಲಿಮನಾದ ನನಗೆ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಧರ್ಮದಲ್ಲಿ ನಂಬಿಕೆಯೇ ಇಲ್ಲ; ಬೇಗಿರುವಾಗ ನಿಮ್ಮಿಂದ ಇಂತಹ ಶ್ರೇಷ್ಠ ಸಹಾಯವನ್ನು ನಾನು ಎಂದೂಕೂಡ ನಿರೀಕ್ಷಿಸೇ ಇರಲಿಲ್ಲ ಅದಕ್ಕಿಂತ ನನಗೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಮನಸ್ಸಿಗೆ ಒಪ್ಪಿದ ವಿಚಾರವೆಂದರೆ ನಿಮ್ಮಿಂದ ಕೃತಜ್ಞತೆಯ ಸೂಚನೆಯನ್ನೂ ಕೂಡ ನೀವು ನಿರೀಕ್ಷಿಸದೆ ಇದ್ದದ್ದು; ಏಕೆಂದರೆ ನನಗಾಗಿದ್ದ ಆಶ್ಚರ್ಯದಿಂದ ನಾನು ಚೇತರಿಸಿ ಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ಮುಂಚೆಯೇ ನೀವೆಲ್ಲಾ ನಮ್ಮ ಮನೆಯಿಂದ ಹೊರಟೇಹೋಗಿದ್ದಿರಿ

ಅಲ್ಲಾ (ಭಗವಂತನು) ನಿಮ್ಮನ್ನೆಲ್ಲಾ ಸುಖವಾಗಿಟ್ಟಿರಲಿ.

The Lookout

All Dear Sisters and Brothers - (Guiders and Scouters): We offer you our true and heartful thanks for helping us to be in the office for another term. With your unstinted co-operation, we shall continue to 'do our best' and that in the name of the 'Scout',/'Guide'.

Personal contact, discussions of administrative and technical problems and the solutions arrived at as sequel, can take effective Scoutcraft / Guidecraft to the individual Scout and Guide.

In the past three years, we have toured and contacted available Scouters and Guiders as best as circumstances permitted. We shall endeavour to do this better from now.

Apart from the above facts, need we mention again, as we have done so far, that every Scouter would try his best to maintain the 'Voluntary', 'Honorary', and hence the 'Selfless devotion' of Scouters and Guiders to their Scouts and Guides in their efforts to make them useful citizens in their days of manhood/womanhood.

What then can guide us in our daily efforts to reach the Scout ? All of you know so well - "The Promise and the Law". So let us get on with our duties and carry out real service to the boy and girl and the community-"Service-LOVE OF GOD"

A. or D. A. will not be paid by the State Headquarters.

Sri S. R. Kanthi addresses the State Council

The recent trend in the field of education to "commercialise" and exploit it for money-spinning was the target of a vehement attack by Education Minister Kanthi in Bangalore on Wednesday, the 30th Oct. 63.

In an outspoken criticism of this trend, Mr. Kanthi, speaking at the meeting of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, said many of the private entrepreneurs had entered the field of education, lured by the generous grants given by the Government.

It was not easy to check this tendency, he added. The only remedy was for the voluntary social service organisations like Bharat Scouts and Guides and Bharat Sevak Samaj, to come forward, run schools and other institutions and serve the cause of education.

Mr. Kanthi was addressing the members of the State Council of Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State. Finance Minister B. D. Jatti, who was also the President of the Council, presided and gave away prizes and medals to the Scouters and Guideers.

Co-ordination

Calling for co-ordination in the activities of different organisations, dedicated to social service, the Minister said he was thinking of bringing it about through the Education Department. He also solicited their active co-operation in spreading adult and social education in the country.

Mr. Jatti, in his speech, explained the difficulties of the Government in extending financial help to private organisations

He wanted the activities of such bodies to be more attractive and popular, so that the people might come forward of their own accord with bounteous assistance.

The meeting was earlier welcomed by Mr. P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner, Smt. Lalitha Krishnaswamy, Joint Secretary, read the report and Mr. G. Shivappa, Treasurer, gave the annual financial statement. Messages were read out by Smt. Leela Anjanappa, State Commissioner for Guides. Mr. M. Ramaswamy A.S.C.(S), Mysore, proposed a vote of thanks.

DASARA FESTIVITIES

Four hundred Scouts and Guides of Mysore City with their band participated in the Dasara Procession and also participated in the Torch Parade held at Banni Mantap. Their smart turn out was highly appreciated. Sri M. R. Ramaswamy, Head quarters Commissioner for Scouts hadmade all arangements in this connection.

Smt. Lalitha Krishna Swamy, State Secretary offered flowers to His Highness on behalf of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, when Sri C. Ramachandra Rao and others were present during the course of the procession at the specially erected Gateway.

A band of well trained Rovers of the University district formed the Service squad at the Railway Station and helped thousands of visitors in all possible ways, which was very much appreciated by the general public and the officials.

EXHIBITION

A Scout and Guide Handicraft Stall was organised at Dasara Exhibition under the Guidance of the University District Association. Sri K. B. Nanjappa was in charge.

Rao Bahadur Ramaswamy, Assistant State Commissioner,(S) guided their activities very well. Sri D. S. Siddiah, S. O. C. Smt. Lalitha Krishnaswamy visited Mysore during the period and looked into the arangements personaley.

THE NINETEENTH WORLD CONFERENCE

Following the close of th Jamboree, those Scouters who had been designated as delegates travelled by chartered planes to the Island of Rhodes - a flight of just over an hour, where they joined with others who had travelled direct, to take part in the 19th Boy Scouts World Conference. Meetings were held at the Grand Hotel and most delegates were also accommodated there. A total of 260 were present, representing 59 member countries and 7 "potential" members. H. R. H. Crown Prince Constantine of Greece had previously agreed to act as President d 'Honneur, and in his capacity, he formally opened the Conference at a special ceremony held at the centuries-old Castello of Rhodes on the morning of 13th August. Thereafter he attended all the business sessions for the next three days,

The main theme of this Conference was "Is Scouting Up-to-Date?" and delegates spent the five working days of the meeting in listening to many well-prepared papers delivered by member countries, showing what THEY were doing or trying to do to answer this question. Following this, delegates and observers met in Small groups to discuss various aspects. The result of these deliberations will be contained in a full report which will shortly be issued to National Headquarters.

Several social events gave delegates the opportunity of meeting the President d'Honneur and the authorities of Rhodes, and of making new friends nnd meeting old ones from among the delegates.

We believe that all those present felt that their long journeys had been worthwhile and that the impact of this important conference will be felt around the Scouting world in the years to come.

A Joint Scout-Guide Leadership Training Week-end

[Scout/Guide movement in India is a joint movement. Here is an experiment made in England with success. The article is slightly abridged. —Editor]

ONE of the inspirations of those who ran a get - together of Kent Scouters and Guiders in 1962 was to bring together in small discussion groups the Scouters and Guiders from each part of the Country. It was then that we of Dover discovered how anxious we were to co-operate. We had done so before to a limited extent—we parade together for St. George's Day and we have occasional joint socials. But we had never trained together, and that was what we decided to try.

A single meeting sufficed to hammer out first principles. We would run a joint leadership training week-end under canvas; responsibility for administration, training, quartermastering and cooking would be shared between the Movements; and the age of the participants would be 13 to 14. This last decision was taken after some controversy. Some of us wanted the age group to be an older one; but the majority were right in their preference, which rendered our experiment more novel and indeed more successful than it would otherwise have been.

The staff consisted of a Scouter in charge, a Guider second in command, a Scouter and a Guider in charge of training, a Guider in charge of First Aid, a Scouter in charge of equipment, and three Scouters and a Guider in charge of cooking. The cooks were assisted by four Rovers and three Land Rangers. All these camped, and at least a dozen other Scouters and Senior Scouts came out to help with pitching and striking camp. We could have done with no less staff, and indeed there were times when we would have been glad of more.

The course itself consisted of 20 Scouts from six Troops and 19 Guides from nine Companies. They were put in five mixed patrols, each numbered from one to eight, a Scout and a Guide alternately. Number 1 (a Scout) was the first P. L. and number 2 the first P. S. The offices changed hands, so that by Sunday evening every member of the Patrol had held both. We claim no originality for this system, just as we claim none for distributing Scouts and Guides from particular Troops and Companies as widely between the Patrols as possible. But what was first conceived for application under other circumstances worked very well under these.

Basically the programme was that of a Scout P. L.s' Training Week-end, everythig necessary was done to ensure that Guide training was given its fair place. Despite a time-table so crowded as to raise some criticism and despite the bad weather which prevailed throughout the week-end, our original plan was followed almost to the minute and to the letter, and the frequent staff meetings, included to facilitate necessary changes, were either cut short or devoted to minor administrative matters.

Discipline presented no problem and save for some talking after lights out the Scouts and Guides were almost unnaturally well-behaved. The facts that they were worked hard and that the Staff were much in evidence had much to do with this, but something we were inclined to attribute to the effect of each sex on the other.

It was in this effect that we were chiefly interested. It was the unanimous opinion of staff that the week-end had been worth while. But how much of our satisfaction was due to the training as such and how much to the mixing of the sexes ?

These questions cannot be separated entirely. The Guides were given opportunities to enagage in practical activites not normally available to them and the Scouts were introduced to ways of organising camp life and ceremonial quite different from (and sometimes more civilised than) their own. This was all gain ; but it was the general opinion that the programme as a whole benefitted from the co-operation between the sexes. The Scouts took the lead in vigorously practical matters but were astonished (as were the staff!) by the pluck, alacrity and skill with which the Guides followed them. The Guides who had read Scouting for Boys in preparation for the week-end may have been exceptional in her thoroughness, but in spirit she was no more than typical. The Guides came into their own over first-aid observation and nature study and over such topics as required a certain academic diligence. One Scout recounted his astonishment when a Guide construted from first principles a knot he had forgotten and she never learnt, and others commented on the thoroughness with which the Guides knew their Laws. It was noticeable how in a Point to Point carried out in pairs the knowledge and skill of Scouts and Guides complemented each other.

Personal relations between the sexes were slow to develop; partly because the weather on the first evening hampered planned Patrol activities, but once established, they were admirable in every way. It was pleasant to see Patrols getting together in the no man's land between the sleeping sites, and little groups of Guides gathering with the boys of Patrols outside the Scouts' tents (the opposite procedure was strictly forbidden!). By the end of the course the boys in each Patrol knew the girls as well as they knew each other, and better than they knew the boys in other Patrols, and indeed explicity admitted better acquaintance had bred mutual respect and admiration, and dispelled a good deal of prejudice and misunderstanding.

Of competition between the sexes there was little or none in any undesirable sense. But the staff noted what the children confirmed-that each sex was on its mettle in the presence of the other, and made greater efforts accordingly.

The most valuable by-product of the week-end was the understanding which developed between the Scouters engaged in running it. Here, as among the children, the sexes complemented each other. We were fortunate in the presonalities involved, and had a certain tact been laking in the preliminary stages there might have been considerable friction, but by the time the week-end was under way relations were so good that we took it for granted that joint training should continue. This was also the unanimous wish of the Scouts and Guides.

The principal lessons which the experiment taught us were five in number. First, joint training with this age-group is if anything, more efficient in terms of learning skills than separate training. Secondly, the Patrol system works quite as well with children of both sexes as with those of one. Thirdly, a programme of a kind to extend Scouts is equally appropriate for Guides. Fourthly, the problems connected with a course of this kind are, how-ever, so considerable that it should not be attempted without the aid of a large staff and of really favourable physical conditions.

The fifth lesson is a more general one. In five decades of independent existence our two Movements have drifted apart in organisation, procedure, nomenclature and, to a lesser degree, in methods. Some differences are in the nature of things inevitable, most, however are the fortuitous by products of separate development. If co-operation in training is not to be confined to occasional special efforts, but is to become an integral part of our practice (as I for one hope it will), then a large number of adjustments on both sides are called for. The sooner those adjustments are made the better.

The Camp was inaugurated by Sri N. Srinivasa Murthy I. O. S. & A. D. C Doddaballapur, on 6-11-1963. The valedictory function was celebrated on 9-11-1963 under the Presidentship of Smt. Rahamathunnisa Begum, Deputy Director of Public Instruction, Bangalore Division. She said that Scouting being an international, non-political and non-communal organization, has been doing splendid work all along and that every boy and girl should prefer Scouting and Guiding. It helps a pupil to learn very useful and practical knowledge which a regular classroom cannot give. She also said that in High Schools, Scouting should be more active as the trained Scouts would become citizens much earlier than Primary School children. She also expressed her high appreciation of the work done in the Camp on the academic side as well as the boarding arrangements. She felt the need for a separate camp for High School level children of higher standard.

Sri A. R. Krishnaswamy, Camp Chief, read the report of the camp and Sri M. C. Kalappa proposed a vote of thanks.

The trained Scouts were taken to Bangalore the same evening to participate in the Grand Rally on 10-11-1963.

Gulbarga

The General Body meeting of the Locol Association of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Gulbarga was conducted on 30th October 1963 and elected office bearers for the year 1963-64.

Bidar

A Preliminary Cub master's cohrse was held at Hazarat Haje Abdul Fias Durga, Bidar from 12th ta 11th October 1963. Sri N. Ramaswamy A. D. C. C. was in charge of the course ably assisted by Sri G. Manick Rao D. S. M., Abdul Razak, Abdul Lathiff and N. S. Kulkarni, Scouters, Bidar. 20 Candidates attended the Course.

A Patrol Leaders' Training Course was conducted at the same place. from 8-'-63. Sri G. Manick Rao D. S. M. was in charge of the Course assisted by Sri Abdul Razak and Abdul Latheef. On the closing day the District Commissiner and D.E. O of Bidar District visited the Camp and addressed the boys.

Sri N. Ramaswamy A. D. C. C. and D. C. Mandya visited the Head Quarters, Andhra Pradesh on 19th Oct. 1963 and exchanged views with the Commissioners of Andhra Pradesh on Scouting.

Dharwar (West)

The Dharwar District Association (West) organised the following Courses in the premises of the District Head quarters Building from 30-10-63.

1) Preliminery Scout Masters' Course
2) Intensive Course for Scout Masters
3) Guiders' Course.

Sri B. Ananthiah A. D. C. C. (S) was in charge of the Scout Courses and Miss Alavani was in charge of the Guides' Course. There were 21 candidates for the preliminary Course and 11 for the intensive course. Sriyuts H. S. Gajanan Rao, G. M. Betageri and M. S. Tiwari assisted the Courses. The Courses were inaugarated by Dr. N. B. Kabbur, The president of the Association. The Velidiuctory function took place on 9-11-63 when the worshipful Mayor of Dharwar and Hubli Corporation addressed the trainees. The Secretary Sri H. R. Kanavalli and the District Commissioner Sri L. R. Durg are to be heartily congratulated for the success of the course.

Chickmagalur

The Scouts of the Giri Troop, Chikmagalur had a hiking to Guddadaranga on 3rd October 1963.

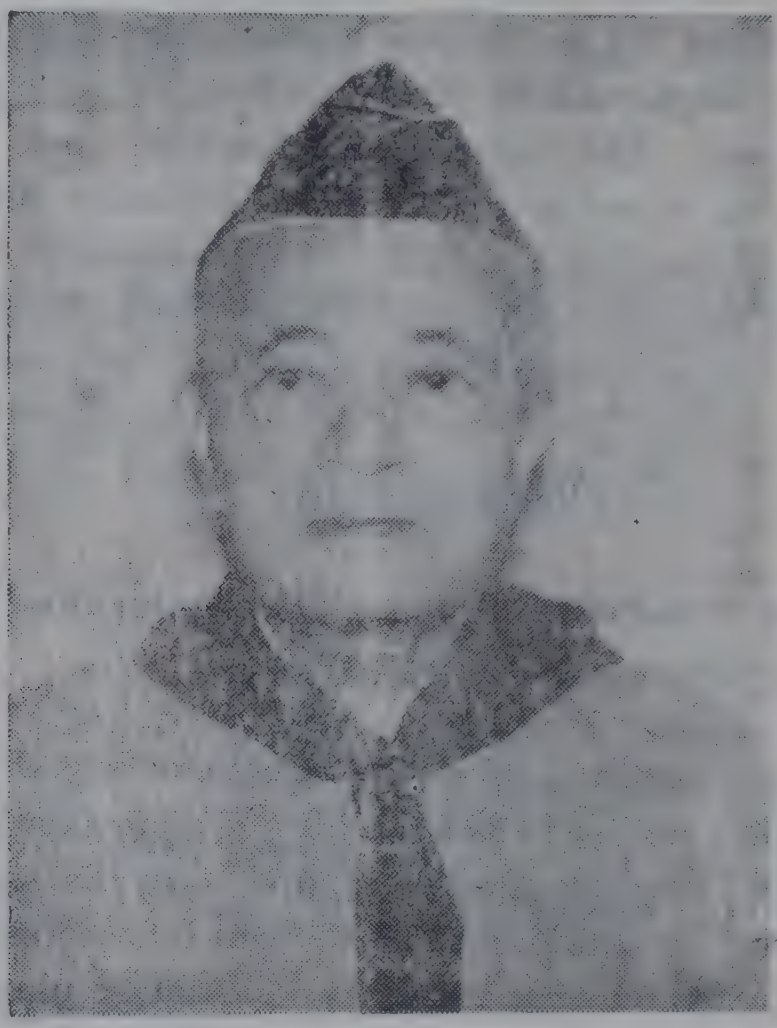
The Scouts covered 5 miles by cross country. There on the Gudda sleeps the God 'Rangaiah'. It seem that the world will end if the sleeping God gets up. On the top of the hillock is a cave, a calm lake surrounded by a mango groove and a ruined Mutt of Shankaradevaru. A large plain is very much suited for camping.

The Scouts had a wide game and Coffee was prepared by patrols.

Sri H. Y. Ramaiah, Scouter, arranged the hike with the cooperation of the Court of Honour.

The Scouts and the Rover Scouts of the Gymnasium rendered service during the District Level Dasara Sports and athletic meet held on the 28th and 29th Sept. 1963 with Brothers M. Pushparaj, H Y. Ramiah, D. S. Shivanand and S. Devasundaramani incharge.

SRI MANGALDAS M. PAKVASA HONOURED



We are very happy that Sri Mangaldas M. Pakvasa was honoured with the highest award "The Silver Elephant" for the meritorious services rendered by him to the movement. Born on 7th May 1882, Mangaldas M. Pakvasa was educated at the Elphinstone College, Bombay. After passing his LL.B., he set up his practice in Bombay in 1907 and shone as a brilliant solicitor till 1937.

He was an ardent congressman and courted jail thrice in 1932, 1940 and 1942. On account of his sincere services to the Congress he was unanimously elected the President of the Legislative Council when the congress party returned to power in the Bombay Legislature in 1938. But at the "Quit India" call given by Mahatma Gandhi in August 1942., Sri Pakvasa courted jail along with his collegues. He was released in 1944 with broken health but renewed spirit.

He began taking active interest in Scouting since 1939 when he was appointed the District Scout Commissioner and later Assistant Provincial Commissioner of the former Hindustan Scout Association. It was due to his guidance and untiring efforts that the merger of the two Scout Associations and the Girl Guide Association was made possible. In fact it was he who daringly fought for the merger and the present formation of the "Bharat Scouts and Guides". It was therefore in the fitness of things that he was elected the President of the Bharat Scouts and Guides. It was due to his efforts that the Scouts and Guides of Bombay State have been fortunate enough in having the magnificent Govindram Seksaira Scout/Guide Pavilion at Dadar.

Though on account of advancing age and with a view to give room for fresh blood, Sri Mangaldas M. Pakvasa discontinued to be the President of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, New Delhi, three years ago, he still continues to work as the President of the State Council of Maharastra State and is still evincing a keen interest in the work of the Association.

The Government of India recognising his capabilities appointed him the first Governor of Madhya Pradesh in independent India on 15th August 1947. He had the distinction of becoming a Governor of Bombay and thereafter the Governor of Mysore a number of times. It is therefore in all fitness of things that we recall the valuable services rendered by Sri Mangaldas M. Pakvasa to the Bharat Scouts and Guides as its President and to Mysore as the Governor and offer our heartiest felicitations on the occasion of the highest award. May God bless him with long life and prosperity.

A HISTORICAL NOTE

"Once a Scout, always a Scout," said Lord itchener at an 8 a.m. Scout meeting in Hyde Park n Saturday, July 1st 1911. Two famous represen-atives of Japan (Admiral Togo and General Nogi) ad come to this country to counduct certain speci-c enquiries, one of which was the question whether ne Scout Movement could be recommended to the apanese Government as a sound scheme of training or boys on definitely civilian, not military, lines.

"Lord Kitchener impressed upon the Scouts the eriousness of the PROMISE they had originally taken when they joined the Scout Movement He urged them to look upon it as a life-long obligation. "Once a Scout, always a Scout".

The above two paragraphs are reproduced from the book, 'ALWAYS A SCOUT' by F. W. W. Griffin, M.A., M.D., Assistant County Commissioner (London) and A.D.C. for Rover Scouts (Fulham) and first published in July 1932. This book is out of print for a long time. I got a copy of this on loan from our 'Shada' the other day and 'Shada', most of us know, possesses quite a few of these odd but most valuable books for a Scouter.

Can this statement, 'Once a Scout, always a Scout' be true in all cases? I have my grave doubts.

Once a King's Scout and no Scouting for some years now is one, a fine fellow at that, in one of the institutions in Bangalore; this person is willing even now to render his best help to any at anytime. When he was requested to become a Scouter and help in the running of a Scout Troop, he refused to do so. His excuse was that for some years now he has taken up habits which are not true to all the principles of the Law and Promise. If he should become a Scouter, he would have to don the uniform and he was not going to do so lest he should pollute it and disgrace the Movement as a whole.

Self-reproachment and self-accusation are stated to absolve one of one's undesirable actions and when such a one turns a new leaf it is all for the better of the community and the Movement. Can continuance of misdeeds with absolute disregard to the Scout Promise till one's life's end, still be true of the statement, 'Once a Scout, always a Scout'?

Godliness is cleanliness, of thought, word and deed. Good Brothers and Sisters in this wonderful Bharat Scouts & Guides, I just wish that we are blessed always to be in good company, always talk of good people, always hear of good people and always go any distance to see good people.

God bless us be so.

V. K. SUNDARAM,
State Commissioner (Scouts).

19th WORLD SCOUTS CONFERENCE

[His Royal Highness the Crown Prince, the Chief Scout of Greece, opened the 19th World Scouts Conference, on 13th August 1963, in Rhodes, with the following Address.——Ed.]

I FEEL greatly honoured to have been asked to be the President of Honour, of the 19th Boy Scouts World Conference.

We are delighted and consider it a privilege for our country that Rhodes has, by unanimous decision, been selected as the seat of this Conference.

The General Assembly of delegates of all Scout Associations has, as its main theme "Scouting for Boys Today". Following so closely on the World Jamboree, I feel certain that we can draw inspiration directly from it. There we practised world co-operation for the achievement of a common task. We experimented on new programme-ideas for boys, I have been most impressed by the Jamboree. For the first time in my life, I saw representatives of 89 nations, living happily together, united by the Scouting ideals. I am sure that World Scouting has made an important contribution towards the fulfilment of the ideal of brotherhood amongst nations, yet I believe that, while we have been successful, on the international field, we are beginning to fail at home.

I have often discussed this problem with my father. Both of us believe that the reason of failure may be found in the lack of challenge. My father often spoke to me of the magnificent behaviour of our Boy Scouts, during the dreadful guerilla war this country has experienced. Too young to hold a gun, our boys never shirked in the face of danger and were often first to help and comfort, when a village was destroyed, or a community looted and their children abducted. Here in Greece, and I believe in other countries, unselfish service by the Boy Scouts was unfortunately offered, only too often under fire, or during disaster. The Flag of the Boy Scouts of Greece carries two military decorations for valour.

Today, the Boy Scout Movement, in this country, has exactly the same problem with the older boy.

Whereas the games and excursions are very satisfactory for the small boys, this is no longer interesting for boys over 15.

I believe that we can benefit from our experience. Most boys, over 15, are capable of successfully facing great danger and, what is more, they like it and, therefore, look for it. We see the disastrous phenomenon of teddyboyism, gang–war and juvenile delinquency. They all constitute a negative manifestation of the boy's wish to prove himself in danger. I trust that we can steer this wish, with a suceesful purpose. Our programme must be readjusted.

I propose the formation of special rescue crews. These would include the manning of fire-engines. the establishment of life-saving services, flood-prevention and rescue units, mountain rescue and earthquake relief units. These services should be, on a 24-hour basis, each boy being liable to be summoned at short notice, by telephone, to offer his services. For working boys, arrangements will have to be made with their employers, to allow the boys to take up their duties, in case of an emergency. But these are details that have to be worked out by each nation individually and according to the local conditions.

These services could be called "Rescue Units". I feel such a work would psychologically attract the boy, offer a challenge to his sense of adventure and help us guide him towards unselfish service. This is, after all, what all of us believe to be the aim of Scouting.

More details on practical activities and how Scouting can include them, in its programme, you will hear from expert speakers, during the first few days of the Conference. I hope that all of you will contribute to the solution of this problem. I only wish to stress that, unless we find a number of answers now, and unless we start immediately experimenting with the suggestions put forward, during this Conference, we may find ourselves with an outdated Movement, without appeal to the order boy, for whom we, more than anyone else, are responsible.

Scouting has proved its worth, for well over half a century. The genius of the Founder has provided boys of all classes, races and creeds with a game that every day draws more and more of them to our ranks. Let us not disappoint them by failing to keep to the standards of today. The spirit of the Founder has guided us all these years to "Scout Higher and Wider". Let the same spirit guide all our efforts. We must find better and more effective work of service for the boy, for whom you and so many others have dedicated such a considerable part of your lives.

With the wish to you all for a happy, enjoyable and constructive stay in Rhodes, I declare the 19th Boy Scouts World Conference open.

11th WORLD JAMBOREE

(An article by Mr. John Thurman, O.B.E., J.P., Camp Chief, Gilwell Park, reproduced from "The Athens Daily Post".)

I suppose unthinking people imagine that all that is necessary for a Jamboree is to choose the site, fix the dates and send out the invitation. But a Jamboree in the world of today is not just a Scout camp. It requires a great deal of planning and organization, which is a many-sided affair and, for the host country, a tremendous responsibility to make sure that those who come from other lands will have a truly memorable experience and that everything reasonable will be done for their comfort and their wellbeing.

I have been privileged to see the organization in action and I must say, I'm most impressed: first by the enthusiasm of those who have the task of making the preparations, inspired as they are by the tremendous interest and helpful advice stemming from their Chief Scout, the young Crown Prince of Greece, who will personally open and close the Jamboree and will be at the camp with us practically throughout. Secondly, by the sheer quantity of work that they are undertaking. Thirdly by the wonderful support that is being given to the Jamboree by the Royal Family, by the Government and by the Services. Fourthly, by the thoroughness with which every aspect of the Jamboree is being considered, and perhaps in a very special way I am impressed by the way in which Greek Scouting obviously wants the whole world to share not only in the enjoyment of the Jamboree but in its planning.

In fact, so far as I can see, everything has been thought through with a degree of imagination and a real concern for the spread of understanding amongst the nations of the world.

And all this is being achieved by a country where the Scout movement in point of numbers is not very large, where the amount of full-time professional help is minimal and where, therefore, a team of enthusiastic, quietly confident volunteers have undertaken this immense task not for personal gain or glory but because they believe this is something that should be done for world Scouting.

EXTRACT FROM THE ADDRESS OF

Mr. JOHN THURMAN

Camp Chief of the International Training Centre, Gilwell Park

at the 3rd Far East Scout Conference on December 7, 1962

"There are easier ways of teaching boys than the methods Scouting uses, but there is nothing in my estimation that develops this quality of friendship, courtesy, enthusiasm and happiness quite so forcibly or quite effectively. And I, for my part, want no boy in scouting unless of his own free will he wishes to be a Scout. That I think is very important to remember, simply because, if he comes in under duress, if he is forced to join us then I know, having seen it happen, that he will not benefit from being a scout. In fact, the reverse may happen and because he resents his membership he may turn sour and become not a good citizen but a bad one. And so I would say that our aim must be to make scouting available to every boy who wants it and in the process obviously adapt and consider the programme of scouting to make it have an ever wider appeal to the youth of our country. Now, these years that we are living in and the one in the immediate future are clearly years of challenge, challenge to see if the things we believe in, the qualities set out in the scout promise are capable of being given and received in such quantity that we shall truly become what our Chairman indicated to us this morning, a United Nations in short pants. But I would hope a rather better edition of the United Nations with a greater capacity for agreement and a little less use of the veto. I believe, our progress must be ordered and, needed, in some measure controlled, and not coming in waves, or as I would put it, not a mushroom development that suddenly appears and equally suddenly can disintegrate. For this ordered progress as I see it, we need these things–first and foremost, leaders, for there is no hope of successful Scouting without the right type of men and women to lead our Scouts and Cubs.

I need basically a sound material to work on. Anyone concerned with training must have a reasonable chance of success. So I would commend to your thinking the quality of the recruitment and leadership you seek to secure. And then I think we need for this ordered expansion and effort to make the general public more aware of what we are trying to do, and of what we need from them, the public, in order to do it.

WELCOME TO BOY SCOUTS OF JAMAICA

The separate international registration of the Boy Scouts Association of Jamaica as of April 30th, 1963, has been announced. We extend a hearty welcome to Jamaica as the 77th member of the Boy Scouts World Conference. Three years ago Jamaica celebrated its 50th Scouting anniversary, and on attainment of political independence last August, the Scout Association immediately set about applying for separate registration which has now culminated in full membership of the World Conference. H. E. the Governor–General, Sir Clifford Campbell, G.C.M.G., has been pleased to accept appointment as Chief Scout.

Jamaica has participated in many international Scouting events in the past, and next year will be host to theInter–American Regional Conference and allied meetings.

'Essential Values'

By Smt. Raj Kumari Amrit Kaur, M.P.

The religion of love was the special gift of the Lord Jesus to the world. He was there, as he said himself, not to destroy the law and the prophets but to revive them, to deepen them. He used parable after parable to illustrate what he meant by the phrase "the Kingdom of God". He presented the Kingdom as something within the reach of all men who accept the rule of God and live in loyal relation with one another. Said Jesus: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your strength and love your neighbour as yourself. In this is summed up all the law and the prophets". "Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you". The doctrine of "an eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth" was replaced by the code of non-violence. The victory over one's enemies had to be won through love. Man was told to bear with his persecutors and tormentors without retaliation. When a rich man asked Jesus as to what more he could do to obtain eternal life than what he was already doing through a meticulous observance of the Mosaic Law, he was asked "to bestow all his goods to the poor" and follow Jesus. He was unable to do this and went away sorrowful "for he had great possessions". Again we were told not to lay up for ourselves "treasures on earth where moth and rust do corrupt" but to build up our treasure in heaven so that it may be of lasting value. The straight and narrow way which Jesus asked the people to tread was not easy and Truth is always hard to bear. No wonder that he had to pay the supreme sacrifice. But that was of course the hour of his greatest triumph.

It will be apparent from the picture I have tried to put before you that throughout the ages all righteous thought, from whichever clime it has come, has stressed that the real values in life are those which are moral and spiritual. However much forms of worship may differ, all philosophy and all religions have tried to show the way whereby man may find God and all have agreed, as Thoreau so beautifully put it, that "in accumulating property for ourselves or our posterity, in founding a family or a state, or acquiring fame even, we are mortal; but in dealing with truth we are immortal and need fear no change nor accident". True there have also been those who have held and hold today that there is no God but their following has never been so large because, in one way or another, man's knowledge and understanding do not go far enough to enable him to stand alone. He knows he is incomplete and needs an anchor for his soul for the unseen and the unknown are always there to perplex. It is therefore all the more a deep tragedy that religions instead of uniting man to man have time and again divided even to the extent of war. But this, however sorrowful to contemplate, cannot by any stretch of imagination mean that the way of life shown by all the saints and sages is wrong. The failure is only indicative of the weakness of human nature and the hardness of the straight and narrow way. Hundreds and thousands have, however, followed and continue to follow it and their lives are a source of eternal inspiration to us.

It is interesting to note that the age in any country which produces great thinkers has also an enormous bearing on the art and literature of that period. Music, painting, sculpture, poetry and prose and handicrafts are reflective of how the composer, the artist, the sculptor, the poet, the writer and the craftsman all react to the world around them and the foundations of the culture of a nation are built on the excellence of the produce in these spheres. Connoisseurs are able at first sight to date the painting, the sculpture or the handicraft and what a joy it is to all of us to see beauty in our museums and art galleries and look on treasures which are invaluable and which we love to preserve. And do not all of us like to look upon these beauteous gems not from the point of value in money but because their loveliness uplifts both mind and soul ? And this is as it should be for he is no true artist, sculptor, craftsman or author who does not through his art try to portray what is best in man and nature and the truth as he sees it.

We live in a very different world from our ancestors. No longer have builders and sculptors the time to build and decorate the wonderful churches, mosques and temples that are an adornment in both East and West and were of course one form of worship of the Almighty. Nor could an artist today spare the time to paint as did the great painters of the Renaissance. This is a scientific age, and age of big industry through the machine, an age of speed, an age when staggering discoveries are being made, an age of dynamic progress in many spheres and, with our increased knowledge, an age of dynamic change too. The geographical barriers that once divided one country from the other have vanished. Distances do not count and even outer spaee has been entered. No nation can live any longer in isolation and yet in spite of all these achievements and all the scientific knowledge that we possess, we do not seem to be able to live at peace with each other. Ages ago the wise King had said that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" but man today is possessed by fear of his fellow-man. War does not break out not because we have discarded war as an evil but because we are afraid that in the event of such outbreak the entire world will be destroyed.

And this is because we still believe in armed might as being the final arbiter. Only those nations who are in possession of all the terrible weapons of destruction seem to count and all pleas to them from the less strong nations to cease from carrying out even nuclear tests are of little avail.

Truly fear is man's worst enemy. How can it be overcome? Where and why have we gone wrong are the questions we all have to ask ourselves today and again what can we do to put ourselves on the right path? It is in a way good that we are frightened of nuclear war for fear has made those nations who possess these weapons to come together and discuss the problem. But an evil has to be shunned primarily because it is an evil and the means employed to check or eradicate it cannot be evil either. Therefore every nation has to abjure war of any kind, not only nuclear war, because all violent action is an evil out of which no good can ever come.

Apart from the fear of war that clouds our skies today, there is the falling in moral standards that must also cause us deep concern. A wrong appraisement of sex which is purely a physiological distinction is leading our youth astray. Dancing which should portray grace and rhythm now portrays the opposite. Sculpture and art no longer truthfully depict the human body or nature. Young girls willingly enter into beauty competitions. Do we or they pause to consider for even one moment that paysical beauty will wither or decay with the passage of time and that the only beauty that lasts is the beauty of character? Can we wonder that juvenile delinquency and sex crimes are everywhere on the increase? And is not all this moral deterioration due to the fact that we no longer value the things which are of real worth?

Friends, your movement is a great and good one. A Girl Guide makes a threefold Promise: to do her best to fulfil her duty to God and the Head of the State, to help other people at all times and to obey the Guide Law. I understand there are ten laws the aim of which is to build up the character of its members from their earliest years. Being a world movement it also rises above all those horrid barriers of caste, colour and creed which continue to mar our life even today. You have indeed a great part to play in society. I believe that a very great moral responsibility lies on us women if we want to make the world a better place. As mothers it is we who can inculcate in the minds and hearts of our children from their infant years love and reverence for whatever is true and honest and pure and lovely in life. As wives and sisters we can set a high standard of morality in both home and society and our honour can be safe only if our own hearts are pure. The world today hungers for love and who more than women can shed the radiance of love everywhere ? It is only through love that the fear in the world can be eliminated. It is only through love that we can uplift ourselves to humanity, a humanity that in many lands today is hungry, poor and illiterate. Only in seeking to serve thus will we be able to find the essential values of life.

In conclusion may I read to you the credo of Gandhi who as seeker after Truth was a true servant of humanity. He writes thus :-

"I have been asked to answer the following three questions :-

1) What is your Religion ?
2) How are you led to it ?
3) What is its bearing on social life ?

My religion is Hinduism which, for me, is Religion of Humanity and includes the best of all the religions known to me.

I am being led to my religion through Truth and Non-violence. i. e. love in the broadest sense. I often describe my religion as Religion of Truth. Of late, instead of saying

God is Truth I have been saying Truth is God, in order more fully to define my Religion. I used at one time to know by heart the thousand names of God which a booklet in Hinduism gives in verse form and which perhaps tens of thousands recite every morning. But nowadays nothing so completely describes my God as Truth. Denial of God we have known. Denial of Truth we have not known. The most ignorant among mankind have some truth in them. We are all sparks of Truth. The sum total of these sparks is indescribable, as-yet-Unknown Truth, which is God. I am being daily led nearer to It by constant prayer.

The bearing of this religion on social life is, or has to be, seen in one's daily contact. To be true to such religion one has to lose oneself in continuous and continuing service of all life. Hence, for me, there is no escape from social service, there is no happiness on earth beyond or apart from it. Social service here must be taken to include every department of life. In this scheme there is nothing low, nothing high. For all is one though we seem to be many".

May we not all try to emulate his example? We stand rightly for freedom from all that causes pain and suffering and above all for the freedom of the human spirit. To attain such freedom the divine spark of Truth within us must burn as a bright flame so that in due course we may reap "the harvest of the spirit which is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, fidelity, gentleness and self-control".

S. C. (G) Writes to the Guides

"Dear Guides,

During my Tour of the U.S.A. I met hundreds of girls spending their holidays in Camps. All of them were very keen in having pen friends in India. An address is given below with details. I hope many of you will write and foster closer friendship between the two Countries.

If some of you cannot write individually, the letter can be from your company so that all the girls in your Unit can share the pleasure of receiving the letter. The Postage can be paid for from your Company funds.

Whether you write individually or collectively, I am sure there will be better understanding between the Girl Scouts of U. S. A. and Girl Guides of India which may bring about more exchanges at the guide level.

I shall look forward to interesting extracts being sent now and then for publication in the Magazine.

With warm greetings to you,

Yours Sincerely,
Leela Anjanappa
State Commissioner (G)

DR. ANNIE BESANT

The Government of India brought out a special commemorative Postage Stamp in hononr of Dr. ANNIE BESANT whose 116th Birth-day was celebrated on 1st October 1963 all over India in a grand manner and in several other parts of the world also. She was a dauntless upholder of the weak and down trodden a leader of matchless ability with tremendous organising talents. We of the Scouts ever remember her with gratitude as it was she who fought and brought the gift of Scouting to the millions of children in India as Scouting had been denied to Indian Children till then by the British. Dr. Besant was a most impressive orator, President of the Theosophical Society for nearly three decades, President of the Indian National Congress beside being the first Chief Scout Commissioner of India.

In the issue for the month of August 1963 of this magazine, I had written about discipline and had quoted "that the State which neglects to train and discipline its youth produces not merely rotten soldiers or sailors, but the far greater evil of equally rotten citizens for civil life.'

I wish to explain further on this point in the following paragraphs :

In this confused and troubled world parents should learn (if they have not so far) that discipline is necessary and inevitable in the bringing up of their children. Parents should also accept the full meaning of the time honoured saying that the habits formed in infancy continue to one's last days. Discipline in any individual can be inculcated only by painstaking efforts and patience by the parents at home in the childhood and adolescent stages, by the teachers (Scouters included for the boys who become members of this Movement-Boy Scouts) in the boyhood and adolescent stages and by the individuals themselves as adults with responsibilities of varied nature, once they pass their adolescence. & CHILDREN/PARENTS! It is the right and love of parents to discipline their children. They should not hold back discipline from their children. The undisciplined child is exposed to all kinds of tensions and resentment. Discipline must not be delayed. Discipline has to be learned. The longer the delay the harder it will be for the child to get adjusted.

Each child is different, the aggressive,the timid, the over-active, the 'show-off', the 'model' child, and the child who will not try. Some children do not develop either emotionally or physically at the same rate. Each child must be dealt with individually and when done so the children learn faster and they feel relaxed and happy.

One child may require to be spanked, sometimes even black and blue, another just a raised voice, and girls in general just talks to inculcate discipline. The child's disposition, age, size and build must all be considered.

Creative discipline by instructions and general build up is essential. Find out what is the real difficulty and it will help to get at the solution for inculcating creative discipline.

Discipline with love and understanding, warm parental love is imperative to promote good behaviour, mutual it should be, to develop good discipline. Methods of punishment, if any, should be only incidental. A child is lovable when the child realises it is loved. Children are entitled to love from birth, with no strings attached, equally by the mother, father and the other elders in the family but not to be outwardly expressed at all times lest the child should become a spoilt one sooner or later.

Parents should understand and share the feelings of children; by this far more can be accomplished than by belittling them. Children who are loved and understood 'do a tremendous amount of work, themselves, developing their own character and discipline. By the use of these qualities the parents' job as disciplinarians becomes so much the easier.

Patience and Firmness : A child is learning; learning takes time. As already stated all children do not develop mentally and physically at the same rate, so learning time may have to vary with each child. So parents have to have commendable calmness and patience. Firmness must be added to patience, a child would feel lost with a submissive wishy-washy parent-child and would like to be handled by one who is emotionally stable and confident of oneself. Even the tone of voice should be firm but it should have love in it. Firmness gives the child a sense of security and belonging and of the parents' interest in the child. Children need constant guidance and restraint. Misbehaviour of the child must be met at once, first with disapproval and if this is not effective with restraint, till the child has decided to behave itself.

A child wants to be disciplined. Unknowingly the child craves for sturdy discipline. Superficially the child may rebel. On a deeper level and when character is formed, a child wants to be told what can or cannot be done by the child. It is the duty of the parents to discipline the child. A child soon loses love and respect for parents who compromise and yield to him or are lazy and indifferent about facing up to their obligations. "Chastise your son and he will bring you rest and give much pleasure to your soul."

"Pampering, overprotection, making excuses and cooing soft words when a firm hand across the seat of the trousers would be more appropriate, are practices which create contempt for authority and obstruct decency among youth. Chastise your son while there exists hope."

The effects of discipline: Children from families who have observed discipline demonstrate more drive, purpose and intellectual efficiency, are more interested in achievement, have more interest in the responsiveness to the needs, motives, feelings and experiences of others and more concern with how others react to them. The disciplined child is apt to look back favourably on its childhood relations with its parents.

Being good parents is not easy, but if the parents train their children in the proper way, even when they grow old they will not turn aside from it, discipline.

SCOUTERS and SCOUTS : It is needless to mention that what has so far been stated about 'PARENTS and CHILDREN' is true of Scouters and Scouts. As Scouters we are to help our own children as parents and help others' children, all in this wonderful Movement of Boy Scouts.

Brother Scouters, please, help the initiative in the Scouts with regularly and well formed Patrols, Patrols in Council and the all important Court of Honour. Scouters' jobs would be made easier by these methods and today's 'Boys' would certainly be the future 'Leaders' of the expected type.

Speech delivered by Shri Nittoor Sreenivasa Rau, Governor of Mysore, on the occasion of the opening ceremony of "The Scout Den" at the State Headquarters, Bangalore.

Thursday, 5th September 1963

SHRI SIVASHANKAR, SCOUTS AND GUIDES AND FRIENDS,

Today happens to be the birth-day of our revered President of India, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan. You are all aware that he is the Patron in Chief of the Bharat Scouts and Guides in India. On the 76th Birth-day let us all wish him many happy returns of the day.

I deem it a privilege to be invited to open the "Scout Den" which, as you all know, has a special importance in scouting practice. I value this invitation for the opportunity it gives me to meet so many young persons and to be in their midst. To meet them and be one with them even if only for a short while is an enlivening and refreshing experience. I thank you all for the fine welcome accorded to me.

There is another special reason why I value this opportunity. I am amongst those who claim the proud privilege of belonging to the very first group of scouts in this State when, owing mainly to the deep interest of the late Shri K. Shankaranarayana Rao of revered memory, the movement was introduced into the State more than forty years ago. You all probably know that he was the Chief Commissioner of Scouts for many years and the movement owes much to his inspiring leadership. I had also the privilege of functioning as a scout under the direct guidance of the late Shri Sanjeeva Kamath and the late Shri C. Subba Rao who as Directors built up the movement. The Scout headquarters used to be situated in Tippu Sultan's Palace and I can never forget the glorious days that I spent in its precincts in the lively companionship of brother-scouts and the numerous hikings to far and near places. If I am not mistaken, I still continue to be a member of the Headquarters Scout Co-operative Society. It is, therefore, a matter of great happiness for me to renew my association with the movement and to see in the present gathering some of the friends of the early days, including your present Chief Commissioner. Indeed, he was one of the earliest to send me his good wishes on my present assignment and to welcome me as the Patron of the State Unit during the period I occupy this office. I do value his as a great privilege though, of course, I should also add that irrespective of the office my identification with the movement will always be there.

Scouting and the ideals it stands for have stood the test of more than half a century. It has been accepted all over the world as a most effective means of training boys for citizenship. Scouting teaches discipline without soul-less regimentation of the mind. It recognizes the Scout as an individual with his own potentialities and special aptitudes and seeks to develop his individuality while at the same time it develops and gives concrete shape to his sense of service to the community and to disciplined companionship. The way of Scouting is the way of nature. The scout is taught to be sensitive to the subtle nuances of nature and to develop instincts which are responsive to the call of the wild, the open road and the camp fire. In addition to his education in the school of nature the scout is taught the inviolability of the Scout Promise and Law which every true scout is proud to uphold. Thus scouting gives a boy not only robust health but a robust mind and a great nobility of outlook. It is, therefore, no small pleasure for me to associate myself with today's function of the opening of a scout "Den" here. It seems but right that a fraternity like the scouts who are dedicated to nature should prefer to retire into a "den" rather than into a room, for the replenishment of their souls!

This "den" is intended to be used by Scouts and Guides as a centre of recreation as well as a place in which to practise their several skills, especially in the pursuit of handicrafts. In other words the Scout "den" is a Club or Community Centre where Scouts and Guides can spend their time happily and usefully. The "den" thus becomes an essential part of the Scout's life.

I now have great pleasure in formally declaring this beautiful Scout Den open, and in expressing the hope that it will long continue to serve the happy and useful purpose for which it was designed.

Welcome Speech by Shri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner, on the occasion of the opening of the 'Scout Den'

Your Excellency, Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is my privilege to welcome your Excellency and offer felicitations and greetings on behalf of the State Unit of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, on your assuming the exalted office of the Governor of the State. We salute you as the Patron of the Movement in the State. We are grateful to you for so kindly accepting our invitation to participate in to-day's function. We remember with pride that you were a member of our great organisation and it is therefore fitting that I should place before you a brief out-line of the growth and development of our Movement in Mysore State.

The first Scout troop in India was started in Bangalore Cantonment area in the year 1909. Our State was amongst the first of the then princely States in India to have formally launched the scheme of Boy Scout training in 1918 under the magnificent support and guidance of the Royal Family, Mysore with the late His Highness Sir Sree Kanteerava Narasimharaja Wadiyar as Chief Scout The Girl Guides also commenced their activities at almost the same time under the patronage of Her Highness Yuvarani Cheluvajammaniyavaru as Chief Guide. During the subsequent years both Scouting and Guiding steadily developed through out the State and many of their members are to-day occupying important positions in various capacities throughout the country. After India attained independence some of our leaders felt that it was time that Scouting and Guiding should be amalgamated together under one banner as there were so much common between the two organisations. Thanks to the efforts of the late Moulana Abdul Kalam Azad the then Union Minister for Education and Pandit H. N. Kunzru and others a unified material organisation known as Bharat Scouts and Guides came into existence in the year 1951.

Mysore State has always been in the forefront in organising various kinds of activities for its members. We have so far organised ten State Rallies. We conducted in the year 1960, the Third All-India Scout and Guide Jamboree in Bangalore. This Jamboree has been acclaimed as a most successful international gathering. We had drawn up plans to organise the XIth State Jamborette in Davanagere during December 1962. But this had to be given up owing to the National Emergency.

Active, healthy and happy youths are a Nation's precious asset. They can translate the great dictum of noble living and high thinking in their life if they are engaged in creative and recreative pursuits which bring joy and satisfaction. Scouting and Guiding keep the youths not only usefully occupied but also enlarge their sympathies, widen their outlook and open many windows of their soul.

Scouting and Guiding stand for not only small acts of helpfulness to others during the times of need, but all its members are also encouraged at all times to be prepared to take up larger duties of service to the country during emergencies. In this context it is my pleasant duty to tell you that our Scouts and Guides have volunteered their services to the Government of our State and our country to be utilised in any manner during the present National Emergency. Special training is therefore being imparted to our members in such activities as Rifle Training, Fire fighting, First Aid, Home Nursing, Pioneering, Signalling etc., and several of our members are also actively participating in the work of the Home Guards. In addition, our Scouts and Guides have also been making contributions in money and materials towards the Defence Efforts.

The need for a model Scout Den in the State Headquarters was a long-felt one. I am glad it was possible to put up the construction with the help of the State Chief Commissioner's fund. We are grateful to all those that helped us in putting up the construction. It is hoped that the Den will be a rallying point for the Scout Units in the neighbourhood to practise Scout Craft and develop hobbies and as a centre for Social Service.

With these few words, I extend once again a hearty welcome to your Excellency and to all the ladies and gentlemen to this pleasant function and request your Excellency to declare open the Scout Den.

Governor opens the 'Scout Den'

His Excellency Sri Nittoor Sreenivasa Rau, Governor of Mysore, opened the Scout Den built in the grounds of the State Headquaters by lighting a "Nanda Deepam" on Thursday the 5th September 963. Sri Nittoor Sreenivasa Rau in his address on the ocassion recollected the pleasant days he had as a member of the first Headquarters Scout Troop and paid a glowing tribute to late Sri Shankara narayana Rao, Sanjeeva Kamath and C. Subba Rao, leaders of the Movement during its inception.

He observed that Scouting teaches discipline without soul-less regimentation of the mind. It has potentialities and seeks to develop the special aptitudes of the individual. At the same time it develops and gives concrete shape to the sense of service to the Community and to disciplined companionship. He continued that Scouting gives the boy not only robust-health but also a robust mind and a great nobility of outlook.

Sri P. Sivashankar, State Chief Comissioner welcomed earlier His Excellency and the large gathering.

Dr. S. B. Kausik, State Secretary, read the several messages received on the occasiont.

The display items including folk dance, signalling, one act play, sword dance, Kolatam, Harikathe, Orchestra, Group Songs and Yells were very much appreciated by the large number of leading citizens, sympathisers and parents assembled.

Sri K. M. Nanjappa, Mayor and President of the Bangalore North District Association, proposed a vote of thanks. Thousands Boy Scouts and Girl Guides who participated in the Rally on the occasion were given Sweets.

Mrs. Leela Anjanappa,
State Commissioner,
Guirl Guide Headquarters
4, Seshadri Road, Bangalore, India.

Dear Mrs. Anjanappa,

How very kind of you to leave with us the two charming dolls dressed by your Assistant Commissioner, Mrs. Venson, in Girl Guide uniform and as a "Mysore Lady". These will be a most valued addition to our Doll collection which arouses such great interest among our own visiting members as well as our guests from abroad.

I am so very sorry that I could not be here to greet you when you were in our country, and reports are reaching me daily of how charmed everyone was during your visits.

I am writing to–day to Mrs. Ranji to express, on behalf of Girl Scouts of the United States of America, our gratitude to all of you for the beautiful tray which you presented to us through Mrs Weil. It is lovely, and we will treasure it always.

We do hope that you feel that your visit to our Country was meaningful and worth while. We know that for us it has served to strengthen the bonds of friendship and understanding between our two Associations.

Thank you again for your gifts and please do convey to all members of your Association our warm Girl Scout greetings.

Yours Sincerely,
Mrs. Malcolm S. Edgar International Commissioner.

"ESSENTIAL VALUES"

by

Smt. Rajkumari Amrit Kaur, M.P.

Madam President and friends,

My first duty is to offer to you and to your Committee my grateful thanks for the high honour conferred on me by your invitation to speak today to a distinguished audience of members of a great Organization. I am not only very grateful but also deeply privileged to be amongst you and I am sure I shall go away enriched by what I hear and learn and by the contacts I shall be fortunate enough to make at an international meet such as this.

You have asked me to speak on a subject which is not easy to confine within any definite limits and I will therefore plead with you to bear with me in my humble attempt to deal with it.

The word "essential" may be said to convey to most of us something that is necessary or indispensable. But there is a wider and deeper meaning to it also as something which pertains to the essence or the very substance of an element and therefore important in the highest sense as also being what it is in the most perfect degree. The word "value" is indeed an elusive one. The financier or economist will look upon it with reference to the purchasing power of the currency of the country to which he belongs; the average individual will think of value in terms of the salary he earns or the market price of his possessions; the antique collector will reckon on the age of his goods; those interested in metals or any precious ore will think in terms of whether the veins carry good value and so on. In other words, generally speaking, an individual or a nation are adjudged and indeed adjudge themselves rich or poor according to their economic status But here again there is a deeper meaning to the word "value" which does carry within it the concept of what is a real worth or quality. And it is to these deeper and more abstract meanings of both words that I would like to turn our attention today and to place my thoughts before you.

From time immemorial, in every continent and in every nation, men have developed along lines best suited to their genius and have built up their own traditions and culture. Development has been slow in some areas, more rapid in others and there have been ups and downs for everyone. We speak different languages, wear different costumes and yet in all this fascinating diversity there is the common bond of humanity that unites or should unite man to man. All react in the same way to joy and sorrow, to pain and disease, to love and hate. All have need of food, clothing and shelter and all desire to better their conditions. Indeed the language of the heart of humanity is the same the world over and if we delve deep and objectively enough into the history of mankind, we shall find that whether as individuals or as nations men have fallen or risen according to their inability or ability to overcome the frailties of human nature.

In the beginning we can imagine man as being wholly occupied with the problem of the maintenance of life. From family life grew community and national life and man had perforce to turn his attention to solving bigger and bigger problems as life became more and more complicated with the growth of populations and the growth of his own intellect, knowledge and desires. From being content with pebbles and beads as a means of currency he came to value silver and gold and precious stones and the desire for conquest and the possession of material wealth grew within him. It is good to feel, however, that while empires, one after the other, held sway over millions and then fell into decay, their impress was never so deep and certainly not so lasting as the impress left by the saints and sages, the founders of religions and the great philosophical thinkers that Providence has sent from time to time to lighten our path. Philosophy and Religion are in reality handmaidens, one of the other, for neither can divorce itself from life. Both reflect on life and seek to guide it and since we live in a world which is moving away from traditional faiths and codes of morality, it has become more than ever necessary for us to see how we can strengthen ourselves to meet the great challenges that confront us in a changed world and an age fraught with such increased knowledge and yet filled with such fear and uncertainty.

Let us turn our thoughts for a while and see how in varying climes and under varying influences philosophy and religion have tried to enquire into the why and wherefore of life, into nature of man and his destiny. Coming as I do from a country whose civilisation dates back to several millennia and whose literature and philosophic and religious thought have contributed so much to the world, it is natural for me to turn in the first instance to the cultural and spiritual heritage of India.

I would like to quote three verses, one from the Gita which may be termed the Bible of the Hindu and two from the Upanishads, the earliest of which of these Hindu scriptures date back to the 6th century B. C.

The text from the Gita reads as follows:—

> "When man was created, together with him was sacrifice conceived, for him as a means to happiness and growth. Verily sacrifice is "Kamadhenu" the cow that gives all that you desire."

One text from the Upanishads says:—

" This good is one thing, the pleasant another. These two lead to very different ends. The wise are not deceived by the attraction of the pleasant. They choose the good. Fools are snared into the pleasant and perish."

The other text reads thus: –

" Enlightenment does not come from extensive study or by learned discussions or through the intellect. It comes from Grace when one's self intensely yearns for realizations; but not unless the mind has turned away from evil and has learnt to control itself and to be at peace with the world."

These quotations are truly indicative of the emphasis laid by Indian thought from the very dawn of our history on what may be termed the moral and spiritual value of life. Those who have invariably made the greatest appeal to our people have been those who have renounced material wealth and power and have kept their bodies under subjection. Kings were privileged to make over their sons to such Rishis (Saints) so that they might be educated to tread the right path. Pride of conquest and rule, wealth and glory were never looked upon as competent to compare themselves with the power of the spirit. The text from the Gita conceived selflessness as the sine-qua–non of the good life. Only through reducing himself to a cipher could man find the sacred cow, the mother that could contribute to his happiness and growth. Similarly in the texts from the Upanishades, we are told that not always is the pleasurable good. Man has to exercise the utmost discrimination between what may seem to be pleasant pastures but which may not lead him to high goal of the mountain tops for the scaling of which the path may be rugged and difficult. The greatest stress was laid on the development of that sense or power of discrimination which alone could help one to choose aright. Again how could one achieve enlightenment? Erudition cannot help. The necessary Grace cannot be had by intellectual power. It can only be achieved through a turning away from evil, through self-control and through a yearning for realization. Spiritual power was therefore held to be far greater than what the limited mind of man is capable of acheiving by itself. It was of course recognized that man is by nature acquisitive and attaehed to worldly pleasures but it was also made clear that indulgence in them was not the means of salvation.

The two great epics of India, the Mahabharata and the Ramayana, are full of stories of how the heroes and heroines of old fought against the mean and despicable in order that the good and true may prevail.

In the 6th Century B. C. in the life of India came the Buddha. Born as a Prince and nurtured in the lap of luxury, Gautama Buddha was puzzled when he saw a sick man, an old man and a corpse. He felt he could not solve the mystery of life if he continued to live as a Prince and he therefore renounced his kingdom and is said to have attained enlightnment after six long years of effort. He came to the conclusion that neither worldly life nor self torture could give final happiness and his enlightenment led him to the conviction that to arrive at the Truth man had to follow the Noble Eightfold Path: viz " right views, right intention, right speech right action, right livelihood, right effort, right mindfulness, right concentration ". Buddhism was in reality an offshoot of Hinduism, an attempt at reform. As such it met with opposition from the priests of Hinduism. But the greatness of its founder and the ethical teaching of high significance which Buddhism embodied attracted men and this religion of "Compassion" spread far and wide beyond the borders of the land which gave the Buddha birth and today commands the largest following of any religion. In our own country the great King Asoka was one of its most devout followers. The inscriptions on rocks and pillars put up by this monarch are some of our most priceless possessions. Unlike such monuments in other countries which are landmarks of victories won in the field of battle, the inscriptions on these rocks and pillars were meant to teach man how to live a life of tolerance, of compassion and of complete dedication.

The great continent of China too has contributed liberally to what is of beauty and value in life. The essential features of her traditional civilisation were developed and established over four thousand years ago and this was done without any extraneous influences. The basis of Chinese social organization was a closely knit and highly organised family. It was not only something which held together a people, so diverse in many ways, in an unbreakable bond of cultural unity but also permeated almost every aspect of economic and political life. The sanctity of the family corporation which went right up from the peasant to the monarch who was looked upon as the supreme patriarch found expression also in ancestor worship Buddhism which penetrated into this vast continent did not disturb its social structure and nor did Confucius the great sage of China. As early as at the age of 22 he set up a school for boys, not to teach them the elements of learning but for such young and enquiring minds who wanted to be taught the principles of right conduct and government. " Society ", he considered " was an ordinance of Heaven and was made up of five relationships - ruler and subject, husband and wife, father and son, elder brothers and youngsters and friends. There was rule on the one side of the first four and submission on the other. The rule should be in righteousness and sincerity. Between friends the mutual promotion of virtue should be the guiding principle".

Confucius like all saints believed in the goodness of human nature and in the power of example of those in authority. He laid no claim to divine revelations but was anxious to reform where he thought the rulers and the people were straying from the right path. His "golden rule" "What you do not like when done to yourself do not do to others"[1] was deduced from his implicit belief in right conduct. "Man's nature was from God, the harmonious acting out of it was obedience to the will of God; and the violation of it was disobedience". I often wonder how the Chinese, steeped as they have been through the ages in the rule of life laid down for them by their sages, react to communal living as opposed to the closely knit family traditions which have been so peculiarly theirs.

Judaism, the ancient religion offered to the world by the Jews, has been defined as "the belief in absolute monotheism and the practical effect of that belief in life". It certainly connotes a course of life lived under the strictest discipline. Salvation depends solely on right conduct and repentance and right conduct is based on the Mosaic Law.

Much later than Buddhism, Judaism, Confucianism and Christianity came Islam. It owes a great deal to the tenets of Judaism and Christianity while maintaining that Mahomed is the only true apostle of the one God. As in other codes of life the highest emphasis is laid on prayer and fasting, on almsgiving and on pilgrimage and Islam has always stood for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

Earlier than Islam and even than Christianity Zoroaster taught a new religion in the ancient Empire of Persia which still claims many adherents. He maintained that there were two spirits representing good and evil. Man was free to follow either but if he did not follow "Ormadz who is light and creates all that is pure and good in the ethical world of law, order and truth", he would surely fall under the power of the evil one and be doomed for ever.

We have to turn to the wisdom of Greece and the radiant light of Christianity to understand the culture and traditions built up by the peoples of Europe and the Western World of the vast continent of the America and Canada Few histories are as fascinating as that of Greece and certainly these gifted people of a small country not only built up for themselves a great empire many centuries ago but what was of far more lasting value gave to the world philosophers and sages whose thought has far transcended material wealth and power. The concept of the City State, of 'demos' or the rule of the people, of citizenship, all flowed from their civilization. Theirs was truly a "Great Age" and they fell, as all Empires have fallen, as did Rome after them, when there was moral decay of patriotism among the citizens and decay of probity among the leaders.

Nevertheless it is always a source of pleasure and inspiration to turn to the great historians, authors and philosophers of Greece whose works and whose names wil, live for all time. Plato first, and soon after him Aristotlel demonstrated how necessary was the systematic pursuit of philosophical and scientific research but neither was ever divorced from political thought and ethics. It is fascinating to note that never did Plato make an artificial or rigid separation of any one of the great ideal interests of human life. Science, philosophy, politics, metaphysics and ethics constituted an integrated whole. The State existed to make life good for its citizens and equally the citizens had their duties to perform and their responsibilities to shoulder. Plato and Aristotle, his loyal disciple, both held that law was the true sovereign of States, that Governments were servants of law, that there was a fundamental difference between the lawful monarch and the tyrant who governed by his arbitrary will and that it was the inherent right of the people to elect their rulers and call them to account. Which of us today can differ from these basic truths? But the Greek who has always attracted me more than any other is Socrates who was a good deal older than Plato and exercised an enormous influence on the latter. Socrates was obviously a man of deep piety with the temperament of the "mystic" He believed in God as the all-wise and all good ruler of the world and he held that the soul of man partakes of the Divine and is immortal It has been said of him that his outward appearance was grotesque but his friends knew him as one "all gloriou within and the most righteous man of the whole age" Xenophon says of him "Socrates was regular in prayer and sacrifice even though he held that since the gods know what is good for us, our prayer should simply be 'Give me what is Good'. A reformer and preacher such as he was bound to meet with enemies and it is therefore no surprise that he had finally to drink the poisoned cup as a reward for his witness to the Truth.

ಗುರುವಾರ, ಸೆಪ್ಟೆಂಬರು 5, 1963.

ಶ್ರಿಮಾನ್ ಶಿವಶಂಕರರವರೆ, ಬಾಲಕ-ಬಾಲಿಕಾ ಚಮುಗಳೆ, ಮಿತ್ರರೆ,

ಈ ದಿನ ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರಾಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರಾದ ಪೂಜ್ಯ ಡಾ|| ರಾಧಾಕೃಷ್ಣನ್ ಅವರ ಜನ್ಮದಿನ. ಅವರು ಇಡೀ ಭರತ ಖಂಡದ ಚಮೂ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗೆ ಮಹಾ ಪೋಷಕರೆಂಬುದು ತಮಗೆಲ್ಲಾ ಗೊತ್ತಿದೆ. ಎಪ್ಪತ್ತಾರನೇ ವರ್ಷದಲ್ಲಿ ಅವರು ಕಾಲಿಟ್ಟ ಈ ಶುಭದಿನ ಅವರಿಗೆ ಸರ್ವವಿಧದ ಒಳಿತನ್ನೂ ಹಾರೈಸೋಣ.

ಈ ಅವಕಾಶಕ್ಕೆ ನಾನು ಇಷ್ಟೊಂದು ಮಹತ್ವ ಕೊಡಲು ಇನ್ನೊಂದು ಕಾರಣವೂ ಇದೆ. ಈ ರಾಜ್ಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಚಮೂದಳ ರಚಿತವಾದಾಗ, ಅದರ ಮೊಟ್ಟ ಮೊದಲನೆಯ ತಂಡಕ್ಕೆ ಸೇರುವ ಸುಯೋಗ ನನಗೆ ಲಭಿಸಿದ್ದಿತು. ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಜ್ಯ ದಲ್ಲಿ ನಲವತ್ತು ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆಯೇ ಚಮೂ ಕಾರ್ಯಪರಂಪರೆ ಪ್ರಾರಂಭ ವಾಯಿತು. ಚಿರಸ್ಮರಣೀಯರಾದ ದಿವಂಗತ ಶ್ರೀ ಕೆ. ಶಂಕರನಾರಾಯಣರಾಯರ ಗಾಢಾಸಕ್ತಿಯೇ ಅದಕ್ಕೆ ಮುಖ್ಯ ಕಾರಣ. ಆ ಪುಣ್ಯಶ್ಲೋಕರು ಅನೇಕ ವರ್ಷಗಳ ವರೆಗೆ ಚೀಫ್ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಕಮಿಷನರಾಗಿದ್ದರೆಂಬುದು ಬಹುಶಃ ತಮ್ಮೆಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಗೊತ್ತಿದೆ. ಅವರ ಸ್ಫೂರ್ತಿದಾಯಕ ನಾಯಕತ್ವಕ್ಕೆ ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆ ತುಂಬ ಋಣಿಯಾಗಿದೆ. ನಿರ್ದೇಶಕರಾಗಿ ಈ ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆಯನ್ನು ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಂಡು ಬಂದ ದಿವಂಗತ ಶ್ರೀ ಸಂಜೀವ ಕಾಮತರು ಹಾಗೂ ದಿವಂಗತ ಶ್ರೀ ಸಿ. ಸುಬ್ಬರಾಯರ ನೇತೃತ್ವದಲ್ಲೂ ಚಮುವಾಗಿ ಕೆಲಸ ಮಾಡುವ ಸುಯೋಗ ನನ್ನ ಪಾಲಿಗೆ ಬಂದಿತ್ತು. ಅಂದು ಚಮೂ ಕೇಂದ್ರಸ್ಥಾನವು ಟಿಪ್ಪೂಸುಲ್ತಾನರ ಅರಮನೆಯಲ್ಲಿತ್ತು. ಅದರ ಆವರಣದೊಳಗೆ ಸೋದರ ಚಮೂಗಳ ಉಲ್ಲಾಸಕರವಾದ ಒಡನಾಟದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಳೆದ ಆ ಮಧುರ ದಿನಗಳನ್ನು ನಾನೆಂದೂ ಮರೆಯಲಾರೆ. ನಾನು ಈಗಲೂ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಚಮೂ ಸಹಕಾರ ಸಂಘದ ಸದಸ್ಯನಾಗಿಯೇ ಇದ್ದೇನೆಂದು ನನ್ನ ನಂಬಿಕೆ. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ಚಮೂ ದಳದ ಕಾರ್ಯಕಲಾಪಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಮತ್ತೊಮ್ಮೆ ಸಹ ಭಾಗಿಯಾಗುವ ಭಾಗ್ಯವೂ ಈಗಿನ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಚೀಫ್ ಕಮೀಷನರವರೇ ಮುಂತಾಗಿ ನನ್ನ ಹಳೆಯ ಮಿತ್ರರನೇಕರನ್ನು ಕಾಣುವ ಸುಯೋಗವೂ ನನಗೆ ಅದೆಷ್ಟೋ ಸಂತೋಷಕರವಾಗಿವೆ. ಇಂದು ನಾನು ವಹಿಸಿರುವ ಸ್ಥಾನ ನನಗೆ ಪ್ರಾಪ್ತವಾದಾಗ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಚೀಫ್ ಕಮೀಷನರು ತಮ್ಮ ಶುಭಾಶಯಗಳನ್ನು ಕಳುಹಿಸಿದ ನನ್ನ ಸನ್ಮಿತ್ರ ರಲ್ಲಿ ಮೊದಲನೆಯವರೊಬ್ಬರಾಗಿ ನಾನು ಈ ಸ್ಥಾನದಲ್ಲಿರುವ ಕಾಲದಲ್ಲಿ ಚಮೂ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯ ಈ ಸಂಸ್ಥಾನದ ಶಾಖೆಯ ಪೋಷಕನಾಗಿರುವ ಕಾರಣದಿಂದ ನನಗೆ ಸ್ವಾಗತ ಕೊಟ್ಟರು. ಹೀಗೆ, ಇದೆಲ್ಲಾ ನನ್ನ ಪಾಲಿಗೆ ಬಂದಿರುವ ಸುಯೋಗವೆಂದು ನಂಬಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ಆದರೆ, ನಾನು ವಹಿಸಿರುವ ಸ್ಥಾನವೇನೇ ಇದ್ದರೂ, ಚಮೂದಳ ಪರಂಪರೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಾನು ಎಂದೆಂದಿಗೂ ಸಂಪರ್ಕವಿಟ್ಟುಕೊಂಡೇ ಇರುವೆನೆಂದು ಬೇರೆ ಹೇಳಬೇಕಾಗಿಲ್ಲ.

ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆಯೂ ಅದರ ಧ್ಯೇಯಾದರ್ಶಗಳೂ ಈಗ ಅರ್ಧ ಶತಮಾನ ಕ್ಕಿಂತಲೂ ಮೇಲ್ಪಟ್ಟು ಕಾಲಪರೀಕ್ಷೆಗೆ ಒಳಗಾಗಿದೆ. ಬಾಲಕರ ಪೌರ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣಕ್ಕೆ ಅದೇ ಅತ್ಯುತ್ತಮ ವಿಧಾನವೆಂದು ಲೋಕದ ಉದ್ದಗಲದಲ್ಲೆಲ್ಲಾ ಅಂಗೀಕೃತ ವಾಗಿದೆ. ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆಯು ಬಾಲಕ-ಬಾಲಿಕೆಯರ ವಿಚಾರ ಶಕ್ತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಸತ್ತ್ವಹೀನವಾಷ ಏಕರೂಪ ಪ್ರಮಾಣಕ್ಕೆ ಎಡೆಗೊಡದೆ, ಶಿಸ್ತು ಪಾಲನೆಯನ್ನು

ಕಲಿಸಿಕೊಡುವುದು: ಬಾಲ ಚಮೂವನ್ನು ತನ್ನದೇ ಆದ ಶಕ್ತಿಸಾಮರ್ಥ್ಯಗಳಿಂದ ಕೂಡಿದ, ವಿಶಿಷ್ಟವಾದ ಸಹಜ ಪ್ರವೃತ್ತಿಗಳುಳ್ಳ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯಾಗಿ ಪರಿಗಣಿಸುವುದು. ಅವನ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿತ್ವವನ್ನು ಅಭಿವೃದ್ಧಿಗೊಳಿಸುವುದು; ಅದೇ ಕಾಲಕ್ಕೆ ಅವನಲ್ಲಿ ಜನ ಸೇವಾಬುದ್ಧಿಯನ್ನೂ ನಿಯಮಬದ್ಧವಾದ ಮೈತ್ರಿಮನೋವೃತ್ತಿಯನ್ನೂ ಮೂಡಿಸಿ ಅರಳಿಸುವುದು. ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆಯ ರೀತಿಯೆಂದರೆ, ನಿಸರ್ಗದ ರೀತಿ. ನಿಸರ್ಗದ ಸೂಕ್ಷ್ಮ ವ್ಯತ್ಯಾಸಗಳನ್ನು ಗ್ರಹಿಸಿಕೊಂಡು ಕಾಡುಮೇಡುಗಳ ಬಯಲುರಸ್ತೆಗಳ ಹಾಗೂ ಶಿಬಿರಾಗ್ನಿಯ ಕರೆಗೆ ಓಗೊಡುವ ಪ್ರವೃತ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ಬಗೆಯನ್ನು ಚಮೂವಿಗೆ ಕಲಿಸಿಕೊಡಲಾಗುವುದು. ಅಲ್ಲದೆ, ನಿಸರ್ಗಶಾಲೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪಡೆಯುವ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣದ ಜೊತೆಗೆ, ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬ ನೈಜಚಮೂವು ಅಭಿಮಾನದಿಂದ ಎತ್ತಿಹಿಡಿಯುವ ಚಮೂವಿಧಿವಚನಗಳು ಅಲಂಘ್ಯವೆಂಬುದನ್ನೂ ತಿಳಿಸಿಕೊಡಲಾಗುವುದು. ಹೀಗೆ, ಚಮೂ ಪರಂಪರೆಯಿಂದ ಬಾಲಕರು ಸುದೃಢವಾದ ಆರೋಗ್ಯ ಮಾತ್ರವನ್ನಲ್ಲ, ಪ್ರಗಲ್ಭ ಬುದ್ಧಿಯನ್ನೂ ಪಡೆಯುವಂತಾಗುವುದು. ಇವೆಲ್ಲ ಕಾರಣಗಳಿಂದ, ಇಂದು ಇಲ್ಲಿ ಚಮೂ ಮಂದಿರದ ಉದ್ಘಾಟನ ಸಮಾರಂಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸಲು ನನಗುಂಟಾಗಿರುವ ಸಂತೋಷ ಅಷ್ಟಿಷ್ಟಲ್ಲ. ನಿಸರ್ಗಕ್ಕೆ ತನ್ನನ್ನು ಮುಡಿಪಾಗಿಟ್ಟಿರುವ ಚಮೂಭ್ರಾತೃವರ್ಗವು ತನ್ನ ಆತ್ಮವನ್ನು ತುಂಬಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕಾದರೆ, ಯಾವುದೋ ಒಂದು "ಕೋಣೆ"ಯಲ್ಲಿರುವುದಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಇಂತಹದೊಂದು 'ಗಹ್ವರ'ದಲ್ಲಿ ಸೇರುವುದೇ ವಿಹಿತವೆಂದು ತೋರುವುದು.

ಈಗ ಈ ಸುಂದರ ಚಮೂ ಗಹ್ವರವನ್ನು ಬಹು ಸಂತೋಷದಿಂದ ಉದ್ಘಾಟನೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತೇನೆ. ಪ್ರಶಸ್ತವೂ ಉಪಯುಕ್ತವೂ ಆದ ಯಾವ ಉದ್ದೇಶಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಇದನ್ನು ರೂಪಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆಯೋ ಆ ಮಹೋದ್ದೇಶವನ್ನು ಇದು ಚಿರಕಾಲ ಸಾಧಿಸುವಂತಾಗಲೆಂದೂ ಹಾರೈಸುತ್ತೇನೆ.

Messages on the eve of Independence

I send my good wishes to the Bharat Scouts & Guides. I have long been of opinion that this organisation for our boys and girls does much good in training our younger generation and also in the work of integration of our people.

New Delhi.
July 4, 1963

Jawaharlal Nehru
Prime Minister

I am glad to know that the Bharat Scouts and Guides are taking out a special Independence Nuuuber. In the present context of our Defence Preparedness, the Scouts and Girl Guides Movement have a definite role to play. Although the training imparted in these Movements has no bearing to Military training, these movements play an important role in character building and mental discipline of young boys and girls. It is therefore essential that both the Scouts and girl Guides movements spread rapidly not only in urban areas but rural areas of our vast country.

I wish the Independence Number all success.

New Delhi.

DISCIPLINE

The dictionary meaning for this word is apt to vary with reference to the context. The present National Emergency has caused all important Newspapers, dailies, to bring out this word under the caption, "Your Discipline is the Nation's Strength". This actually should fall in with the dictionary meaning 'Mode of life in accordance with rules.' This caption has been very prominently printed in bold types on page 5 of the July issue of this very magazine. For all the dutiful members of this World-wide Movement and Bharat Scouts and Guides, part and parcel of it, this is not meant to be a new order of the day. Discipline is a part and parcel of every aspect of Scouting.

Scouting aims to make a boy a good citizen, a character-ful individual, through the sustained and continued efforts at training and learning, of the Scouter and the Scout respectively, over three definite age group periods-viz 7 to 11, 11to 17½, and 17½ to 25. The training in Scouting is mostly by the playway method in Cubbing and Scouting (Junior) and by the more adventurous out-door activities in Senior Scouting and Rovering. Rovering's final goal is 'Service', of the 'Good turn' type, expecting no return. Well! whatever be the mode adapted in such trainings the important factor stressed upon every individual is 'Discipline' though done so by an indirect method peculiar to Scouting, almost in all cases.

The small chapter on 'Discipline' in 'Aids to Scoutmaster-ship' by B.–P is worth reproduction to be explicit on the subject.

"Discipline- A nation to be prosperous must be well disciplined, and you only get discipline in the mass by discipline in the individual. By discipline I mean obedience to authority and to other dictates of duty.

This cannot be got by repressive measures, but by encour-agement and by educating the boy first in self-discipline and in sacrificing of self and selfish pleasures for the benefit of others. This teaching is largely effective by means of example, by putting responsibility upon him and by expecting a high standard of trustworthiness from him

Responsibility is largely given through the Patrol System by holding the Leader responsible for what goes on amongst his boys.

Sir Henry Knyvett, in 1596, warned Queen Elizabeth that the State which neglects to train and discipline its youth produces not merely rotten soldiers or sailors, but the far greater evil of equally rotten citizens for civil life ; or, as he words it, "For want of true discipline the hour and wealth both of Prince and countrie is desperatlie and frivoluslie ruinated."

Discipline is not gained by punishing a child for a bad habit, but by substituting a better occupation, that will absorb his attention, and gradually lead him to forget and abandon the old one.

The Scoutmaster should insist on discipline, and strict, quick obedience in small details. Let the boys run riot only when you give leave for it, which is a good thing to do every now and then."

Thus ends the chapter.

I for my part would only wish to emphasise two golden sentences in the above chapter on Discipline by B.-P. They are, 'This teaching is largely effective by means of example' and 'The State which neglects to train and discipline its youth produces not merely rotten soldiers, but the far greater evil of equally rotten citizens for civil life.'

Finally, the SCOUT PROMISE (or oath) to carry out, on our honour, as far as in us lies, and the SCOUT LAW is our binding disciplinary force, in our everyday life.

SCOUTS AND PIONEERS

AREAS OF OVERLAP

Almost every visitor to the Soviet Union is struck by the number of boys and girls between the ages of nine and 14 wearing a kind of Scout uniform with a prominent scarlet neckerchief. These are the Young Pioneers, the Soviet equivalent of the Boy Scouts. So, at least, one would conclude at first. Then, after one has examined and wondered at the similarities, there remain such deep differences between the two organizations that even to attempt a comparison seems unwise.

The points of similarity between Pioneers and Scouts are indeed many. But they concern chiefly the framework. What goes inside the framework turns out to be ideologically discrepant. This may sound obvious, but there is much in first appearances to blind the casual observer.

Besides the neckerchief there is the almost identical motto: "Always Prepared!". There is a promise, recited at an investiture, and a law. "I, a Young Pioneer of the Soviet Union," runs the promise, "In the presence of my comrades solemnly promise to love my Soviet Fatherland fervently, to live, learn and strive according to the precept of the Great Lenin and the teaching of the Communist Party."

CAMP FIRES

The law, with 11 points, covers ground very similar to the Scout's Law, recommending honesty, loyalty, usefulness, friendliness to all, courtesy, obedience, kindness to animals. There are badges to be won and standards to attain.

The Pioneer summer camp is all-important. Its activities include many of the aspects of woodcraft so familiar to the Boy Scout. The king-pin of the pioneers' as of the Scouts' Camp is the camp fire.

These similarities are by no means superficial. The benefits of camp life and the camp fire would be regarded as fundamental by most educationists. Nevertheless, the differences between the two organisations are more substantial than the similarities. There are in my view two broad differences. The first is the fulltime and universal nature of the Pioneer Movement and the second is its primarily political orientation.

Baden-Powell called Scouting "A practical aid to education, a school of citizenship through woodcraft—complimentary to school training" (my italics). Pioneers on the other hand are particularly active in school.

"What is required of each Pioneer?" asks the Pioneer handbook Tovarishch. The answer is in three parts: to study attentively, to look around at life and make an effort to help one's elders build communism, and to work for the common good. Every school-child between the ages of nine and 14 is encouraged to join the movement. Not to belong is often a sign of disgrace.

A Pioneer's membership may be suspended as a result of irresponsible behaviour in the classroom. The equivalent of Scout Patrols, called Zvenya, are based on sub-divisions of school classes.

NECKERCHIEFS GO.

When the school day ends, there are elaborate Pioneer houses and palaces offering a wide range of out-of school activities. These, incidentally, are thus removed from the hands of the teaching staff.

Most important of all, when summer comes, all the children, with very few exceptions move off, in a body to camp, leaving the streets and parks of big towns bereft of the scarlet neckerchiefs. And off with them go apprehensive students from the pedagogical institutes to spend all of two or three months as Pioneer leaders.

The second wide point of difference concerns loyalties and the strong political orientation of the Pioneer Movement. "To do my duty to God and the Queen" is the Scout's promise. "To live according to Lenin and the Communist Party" is that of the Pioneers.

"We aim for the practice of Christianity in everyday life and dealings," said Baden-Powell. "Scouting gives every man his chance of service for his fellow-man and God." Tovarishch, on the other hand, says, "In studies and in manual work Pioneers grow into real Communists, the new people of Soviet society." This, of course, is what one would expect. We are dealing with different ideologies, and mutatis mutandis Baden-Powell and Tovarishch are saying much the same thing.

But the important point is that the Pioneer movement goes beyond this. It has a proselytizing role. "The work of political education," states a leaflet issued to Pioneer Camp leaders "cannot be limited to the proposed scheme of activities. It is inseparable from the daily activities of Pioneers."

SOCIAL TIES

One of the activities suggested in the leaflet is organising meetings in the villages round about the camp to explain the work of the Communist party, the theme being "Our country is moving towards communism." To be a Pioneer is to help with the overall aim of building communism. It is a full-time activity and aims to enrol all children except the least satisfactory. Scouting remains primarily a part-time activity, an adjunct to the school curriculum and is entirely voluntary.

Three further points are perhaps worth making. First, there is a degree of centralization in the Pioneer Movement which most scout troops succeed in avoiding. In vast Leningrad the central Palace of Pioneers co-ordinates Pioneer activities and publishes booklets for the guidance of Pioneer leaders within the area. There are, moreover, no church and school troops as in Britain. All troops are school troops and all their members share not only common beliefs but a common background as well.

The beliefs of the Young Pioneers are geared to the beliefs of society at large. The Pioneer movement could not develop a morality of its own as in a sense the Scout Movement has tended to do.

Secondly, even if Soviet Schools are not entirely uniform, the three months in camp with Pioneers from other schools cannot but help in building a classless society. Scout troops in Britain pay a price for greater originality. The British practice of tying troops to schools, coupled with the differentiated school system, makes for stratification within the districts.

Thirdly and lastly, a point of similarity. Both the Pioneers and the Scouts promote the romantic, imaginative element which is so important in education. Both know the magic of the camp fire in a clearing, away from home and parents. Both recognize the value of woodcraft, relatively useless in itself, but priceless in the imaginative life of the pre-adolescent child.

YOUR UNIFORM

A.P.R.O.—Section X (Extracts)

GENERAL

274. (1) Wherever uniform is worn, it must be correct and complete, and especially so when in public. The D.C. may take into consideration the special circumstances of the Group and permit them, with the consent of the S.H.Q. if found necessary, to wear articles of uniform of any other type other than what is mentioned in these rules. It must always be borne in mind by scouters and guiders that, in a Group and its sub-units, there must be uniformity in the type of articles worn as permitted by the rules and D.C. For jamborees, rallies and other ceremonial occasions, the N.C., or the S.C.C. may fix up the colour and the pattern of the whole uniform, not inconsistent wish these rules.

275. Scarves—(1) The shape of the scarf shall be triangular with a base and two sides. Each of the two sides shall have a minimum length of 27" and a maximum length of 32".

(2) Scarves of the same colour and pattern must be worn by all members of a Group.

(3) The colour and design of Group scarves will be chosen by the G.L S. or G.L G. in eousultation with the Group Council, subject to the approval of the L.A. and the D.C., who will arrange that, as far as posslble, no two Groups in the same L.A. shall have scarves of the same colour and design. Scarves, while worn, must not be put under the shoulder straps.

(4) Groups will not adopt the following colours for their scarves as they are reserved for the ranks given against them.

GREEN—Non-executive ranks, unattached Scouters and Guiders.

PURPLE—Commissioners of all grades.

YELLOW—District Scouters and District Guiders.

CUBS

276. Head Dress—(a) Cap: Olive Green round cap with yellow piping with the Cub cloth badge in front as approved by the S.H.Q.

Scarf—Of the Group colour, worn with a group woggle (of any pattern other than Gilwell) or a loose knot round the neck over the shoulder straps, if any.

Jersey or Kurta or Shirt—Of any colour (preferably of a colour other than that worn by the troop.)

Shorts—Dark blue, Khaki or Grey.

Shoulder Patch—An equilateral, triangular Patch of cloth the base of which should be 1½ - 2 inches in length (the colour of the six) sewn at the top left sleeve, immediately below the shoulder, with point upwards, Shoulder Badge—Indicating the Group, worn on right shoulder touching the seam. It would, in no case, be more than 2 inches long, and ¼ - ¾ inch wide.

SCOUTS

277. Head Dress—Cap: Olive Green in colour of a pattern appproved by S.H.Q.

Scarf—Of the Group colour, worn with Group woggle (of any pattern, other than Gilwell) or with a loose knot round the neck and over the shoulder straps, if any.

Shirt—Khaki, or grey, with two patch pockets (buttoned), and shoulder straps.

Shorts—Dark blue, khaki, or grey.

Belt—Brown leather or khaki web.

Shoulder knot—The Patrol shoulder knot.

Shoulder Badge—indicating the Group, worn on right shoulder.

ROVERS

280. A Rover wears uniform as for a Scout, as described in Rule 277, but with the following differences:

(a) Shoulder knot - Red, green and blue.

(b) Garter tabs - Red.

(c) Thumbstick (Optional) - in place of staff.

SCOUTERS

282. All Scouters wear uniform as for a Scout but with the following differences:

(1) The shoulder knot, will be of the colour appropriate to the rank, as laid down in Section XI.

(2) D.R.S.Ls., R.S.Ls. and A.R.S.Ls., wear red garter tabs, instead of green.

(3) A walking stick or thumbstick may be carried on appropriate occasions instead of a staff.

283. Scarf: (a) Scouters other than Group Scouters, may wear any of the following scarves;

(1) The scarf of any Group to which they belong.

(2) A scarf of "Scout" green.

(3) The Gilwell or Himalaya Wood Badge scarf, if entitled to it.

(b) Group Scouters, when with their Group, wear the scarf of their Group, and when not with their Group, may wear Gilwell or Himalaya Wood Badge scarf, if entitled to it

A Letter for you from the U.S.A.

Troop 419
RFD 1 Box 35, Waldorf, Md.

Dear Brother Scout Master,

Greetings and salutations from your brother Scouts and Scouters of this ever shrinking globe of ours and in particular from Southern Maryland, U.S.A. Science has been a great boon to us Scouters It has quickened our minds and imaginations to think of other parts of the world many, many miles away as they were just down the road. So, even though hundreds of miles separate us I personally don't think of it as such.

Besides, we are in the same type of boy-work, Scouting. This brings us even closer as human beings. For you see, I too am a Scout Master the leader of Troop 419; Waldorf, Md. And I am interested in making contact with you as a Unit Leader so that, not only we but our boys also will be able to correspond with one another.

In this day and age, there is so much learning and understanding of other peoples and customs to appreciate that I can't think of a better way to accomplish this end but through Scouting.

There are so many similarities existing between us and you; and yet, enough differences within the details of the carrying-out of the Scout Programs that ours and their mutual correspondences will prove not only interesting but also most beneficial. So, I would like to have this my first letter be the start of a lasting friendship.

Presently, I have better that 35 boys enrolled in my unit. We are quite active and I am pleased to say, atleast in my own opinion, I have reasons to believe that they are tops. I feel certain that you feel the same of your unit. Isn't it wonderful how we develope an "esprit de corps", That's Scouting – individual Scout Spirit, Patrol Spirit and then Troop Spirit.

At Present some of my boys are interested in writing to Boy Scouts in the following countries: England, Greece, India, Ireland, and Lebannon. I hope that this list will increase in the near future. Because the boys of today will be our men of good will and of spiritually high standards of tomorrow. What better way to start mutual understanding and love?

The boys who wish to correspond with members of your Troop are:

Name	Address	Age
Stephen Merkle	Waldorf, Maryland	13 years

May this be a beginning of a long and lasting friendship.

Sincerely yours

M. J. MOSES
S.M.

೧೧ ನೆಯ ವಿಶ್ವ ಜಾಂಬೂರಿ

ಈ ತಿಂಗಳು (ಆಗಸ್ಟ್ ೧೯೬೩) ೧ರಿಂದ ೧೧ ಪೂರ್ತ ಗ್ರೀಸ್ ದೇಶದ ಮರಾಥಾನ್ ಬಳಿ ನಡೆಯುತ್ತಿರುವ ವಿಶ್ವದ ೧೧ನೆಯ ಜಾಂಬೋರಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗ ವಹಿಸಲು ಫಿಲಿಪೈನ್ಸ್ ದ್ವೀಪಗಳ ೨೩ ಮಂದಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಬಾಲಕರು ಹಾಂಕಾಂಗ್ (ಚೀನ) ದಿಂದ ಕೈರೋ (ಈಜಿಪ್ಟ್)ಗೆ ಪ್ರಯಾಣ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ಸಂಯುಕ್ತ ಅರಬ್ ಗಣರಾಜ್ಯದ ವಿಮಾನವು ಜುಲೈ ೨೮ರ ಬೆಳಗಿನ ಝಾವ ಬೊಂಬಾಯಿಯ ಬಳಿ ಸಮುದ್ರಕ್ಕೆ ಬಿದ್ದು ಇತರ ೩೯ ಮಂದಿಯೊಡನೆ ಈ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಬಾಲಕರೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಸಾವಿಗೀಡಾದುದು ಮಹಾ ದುರಂತವೇ ಸರಿ. ಸುದ್ದಿ ತಿಳಿದ ತಕ್ಷಣ ಜಾಂಬೋರಿಯಾ ಅಖಾಡದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಧ್ವಜಗಳೂ ಅರ್ಧಕ್ಕಿಳಿಸಲ್ಪಟ್ಟವು. ಈ ಘೋರ ಸಂಕಟದಲ್ಲಿ ನಮ್ಮ ಅನುತಾಪವನ್ನು ಫಿಲಿಪೈನ್ಸ್ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗೂ ಅವರ ಮೂಲಕ ಆ ಬಾಲಕರ ತಾಯಿತಂದೆಯರಿಗೂ ತಿಳಿಸುವುದಲ್ಲದೆ ಮೃತರ ಆತ್ಮಗಳಿಗೆ ಶಾಂತಿಯನ್ನೂ ಅವರ ಬಂಧುವರ್ಗಕ್ಕೆ ಮನಸ್ಥೈರ್ಯವನ್ನೂ ಅನುಗ್ರಹಿಸಲೆಂದು ದೇವರಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಾರ್ಥಿಸುತ್ತೇವೆ.

ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಗ್ರೀಸಿನ ವಿಶ್ವಜಾಂಬೋರಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸಲು ಆಗದೆ ಇದ್ದಾಗ್ಯೂ ಅಲ್ಲಿ ಸೇರಿರುವವರಿಗೆ ನಮ್ಮ ಶುಭಾಶಯಗಳನ್ನು ಕಳಿಸೋಣ. ಜಾಂಬೋರಿಯ ಯಶಸ್ಸನ್ನೂ ಹಾರೈಸೋಣ.

ನಾವು ಇನ್ನೂ ತಿಳಿದಿರಬೇಕಾದುದು :

ಏಥೆನ್ಸ್ (ಗ್ರೀಸ್) ರಾಜಧಾನಿ ಮೈಸೂರು ರಾಜ್ಯದಿಂದ ಸುಮಾರು ನಾಲ್ಕಾವರೆ ಸಾವಿರ ಮೈಲು ದೂರ ಇದೆ.

ಗ್ರೀಸ್ ಸರ್ಕಾರವು ಈ ಮಹಾ ಮೇಳದ ವೇಳೆ ಐದು ಬಗೆಯ ವಿಶೇಷ ಅಂಚೆ ಚೀಟಿಗಳನ್ನು ಪ್ರಕಟಿಸಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗಿಗೆ ಗೌರವ ತೋರಿದೆ.

ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮೇಳದ ಘೋಷಣೆ "ಎತ್ತರಕ್ಕೆ ಏರುತ್ತಾ ವಿಶಾಲವಾಗಿ ಹರಡುತ್ತಾ ಸ್ಕೌಟಿನಲ್ಲಿ ಸಾಗು" — ಎಂದರೆ ಇಂದಿನ ವಿಜ್ಞಾನ ತಂತ್ರನೈಪುಣ್ಯದಂತೆ ಆಕಾಶದೊಳಗೆ ಮಾತ್ರವಲ್ಲ. ಅದಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಮಿಗಿಲಾಗಿ ಧೈರ್ಯ, ಸ್ಥೈರ್ಯ, ವಿಶ್ವಾಸಗಳ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಹ ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಏರುತ್ತ ಹರಡುತ್ತ ಸಾಗಬೇಕು ಎಂದು.

೧೫,೦೦೦ ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಬಾಲಕರು ತಮ್ಮ ಜೀವನದ ಅಮೋಘವಾದ ಹತ್ತು ದಿನಗಳನ್ನು ವಿಶ್ವಭ್ರಾತೃತ್ವದಲ್ಲಿ ಆನಂದಿಸುವ ಮರಾಥಾನ್ ಕ್ಷೇತ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಈಗ್ಯೆ ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ೨,೪೫೫ ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ (ಕ್ರಿ ಪೂ. ೪೯೦ರಲ್ಲಿ) ಕೇವಲ ಹತ್ತು ಅಥೀನಿಯದ ತಂಡಗಳು ಒಗ್ಗಟ್ಟಿನಿಂದ ಹೋರಾಡಿ ತಮಗಿಂತ ಹತ್ತು ಪಟ್ಟು ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗಿದ್ದ ಪ್ಲೇಟಿಯದ ಶತೃಗಳನ್ನು ಸೋಲಿಸಿ ಮರಾಥಾನ್ ಎಂಬ ಹೆಸರನ್ನು ಚಿರಸ್ಥಾಯಿಯನ್ನಾಗಿ ಮಾಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

The Lookout

On quite a few occasions I have been asked by a few friends as well as trainees in Training Courses for Scouters, if there is Scouting in Communist countries and what is the difference between the extensive Youth Movement in the Soviet Un on and the World-wide Movement of Boy Scouts. The answer to the first of the above two questions has been very simple, viz: There is no Boy Scout Movement in the Communist Countries. The answer to the second question has been beyond my knowledge. A comprehensive answer also comparing and contrasting the two Movements: The World wide Boy Scout Movement' and the 'Young Pioneer, Movement of the Soviet Union, is now available as a reprinted article in the June 1963 issue of 'The Scouter' the monthly magazine of the Boy Scouts Association, London.

The title of the article is 'Scouts and Pioneers' on page 184 of the above mentioned issue of 'The Scouter'. The Editor of this magazine, 'The Mysore Scout & Guide', shall do well to have this very valuable article reproduced in full for the benifit of the Scouts and Scouters of the State in the next issue(August 1963).

I would wish to reproduce here only the very first paragraph of the article as this by itself gives an idea of what is to follow in the other paras of the article.

" Almost every visitor to the Soviet Union is struck by the number of boys and girls between the ages of nine and 14 wearing a kind of Scout uniform with a prominent scarlet neckerchief. These are the Young Pioneers, the Soviet equivalent of the Boy Scouts. So, at least, one would conclude at first. Then, after one has examined and wondered at the similarities, there remain such deep differences between the two organisations that even to attempt a comparison seems unwise."

The Boy Scouts Movement which is running its 56th year of existence shall and will live for ever. It is for us the Scouters to help remain everlasting by maintaining its chief aim, the Character building' by our personal examples.

Finally I wish to remember to all our District Commissioners (S) the article 'Suggestions to be implemented by the District Commissioners' which has appeared in the June issue of this magazine (page 5).

Good Luck and Good Hunting.

V. K. Sundaram
State Commissioner (Scouts).

11th Worlb Jamboree Song

Quick to the call " Be Prepared " (ome the Scouts to-day.
You'll find wherever the need
They are there.
They lend a strong helping hand
While they sing a song.
And bring a bright smile to help
Things along.
They come from homes far away
With a will to fight,
Not for lands or for gain
But for Right.
And then united as one
To aim high for good
And to Scout Wide for World brotherhood.

Refrain: Jamboree, Jamboree etc.

11th World Jamboree—Free Visit

Greek Embassies and Consulates were notifed by the Greek Foreign office under reference X/3/E of 8th September 1962 that all participants in the Jamboree were to be granted Visas free of charge.

It should therefore be made clear when applying for visas (if they are necessary) that all Scouts in question, of either coming to Greece as part of their official National Contingent to the Jamboree or as Scouters serving on the Jamboree International Headquarters staff.

From: The Jamboree Committee.

11th World Jamboree Menus

A great deal of thought and planning went into preparing menus so as to make the cooks' duties as light as possible. We realise that the food will not be the kind everybody is used to, but we hope it will please the majority of our guests. We have asked those who, for religious or dietetic reasons, would like certain changes, to let us know in good time so that we can arrange to please them too, as far as possible. The menus have already been posted to all Associations and will soon be followed by a booklet giving details of rations, recipes and instructions for preparing the meals. Cooking, as you probably know, will be done on charcoal stoves.

18th World Conference of Girl Guides/Girl Scouts at Denmark

Once every three years, the members of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts meet together in a Conference to exchange ideas and experiences and to consider the policy of Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting throughout the World.

The World Conference is composed of delegates appointed by countries which are either full or tenderfoot members of the World Association.

Each Country is entitled to send two delegates. In addition, full member countries only may send official visitors upto a maximum of seven members which depends upon the strength of the Guides in the country.

India is sending two delegates and three visitors. As the strength of the Girl Guides in India is one lakh and 25 thousands, she is entitled to send three visitors.

The Five Guide State Commissioners who are attending the Conferenee are Mrs. Leela Anjanappa, Mysore State, Mrs Z. R. Ranji, Andhra Pradesh as delegates, Mrs. Lala Tandon, Uttar Pradesh, Mrs.Khanna, Northern Railways, & Mrs. Patlak Maharastra State.

Mrs. Lakshmi Mazumdar, who is the chief Guide of India has the honour to have been elected as a member of the World Committee meetings.

Rajkumari Amrit Kaur has been invited by the World Committee to give a talk on 'Essential values world of to--day-youth of tomorrow'. The Conference is from the 18th to 29th June 1963. On the 17th June, there will be an official reception to the delegates by Queen Ingrid of Denmark at Hotel Nyborg Stand Nyborgr.

After the Conference, all the five Guide Commissioners have been invited to the U. S. A. by the Girl Scouts of America to observe Girl Guiding/Girl Scouting and other Youth welfare Movements at their cost. They will be halting four days in London enroute at the invitation of the National Headquarters in England The return journey will be via Japan and Hong-kong paid by the Girl Scouts of America.

Miss Usha Sarpeshkar, Ranger, Home School was entertained on her completion of Mountaineering Course held at Darjeeling where she climbed an altitude of over 17,000 feet.

A Rally of Cubs & Scouts was also held in this connection at the State Headquarters grounds.

Training Camps

Sri B. Siddananjappa, M P., advised the Scouters trained at Sri Samadevara Katte Training Camp that it would not be enough if they thought that once a Scout always a Scout would do. but they should make the people understand through their behaviour that they are Scouts whether they are in uniform or not. He was presiding over a validictory function of 12 day camp organised by the District Association, Hassan. Sri Arakere Subba Rao, welcomed the gathering and Sri Radhakrishna, Secretary. Dist. Association proposed a vote of thanks. The trainees had their efficient training in Night Scouting, Hill Claiming, Swimming, Rescue work. First Aid, etc., under the charge of Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa. Sri Khasyap, a veteran Scouter and Advocate of Holenarasipur visited the camp twice and addressed them on "Scouters Service to Cubs".

Another 12 day camp with Sri Krishnamurthy Rao, Dist. Commissioner (S), Kolar North, in charge of the camp was conducted by the Mandya Dist. Association at Srirangapattna from the 6th to 17th May 1963. Sri Krishnamurthy, District Educational Officer, presided over the final day function. The Dist. Commissioner (Scouts), Sri Ananthashankarappa, stayed in the camp through out. Sri K. Lakshmana Rao, I.A.S., Deputy Commissioner and Sri H. M. Boriah, Mandya Municipal chief were among the visitors.

The Kolar District Association (North) conducted Scoutmasters Training Camp at Vidhuraswatha, Gouribidanur Taluk from the 9th to 20th June for the benefit of Kolar Dist. area.

The Southern Railway State Association conducted a Himalaya Cub Wood Badge Course for their Scouters at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur, with J. I. Muthaian, Former National Camp Chief in charge.

Former Camp Chief for India at our C T C.

Sri J. T. Muthiah, former Camp Chief for India recently conducted a Cub wood badge course for the Southern Railway Bharat Scouts and Guides. Our State Chief Comissioner and Sri Kondajji Basappa Dy. Minister for Co-operation and Hd. Qrs. Commissioner for Public Relations addressed the trainees. Sri Muthiah exppressed his appreciation at the good way in which the camping centre was being maintained and commended on the plans we have afoot by way of providing Kitchen shelters, bathing cubicles, swmming pool etc., Sri Muthiah is not a stranger to our camping centre. In brief we will say, come again JIM-as he is popularly known.

ROLE OF SCOUTING AND GUIDING IN RECREATION

"Good show, well done, Scouts and Guides" observed Sri S. Nijalingappa, Chief Minister, after going through the Scout and Guide stall organised in connection with the II National Recreation Conference at Sree Kanteerava Stadium from 24th to 26th May 1963. The Scout and Guide Stall was very attractive, educative and instructive not only for the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides but to the laymen as well. A large number of delegates, observers and general public visited the stall. Smt. Radhamma, Secretary, Visveswarapuram Local Association was in charge of the arrangements.

Smt. Lalitha Krishnaswamy, Joint State Secretary, Smt. Leelavathi Naidu, District Commissioner (G), Bangalore North District, Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S), and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner (S) were the representatives of the Bharat Scouts and Guides at the conference.

The Conference made several recommendations including the activities of Scouting and Guiding to be patronised by the Government and Public as well in order to enhance recreational activities.

Sri D. Ramakrishnaiah, District Educational Officer, Kolar District and Sri Deurkar, A. E. O., Chickballapur, visited the camp. The valedictory function came off on the 19th evening when Sri K. G. Basappa, Convenor of Sri Vidurnarayana Temple, praised the activities of the Scout Movement.

Sri M. Govindappa of Nandi was of immense help in organising games and conducting physical exercises. Sri Sundara Rao, of Angatta, the Quarter Master, had made excellent arrangements to provide healthy sumptuous food.

HASSAN

Malnad Rovers & Scouts on Hike and Service.

The Rovers and Scouts of the Malnad Rovers Group, Hassan, went on a hike to Gendekatte Village forest on 9-6-63. The Scouts were taught observation, woodcraft, compass reading and some funny, intelligent games were played. Bros. H. V. Mukundiah and H. V. Radhkrishna joined the group for the hike. The Group was led by the Group Leader Bro. K. Anantharamiah, A.D.C. (S).

On the way to the spot the boys visited a village, Gavenahalli and played a tricky game. The Scouts enjoyed the hike and learnt many things.

On 16-6-63 the Scouts and Rovers of the Group were on service at the Hassan District Co-operators' Conference which was inagurated by Sri. Kondajji Basappa, Minister for co-operation. The Scouts gave him a gaurd of honour which he received gladly. The Deputy Minister for Finance, Sri. H. R Abdul Gaffar was also present at the function. He was glad to know that the Scouts were on service.

GUIDE SECTION

State Commissioner (Guides) in Denmark

"The culture of Womanhood of our State, if not of Bharat itself, is best represented by the Guiders and Girl Guides of our country going abroad and Smt. Leela Anjanappa now proceeding to Denmark is an unofficial ambassador of our land and most suited as such" observed Mayor Sri K. M. Nanjappa, who is also the President of the Bangalore North District Association of the Bharat Scouts and Guides of Mysore State. Sri Nanjappa was presiding at the State Scout Headquarters over a Tea given on Thursday the 13th June 1963 evening to Smt. Leela Anjanappa, State Commissioner (Guides) to wish her Bon Voyage on the eve of her departure to attend the World Conference of Guide Commissioners in Denmark. After the Conference, Mrs. Anjanappa is visiting the Guides' Association of the U. S. A. on their invitation After Tea, Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner, welcomed the gathering. Mrs. Gladys Firth, a former State Guide Commissioner, spoke wishing Godspeed to Mrs Leela Anjanappa and the District Commissioner (Guides', Pangalore South, Smt. Viola Isaac proposed a vote of thanks.

Earlier, the large audience were entertained to an excellent fare of variety Camp Fire items by several Scout and Guide Units from different parts of the city.

"Bon Voyage" to our S.C. (G)

L. to R Seated are :—Mayor Sri K. M Nanjappa, President, D.A., Bangalore North ; Smt. Leela Anjanappa, S.C.(G), Sri H. R. Abdul Gaffar, D.C.C. Hqrs. Commr. (Trg), Sri P. Sivashankar, S.C.C., and Dr. B. M. Madhava Rao, Hqs. Commr. (Social Service).

The Scout and Guide week in the State is observed during the 1st week of August. This is observed to create a fresh sense of service in the boys and girls, when together with celebrations a programme of Social Service like slum clearance hospital meeting etc., now because of the emergency, more emphasis is being laid of First Aid Ambulance, Fire Fighting Messenger Service and other similar trainings.

I should here like to appeal to all the former Guides to come and registrar themselves at the Girl Guide Headquarters and also at District levels as we have been trying to form this Association of former Girl Guides to keep up contact. They can also co-operate with us during this time of emergency in the War effort and also spend some happy evenings in sing Song over a cup of Tea. Their assistance will also be valuable in starting open Companies Flocks and Ranger Teams.

We want to start more and more Open Companies nnd Teams so that the trained Girls after shcools and colleges are not lost to us.

Dear Mother Domittilia,

This is just to inform you that Laila has got about Rs. 50/. towards her savings from the monthly pocket money we give her- I am glad that excepting on books and magazines she doesn't spend any money unnecessarily. More over she is very careful in handling the Domestic funds when her mother is not in station.

Abraham.

Dear Sister Domitilla,

I am very glad to write that Laila is always very useful at home. She is very systamatic in her duties and we are proud of her being the eldest in the family and being a good disciplinarian. One properly controls and guides her younger sisters as well as the servants. I should admit that she spends most of the time at home reading and could spend little time in helping her mother. But she is quite handy whenever needed. I don't think she does mnch in the kitchen, but looks after the younger ones well Being a bit of serious turn of mind she seldom wastes any time at hom.

BASIC COURSE AT THE HIMALAYAN MOUNTAINEERING INSTITUTE

The Himalayan Mountaineering Institute was first started in 1954 by the Bengal Government in commemoration of Tensing's achievement of climbing Mount Everest for the first time along with Sir Edmund Hillary in 1953. The Institute is at Darjeeling and has its own hostel, hall, museum, library and a zoological park where animals are found in their natural surroundings.

It was at this Institute that six Girl Guides were sent by the National Headquarters for the first time. There were two girls from Bombay and one each from Andhra, Delhi, Assam and Mysore. In all there were thirty two girls for this course representing different organisations. There are four basic courses run yearly and this held from April 24th to June 4th was meant only for ladies.

The training at the Institute began by the acclamatisation period of ten days when we were made to take long walks carrying heavy rucksacks. We were also given clothing and equipment used at high altitudes. Lectures were also given on Physiology, Geology, Photography on Mountains, flora and Fauna of Himalayas, Mountain Hazards and many other interesting subjects.

Then one morning we left Darjeeling carrying Rucksacks weighing about twenty to twently-five pounds, to the training area at Chaurikiang in western Sikkim. The heavy luggage including supplies and tents is carried by cheerful sherpa men and women. The trek to the training area which is the base camp an altitude of 14,000 ft. takes about seven days. Each day we used to get up early in the morning and after breakfast we would trek to the next camp. There we would again pitch our tents and spend the rest of the day there. This routine continues till we reach our base camp. On the trek, we first descend from Darjeeling (7,000 ft.) to the next camp which is about 1,000 ft.and after this there is again a gradual climb to 14,000 ft. passing through manv hills and valleys. we trek about six to twelve miles a day. The trek is the most enjoyable part of the training and we will be delighted to pass through dense forests full of flowers and colourful birds.

At the base camp, the training is for ten days. We learn various knots like endman's knot, middle-man's knot, double knot, timber hitch, bowline, prassik knot and also rock climbing. On somedays we had to go to a Clacier to learn Ice Crafting. The sherpa instructors of the institute teach us the various techniques of moving safely on the ice. On the lass day we were taken to climb a peak called Palurg (local name) at a height of 18,700, to test our skill and stamina. Nine of us reached a height of 17,000ft and came back as the weather was bad.

The trek back is the same route as going up and back in Darjeeling, we spent a week brushing up the lessons we had learnt on the mountains. On the last day we had a graduation ceremony, when the Defence Minister pinned up the Silver Ice Axes.

I thank the National Headquarters and the State Headquarters for giving me this chance and I hope more Scouts and Guides will attend such courses and gain spirit of adventure the mountain teaches.

Miss. Usha Sarpeshkar.

ಸಭ್ಯನಾಗಲು ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ

ಸಭ್ಯ ಅಂದರೆ ಯಾರು ?

ಯಾರೂ ಹುಟ್ಟಿನಿಂದಾಗಲಿ, ವಾಸದ ಸ್ಥಳದಿಂದಾಗಲಿ ಸಭ್ಯನೆನಿಸಲಾರರು. ಆದರೆ ನೈತಿಕ ಮಟ್ಟ, ಸಮಾಜದ ಇತರರೊಡನೆ ಬೆರೆತು ಸಂಪಾದಿಸಿಕೊಂಡಿರುವ ಉನ್ನತಸ್ಥಾನ ಇವುಗಳಿಗೆ ಅನುಸಾರವಾಗಿ ಅವರನ್ನು ಸಭ್ಯ ಅನ್ನುವರು. ಹುಟ್ಟಿನಿಂದ ದೊರಕುವ ಸ್ಥಾನ ಒಂದು ರೀತಿ. ಆದರೆ ಹುಟ್ಟಿನಿಂದಲೇ ಅಲ್ಲದೆ ಸಮಾಜದಲ್ಲಿ ನಮ್ಮ ಹಕ್ಕುಬಾಧ್ಯತೆಗಳು ಹಲವು ಇವೆ. ಸರ್ಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುವ ಕಂದಾಯ ಕಾನೂನು ಬದ್ಧವಾದುದು. ಆದರೆ ಕಷ್ಟಕ್ಕೆ ಒಳಗಾಗಿರುವ ಒಬ್ಬರಿಗೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುವ ನಿಸ್ವಾರ್ಥ ಸೇವೆ, ನೈತಿಕವಾದುದು. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದಲೇ ಕಾನೂನು ಬದ್ಧವಾದ ಸೇವೆಗಿಂತಲೂ ಮನಃ ಪೂರ್ವಕವಾಗಿ ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೆ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುವ ನೈತಿಕವಾದ ಸೇವೆ ಸಭ್ಯ ಪ್ರಜೆಗಿರುವ ಒಂದು ಮುಖ್ಯ ಗುಣ. ಹೀಗಿದ್ದೂ ಕಾಳಸಂತೆ, ಸ್ವಾರ್ಥತೆ, ಹರತಾಳ, ಮುಷ್ಕರ, ಜಾತಿಭೇದ, ಉದ್ಯೋಗದ ಪೈಪೋಟಿ, ಕೋಮುವಾರು, ವೈಷಮ್ಯ, ಪ್ರಾಂತಭೇದ ಇತ್ಯಾದಿ ಇತ್ಯಾದಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಕಾರಣಗಳೇನು? ಎಂಬ ಪ್ರಶ್ನೆ ಬರುವುದು. ಇವೆಲ್ಲವನ್ನು ಪರಿಹರಿಸುವ ಉತ್ತಮವಾದ ಮಾರ್ಗವೊಂದನ್ನು ದಿವಂಗತ ರೈಟ್ ಆನರಬಲ್ ಶ್ರೀನಿವಾಸಶಾಸ್ತ್ರಿಗಳು ಒಮ್ಮೆ ಉಪನ್ಯಾಸಿಸುತಾ "ಒಬ್ಬ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯ ಶ್ರೇಯಸ್ಸು ಉತ್ತಮಗೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕಾದರೆ ಸಮಾಜದ ಹಿತಕ್ಕೆ ಧಕ್ಕೆಬಾರದೆ ತನ್ನ ಸ್ವಾರ್ಥತ್ಯಾಗದಿಂದ ಇತರರಿಗೆ ಸಹಾಯವಾಗುವಂತೆ ವರ್ತಿಸಿದರೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ಸಾಧ್ಯ, ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿರುವರು. ಆದ್ದರಿಂದ ತ್ಯಾಗ ಮತ್ತು ಸೇವೆ ಸತ್ಪ್ರಜೆಯ ಮುಖ್ಯ ಲಕ್ಷಣಗಳು.

ಸತ್‌ಪ್ರಜೆ ಮತ್ತು ಪ್ರಜಾಪ್ರಭುತ್ವ

ನಿರಂಕುಶ, ಅಥವಾ ಸಾಂಕುಶ ಪ್ರಭುತ್ವ ಇರುವ ಕಡೆ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯ ಜವಾಬ್ದಾರಿ ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗಿರುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಪ್ರಜೆಗಳಿಗಾಗಿ ಪ್ರಜೆಗಳೇ ನಡೆಸುವ ಸರ್ಕಾರಗಳು ಇರುವ ಕಡೆ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಯ ಕರ್ತವ್ಯ ಹೆಚ್ಚು. ಪ್ರಜಾಸರ್ಕಾರದಲ್ಲಿ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಗೆ ಬೆಲೆಯುಂಟು. ಇಲ್ಲಿ ಗುಣ, ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ, ಸಹನೆ, ವಿಮರ್ಶೆ, ಇತ್ಯಾದಿಗಳು ಪ್ರಮುಖಪಾತ್ರ ವಹಿಸುವುವು.

ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣವು ಸತ್‌ಪ್ರಜೆಗಳನ್ನು ತಯಾರಿಸಲು ಬೇಕಾದ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ಸಾಧನಗಳನ್ನು ಒದಗಿಸುತ್ತದೆ. ಅದರ ಕಾರ್ಯ ವಿಧಾನವೂ ಅದಕ್ಕೆ ಅನುಸಾರವಾಗಿದೆ. ನಾವು ನೋಡುವಂತೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಶಿಕ್ಷಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಮಕ್ಕಳಿಗೆ ತಮ್ಮ ಏಳಿಗೆಯ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಪೂರ್ಣ

ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯವಿದೆ. ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಚಳುವಳಿಗೆ ಸೇರುವುದೇ ಮಕ್ಕಳ ಸ್ವೇಚ್ಛೆಗೆ ಸೇರಿದ್ದು. ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಭಾಗವಹಿಸುವುದು ಅವರ ಇಷ್ಟಕ್ಕೆ ಬಿಟ್ಟದ್ದು. ಬಲವಂತದಿಂದ ಕೊಡುವ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ವ್ಯರ್ಥ. ಸಂಘ ಜೀವನ, ಕಲ್ಪನೆ, ಮತ್ತು ಪೆಟ್ರೋಲ್ ಕ್ರಮದಿಂದ ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳು ಸ್ವಾತಂತ್ರ್ಯ ಮತ್ತು ಜವಾಬ್ದಾರಿಯನ್ನು ಅರಿಯುವರು. ಎಲ್ಲಕ್ಕಿಂತಲೂ ಮುಖ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ನಿಯಮ ಮತ್ತು ಭಾಷೆಯೂ ಇತರರಿಗೆ ಕೊಡಬೇಕಾದ ಗೌರವ, ಇತರರೊಡನೆ ಇರಬೇಕಾದ ಸಂಬಂಧ, ಸಮಾಜಸೇವೆ, ಪ್ರಾಣಿದಯೆ, ದೇಶಭಕ್ತಿ, ಆತ್ಮಗೌರವ, ಧೈರ್ಯ, ಸಾಹಸ, ಸ್ವಾವಲಂಬನೆ, ಮಿತವ್ಯಯ, ಕಾಯಾವಾಚಾಮನಸಾ ಪರಿಶುದ್ಧತೆ ಇತ್ಯಾದಿ ಅನೇಕ ಸುಗುಣಗಳನ್ನು ಒತ್ತಿ ಹೇಳುವುದು. ಈ ನಿಯಮಗಳನ್ನು ಕ್ರಮವಾಗಿ ಅಭ್ಯಾಸಮಾಡಿದರೆ ಸತ್ಪ್ರಜೆಯಾಗಲು ಅನುಮಾನವೇ ಇಲ್ಲ. Court of Honour ಎಂಬುದು ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳು ತಮ್ಮ ತಮ್ಮ ಭಿನ್ನಾಭಿಪ್ರಾಯಗಳನ್ನು ತಾವೇ ಬಗೆಹರಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಏರ್ಪಡಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವ ಕೂಟ; ಅದು ಗೊತ್ತುಮಾಡುವ ನೀತಿನಿಯಮಗಳು ಆ ಗುಂಪಿಗೆ ಮಾನ್ಯ. ಈ ಬಗೆಯ Court of Honour ಈಗಿನ ಪ್ರಜಾ ಸರ್ಕಾರದಂತೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟು ಚಳುವಳಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಮಕ್ಕಳು ಜಾತಿ ಮತ ಭೇದಗಳನ್ನು ತೊರೆದು ಸಹೋದರ ಸಹೋದರಿಯರಂತೆ ವರ್ತಿಸುವರು. ಈ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿಯೂ ಯಾವ ನಿರ್ಬಂಧವೂ ಇರುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಅವರು ಹೊರ ಬೀಡುಗಳಲ್ಲೂ (camping) ಆಟಪಾಟಗಳಲ್ಲೂ ಒಟ್ಟಿಗೆ ಸೇರಿ ಪರಸ್ಪರ ಅಭಿಪ್ರಾಯಗಳನ್ನು ವಿನಿಮಯ (exchange) ಮಾಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಅವಕಾಶ ಹೆಚ್ಚು.

ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಚಳುವಳಿಯು ಮೇಲೆ ಹೇಳಿದ ಪ್ರಜಾಪ್ರಭುತ್ವದ ನೀತಿನಿಯಮಗಳನ್ನು ಮಕ್ಕಳಿಗೆ ಕಲಿಸುವ ಮುಖ್ಯ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ. ಅನೇಕರು ಈ ತತ್ವವನ್ನು ಅರಿಯದೆಯೋ ಅಥವಾ ಈ ತತ್ವವನ್ನು ಮಕ್ಕಳಿಗೆ ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ಕಲಿಸದೆಯೋ ಇರುವುದರಿಂದ ಈ ಚಳುವಳಿಗೆ ದೊರಕಬೇಕಾದ ಸಹಾಯ ಸಂಪತ್ತುಗಳು ತೊರಕುತ್ತಿಲ್ಲ. ಇದು ವಿಶ್ವಸಂಸ್ಥೆ. ನೈತಿಕ ಬೆಂಬಲದಿಂದಲೇ ಪ್ರಪಂಚದ ಎಲ್ಲರನ್ನೂ ಬಂಧಿಸಿರುವುದು. ಯಾವ ಕಾನೂನಿನಿಂದಲೂ ನಿರ್ಬಂಧಿಸಿಲ್ಲ. ಇಂದಿನ ಯುವಕ ಚಳುವಳಿಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಚಳುವಳಿ ಅಗ್ರಸ್ಥಾನ ಪಡೆದಿರುವುದು ಕೇವಲ ಊಟ ಉಪಚಾರಗಳು, ಪ್ರವಾಸ, ಆಟಪಾಟಗಳು, ಕುಶಲಕಲೆಗಳಿಂದ ಮಾತ್ರವೇ ಅಲ್ಲ. ಅದರಲ್ಲಿ ಅಡಗಿರುವ ಉತ್ತಮ ತತ್ವಗಳಿಂದ. ಆದಕಾರಣವೇ ಇದು ಎಲ್ಲ ದೇಶದ ಎಲ್ಲ ಯುವಕರನ್ನೂ ಒಂದುಗೂಡಿಸುವ ಅತ್ಯುತ್ತಮವಾದ ಮತ್ತು ಎಲ್ಲರಿಂದಲೂ ಅನುಕರಣಯೋಗ್ಯವಾದುದಾಗಿದೆ.

The Lookout

In the last one month nothing much has actually happened, to be made special mention of. The schools should be settling down with their routine. It is hardly two weeks since the schools have reopened. I should just recall to all the adults who went through the Preliminary and Wood Badge Courses their promise to do their best and make more boys feel happy and learn well by starting Troops.

I wish to reproduce two small articles from the May 1963 issue of 'The Scouter'.

The first one is :

'I REMEMBER.....6 Gordon'

'Gordon was an unusual boy-he didn't mix easily, so consequently he had very few friends.

Even before setting off for his first Summer Camp he was feeling pangs of homesickness ; this was obvious by the way he kept with his mother right until the last minute and when he finally joined us to set off I could see that his eyes were rather red. From then on, I kept a special eye on him but, actually, he settled down remarkably well.

About midway through the camp his P. L. must have slipped up because Gordon was entrusted to cook the liver for lunch. As luck would have it, he cooked it to perfection and I mentioned this fact during the meal because I didn't know then that Gordon had actually cooked it. I remember this particularly well because several other boys commented favourably to Gordon who was thrilled to bits.

From then on, Gordon was a different chap, he gained more confidence by joining in the camp programme more readily, no longer was he laughed down at and for the first time he seemed to have some friends. Of course, this didn't happen straight away but gradually.

Towards the end of the camp his parents came to our open Camp Fire and it so happened that I was near when Gordon met them. He was full of chatter telling them everything that had happened during the camp (and this included a lot of rain) and I just managed to catch something about. "Skip thought my liver was smashing."

Mum and Dad looked at Gordon with pride as he bubbled over with enthusiasm, no longer was he a child.

Because of a few slices of liver, Gordon grew up.

Brian J. Sims."

The boys are boys and they are the same everywhere. I can quote one of ours in Bangalore-not to mention name : this one was also one of the type quoted above and a few camps made him a different one altogether ; apart from being a good teacher among teachers he is still a very desirable Scout. Good campings will make fine Scouts and then there can be very little leakage.

The second one is : 'Proverb–"It takes a thousand years to make a gentleman." We have three years to lay the foundations for a good Scout. It's up to us.'

With the reopening of the schools every Scouter must remember this proverb and the short time that is at his disposal and must do his best.

Good Luck and God's blessings.

V. K. SUNDARAM
State Commissioner (Scouts)

KNOT---NOT

Recently I read Camp Chief John Thurmon's writing thus: 'I often meet Scouts and when I ask them why they learn Knots-quick came the answer" 'to pass tests'. When John Thurman states-Scouts learn Knots so that they may use them. Turning to ourselves, it is not often that Scouts are able to tie correct Knots whenever required which means Knots are learnt to pass tests but not to be remembered. Now the remedy lies in incorporating Knot tying contests in our meetings as to make our Scouts smart enough to be able to be of 'service' in times of need.

ALL INDIA SCOUT COMMISSIONERS' CONFERENCE AT NEW DELHI

Speech by Shri Y. B. Chavan, Defence Minister to Scout Commissioners at Delhi on 2—5—1963.

Pandit Kunzru and Friends,

When I received the invitation for dinner from Bharat Scouts and Guides I immediately accepted it for two reasons. One was to be able to meet Pandit Kunzru at Delhi whom I met at Bombay, but this is the first time I am meeting at Delhi and the other reason was to be able to meet all of you who have come from all corners of the country.

I am interested in the Scout Movement. All other organizations are also there in whom I am interested, such as N.C.C., A.C.C., National Discipline Scheme etc. but my association with Bharat Scouts and Guides is very natural. When I went to Hyderabad I met the workers and children the e and found a natural affection in them. As Defence Minister I am inte ested in all such problems concerning N.C C., A.C.C. etc. When we have disciplined citizens then we can have proper civil defence. Arms alone cannot provide civil defence.

I am sure your Movement will grow like all other movements. I must say that the Bharat Scouts and Guides movement has its own role. Naturally we have to depend on volunteers. It is the foremost essential of this Movement. It is this class of assorted volunteers as are a very great asset to the movement.

I am always with you to help you with all my advice and guidance and you have a leader like Dr. Kunzru who is there to give you all the advice and guidance.

Thanking you,

Suggestions to be implemented by the District Commissioners

The Conference feels that there is imperative need for improving the standards in units. The Conference also feels that the subjects that naturally come under this head have been threadbare discussed at previons conferences. There are no differences of opinion on the subjects to be dealt with. Everyone concerned must be eager to give effect to these as much as possible. The Conference is of the opinion that the Commissioners and Scouters should be requested once again to pay their whole-hearted attention to this. This should serve as a reminder to all concerned to do their best to give effect to the practical side of the suggestions. The Conference feels that unless units improve and unless the standards of the members improve or more of efficiency is attained, much purpose would not have been served by the spread of the movement and inclusion of boys under the Scheme. The Conference is confident that all our Commissioners and Scouters would rise equal to the demands made on them and would do their best to produce the best results.

The following are the observations :

1. The training of Scouters and choosing the proper type of personnel. Men imbibed with a spirit of service and an urge to take up such work. This must be a personal responsibility of sponsoring bodies and District Commissioners. The importance of this to be let known to sponsoring bodies and District Commissioners. All those adult leaders found wanting in character, qualities of leadership or attainment, either at training camp or elsewhere should not be allowed to be in charge of groups.

2. The Scouters should be persuaded to undergo further training at Special Training Camps or Refresher Courses once in three years.

3. The training must be on a no cost basis for Scoute concerned.

4. The groups should be asserted to have properl trained P.L.s' by training leaders in their groups separately o in joint camps in which the Scouters concerned also will hav some hand.

5. Arrangements should be made for proper and stead progress of boys in efficiency and proficiency. Stagnation an consequent frustration in boys should be avoided. His ques of adventure must be satisfied by proper planning an programme.

6. Provision is to be made for inter-troop contacts an for more camps and outings. Commissioners must visit camp

7. Standards at all levels should be maintained properl and there should be no dilution in standards. At the same tim there must be a proper appreciation of the efforts put in b individuals.

8. Contact with parents should be a regular feature i son's activities. They should be told of the boy's attainmen not only in Scouting, but in other activities also including h scholastic career, make enquiries about his ways of life an assess whether he leads a Scout's life. Enquiries about progre in studies and health of children are interesting to parent From a little co-operation in some way, the parents should drawn into-active participation in group work and soci services and camps. They will be prepared to share respons bilities. Parents' Committees may be formed.

9. Group Committees and Group Councils should formed. They should be functioning properly. The Gro Committees must have a proper cross section of society in t locality.

10. Patrol system is to be the working system. Patrol Councils should meet. The C. O. H. should be an active body responsible for all Group activities. Programmes should be drawn well in advance.

11. Co-operation of experts may be sought for instructional work in special subjects and acting as examiners.

12. Individual skills or taste of boys should be found out and encouraged to develop properly.

13. The groups should try to develop into complete Units.

14. The groups should undertake services useful to the public, to themselves and to their homes. Groups must undertake these as good turns. They should be in the public eye.

15. Commissioners must make it a point to visit groups, arrange for inter-troop visits and rallies, solve the problems in groups, if any, encourage the Scouts and Scouters for renewal of warrants. These visits must be made a Condition or deciding factor.

16. The boys' thirst for adventure to be satisfied by providing for Sea Scouting, Air Scouting, Craft Centres, Hobby-Centres, Mountaineering, Special Services, etc.

B. P. said FOUR things about Scoutmasters :

1 He should set the example for boys,

2 He must pass on his experience to them,

3 He must have sympathy with and knowledge of boys,

4 He should be able to make boys serve Society well.

17. Activisation and Efficiency of District Associations and District Commissioners ;

a) Commissioners at district level are the key men and they should be appointed not merely by their status but by their knowledge and interest in the Scout movement.

b) The initiative should be created at the District or Local Assoctation level and a detailed programme should be drawn up of activities annually at the beginning of the year. This should be introduced and the State organisations should watch that the districts continue the activity and the State organisations should make occasional inspections of the activities in the districts. Similarly the National organisation should make occasional inspection of the activities of the State.

c) It is also necessary to provide proper office for District or Local Associations and the areas for each such association should be made smaller and workable. Formation of local Associations should be encouraged and they should be allowed to function even where district associations are functioning.

d) Divisional and District rallies should be encouraged. The District Associations should also be adequately financed so that thcy can continue their work. The State Associations should help them to find adequate finances for th ir work. District Associations should also collect money at district level by having at least 50 subscribing members.

Camps-cum-Conferences of Commissioners should also be encouraged to be held occasionally to equip the Commissioners.

18. National Integration: In all units, Cub Pack, Scout Troop, Rover Crew - the Scouters concerned should take special care to put before boys the following points through various types of programmes:

1. India as a Nation.
2. National Culture-Unity in diversity.
3. National Traditions.
4. National Days.
5. National Events.
6. Various religions and tolerance.
7. Indian first, everything afterwards.
8. Hero Days.
9. Songs.
10. Campfire items.
11. Folk songs and folk dances from different states.
12. Inter-state visits.
13. Pen-pals.
14. Pantomines.
15. Plays and dramatization.
16. Visits to places of National Interest.
17. Study of different States by Patrols and Scout Groups.

In order to promote national integration, inter State visits by Commissioners with some specially selected Scouts may be encouraged. They will act as ambassadors of Good - Will between different States.

Recommendations of the Meeting of Group IV (General) held on 2-5-63 in the National Headquarters for which Sri P. Sivashankar, the S.C.C. Mysore State, was the Chairman.

1. It is learnt that U. P. has offered to hold the next National Jamboree in 1964. The rules have to be formulated clearly indicating the responsibilities of the National Headquarters and the State Headquarters as per Resolution No. 1 of the Third Conference. The National Headquarters is requested to take action in the matter very early.

2. It was resolved that a circular be sent from the National Headquarters requesting the States to hold State and District rallies with a view to give the required impetus to the movement in the respective areas.

3. The Union Ministry of Education be requested to send out uniform set of rules to all States granting free periods in the time table to Scouters and Guiders working in educational institutions.

4. Instances of foreign Scouts and Guides visiting India without proper credentials are on the increase. The National Headquarters is requested to issue uniform rules for the guidance of the State Headquarters to enable them to meet such situations.

5. With a view to promote national integration, inter State visits through planned tour-programmes (Bharat Darshan) be sponsered by the National Headquarters in co-operation with the States so that Scouts and Guides be thus encouraged to visit the beauty spots and important towns of their motherland.

6. The National Headquarters is requested to appoint a committee to visit the several States in India to assess the work turned out by the State Associations since the merger, and to report as to the lines on which future progress of the movement should be based.

7. Opportunities for our scouts to visit foreign countries should never be missed on account of bottlenecks like the lack of foreign exchange etc. Scouting as an international brotherhood would gradually loses its appeal if our young boys do not have chances to participate in international gatherings

8. The National Headquarters should be requested to bring out a new edition of the A.P.R.O. embodying the latest amendments to enable the States to conform to the latest rules.

9. In view of the national emergency the National Headquarters is requested to appoint a Headquarters Commissioner for National Service at the National Headquarters who will coordinate the activities of the centre and the States and other kindred organisations.

Is Scouting Up-to-date?

By

Ram Swaroop Dhiman, State Org. Comnr. (S), Rajasthan

The theme suggested for this important subject is "The basic characteristic of the Scout programme emerged 40 or 50 years ago. Without radically changing the nature of the Movement, what new methods have been treated and proved successful? What new impact we can make on the boy to refresh the appeal of Scouting, give added interest and to prepare youth for the realities of the world that will confront them? How can we do this without compromising our aims or lowering our standards? How do we achieve this objective?".

I presume that practically all Commissioners present here have given careful thought to it and have come to some conclusions and we shall be able to obtain their considered views. My opinion in regard to this question, however, is that basically Scouting is up-to-date. The scheme put forth by the Founder covers all that is needed to as it was 50 years ago.

But before I go on to prove that Scouting is up-to-date we must consider, 1) the purpose for which the movement was started; 2) the needs of the boy; 3) the methods which the Founder suggested for achieving that purpose; and (4) whether it prepares youth for the changing needs of the society. And along with it we should be prepared to accept the following facts:—

1) Scouting is basically an educational programme. It is not a programme for making boys into soldiers for fighting an enemy, nor is it a social service organisation, although a Scout as a loyal citizen will be ready to give his life for the country, learning crafts and methods which will help him to render effective service to country and citizens when an opportunity offers itself.

2) It is not a mass movement where every child is expected to act alike and think alike. This means that it is not a movement by which regimentation of the minds of the youth can be achieved. It is in spirit and in action a purely democratic method of educating the individual boy in true citizenship by giving him freedom of learning and freedom of developing his body, mind and spirit by presenting opportunities for this in so many ways in a Scout group. Our aim is individual training and helping him to educate himself. We cannot forget the fact that the four pillars on which the edifice of Scouting rests are the Promise and the Law; the Patrol System; self-education and self-discipline, all these providing the fundamentals of educational methods for the development of the individual.

Now taking each of the above mentioned aspects separately I have to submit as below :

1. Purpose : Scouting was started with a purpose and that purpose was training of the boy in good citizenship. It has been described as "A training in citizenship through woodcraft".

This purpose continues to be the greatest need of the community to-day as it was fifty years ago. Scouting has contributed tremendously for the fulfilment of this purpose during all these years.

Scouting was started to supplement the education which a boy received in school, house or through religious pandits. Even with all that was taken way from Scouting by some persons to evolve their own psogramme for the service of the youth, not one educationist in the country has said that Scouting was no more needed. The method and the spirit inculcated in the boy through this is unique and cannot be copied in parts. It is a whole programme, covering alround development of the boy.

2. Boy needs: The needs of the boy have also not changed. Fun, fighting and feeding - the three indispensable elements of the boy world continue to be their basic needs even to-day. Rather the middle one i.e. " fighting " has developed considerably to take the form of indiscipline causing headache to the society. The qualities of humour, courage, confidence, sharpness, love of excitement, responsiveness and loyalty described by the Founder in that most useful book, "Aids to Scoutmastership" still need to be developed to mould the boy into the right type of citizen ; because still the ingrediants of a good citizen continue to be character ; health and strength, handicraft and skill and service to the community.

Our object is to turn a boy into a man who will be able te stand on his own feet, be independent of charitable or state assistance and be able in his turn to help others.

Therefore, from this point of view Scouting is up-to-date.

3. The Methods : The methods which the founder suggested for achieving the purpose of the Movement have been described by him in the words, " School of training in Citizenship " through wood-craft ". By the term " Scouting " is meant the work and attributes of back-woodsman, explorers hunters, seamen, airmen, pioneers and frontiersmen. It is the good qualities of these ancestors of ours that we wish to develop in the boys to improve their efficiency as future citizens of the country. The chief methods we employ are camping, wood-craft, nature study, handicrafts, games and high ideals ; the emphasis being on out-of-doors as benefitting both health and character. These methods are as sound today as they were fifty years ago.

The underlying feature of the Scout Movement, however, is its spirit and the key that un-locks this spirit is the romance of wood-craft and Nature lore. The call of the wild and open road appeals to the boy even today inspite of all the attractions of the materialistic times.

Scouting basically is an activity. It is Scientific. The important method and the famous educational principle "Learning by Doing" is its main method. As stated above the practice of Promise and Law, the Patrol system self-education and self-disclpline are the chief ways to achieve the objective.

The methods are sound, applauded by the educationalists of the world as up-to-date as anything can be. The following quotations from eminent educationists are sufficient to prove this:

Dean Russel of Columbia University wrote many years ago:

"I declare the Boy Scouts Movement to be the most significant educational contribution of our times. The naturalist may praise it for its success in putting the boy close to nature's heart; the moralist, for its splendid code of ethics. The Hygienist for its methods of physical training; the parent for its ability to keep the boy out of mischief; but from the standpoint of the educator it has marvellous potency for converting the restless, irresponsible, self-controlled boy into the straightforward, dependable, helpful young citizen. To the boy who will give himself to it, there is plenty of work that looks like play, standards of excellence which he can appreciate, rules of conduct which he must obey, position of responsibility which he may occupy as soon as he qualified himself; in a word a programme that appeals to a boy's instincts, and a method adopted to a boy's nature."

Bryant Reed in his book "Eighty thousand adolescents", writes:—

"No one could offer the kind of training of which we are thinking more competently than could the Scouts and Guides. During the second World war the Chief Scout was invited by the War Office to run a school for young potential officers and to see what could be done with ten weeks of concentrated Scouting, as the quality of leadership in these young men did not seem to be developing under normal military training. The invitation was accepted and at the Cairngorams in the summer and at West Ross during the winter trainees were first shown how to do things and then involved in positions from which they could escape without grave discomfort to themselves only by putting into practice the lessons they had learnt. At the end of the course the President of the War Office Selection Board said: "You may have produced 75 per cent of officers, but even more important it is that you have produced 95 per cent of men."

4. Needs of the Society: The Movement. with its well considered syllabus of training prepares boys for the changing needs of the society. The boy who is trained on Scout methods has responded to the needs of the Society. This has been as proved well during the present emergency in the country. The spirit of loyalty to the country inculcated by the practice of the Scout Promise and Law enthused the Scouts and Guides of India to offer their services during the emergency. They offered themselves to receive training needed of Civil Defence. They contributed money, not by begging it from their parents but by earning it through their own efforts. This is a sound proof of the fact that the Scout training has been effeetive and boys are prepared for the changing needs of the Society. This is due to the fact that the training programme covers all aspects of the needs of the society.

With all this, a little frustration exists in the minds of the workers. They become pessimistic occasionally. What is the reason for this?

May be, we some times get affected by inferwrity complex or we are discouraged by our weaknesses which we observe in our working. This is for the individual Commissioner to think. But one main reason as it appears to me, is that the progress of our Movement is wrongly judged in comparision to other youth Movements which have the whole Government support financial and otherwise at their back. This is probably due to the fact that so far we have depended more or less entirely on the support of the Education Departments. The sound of the beating of drums in the parades of boys, the glamour of the uniform paid for by the Government and attraction of allowances to the workers, and other amenities and attractions offered to the youth and the leaders in these Movements have attracted the attention of those in power and the spectators and they have been lead to believe that the salvation of the country lies in these other movements alone and accordingly more patronage and support has gone to them This has also attracted both teachers and students of a poor country as ours. The principles on which the Scout Movement stands and its voluntary nature has caused us lot of difficulty, but this should not discourage or deter us from continuing to serve the youth in our own ways.

The test whether one youth Movement is better than the other lies not only in extending all facilities to one at the sacrifice of the others but the just way is that of extending equal facilities, financial or otherwise and equal opportunities to all movements that are recognised useful and then to judge the progress from the point of view of appeal to the boys.

Another point which I would like to make is that the success of a movement like ours depends and will continue to depend on the inspiration which a Commissioner is able to give to his Scouter and a Scouter is able to give to his Scout. We know that such leadership is becoming difficult every day and that our resources are inadequate. On the other hand we want to expand the movement and make it available for a very large number of children. The aim is certainly praiseworthy. But these two things cannot go together. We have to expand proportionately to the number of good leaders which we are able to muster. Scouting cannot be made a mass movement. It will continue to be a movement for specialised training progressing according to the resources available in man power and material. This has to be treated in the same way as Public Schools in the Country; serving not a vast majority of students, but giving them something more, something better for producing better leaders in the country. The movement we will start accepting less educated persons for the leadership of the boys in our movement we will be ringing our death bell, because without understanding the principles and methods and without having that wide and un-selfish outlook how can a scouter give proper leadership to the boys? We have already suffered due to this. Do we want to suffer more?

However, we should go out of our way to develop and strengthen the right type of leaderthip in the movement. This will only be achieved through personal efforts of Commissioners and by encouragement to the Scouter by those in power or by the sponsoring authority.

In Rajasthan we have several times considered the question whether any change was needed in the syllabus of training. We have been inviting suggestions from the Conferences of Scouters and Patrol Leaders also. We have been led to believe that no radical change was called for. Even those who have been shouting at the top of their voices that change was needed, have not come out with any concrete and constructive suggestions. As a result of these experiments we have taken some action which has helped to improve the efficiency of the groups.

The real problem, however, is not that the movement is not up-to-date, but the problem is that our resources, both financial and otherwise are so meagre and average group is in such a great difficulty that they are not able to carry on even the minimum programme expected from them. The minimum activities even are not organised.

We, on whom rests the leadership of the movement have not paid attention to this prob'em. We have during all these years given thought to other things which should have been treated as secondary as compared to the efficiency of the groups and the training of the boys. We have failed to improve resources of the groups and Local Associations and we have failed to enthuse the Scouter to take up work enthusiastically, because we have not appreciated his problem.

If we are not up-to-date, it is not in matters of training methods, but it is in resources. We should appreciate that the Scouter of today cannot find such time to give to his Scout work. We should, therefore help him by arranging some training activities on Local Association level so that Scouts get an opportunity for participation. We should train their Patorl Leaders, so that their burden is lessened. We should help the Local Associations financially in order to enable them to organise activities. We should employ more whole-time staff to enable to help the Scouter by guidance, by persuation and follow up. For all these things better resources should be made available and if this Conference can make some suggestions in this direction it will be helpful to the States.

Now coming to the question "What new impact we can make on the boy to refresh the appeal of Scouting, give added interest and prepare youth for the realities of the world that will confront them". I wish to submit that even at present their is no derth of boys willing to take scouting. They will be attracted towards Scouting in larger numbers if they will find that this training will help in setting them in life and a clear and evident benefit will accrue if they are so qualified.

For this I give a few suggestions below:

(1) Efforts should be made by the National Headquarters to obtain recognition for the Ist Class and Presidents Scouts and for the Rover Scouts holding Ramblers Padge and Rover progress Badge in Government appointments and also by making an appeal to the business magnates in the country who desire to have young men with leadership qualities and sound character for work in their concerns, to give employment to boys with these qualifications.

(2) Similarly if jobs are created in the Civil Defence Department which the Government propose to set up, Boys and Rover Scouts with qualifications of 1st Class Badge or President Scouts Badge should be given preference just as NCC cadets having passed A. B. or C certificates are given preference for admission into the army services.

(3) More facilities, specially financial assistance should be given for developing Camping and out-door activities among Scouts. The tragedy at present is that even two week end camps and one Annual Troop Camp is not held by tro ps. More than 90% troops do not hold their annul camp and 70% held no camp or hike at all for years. This will be achieved if the Scouters take more interest and being better qualified are able to give more adventurous activities to them. To achieve this the following facilities should be given :

a) Making available Himalaya Wood Badge training at no expense to them.

b) Provision to meet their expenditare when they take boys to camps or hikes.

c) In the case of teachers, Scouters their department should treat the Himalaya Wood Badge training as a special qualification counting for promotions etc.

(4) The Programme of Scouts now should stress on smartness more. We should introduce archery as a useful activity as an alternative to rifile training because this inculcates the same qualities of precision, enthusiasm, bearing etc. This is already provided in the badge scheme. Other items which will make Scouts more useful in emergency should also receive emphasis.

(5) Funds should be made available for establishing a Hobby centre at each Local Association Headquarters, where Scouts should be treated in handicrafts which may open a career for them.

(6) At the Local Association Headquarters vocational guidance service should be established to help Scouts to choose careers for themselves and they should be helped to get entry into it.

Scouting is up-to-date. Those who feel that it is not, should let us know where a mistake in our thinking lies and they should put up concrete and constructive suggestions.

However, to attract the attention of the citizens of the country towards the problem which the Movement has to face in its working, I repeat the suggestion which I made about three years ago, that the National Headquarters should organise a seminar and invite eminent educationists, industrialists, social workers and representatives of the Government to let us know whether the country needs Scouting or not and how they can help in running it on a voluntary basis.

XI WORLD JAMBOREE

Some 600 Scouters from the countries other than Greece, in co-operation with another 600 Greek Scouters, will attend to the operational details of the Jamboree. There will be twelve sub camps, each accommodating 1200 scouts. Ten of the sub camps are named after the ten tribes of Athens who fought at Marathon in 490 B.C. Out of the remaining two, one is called platoeo, after the city allied to Athens, at that time and the twelfth will be called Hermton and will house the service crew. The Jamboree will be officially opened, in the presence of Crown Prince Constantine, by the Archbishop of Athenes, on August 18th 1963.

TREATMENT FOR THE CARDIAC ARREST

"Closed Chest Heart Massage"

This new and simplr tecqnnic otherwise called the "Rhythmical Mannual Compression of the Heart" was developed by an Electrical Engineer of the John Hopkins University School of Medicine. This can be applied in case of emergency when we cannot rush in the necessary equipment required.

The Method follows as under :

1. Check for the pulse-the easiest place to detect is not in the wrist but in the throat, on either side of the wind pipe near the collar bone. If no pulse is apparent, start working the chest massage at once. Dont' waste seconds going for equipment or help, for the great peril of any sort of breathing arrest is anoxia-lack of a sufficient supply of oxygen carried in the blood to feed the brain. The brain is the most sensitive tissue of the body, and the result of oxygen starvation becomes irriversible within a few minutes, usually about 3 after Respiration or Circulation is cut off. Hence, a victim, who survives belated treatment faces the posibility of extensive brain damage.

2. Lay the patient, face up, on a solid support such as, floor or pavement. A bed or couch is too flexible.

3. Tilt the head back until the chin is practically pointing at the ceiling. If the head sags forward, the patient may be asphyxiated while you work.

4. Kneel, so that you can use your weight in applying pressure. Place the heel of your right hand on the breast bone with fingers spread and raised, so that pressure is only on the breast bone not on the ribs.

5. Place your left hand on top of the right and press vertically downward, firmly enough to depress the breast bone 1" to 1½". (with a child, use only one hand and relatively light prescure). The chest of an adult, resistants when he is conscious will be surprisingly flexible when he is unconscious.

6. Release the pressure immediately, lifting the hands slightly, then repeat in a cadence of 60 to 80 thrusts per minute, approximately the normal heart action.

7. The Patien: should be taken to the hospital as soon as possible. Even, if apperently the heart beat and respiration have resumed, professional care will be needed. Continue the closed chest massage until you get professional medical aid, or fight into the emergency Room of the hospital. Continue, too, if possible, the mouth to mouth breathing, until some one arrives with a tank of oxygen to take over. If you are one on your own and the victim shows no response, continue the Massage until Rigor Morts Sets in.

It is advisible, that a copy of this is exhibited in club-rooms Swimming pools, First Aid (entres, etc.

GILWELL DEVELOPMENT FUND

No, this is not a further appeal!

I thought that as a subscriber to the Fund you would like to know the results and a little about what we have been able to achieve because of your help.

You will recall that originally I set out to raise £ 25,000 but it became apparent that we should need rather more than this and, happily, the initial response merited an increase in the target, so I aimed at £35,000. At the time of writing we are less than £ 500 short of that figure.

I was tremendously helped in the early days by immediate substantial donations and also by interest free loans which enabled me to place contracts so that the urgent work could be put in hand. Consequently we were able to complete the annexe to the main building by the end of last year and we moved into occupation at the beginning of January this year.

The work of modernising and improving the kitchen has proved extremely complex. We knew it would not be easy but we had not bargained for such a long spell of difficult building weather. However, owing to the co-operation of the men employed by the contractors, to say nothing of our own domestic staff, work never ceased and by mid-April we shall have an adequate modern kitchen of which I think we shall be justly proud.

The Woodland Training Ground on the Gilwellbury site came into operation as early as July last year and this was equipped with a good wooden meeting hall, four shelters of our own construction, and a permanent sanitary block. The whole site has proved to be very attractive and as the years go by and the hundreds of trees planted round the perimeter grow, it will be very beautiful.

Our final effort was to take down a very old army hut of First World War origin or even earlier and this month there has been erected in its place a Bunk House, size 70 by 25 feet. This will be used in the summer as an additional wet weather meeting room and in the winter to accommodate, in a reasonable degree of comfort candidates on training courses.

All this means that within one year we have raised the money and completed the projects. I think there is going to be a small surplus and we shall be able to carry out one or two additional minor improvements to the property.

Well, there it is. I shall keep the fund open for a little longer because donations are still coming in particularly from abroad, and I hope I shall have the satisfaction of reaching £ 35,000.

Finally, I do want to thank you once again for your support and encouragement.

I do sincerely hope that you will come to Gilwell and see what we have been able to do. For our part we are determined to put to good use for the benefit of World Scouting the support you have shared in giving.

Yours sincerely,

THE DELHI CONFERENCE

Sri P. Siva Shankar, S.C.C., Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram, M.C. S.C. (S)., and Sri D. S. Siddaiah, S. O. C. (S)., attended the Scout Commissioners' Conference on behalf of Mysore State, at New Delhi, in the first week of May, 1963.

Registration of Units

The District Commissioners and Secretaries of District Associations are requested to see that all the units in their respective areas are registered at the State Headquarters as early as possible.

Every unit whieh has to register for the first time will havc to pay Rs. 2/- as Registration fee. Out of this amount the local association (if any) will keep Re. 1/-, the District Association will keep Re. 0-50 nP., and the balance of Re. 0-50 nP. will be sent to the Headquarters. Thereafter annually each Unit has to pay Re. 1/- as registration fee. Out of this, the Local Association will keep Re. 0-50 nP. the Dist. Association will keep Re. 0.25 and the balance of Re. 0-25 nP. will be sent to the State Headquarters. The District Commissioners (S & G) will see that all the remittances together with Registration Forms are sent to the State Headquarters for effecting registration-

The Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore, has been pleased to order in his Memo PEI. 402-149/58–59 dated 21-6-58 for the payment of registration fees from out of the 25% of the Annual Sports and Reading Room funds allotted for Scouting subject to the condition that the total expenditure in a year on Scouting does not exceed the ceiling limit fixed.

Scouters and Guiders will kindly take advantage of this order and see that their units are registered forthwith with the State Headquarters.

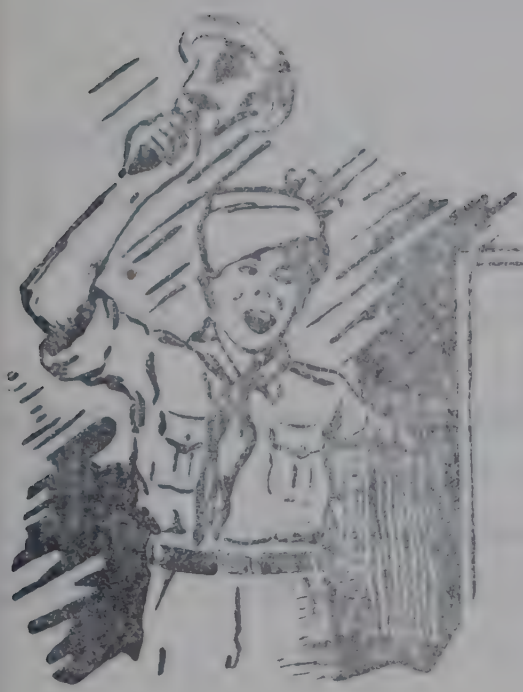
State Secretary.



NEWS FROM THE DISTRICTS.

BANGALORE NORTH

The 21st Bangalore (Sri Chamundi Scout) Group spent five happy nights under canvass at the Kanva Reservoir from the 21st to 26th May, 1963. 25 members were in camp. The Scouts practised pioneering, estimation, cooking, signalling, observation etc., while the Cubs were at Wild games, Jungle Dances, star tests and treasure Hunt. The neighbouring villages of Kanva, Abbur and Dasavara were visited during the course. They enjoyed a glorious Camp-fire on 20th night. Bros. A. Suresh and B. N. Gopinath were adjudged as the best of the campers.

A Camp for 50 Jawan's Children mostly Scouts drawn from the Munireddy Palya N.T.M.S., New Sawar Line and Shanthi Vidya Mandira, Rajaji Nagar, was held at the Y. M. C. A.

Holiday Camp, near Kumbalgod, April-May 63. Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, A. S. O. C. (S)., Bangalore Division, visited the camp and engaged the campers in Scout activities on the 30th April and 1st May.

Four ROVER SCOUTS of the XV Bangalore (Kanteerava) Scout Group, Bros. N. Sathisha Rao; A. N. Vittal and E. Shama Rao with Bro. E. Dayashankar Rao leading, were on a CYCLE RAMBLE from the 23rd May to 2nd June 1963.

They visited Nelamangala, Tumkur, Koratagere, Madhugiri, Sira, Hiriyur, Chitradurga, Davanagere, Channagiri, Bhadravathi, Shimoga, Gajanur, Lakkavalli, Tarikere, Birur, Kadur, Arasikere, Tiptur, Gubbi, Kunigal, Magadi, and Thippagondanahalli.

KOLAR SOUTH

The Annual Meeting of the Generalbody of the Kolar South D. A. was held on Saturday the 25th May, 63, at the D.A. Hall, Robertsonpet, with Sri. J.P. David, President, in the chair.

Vth K. G. F. (St. Mary's) Rovers

Seven Rovers enjoyed a trip to Krishnagiri on the 6th and 7th April 63, journeying by rail, bus, cycle and foot. They stayed at the R.C. School with the kind help of Fr. Kulandswamy and visited the Krishnagiri Dam in moonlight by the help of Bro. Paulrajan, a Gramsevak Trainee there. On Sunday (7th) they attended church service and climbed the steep hill where they explored a cave. Cooking their food and covering a total distance of over 140miles they did it cheap, their expenses, all told, not exceeding Rs. 7/- each.

On 23rd April evening the crew celebrated the St. George Day with Sri V. N. M. Felix, D.C. (S), in the chair.

KOLAR NORTH

The A.S.O.C. (S)., Bangalore Division, visited Kolar on the 2nd and 3rd May, 63 in connection with the arrangements to be made for the Preliminary S.Ms' Camp for the benefit of the teachers from the Primary and Middle Schools of the district.

This Camp will be held at VIDURASWATHA, 4 miles from Gauribidnur, from the 9th to 20th June, 1963.

The Executive Committee of this D. A. met with Sri S. Nanjundaiah, Deputy Commissioner, presiding on 30-4-63 and the General Body will meet on 16-6-63.

IT'S ALL IN THE GAME OF SCOUTING!

In the recent summer camps for Scouters held at our Central Training Camp, it suddenly rained one day, presumably to test the Scouters and their Scout Spirit. By then, one Patrol had cooked and eaten the food, another devised over-heads helter with lantern hanging and worked at the kitchen; yet another Patrol Leader came to the Scouter-in-charge with an S.O.S.

On another occasion, when the cooked food was kept securely inside the ration box, a clever dog tilted the lid, got access into the box and empltied the contents, but the neighbouring patrol sympathised and shared it food with the other patrol.

ANY ONE CAN CAMP IN FINE WEATHER BUT IT TAKES A SCOUT TO CAMP IN WET WEATHER

Over 150 Scouts and Scouters of Southern Railway Bharat Scouts and Guides were at their annual camp at our C. T. C. in April with over twenty tents spread nicely. One day it rained unexpectedly. But severe wind, followed. The boys were seen delightfully enjoying the weather and loved to live in tents comfortably. A memorable experience for the young ones indeed.

The band of Scouters and Rovers who helped the boys by looking after the commissiariat deparment have really rendered good service by leaving more time for the Scouts to learn Scouting skills.

ಭಾರತದಂತೆ ಕಾಂಗೋ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಹ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್ ಶಾಖೆಗಳು ಒಂದೇ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯಲ್ಲಿರುವುದನ್ನೂ ನಾವು ಗಮನಿಸಬಹುದು.

ಪೋರ್ಚುಗಲ್ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗ್ ಆರಂಭವಾಗಿ 40 ವರ್ಷಗಳಾಯಿತು. ಮೊಟ್ಟಮೊದಲನೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ದಳ ನಿರ್ಮಿಸಿದವಾದ ಒಜ್ರ ಎಂಬ ಉತ್ತರ ಭಾಗದ ನಗರದ ಬಳಿಯಿರುವ ಫ್ರಯಾವೊ ಎಂಬ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಕೇಂದ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ 63ನೇ ಮೇ ತಿಂಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ವರ್ಧಂತಿಯನ್ನು ವೈಭವದಿಂದ ಆಚರಿಸಿದರು. 62ನೆ ಆಗಸ್ಟ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರದಲ್ಲಿ ಮೊಟ್ಟಮೊದಲನೆಯ ವುಡ್‌ಬ್ಯಾಡ್ಜ್ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣವನ್ನು ಸ್ಪೇನಿನ ೫ ಮಂದಿ ಸೇರಿ 32 ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳು ಪಡೆದರು.

ಅಮೆರಿಕಾದ ಸಂಯುಕ್ತ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಧಾನ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಯಾಗಿದ್ದ ಡಾ॥ ಆರ್ಥರ್ ಎ ಷುಕ್ ಅವರು ಫೆ. 24ರಂದು ಕ್ಯಾಲಿಫೋರ್ನಿಯದ ಸಾಂತ ಬಾರ್ಬರ ಎಂಬೆಡೆ ಸ್ವಗೃಹದಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಧನರಾದರು. 1913ರಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸ್ವಯಂ ಸೇವಕರಾಗಿ ಸೇರಿದ ಇವರು ನಾಲ್ಕು ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಬಳಿಕ ಅಧಿಕಾರ ಪೀಠವನ್ನೇರಿದರು. ಅಮೆರಿಕಾವು 1950 ರಲ್ಲಿ 'ಬೆಳ್ಳಿಯ ಕೋಣ'ವನ್ನೂ ವಿಶ್ವ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯು 1960 ರಲ್ಲಿ 'ಕಂಚಿನ ತೋಳ'ವನ್ನೂ ನಾನಾ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರಗಳು ಇನ್ನೂ ಅನೇಕ ಅತ್ಯುನ್ನತ ಸನ್ಮಾನಗಳನ್ನೂ ಇವರಿಗೆ ನೀಡಿವೆ. ಇವರ ಶ್ರದ್ಧೆ ನಿಷ್ಠೆಗಳು ಎಲ್ಲ ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳಿಗೂ ಆದರ್ಶವಾಗಿವೆ.

ಹಿಂಗು ಒಗ್ಗು

ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗ್ ತತ್ವಗಳನ್ನು ಅರಿತು ಒಮ್ಮುಖವಾಗಿ ಸಾಗುತ್ತ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ವಿಧಾನಗಳನ್ನು ಪರಿಶುದ್ಧವಾಗಿರುವಂತೆ ರಕ್ಷಿಸಿ, ವಿಶ್ವದಲ್ಲೆಲ್ಲಾ ಇದರ ಧ್ಯೇಯಧೋರಣೆಗಳು ಶ್ರೇಷ್ಠವಾಗಿರುವಂತೆ ನೋಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳುವುದು ಬಾಯ್‌ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ವಿಶ್ವಸಮ್ಮೇಳನದ ಒಂದು ಮುಖ್ಯೋದ್ದೇಶ. ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂವಿಧಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಇದು ಅಡಕವಾಗಿದೆ. ಆದರೆ ಇದರಿಂದಾಗಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳು ಮತ್ತು ಚಟುವಟಿಕೆಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಬೇಕಾದ ರೀತಿ ವೈವಿಧ್ಯತೆಗೆ ಹಾದಿಯಿಡೆಯೆಂಬುದನ್ನು ನಾವು ಮರೆಯಬಾರದು. ಬೇಡೆನ್‌ಪೋವೆಲ್ಲರು ತಮ್ಮ ವಿಶ್ವಪರ್ಯಟಣದಲ್ಲೆಲ್ಲಾ ಇದನ್ನೇ ಬಗೆಬಗೆಯಾಗಿ ವಿವರಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು. ಎಂದರೆ, ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗ್ ಮೂಲತತ್ವಗಳನ್ನು ಉಳಿಸಿಕೊಂಡು ಆಯಾ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರಗಳ ಅವಶ್ಯಕತೆಗಳಿಗೂ ಧೋರಣೆಗಳಿಗೂ ತಕ್ಕಂತೆ ಹೊಂದಿಕೊಂಡೇ ಮುಂದುವರಿಯಬೇಕು ಎಂಬುದು ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟವಾಗಿದೆ. ಇದರಿಂದ ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗ್ ತನ್ನ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ಷೇತ್ರಗಳ ಸ್ಥಿತಿಗತಿಗಳನ್ನೂ ಪ್ರತಿಬಿಂಬಿಸಿದಂತೆ ಆಗಬೇಕು—ಎಂಬುದಾಗಿ ವಿಶ್ವಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯ ಡೈರೆಕ್ಟರ್ ಶ್ರೀ ಡಿ. ಸಿ. ಸ್ಪ್ರೈ ಅವರು ಏಪ್ರಿಲ್ ಪ್ರಕಟಣೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ತಿಳಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

1963ರ ಮೇ ಮೊದಲನೆಯವಾರ ದೆಹಲಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಕಮೀಷನರು ಮತ್ತು ಕಾರ್ಯದರ್ಶಿಗಳ ಸಮ್ಮೇಳನವೊಂದು ನಡೆಯಿತು. ಆವರು ಮಾಡಿರುವ ಶಿಫಾರಸುಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಕೆಲವನ್ನು ಈ ಮುಂದೆ ಕಾಣಿಸಿದೆ.

ಸೇವಾ ಕಾಂಕ್ಷೆಯಿಂದ ಮುಂದೆ ಬರುವವರನ್ನು ಮಾತ್ರ ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳನ್ನಾಗಿ ತೆಗೆದುಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು. ನಡತೆ, ಯೋಗ್ಯತೆ, ದಕ್ಷತೆಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಅನರ್ಹರಾದವರ ವಶಕ್ಕೆ ದಳಗಳನ್ನು ಬಿಡಕೂಡದು.

3 ವರ್ಷಕ್ಕೊಮ್ಮೆಯಾದರೂ ಆವೃತ್ತಿ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ಪಡೆಯಲು ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳನ್ನು ಪ್ರೋತ್ಸಾಹಿಸಬೇಕು. ಶಿಕ್ಷಣವು ಸ್ಕೌಟರಿಗೆ ಹೊರೆಯಾಗಬಾರದು.

ಪೆಟ್ರೋಲ್ ಲೀಡರುಗಳನ್ನು ಒದಗಿಸಬೇಕು. ಅವರವರ ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳೂ ಇರುವ ಶಿಬಿರಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಪೆಟ್ರೋಲ್ ಲೀಡರುಗಳಿಗೆ ಶಿಕ್ಷಣ ನೀಡುವುದು ಉತ್ತಮ. ಹುಡುಗರ ದಕ್ಷತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಪ್ರಗತಿ ಮತ್ತು ಆಸಕ್ತಿಗಳು ಮುಂದುವರೆಯುತ್ತಲೇ ಇರುವಂತೆ ನೋಡಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು.

ಬಾಲಕರಿಗಾಗಿ, ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಶಿಬಿರಗಳು, ಬೇರೆ ಬೇರೆ ದಳದ ಬಾಲಕರು ಒಂದೆಡೆ ಕೂಡುವಂತಹ ಶಿಬಿರಗಳು ಇವನ್ನು ಏರ್ಪಡಿಸಿ ಕಮೀಷನರುಗಳೂ ಇವಕ್ಕೆ ಭೇಟಿ ಕೊಡಬೇಕು. ಪೋಷಕರನ್ನು ಹೆಚ್ಚಾಗಿ ಸಂಧಿಸಿ ಆಕರ್ಷಿಸಬೇಕು.

ಸಮಾಜದ ವಿವಿಧ ವ್ಯಕ್ತಿಗಳನ್ನುಳ್ಳ ಗ್ರೂಪ್ ಕಮಿಟಿಗಳು ಇದ್ದು ಲವಲವಿಕೆಯಿಂದ ಅವು ಕೆಲಸಮಾಡಬೇಕು.

ಪೆಟ್ರೋಲ್ ವಿಧಾನ, ಕೋರ್ಟ್ ಆಫ್ ಅನರ್, ಮುಂದಾಗಿ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮಗಳ ರೂಪಣೆ, ಇವು ಸ್ಕೌಟಿಂಗಿನ ಜೀವಾಳ.

ಮಹಾಜನರಿಗೆ ಸಹಾಯವಾಗುವಂತೆ ಮತ್ತು ಅರಿವಾಗುವಂತೆ ಸ್ಕೌಟರುಗಳು ಸೇವೆಗಳನ್ನು ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಬೇಕು.

ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ಮಾಸ್ಟರಿನ ನಾಲ್ಕು ಅಂಶಗಳನ್ನು ಬೇಡೆ ಪೋವೆಲ್ಲರು ಹೇಳಿರುವ ರೀತಿಯೆಂದರೆ, ಸ್ಕೌಟ್‌ಮಾಸ್ಟರು 1. ಹುಡುಗರಿಗೆ ಆದರ್ಶವಾಗಿರಬೇಕು; 2. ತನ್ನ ಅನುಭವವನ್ನು ಅವರಿಗೆ ನೀಡಬೇಕು; 3. ಹುಡುಗರನ್ನು ಅರ್ಥಮಾಡಿಕೊಂಡು ಅವರಲ್ಲಿ ಸಹಾನುಭೂತಿಯಿಟ್ಟಿರಬೇಕು; ಮತ್ತು 4. ಸಮಾಜಕ್ಕೆ ಬಾಲಕರು ಉತ್ತಮ ಸೇವೆ ನೀಡುವಂತೆ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು.

ಸ್ಥಳೀಯ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗಳ ವಿಸ್ತಾರವು ಮಿತವಾಗಿರಬೇಕು. ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಅಥವಾ ಸ್ಥಳೀಯ ರ್ಯಾಲಿಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸಬೇಕು. ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ಐಕ್ಯತೆಯನ್ನು ಸಾಧಿಸುವ ನಾನಾ ಬಗೆಯ ಚಟುವಟಿಕೆಗಳನ್ನು ಕಾರ್ಯಗತ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು. ಬಾಲಕರು ಬೇರೆ ಬೇರೆ ರಾಜ್ಯಗಳಿಗೆ ಹೋಗಿಬಂದು ಅಲ್ಲಿನವರೊಂದಿಗೆ ಕಲೆತು ಅನುಭವಪಡೆದು ಬರಬೇಕು.

The Shankaranarayana Rao Swimming Pool

Dear Friend,

The Central Training Camp near Dodballapur, is a hub of activities in training adult leaders. In addition, it provides ample facilities for camping to Scouts and Guides thus enabling them to become useful citizens and trusted leaders of our motherland. 36 Training camps were conducted throughout the State during the year, most of them being held at the Central Training Camp. I need not say that camping-out in open air with a number of Scout and Guide activities will definitely toughen the individual develop the spirit of adventure, widen out look and bring in emotional integration.

Training in Swimming and Life-Saving form an integral part of Scout and Guide craft. Therefore the State Executive Committe, at its meeting held on 19-5-1963 has decided to put up a Swimming Pool at the Central Training Camp of the dimension 50' x 20' at a cost of Rs. 16,000/-. to be called as "THE SHANKARANARAYANA RAO SWIMMING POOL" in honour of the first Chief Commissioner of this State.

I am happy to mention here that a sum of Rs. 6,000/- has been set apart out of the State Chief Commissioner's Fund for this purpuse and we still require Rs. 11,000/-. On behalf of the State Association I appeal to every member of the Movement and its well-wishers to donate liberally to cover the cost of the Swimming Pool. The work of the Swimming Pool is already in progress under expert advice and it is our ardent desire to open the Swimming Pool for the use of the visiting Boy Scouts and Girl Guides by the end of September 1963.

It may not be out of place for me to mention that The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, has rendered yeoman service in training a large number of boys and girls to become useful, self-reliant and selfless citizens. The State Association looks forward to pursue their useful activities with greater vigou with the kind co-operation of the public.

All donations may kindly be sent to the State Secretary, The Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, Bangalore-2.

The Lookout

As Chairman of the Editorial Board of the Mysore Scout and Guide Magazine I wish to express the regret of the Board for not being able to bring off the April 1963 issue and for not being able to bring this issue off earlier this month. The reasons are genuine and I request the subscribers to excuse the Board this time.

Since the last issue in March this year quite a lot has been done by the Bharat Scouts & Guides, Mysore State. From the Training aspect three Himalaya Wood Badge Courses have been conducted, one in each of the three sections of Scouting, viz Cub, Scout and Rover. This is definitely due to the keen interest evinced by the Organising Staff attached to the State Headquarters, i-e. the A.S.O.Cs. (S) and their good leader the S. O. C. (S).

In the last official year, 1962-1963, thirtysix training Courses for adult leaders have been conducted and this means nearly one thousand adult leaders have been trained. Quite a lot of money has been spent on this and most of the members of the Training Team in the State have done their best to spare time and energy. The State Headquarters will be pleased if reasonable benefits result from these efforts.

I wish all the Trainees God's help for determination, missionary zeal and fruitful results.

V. K. Sundaram,
State Commissioner (Scouts.)

EDITORIAL

With this issue of 'The Mysore Scout and Guide' we commence the 46th volume. We on the part of the Editorial Board have been endeavouring our best to make the magazine interesting and attractive. We are also glad to be able to report of increased number of subscribers which all the more emboldens us to go ahead to make the magazine bigger and brighter. Never the less, the support of our readers by way of interesting articles on Scouting and Guiding and other allied subjects together with photos of Scout activities (clear ones which can yield good reproduction for making blocks), sketches and articles are welcome.

Central Training Camp : Our camping centre has been humming with activities. Camps of varied nature have been held. More camps are to follow. Once again it should be stated that every Scout unit in our State should endeavour to have at least one camp at our C. T. C. as plenty of materials required for various projects and activities is available and the vast area affords opportunities for wide games, activities and expeditions of an adventurous nature.

Fifth All India Guide Commissioners Conference

Speech of the Vice-President Dr. Zakir Hussain delivered at the Valedictory Session.

This is the first time that I ha ve come to attend a forma function of the National Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts and Guides. I need hardly say how happy I am to be with you this afternoon, specially as I understand this is the first conference that you have held at your new home. Let me at the outset congratulate the Chairman and the Committee in charge of the collection of funds for construction of this building and for the excellent job that they have done. You have good cause to feel proud of your new headquarters and the leadersnip which conceived and executed this project. This commodious and well-planned building will meet a long-felt want of an All India organisation like yours, and provide you with a permanent home of your own which adds a new measure of strength and stability to your movement. 'I convey to you my best wishes for a bright and fruitful future.

The Scout and Guide Movement was introduced in the world at the beginning of the century. The methods of training and the programme of the movement have been acclaimed by eminent educationists and psychologists as providing very appropriate media for the training of the minds and the spirits of the young boys and girls. Their potentialities have been recognised all over the world and indeed this movement is now the most well-known among all the international voluntary youth movements. Its members now belong to all countries of the world, whether in the East or in the West. The programme is particularly suited to our young girls. I am, therefore, very happy to see that you, many of the leading women in India, are now taking so much active interest in it.

2. I see from a copy of your agenda that you have discussed a number of very important and pressing problems connected with your work. I am particluarly interested to know that you have given some urgent thought to several new lines of activity, e g. the extension of Rangering to sea, air and mountaineering. This is as it should be. No progressive move ment can rest on its oars for any length of time. Its dynamic force requires that it must proliferate and march towards new frontiers. If the object of the scout movement is to create in young boys and girls a lively interest in their environment and to train them to adjust themselves to changing situations, the scope of your movement must also expand, and your activities must be adjusted to the needs of the times. This is necessary at all times in an emergency such as we are now passing through, the need for such adjustment and expansion along proper lines, is particularly urgent. We need the services of young men and women in large numbers for land, air and naval forces, and for the host of ancillary services connected with them. Those of our young men and women who will have received training in mountain, air and sea rangering will, I am sure, make much better cadets in these fields than others who have had no such training. Even otherwise, the value of such training in civilian life will be inestimable. Those young men and women who are brought face to face with the elements, and are taught how to grapple with them, may be in their quieter aspects, will acquire a measure of physical and mental toughness and agility that will stand them in good stead throughout their lives. I am, therefore, glad to learn that you have given some thought to the prospects of this new development in your activities. I hope you have been able to work out a detailed and comprehensive scheme of training in these new areas. A great deal of organisation and direction will be needed, and I trust you will be able to measure up to your new responsibilities.

3. I also notice from your agenda that you have consi dered the problems connected with the extension of your movement to the handicapped children. The rehabilitation of handicapped men and women in normal life will be comparatively easier if, from their childhood, they are trained to be brave, self reliant and independent. Your training programme, if properly devised and executed, should be able to develop these traits in the character of the handicapped young boys and girls, and to help them to acquire a sense of security in the wider world about them.

4. Last but not the least, I am happy to see that you are planning to expand the movement to rural areas for non-school-going children. In a big country like ours, it is difficult to organise the scout and guide troops on an area basis as in many other countries. In Europe, this is possible largely because of the relatively small size of the countries in that continent and the material and moral help which the movemen. received from their religious and quasi-religious institutionst In the different circumstances of our country, scouting and guiding have largely grown up round our educational institutions. With the help of our Ministry of Community Development, we have now built up a net work of village blocks and panchayats. Your idea of using these local institutions as your base of operations is, I am sure, entirely sound and I trust that local bodies in our rural areas can help you to spread scouting and guiding in the villages. I need hardly remind you that here as in the other fields paper schemes would not be enough. You will succeed in your object only if you work with devotion and absolute sincerity.

5. I feel very happy to have had this opportunity of meeting Guide Commissioners from all over India. It is most reassuring to find that so many of our women have pledged themselves to the uphill task of training up our young men and women to be better citizens. If it is true to say that the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, it is no less true to add that the rocking hand must continue to follow the child, albeit Speech of the Minister for Education, Dr. K. L. Shrimali, delivered at the inaugural session of the Fifth All India Guide Commissioners' Conference held on the 22nd February, 1963, in New Delhi.

Dr. Kunzru, Mrs. Mazumdar and friends:

Scouting is recognised not only in this country but all over the world as a great movement. In India it has made a valuable contribution in the field of youth welfare. The country particularly expects that your movement should play an important part in building up the young generation to meet the challenge of the National Emergency. But before I tell you how your movement can help the country in this emergency we must understand the nature of the emergency itself. It is true that there has been border dispute between India and China and there has also been fighting on our border for some time, but we should remember that there is something more behind this. It is not merely a b rder dispute; it is a clash of ideologies. On the one side we have a completely regimented society; on the other hand we have a true democracy and therefore it is a clash between a democratic way of life and a regimented society. We have had a revolution in this country, from a distance, through his or her young and adolescent days. It is, therefore, a matter of deep satisfaction to me that you have agreed to carry your share of the high responsibility of training our young men and women for the tasks that lie ahead of them in life. I have no doubt that you will have the support of all right-thinking men and women in your work. There is a great deal waiting to be done. In this self-effacing dedicated task, you have my best wishes.

but we have believed in peace and non-violence and therefore our revolution was peaceful. On the other side of the Himalayas there was also a revolution, a bloody revolution and thousands were massacred in that revolution. The process of violence still goes on in that country. China is determined to destroy our way of life as it does not believe in co-existence. So it is a question of either our following their line of thinking and action and going under their domination, or our becoming their enemies.

If we are to discharge our responsibility it must be our primary duty to strengthen our faith and our conviction in the way of life in which we have believed in all these years. In this clash of ideology, the fight of idea , the values which we uphold are at stake.

In this matter the Bharat Scouts & Guides which is not a political organisation, endeavours to train the young boys and girls from their childhood to respect the basic values of the free and democratic society. The Promise and the Law of the Movement build up these fundamentals of a free and worthwhile citizenship. We should remember that when Hitler came into power, the Scout movement suffered most because the scout movement believed in freedom and was wedded to democratic values. No dictator can support a movement like this as it strikes at the root of his existence. Therfore, we should understand that we are fighting not only for our borders, but also for those moral and spiritual values which are enshrined in our Constitution and to which we are all deeply committed. I hope that this conference will always bear in mind this basic thought in the course of its deliberations.

On account of this emergency, we shall have to do some fresh thinking with regard to our educational problems and as the struggle goes on it is bound to affect our educational system, which will inevitably require some adjustment. You must have read in the papers that we decided that from the next academic session, the N.C.C. would be introduced on a compulsory basis in the Universities. We must prepare our youth for any emergency that may arise, and as military training is essential, we have decided to extend the N.C.C. as quickly as possible. Necessary arrangements are being made as far as school education is concerned. There was some arrangement for physical education in every State. There was also some arrangement for A.C.C. and N.D.C. training. We had appointed a committee to go into this question of co-ordination of training at the school and university level, but unfortunately on account of Dr. Kunzru's ill health and partly on account of his pre-occupation the work of this committee could not be completed. On account of this emergency, we could not wait longer and so we have taken a decision about the future plan in this respect. I would, however, assure you that the decision that we have taken is not going to affect the Scout Movement in any way. The Bharat Scouts & Guides which is a voluntary organisation does many things in addition to physical training which are of educational value, e.g. the spirit of service it inculcates, the character training which it provides, the spirit of adventure which it develops, initiative, and other qualities which it develops in youth. This is most essential and it is our endeavour that the Bharat Scouts & Guides should also expand their activities as quickly as possible. Sometime ago Mrs. Mazumdar and some of her colleagues came to see me and I told them that we would try to meet all their requirements, financially and otherwise. We have limited resources, but within these resources, we shall try to extend the Scout Movement to the rural areas. I am glad that Dr. Kunzru thinks that the time has come when we must get out of old ruts. We are living in a very difficult period and great issues are involved. So I think we should push forward our educational programme everywhere to meet this great challenge which we have to face in our life time.

There are one or two things which I would like to mention o you in this connection. Scout movement primarily develops a spirit of service. A scout is always helpful and every scout has o do active service otherwise he does not become a scout. The roblems which we have to face in education and social service re of great magnitude, so much so that even though we ay increase those programmes three times or four times, here would always be scope for expansion. There is the roblem of illiteracy in our country, and for the last several ears I have been thinking seriously about how we can adicate this evil. India cannot and should not remain literate for all time to come. We have to solve this problem. his problem has been solved in countries like Russia, and some extent in China also, but they adopted methods hich we cannot adopt. We have, therefore, to mobilise ur resources. Now to my mind this is a programme which can undertaken by voluntary organisations. I am sure Govt. ill support them, if any sound plan can be drawn up in this spect. Therefore we should fully utilise the services of luntary organisations. For example, summer vacations are asted. Why is it not possible to organise literacy campaigns rural areas during summer vacations? These are some of e problems which we shall have to face in a realistic manner. ho else will educate the masses in the country if we do not ke that responsibility? I sincerely hope that this conference Guide Commissioners will give some thought to this problem. know that the Scout and Guide Movement is primarily an ucational movement, but unless it is linked with the oblems of the society it becomes lifeless, We have to think the proper perspective if this challenge has to be met. We ve to build up our country not only militarily strong, but ve to build up faith and conviction among the peop'e so at they may be prepared to make sacrifices for the ideals hich we cherish and the values which we uphold. I think is is the real problem which should concern all educators, cluding the Scouters and Guiders. I am very grateful to u that you were kind enough to invite me to this conference. always gives me great pleasure to meet Scouters and Guiders whose hands lie the destinies of thousands of children.

Speech of the Minister for Community Development, Shri S. K. Dey delivered at the Fifth All India Guide Commissioners' Conference held in New Delhi on 22nd and 23rd February, 1963.

Mrs. Mazumdar, Miss Das and Ladies and Gentlemen :

It is really a pleasant surprise for me to be in the midst of all of you. I have been introduced as a 'block' personified. I would not like to go into the subject of community development programme. You must have studied a lot about it. Eighty per cent of India still continues to live in the villages. Nobody can expect to serve and understand India, unless he knows what is happening in eighty per cent of the country. Therefore, I assume that you are fairly well acquainted with the community development programme. I would speak here only about the present stage of the programme and where you come in, where I need your services.

Every period in history and every stage in the development of a people have their demands to make on the people. They call for some special type of activities from these people, and if these are not forthcoming you find that the whole nation, the whole community, ceases to move in the direction it is intended to move. Ten years ago, I started the Community Development programme. It was a programme for giving some assistance to the village people in agriculture, minor irrigation, public health, social education, and so on. Within a year we realised that this programme could not go ahead further unless we associated the people with it. So at the next stage of our development in 1954, we adopted a new slogan for the programme that there must be close association of the people and we called it the non-official advisory stage. About 1957, we began to realise that this was not yielding results. So came the third stage, the Panchayat Raj. It started from 1959. Nine States have implemented the programme, three others have already started and registration is going on. The other remaining three States, viz. West Bengal, Kerala and Jammu and Kashmir are also sponsoring special legislation about it, and I hope by the end of this year in the two States of West Bengal and Kerala, this legislation would have been enacted. Jammu & Kashmir stands on a separate footing altogether. We have realised, more so during this emergency, that Panchayat Raj does not answer the problem. Even the normal problems of rural areas cannot be urgently solved unless we get young men and women in the villages to come forward and we must be able to mobilise the children in the schools so that they constituted an integral part of the community, an active element in the community capable of acting as a catalyst for pushing the rest of the community forward.

I was brought up in a village in the eastern part of India. Most of the important measures of sanitation, removal of untouchability and superstition etc., we learnt from the school. We started arguing with our parents. Many a time we received flogging, but in the long run we often influenced them. It now appears that in our present day anxiety to move forward in a hurry, the children have become the worst casualities. Building roads, railways, setting up power stations, big irrigation projects and what not seems to have become our primary pre-occupation; the children have been forgotten. Because while we built the schools and appointed teachers, we did not have a programme. A school or a college or a training institution is merely what you provide in the form of equipment etc. We must become a community, have a community life with community functions in the midst of which the children can grow up as human beings. They did not have a social life, social obligations for they did not have any programme to occupy their minds and bodies. I have now recommended that school children should be brought into the picture of the community development programme so that they can give a push to our village life. As far as I can see, activising school children does not call for money, in any case the amount of money needed cannot be sizeable and so should not present any major problem. It is not a question wholly of leadership either, because leadership in India is going amuck in the absence of creative out-let. It is a matter, as far as I can see, of the proper mobilization of the leadership which we have and the organisation of our resources. Much will, therefore, depend on this approach to the problem. About two years ago, I met Dr. Kunzru at my own instance. I went to him and told him what I felt about it and asked him to come to my assistance, I told him that the time had come when I felt I could not do without leadership of the children. I thought a beginning could be made with the Boy Scouts who were doing admirable work in a most unspectacular undemonstrative way of their own. I felt that here was an organisation of which I could take advantage. I was very happy. We held the first camp at Taradevi, but it did not proceed as fast or as far as I wanted. Today the emergency has brought to the fore the importance of bringing the children in the forefront of the movement of community development and indeed right into the heart of the national movement for mobilising the country for the emergency which is going to be with us for a long time. It is a chronic emergency. We do not know what the duration of it is going to be. This country cannot be mobilised against a nation so formidable as China, unless we bring the children and the youth as the prime mover into the new movement. This cannot be done unless the Scout and Guide movement comes to life.

I was, therefore, very happy when Mrs. Mazumdar met me. At first I did not realise why she wanted to meet me; I was wondering what we could do for her and did not know what I was expected to do. But when I looked at her I found that she was motion personified and throbbing with life. I had to attend to my Parliamentary duties, and my son was due to be married next Monday, so I had no time to spend to go into the details of the scheme, but I at once saw its enormous possibilities when the scheme was in the hands of a leader like her. I am therefore, very happy to be in your midst. I only hope that you will remember that what you have done all these years is only a very brief rehearsal. The real drama of your movement in India has just begun to unfold itself. You will have to function before the whole world in a way in which this country has never functioned in the past. We want our children to grow up in the complete awareness of the community in which they will have to live in the full awareness of the handicaps, obstacles, which they will have to fight. They should be mentally prepared for this and they should in turn guide their parents and others. Children have no vested interests of their own, political or otherwise. I was brought up as a village boy with a domestic servant of ours. We were ten brothers and sisters. We knew no caste distinction Ramayan was being played in our village and one of our domestic servants acted the role of Ravana. In the drama when Ravana was killed I found myself and my brothers were weeping so much that Ravana had to get up to prove that he was not dead! A child is completely free of vice of habits or conventions. It is very difficult to change the character of a person at a late stage in life. If we can get hold of youngsters and train them, they will be our future community. The Boy Scouts& Girl Guides Movement will have to spread all over India till it embraces the entire young generation of India. The entire community development is at your disposal. I invite you to work with us and to build up a better future for the community. You cannot ignore the gross roots on which alone you can build permanently for the future.

INDIA'S PEACE MISSION

Scouting has found the most congenial soil in India, to achieve her destined mission. Of all the agencies working towards the regeneration of the Country none is more versile or more productive of good than the Scout Movement for, it inculcates a right vision of the ideal relationship between country and country, man and man and instills a right notion of discipline and service and trains individual faculties to achieve success for the Country's good.

Indigenous schools of Bramhcharys and service, are endeavoured to be started to promote self-discipline and serviceability on the part of the country's Youth, but Scouting directs such discipline and capacity for service to the goal of world Peace, and so is international in character and non-racial in its stamp.

What matters more is the fact that its methods are remarkable for their appeal to the boy's mind and heart, notwithstanding the deep and wide design of its programme. It is also a notable feature that its scheme is so elastic as to permit the inclusion of activities that appeal to the young human mind of any race, clime or nationality. It does not preclude either Units of particular denominations from including their own programmes, provided they are attractively presented to the boys' mind. Thus while Scouting provides captivating institutions for boys and organises them into negotiable bands, it leaves the nations and countries free to adopt their own programmes, without prejudice to the human note and to the development of individual personal powers for good, which does not wish to avail of such a useful organisarion for national advancement?

A right vision of India's mission and adequate training in self-lessness and manliness is the crying need of the hour. The present generation when young, is handicapped by lack of training designed towards these ends, and by their vision dimmed by conflicting forces of the changing World. The Scout Movement helps the young of the land to develop their personality in correct perspective.

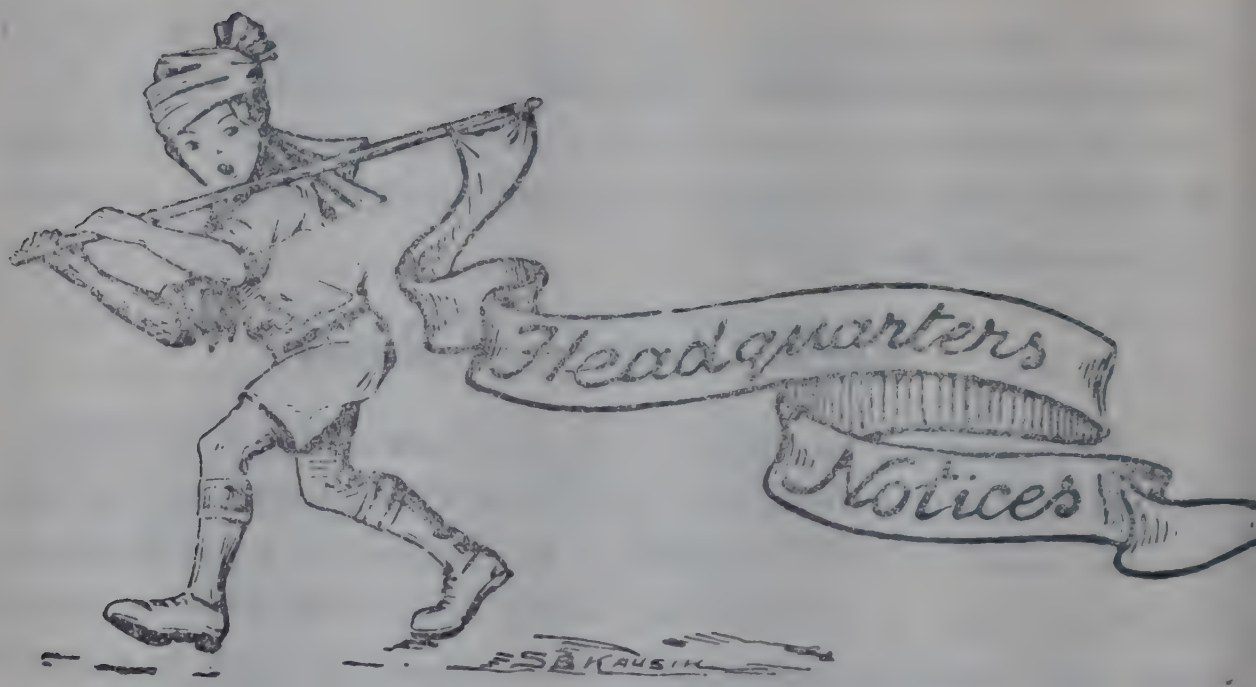
World Clock—B-P House

In November last year, a splendid new addition to Baden-Powell House was unveiled – the World Clock-presented by the British Bottlers of Coca-Cola. It consists of a five feet wide elliptical sheet of aluminium alloy engraved with a world map and mounted with eight clocks giving the time in various parts of the world. A glazed frame of polished rosewood surrounds the map.

The quarter inch plate glass is acid-embossed and gilded and carries a Scout flour-de-lis and the words "From all corners of the earth you have journeyed." The words are part of an address B–P made to Scouts at the Movement's "Coming of Age" Jamboree at Arrowe Park, in 1929.

The clock hands are hand-made in gold anodized aluminium. The map was fret cut from a plate of aluminium alloy and anodized to a nutural satin finish after hand engraving. It is mounted forward from the face of sapele mahogany panelling, and fluorescent light filters through the thickness of the glass plate to illuminate the engraved message, the digits of each clock and a central meridian line. The light provides a soft general glow over the entire face of the map.

The gift of this clock is a gesture of goodwill which will be greatly appreciated by scouts from all over the world. May we, on their behalf, thank the British Bottlers of Coca-Cola, and also their Mr. Longhurst, for the wish expressed on the occasion of the unveiling: "As the hours grow into days, and the days into years, may Scouting grow for evermore!"



The meeting of the finance Sub Committee and the State Executive Committee of the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State, will be held at the Central Training Camp. Doddaballapur on the 18th and 19th April, 1963 respectively.

Kolar North

Nandi Jatra Service

The Kolar North District Association organised a service party on the occasion of the Nandi Jatra from 22-3-1963 to 1-3-1963. Twenty Scout and Cub Masters drawn from various institutions along with 25 Scouts of Nandi and Kuppahalli formed the service party. They were assigned specific items of work and each party looked after its work earnestly and with a spirit of service.

Tracing the missing children and handing them over to their parents, arranging for easy darshan of 'Deities' at the temple, rendering first aid to the injured, preventing water contamination at the cattle show grounds were some of the main activities.

The Muzrai and Revenue Minister Sri M. V. Krishnappa who visited the Jatra with the President of the District Association and Deputy Commission was very much pleased with the sort of selfless service that the Scouts were rendering and expressed his gratitude for the Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State for having organised the service Camp at Nandi. The good turn done by the Scouts of Kuppahalli when they picked up the 5 rupee notes that fell down from a woman's purse and handed them over to the owner needs particular mention. The State Headquarters Bharat Scouts and Guides, Mysore State commend the D. A. Kolar North for their venture and thank the District Commissioner (S) S. V. Krishnamurthi Rao for all the trouble he took in making this service party a useful one to the general public.

GUIDE SECTION

AN APPEAL

To

All the District Commissioners (G).

Dear Sister,

At the All India Guide Commissioners' Conference held in New Delhi from the 22nd February 1963, I promised to raise Rs. 2,000/- in the State to finance a water tank at our training centre at Pachamarhi.

This is an important centre for every guide and is a sort of place of pilgrimage for each one of us belonging to the movement. Being a hill station there is water difficulty and storage facilities are absolutely necessary. So what better service can we render than provide water for our Sisters and Brothers who come from all over the country? Our name will be inscribed on this tank and the guides of Mysore will be immortalised this way.

Will you cooperate with me in raising this fund? If every District raises Rs. 100/- we shall be able to finance this project. If every guide contributes only 25 nP. each we shall have done our duty.

I hope each District will send me Rs. 100/– quite early.
With guide greetings.

Yours Sincerely,
LEELA ANJANAPPA,
State Commissioner (G).

With the request for Boy Scouts to join in and contribute and the water tank will be put up in the joint names of "Bharat Scouts and Guides" Mysore State.

ಸೆಮಫೋರ ಎಂಬ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷ್ ಪದ್ಧತಿಯನ್ನನುಸರಿಸಿ ಕನ್ನಡದಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ನೂತನ ಕ್ರಮವನ್ನು ರಚಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆ. ಇದರ ಮೂಲರಚನಕಾರರು, ಧಾರವಾಡದ ಸ್ಕೌಟರರಾದ ಶ್ರೀಯುತ ಆಯ್. ಎಸ್. ಅರಳಗುಪ್ಪಿಯವರು. ಬೆಳಗಾಂವಿಯ ಸಹಾಯಕ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಸಂಘಟಿಕರಾದ ಶ್ರೀಯುತ ಎಚ್.ಎಸ್. ಗಜಾನನರಾಯರು ಅವರೊಡನೆ ಸಮಾಲೋಚಿಸಿ, ಮೂಲರಚನೆಯ ಹೊಸರೂಪಾದ, ಈ ನೂತನ ಸಂಕೇತಕ್ರಮವನ್ನು ರಚಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಸೂಚನಾಕ್ರಮ: 1. ಬಾವುಟಗಳನ್ನು ಹಿಡಿದು ನಿಲ್ಲುವ ಕ್ರಮ, ತೋರಿಸುವ ಕ್ರಮ, ಎಲ್ಲವೂ ಇಂಗ್ಲೀಷ್ ಪದ್ಧತಿಯಂತೆಯೇ. ಆದರೆ ಸಂಕೇತವನ್ನು ತೋರಿಸಿದ ಪ್ರತಿಸಾರಿಯೂ ಪ್ರಾರಂಭಸ್ಥಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಲ್ಲಬೇಕು.

2. ಎರಡೂ ಬಾವುಟಗಳನ್ನು ತಲೆಯಮೇಲೆ ಎದುರುಬದುರಾಗಿ ಆಡಿಸಿದರೆ ಸಿದ್ಧನಾಗು ಎಂದು ತಿಳಿದುಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು.

3. ಬಲಗೈ ಬಾವುಟವನ್ನು "ಎ" ಎಂಬ ಕೋನದಿಂದ ಅಂಕೆಯ ಸಂಕೇತ"ದ ಕೋನದ ವರೆಗೂ ಮುಂದುಗಡೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಝೂಡಿಸಿದಲ್ಲಿ ಈ ರೀತಿ ತಿಳಿಯಬೇಕು.

ಚಿಂತನೆ

(ರೋವರ್ ದೀಕ್ಷಾವಿಧಿ ಪಡೆಯಿವ ಹಿಂದಿನ ರಾತ್ರಿ ಸಭ್ಯರ್ಥಿಯು ಯೋಚಿಸ ಬೇಕಾದ ಕೆಲವು ಪೂದರಿ ಅಂಶಗಳು).

1. ದೇವರು ನನಗೆ ಕೊಟ್ಟಿರುವ ಜೀವಮಾನವನ್ನು ನಾನು ಸದುಪಯೋಗ ಪಡಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆಯೆ?

2. ಇತರರ ಸೌಖ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಗಮನ ಕೊಡದೆ ಆತ್ಮ ಸೌಖ್ಯವನ್ನೇಬಯಸು ತ್ತಿದ್ದೇನೆಯೆ?

3. ನನ್ನ ನಿತ್ಯ ಜೀವನದಲ್ಲಿ ಇತರರ ವಿಷಯವಾಗಿ ನಾನು ಸ್ವಲ್ಪವಾದರೂ ಚಿಂತನೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತೇನೆಯೆ?

4. ನನಗೆ ಅಂಟಿಬಂದ ದುರಭ್ಯಾಸಗಳನ್ನು ತ್ಯಜಿಸಲು ನಿರ್ಧಾರ ಕೈಗೊಳ್ಳುವೆನೆ?

5. ನಾನು ಸಂಪೂರ್ಣ ಗೌರವಾರ್ಹನೂ, ಸತ್ಯಶೀಲನೂ, ಪ್ರಾಮಾಣಿಕನೂ ಆಗಿದ್ದೇನೆಯೆ?

6. ನಾನು ಈರ್ಷಾಸೂಯೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಒಳಗಾಗದೆ ಸಚ್ಚರಿತ್ರನೂ, ಪರಿಶುದ್ಧ ಭಾಷಿಯೂ ಆಗಿದ್ದೇನೆಯೆ?

7. ನಾನು ಜೂಜು, ಕುಡಿತ, ಸ್ತ್ರೀವ್ಯಸನ ಮೊದಲಾದ ಮೋಹದ ಬಲೆಗೆ ಬೀಳದಷ್ಟು ದೃಢಮನಸ್ಕನೆ?

8. ನನ್ನಲ್ಲಿ ಕೆಲವು ದೌರ್ಬಲ್ಯಗಳಿದ್ದರೆ ದೇವರ ಕೃಪೆಯಿಂದ ಅವುಗಳನ್ನು ಗೆಲ್ಲಲು ನಿರ್ಧಾರ ಕೈಗೊಳ್ಳುವೆನೆ?

9. ಸೇವೆಗೆ ಹೊರಟಾಗ ಸಂಪೂರ್ಣವಾಗಿ ಸ್ವಾರ್ಥತ್ಯಾಗ ಮಾಡಲು ಸಿದ್ಧನೆ?

10. ನನಗೆ ನನ್ನದೇ ಆದ ಸ್ವಂತ ನಿರ್ಧಾರವುಂಟೆ? ಅಥವಾ ಇತರರ ಪ್ರಭಾವಕ್ಕೆ ಒಳಗಾಗುವ ದುರ್ಬಲತೆ ಇದೆಯೆ?

ಇನ್ನುಮುಂದೆ ನನ್ನನ್ನು ದೇವರು ನಿಜವಾದ ಮನುಷ್ಯನನ್ನಾಗಿಯೂ ಸತ್ಪ್ರಜೆಯಾಗಿಯೂ ಆಗಲು ಸಾಕಾದಷ್ಟು ಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ದಯಪಾಲಿಸಲಿ.

The Lookout

The important event in Scouting and Guiding in Mysore State during February 1963 was the Grand Camp Fire programme that was staged by the Scouts & Guides of the North and South Districts of the Bharath Scouts & Guides, Bangalore, under the patronage of the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Mysore, in aid of the National Defence Fund. This was a grand affair indeed and all credit should go to the Scouters, Guiders, and their Scouts and Guides of the two Districts. The lessons learnt are: (i) Publicity could have been more and should have been started at least a month in advance; (ii) Public response was not commendable and was not spontaneous; (iii) The limited number of parents of the children and adolescents who took part in the various items and amongst these was the Hon'ble the Chief Minister himself, the chief guest of the evening, left the stadium convinced of the Scouts and Guides, appreciated the whole show and congratulated the organisers and (iv) Above all it was the first ever opportunity afforded to the Scouts and Guides to bring off the best in them under the willing and able guidance of their Scouters and Guiders.

My honest opinion is that such sporadic grand shows can never do real good. These must be cultivated to become endemic in the Groups and brought out as epidemic shows in the Districts and as and when desirable brought off in the manner it was done recently at the stadium. Everyone would agree with me if I should reiterate, that the initiative for the endemic and the epidemic nature of these shows as referred to here should undoubtedly be that of the District Commissioners and their teams of A.D.Cs and the Group Leaders. So Brother Commissioners, get along as best as you can and for the good of the young charges.

The following, reproduced from the "Scout" of 19-1-63 is a welcome article and this falls in line with Rule No. 274 of the Bharat Scouts & Guides A.P.R.O. an important extract of this being, "Whenever uniform is worn, it must be correct and complete, and especially so when in public...."

"I am a RATHER unpopular person with a Group in my District at the present time because I had the nerve to take some of its members to task over their slovenly appearance at a Church Parade. This does not worry me a scrap and I will do the same again if ever the occasion should arise, no matter where it occurs.

It seems to be a fashion these days for many young people to go around looking like walking rag-bags. To be "With it" as the saying goes, it appears that one is expected never to brush one's hair or have it cut or to clear one's shoes. And I regret to say that this kind of nonsense is creeping into Scouting. Pride of uniform and personal cleanliness in some quarters are "Strictly for the birds" and old "Squares" like me are mere figures of fun. Is the one time regular practice of carrying out inspection at the beginning of Troop and Pack meetings ceasing to take place? I sincerely hope not.

Ted Wood"

I, as a Scouter, need not emphasise further the importance of the above observation by an English Scouter about his own Group. I very sincerely request that our Scouters, from Cubmasters to Commissioners would bear this in mind and set an example to their Scouts by their personal example.

Grand Camp Fire in Aid of National Defence Fun

"I am extremely happy to be in your mids this evening to participate in the Grand Camp Fir organised in aid of the National Defence Func I appreciate your discipline, talents and service mindedness. Serve the Nation through this grea Movement" observed Sri S. Nijalingappa, Chie Minister, speaking on the occasion of the Gran Camp Fire organised at Sree Kanteerava Stadiur on the 16th February 1963 by the Bangalore Nort and South District Associations to boost up th National Defence Fund. He had all the prais for the activities of the Bharat Scouts and Guide Mysore State.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissio ner while welcoming, told in brief the sever steps taken by the Movement to step up th defence efforts such as First Aid, Home Nursing Sick Nursing, Civilian Rifle Centres, Mock wa fare activities during training camps- in additio to aiding several Social Organisations in raisin funds for defence efforts.

Mrs. Leela Anjanappa, S.C.(G), presented a pur of Rs.4,000/- to the Chief Minister on the occasio being the second instalment towards the Nation Defence Fund. It is worthy to note here th another sum of Rs. 4,000/- has already bee remitted earlier.

Sri C. Rajagopalachar, read a brief report o the occasion and Sri V. P. Deenadayalu Naic proposed a hearty vote of thanks.

2,500 Boy Scouts and Girl Guides kept the rge audience spell bound for 2½ hours. A list nineteen items were staged of which Group ances, Mock war fare, Torch Drill, Rathothsava id Bombay Joker were superb.

The idea of a Grand Camp Fire germinated the mind of the State Chief Commissioner me time during the second week of January 963. A good leader as he is, he got round ie Scouters, Guiders and Commissioners of Banga- re North and South District Associations and ithused them to execute this idea of his. It as welcomed and immediately committees were rmed, duties were assigned, rehearsals held and ithin a fortnight the stage was set for the grand ow. Like the saying "Nothing succeeds like ccess" two rehearsals were held, one at the City rea and another in the Civil Area. Items of aried nature of spectacular interest, mass dis- lays, group dances and such other items were lected and finally approved.

It is a happy augary to note that every ember of the Movement came forward to pay ven for entrance as every one thought it was for good cause. The Red Letter Day being the 6th February 1963 was anxiously and eagerly ooked forward to by the Scouts and Guides every inute. Several thousands of Boy Scouts and Girl uides in addition to the general public, marched to the Stadium well before time to secure places, with their smiling and charming face which was a magnificent sight by itself.

Surely the State Chief Commissioner should have felt very happy in having had such a good response both financially and high standard o Scout and Guide Craft displayed on the occasion in addition to the orderly and disciplined be-haviour of the units.

We take this opportunity to thank one and all, in particular the Scouters and Guiders who spared no pains to make this Grand Camp Fir a thundering success.

As regards publicity value, those who witnes sed the Grand Camp Fire have broadcast thei appreciation and many who could not attend hav expressed their disappointment for having misse a fine opportunity.

All concerned should feel that they have don well and will do even better, true to the mott "Be Prepared".

State Chief Commissioner's Clarion Call to Cub Masters

"Have faith in yourself, faith in the Move ment and faith in the Boy and the Girl whom yo are going to train as a loyal and useful citize through the Bharat Scouts and Guides" observed S P. Siva Shankar, presiding over the meeting of th

City Cubmasters and Headmasters of Middle and Primary Schools of B.City on Monday the 4th Feb. 1963. He also narrated how the Bharat Scouts and Guides throughout the State are training children not only in peace time but also during the time of emergency. Sri S. Halappa, District Educational officer, Bangalore City District, addressing the gathering said that the integral personality of the Boy and Girl is possible only through this great international movement. He emphasised that in every school there must be Cub Packs and Scout Troops and more than all a very well drawn up programme to attract more boys and girls. He also informed the house that in Western countries this Movement had taken deep roots and making great headway in Nation building activities. Sri K. Kasinath, Headquarters Cnmmissioner for Cubs and Sri D. S. Siddiah, S. O. C., spoke on the occasion.

Sri B. Ananthaiah, Asst. District Commissioner welcomed the gathering and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, A. S. O. C., proposed the vote of thanks.

State Commissioner (Scouts) visits Mandya

"Smart and correct wearing of the Scout Uniform brings in its wake alertness, observation, helping others and sense of responsibility" advised Lt. Col. V. K. Sundaram during his visit to the several Scout Troops and Cub Packs of Mandya Town on Monday the 18th February 1963. Accompanied by Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Scout Comissioner and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Organising Commissioner of Bangalore Division, the State Comissioner toured Mandya District on the 17th and 18th February 63.

A meeting with the President of the District Scout and Guide Association Sri M. H. Boraiah and the District Scout Commissioner Sri M. N. Anantha Shankarappa at the Scout Hall resulted in the planning of a Boy's Camp and a Scoutmasters' Training Camp during the ensuing Summer Holidays and to convene a Conference of Scout Commissioners and Secretaries of Bangalore Division at Mandya on the 30th and 31st March 1963.

Sri M. N. Siddalingappa, Secretary of the District Association and Sri N. Ramaswamy, Asst. District Commissioner (Scouts) had arranged for and led the visitors on the several meetings and visits.

SUBJECT :—Holding of the Annual Meeting of the District Associations for the year 1962-63 - sending names of Representatives of the District Associations on the State Council - issue of Circular.

The State Executive Committee, at its meeting held on 16th Feb. 1963, resolved that the Annual Meeting of the State Council shall be held during the 3rd week of July 1963 and that all the District Associations in the State should, therefore, convene their Annual Meetings before the 5th June 1963 and commuinicate the names of their representatives to the State Headquarters before 10th June 1963. The State Association has to give 30 clear days notice to the members regarding the meeting of the State Council as per the Bye-Laws of the State Association.

The newly elected Executive Committees of the District Associations shall elect representatives to the State Council, as per Rule 63 of the A.P.R.O. and Rule 6 of the Bye-Laws of the State Association as follows :—

a) One Group Scouter representative for every 250 or more Scouts registered with the District Association, the total number of such representatives not exceeding two ;

b) One Group Guider representative for every 150 or more Guides registered with the District Association, the total number of such representatives not exceeding two ;

c) One Non-Scouter or Non-Guider representative for every 50 or more subscribing members of the Association, the total of such representatives not exceeding two. When two representatives are to be nominated, one of them shall be a woman.

The Secretaries are requested therefore, to convene the General Body Meeting of the District Association giving the due notice as per Bye-Laws of the District Association, hold elections of the office-bearers and Members of the District Executive Committee and send the list of representatives of their District Association on the State Council so as to reach the State Headquarters latest by the 10th June 1963.

They are also requested to note that unless they hold the Annual Meeting of the District Association, a new Executive Committee cannot be formed and representatives on the State Council cannot be elected. As such, such District Associations will have to lose representation on the State Council if elections are not held at the proper time and in strict compliance with the A.P.R.O. and Bye-Laws. The names of old members, unless they are re-elected, cannot be automatically continued as representatives of any District Association on the State Council.

Appointment

The State Chief Commissioner has been pleased to appoint Sri N. S. Kulakarni, L.M.E., L.E.E., Chief Welfare Officer, Minerva and Mysore Mills, Bangalore-23, as the District Commissioner (Scouts), Bangalore North District.

An address of felicitations presented to Sri A.M. Ramamurthy, B.A., on the award conferred on him by the Government of Mysore

---

Dear Brother Ramamurthy, a veteran and pioneer, In the field of Education and administrative career,

We. the members of this International Organisation, Congartulate you on the Government's High-appreciation.

* * * *

Being a Scouter yourself, and thus as ever prepared, Undertaking tasks of duty, hardships you never cared.

We your younger brothers admire your scout spirit; For, they with polite manners, find no bound or limit.

Having sound mind and body and being up to the mark, You are a source of inspiration like a dynamic spark.

With your noble qualities and outstanding ability, And treasure of wisdom with a broad mind of stability.

You have very easily conquered our hearts with affection, Which came to you ordinarily like a shadow of perfection.

Like an able lieutenant, you have fought illiteracy, Perhaps with a wonderful and divine weapon of secrecy,

And thus catered education to masses all around, Like children of all categories, rich and poor found.

This was, just now realised by the Government of Mysore, And after this they could not wait for anything more.

Recognising your valuable services, then they honoured, With an Educational Award which is very rarely conferred.

You are one of the great men, we have ever seen, For all these decades past, you have with us been.

You believe in nothing except in "Simple Living", Which you hope would help in very "High Thinking".

In Scouting here, as the Treasurer and Secretary, Ever since you started, you served but as honorary.

* * * *

May God bless you with happiness and peace for years, Listening to our voice of hearty wishes and prayers.

To work for the Educational field, as for regular, With the best efforts for Scouting in particular.

Wishing you a happy New year and ensuing happier years, Joining hands in Scouting brother We remain, ever yours :

try in the field in Burma during the Sittang Bridg

Battle, Southern Burma on 22-2-1942. He served in several capacities in the army and was promoted to the rank of Asst. Director of Medical Service in the field in Burma during the II World War. He retired from service from February 1959 and has taken up Scouting almost as a full time job with a determined object to raise the quality and quantity of the Bharat Scouts and Guides in Mysore State.

This is an other opportunity provided to him by the Government of Mysore appointing him as Commandant of the Home Guards, Bangalore District to raise the Home Guards and work it efficiently to be of proper use in times of need.

We wish him the luck in his endeavours.

We are equally happy to mention here that Sri M. R. Ramaswamy, Asst. District Commissioner (S) and Assistant Deputy Camp Chief (Scouts) Mysore, has been appointed Commandant, Home Guards, Mysore District. He is connected with the movement for over two decades. He is a member of the State Training Team and has run many Training Camps for adult leaders of the movement in addition to being responsible for conducting several Conferences, Rallies and Boys' Training Camps. Since many years he has been the leader for the Mysore Dasara Contingent. As an ex. Commissioned officer of the Indian army and an efficient Scouter, he will prove himself a worthy Commandant of the district. We wish him the best of luck.

"Dr. Rajendra Prasad was the best desciple of the Father of t e Nation and obeyed his master's command without question akin to one of the principles of Scout Law. Dr. Prasad was a man of lofty ideals never aspiring for position and place and when found used his power judiciously," observed Sri T. T. Sharma, one of the Pioneer Journalists addressing the members of the Rover Scout Leader' Association, Bangalore City on 6th March 1963 at the State Headquarters, Bangalore. Shri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner presided.

A condolence resolution was passed at the meeting.

The Lookout

After a busy fortnight at the Central Training Camp Doddaballapur, in December 1962, doing there my best to train and look after the prospective Scoutmasters in the arts of Scouting for the boys who should be their future Scouts, for the past three weeks I have been fairly quiet in Secunderabad. Here, while reading through the 1962 December issue of "The Scouter", I have got an article which gives in explicit terms, a gist of "Scouting", what it is to an adolescent and how it has its own trainining system based on values different to those practised in schools and other Youth Organisations.

The article a thrilling narrative of a person's Scout career, I wish to have reproduced in full for the benefit of all Scouters (Cubmasters, Scoutmasters and Commissioners) and non-scouters of the District and Local Associations.

"My Love Affair with the Scout Movement"

by

Pierre Berton

"Weeks devoted to various organisations and products rarely get notice in this space, but I should like to make exception (unsolicited, too) for last week, which was devoted to the Boy Scouts and which now, belatedly, like to recognise.

Whenever I am asked what the most important influence in my life has been, I always answer that it was the seven years I spent in the Scout Movement. When I joined the Scouts in Victoria at the age of 12, I was newly in a strange and bewildering city after the shelter of a small northern town. I was nervous and unsure of myself, almost without friends and frightened to death of the confusing outside world. I was good in my studies, but bad in, formal sports, undersized for my age and the youngest boy in my grade. At school I was beaten up regularly, and probably with good reason, for I was a bit of a pest. The Scout Movement was the making of me.

The Scouts have their own kind of status system, and it is based on different values than are to be found in the schools. The kind of brains that produce cloistered scholars are not terribly important to the Scouts, nor is the ability to play football well. The stress here is laid on something else—on ingenuity, on imagination and a sense of humour. There is also a badge for everybody, and this is important. There is a badge for boys who can draw and other for boys who can get up at a Camp Fire and entertain, and another for boys who can make speeches. There are badges for boys who are good with their hands and others for boys who are good with their hands and others for boys who are good wth their heads. Nobody is left out. There are no squares in the Scout Movement, and no sissies.

The Scouts find out what a boy can do best and then they teach him to excel at it. Thus encouraged, he soon finds himself excelling at all sorts of surprising things. To this day I can send a sempaphore or Morse code message, tie a sheet bend or a sheep shank, and make a sling for a dislocated collar bone. I have never had to do any of these things and perhaps I never wil. But the point is that there was a time, long ago, when I did not in my wildest dreams believe I was capable of such miracles. When I learned from the Scouts that nothing is ever as difficult as it appears from the Scouts that nothing is ever as difficult as it appears to be, I felt the first stirrings of self-confidence.

I also learned to cook in the Scouts, and to make a small but hot fire with one match and to tie up a boat so it would not float away and yet could be released easily, a trick that stood in good stead on the Trent journey last summer. My journalism career started there, too. The first newspaper I was ever associated with was a weekly typewritten publication issued by the Seagull Patrol of St. Mary's Troop.

But the Scouts gave me for more than that. It is possible, I suspect, that without this anchor, I might have become a juvenile delinquent. Part way through the depression my father, who was unemployed, found that he had a chance for a job out of town. He took it to support his family and as a result I was without a father for many of my formative years. The Scout Movement and not a street gang, filled that vacancy.

For all my teens my life revolved around the Scout Hall. There were Patrol meetings on Tuesday nights and Troop meetings on Friday nights and hikes every single Sunday. There were camps at Easter and in the summer, and there were rallies, fetes, garden parties, parades, banquets, tournaments and every conceivable kind of social event. Ours was a lively troop with good leadership. But then, in the Scouts, every boy is trained to be a leader.

Because of the Scouts this period of adolescence, which might have been so unfortunate—and which has been a desparately miserable period for so many boys—was for me a kind of idyll. I cannot hear the old song, "Till we meet again" without my memory going back to the Scout version of that tune which was always sung around the camp fire before Lights out.

Some of the things that I learned in the Boy Scouts had nothing to do with the training manuals laid down by that wise old man, Baden-Powell. They were the fortunate by-products of a long and close associoation with men and boys of similar inclination and outlook. Perhaps the most useful piece of advice I have ever had was give to me and some others by our Scoutmaster late one evening, when the hall was about to close and some of us older boys had lingered behind to talk together.

He had worked all of his for the Customs Department and now he revealed to us that he had disliked every minute of it—that there had been no day in his life when he had not crawled unwillingly to a job he loathed. He turned to us and he said very quietly but very forcefully :

"Boys, if there is one thing I want to leave with you it is this : Never, under any circumstances, no matter what the pay, take a job that you do not like doing. It just is not worth it."

And we closed up the old Scout Hall and turned off the lights and went our separate ways ; and each of us since then has gone his separate way and we do not see one another any more, save in memory ; and indeed some were killed in the war that followed, including the son of that man who gave us such advice and wise leadership and for whom, as much as for any of the rest of us, the Boy Scout Movement was a kind of salvation."

So it is.

Dear Brothers, Scoutmasters and Commissioners, to the above invaluable narrative I could have added one of my own 'Love Affair' with the same Scout Movement for the past twenty—seven years. A description of how this 'Love' got me involved in the vast travels to and in the various foreign countries including two and a half years in that of the Founder apart from those in our own Bharat and how the inestimable prineiples of the Scout Promise and Law have helped me to keep myself in good stead through these years, first in pre—second world war peace time adversity, next for fifteen years in the army, of which period, full four years were spent in the thick of hazardous jungle warfare in the Far Eastern Theatres of the said war and lastly in the till recent post war years, of a contented life, should be not so much out of place but superfluous. I shall leave this for those days of mine to be represented by the Scout sign.

THE BHARAT SCOUTS & GUIDES
MYSORE STATE

Dear Sir/Madam,

SUBJECT:—National Emergency-Village Volunteer Force - Scouting and Guiding under the scheme of training.

I am forwarding herewith a detailed scheme of training-The National Emergency Scout and Guide Training Scheme-in which are incorporated the salient points which require to be implemented by the Bharat Scouts & Guides, Mysore State, through the active participation and help of the District Commissioners (Scouts & Guides) throughout the State. This scheme envisages a condensed course of training for leadership to be imparted to the officers concerned with Panchayati Raj and Block Development areas, and the mobilisation of the boys and girls to form rural Troops and rural Companies. Your earnest consideration of the scheme is requested, and your support invited to launch the scheme in the rural areas in your District and thus help to make the venture a success. You may contact the Deputy Commissioner and the Officers of the Community Development and Block Development Organisations in your District for any further details and for help which you require in implementing the scheme. The State Headquarters would be glad to provide you with whatever further particulars may be available from time to time.

We wish you the very best in your efforts to initiate this scheme of training, and look forward to hear from you about your experiences while you are on the job.

Yours in Service,

S. B. KAUSIK,
STATE SECRETARY.

National Emergency
Scout & Guide Training Scheme

Apropos the Circular No. 24-1-62 Panch-, dated the 8th ecember 1962, issued by the Government of India in the linistry of Community Development, Panchayati Raj and o-operation, New Delhi, to the Development Commissioners f all States and Union Territories on the subject of the resent National Emergency, a scheme for the setting up the illage Volunteer Force is formulated for the purpose of a tal mobilisation of both human and material resources f the country for the defence effort.

As envisaged in this scheme of mobilisation for defence eeds in the villages, special committees will be set up by e Panchayat Samitis, consisting, among others, of representa-ves of the Bharat Scouts and Guides and other youth and elfare organisations. The relevant part of the scheme hich concerns our organisation is cited here in detail:

"Ministry of Education: The Bharat Scouts and Guides rganisation is proposing to expand the scheme (age group -18) For promoting the programme at the local level, e Panchayat Samiti will earmark the Social Education fficer as the Organiser for this purpose, in addition to his her duties. At the village level the Panchayat will help the formation of Scout Troops. The operational control er the Scout Troops will vest with the District Scout mmissioner.

The Ministry of Education are also implementing the National Discipline Scheme (age group 9–16). The question of expanding it to cover the non-school going children in the rural areas is under consideration. If this scheme is expanded, every effort will be made to avoid duplication at the village level between these two schemes. The Social Education Officer, who will be in charge of the Scouting programme, will also provide a useful organisational link for the National Discipline Scheme at the block level."

* * * *

"Scouting and National Discipline Schemes: Training in Scouting will be given to the Social Education Officers by the District Scout Commissioners. The Social Education Officers will arrange for training of Dalapatis concerned. The Social Education Officers will also be given training in the National Discipline Scheme."

Our Role—It will be seen from the above extract of the scheme of Village Volunteer Force that the Scout Organisation can play an effective role, not only in the training of leaders like the Social Education Officers and other officers and adults in the Panchayats, but also for the formation and spread of Scouting for boys and girls (age group 12 to 18) in the villages. The District Commissioner is entrusted with the responsibility of imparting training to these leaders and he is, therefore, the most important person in the whole scheme.

The Scheme of training of the leaders need not be an elaborate and over-ambitious one as in the case of our several types of Recognised Training Courses for Scouters, but should be adequate enough to provide instruction in Scouting at least in a compressed form so as to bring the essentials into the structure of what might be termed a 'condensed course'. For this purpose, it is necessary to make these emergency ourses of shorter duration and it is considered that three lear days (excluding days of arrival and departure of the rainees) should be sufficient.

Syllabus:—The following programmc of subjects and ctivities is to be covered on such a condensed course:—

1. What is Scouting?—Its principles, methods and aims

2. The spiritual basis of Scouting-The Promise and Law, Flag and Flag Etiqutte-Loyalty and Patriotism-Service to the Community and Nation.

3. Practical Methods in Scouting : I The Patrol System (to be clearly impressed on the trainees and its usefulness emphasised),—the team spirit for all work and activities-individual efforts in team work and collective responsibility to ensure success of our methods.

4. Practical Methods in Scouting: II — The Group ystem-Pack, Troop and Crew as Units for the different age roups and the psychological background and justification for uch age groups.

5. Scouting Practices as aids to training—Tenderfoot ests, the basis for all subsequent steps in progressive training-ests and Practices only a means to achieving the aims and bjects of Scouting-Development of character (and this expresses he development of the whole personality of the individual).

6. Structure of the Movement--National, State, District nd Local (Taluk, etc.)—the various levels and the duties and esponsibilities at these levels-process of decentralisation in he Movement—our place in World Scouting.

7. Management and Running of Scout Troops--selection f Scouters—formation of parents' and elders committees—public relations and public support—the purpose should be to make Scouting woven into the fabric of community life in the villages and towns.

8. A knowledge of the administration and organisation of the Movement at various levels—maintenance of records, reports and returns (the barest and the most essential of these only need to be stressed)-finances required for keeping the Movement as a going and growing concern-relevant rules of the A.P.R.O.

9. Liason with other youth organisations and educational institutions — helpful relations and co-ordinating our activities so as to avoid duplication of work leading to wasteful expenditure of energy and efforts.

10. Special Activities for Scouts—Importance of training in elementary First Aid in caring for the sick and injured, personal hygiene and sanitation, Proficiency Badge Scheme (only such of these as are readily applicable to local conditions and depending on individual aptitudes and abilities to suit local conditions need be emphasised)-formation of work squads for special projects (the patrols will easily lend themselves to such).

11. Smartness in Scouting—physical exercises and drill—simple formations to help in co-ordinated and disciplined movement of groups of Scouts—Patrols and Troops on specially planned projects.

12. Recreational and Cultural aspects of Scouting—value of games and wide games simple Scout Ceremonies folk dancing and folk singing, camp fires, night projects (Night Scouting), etc.

In the above scheme of training, no subject need take more than 30 to 40 minutes, but at the end of each subject there should be free scope for about 5-10 minutes for discussions clarifications of doubts and exchange of ideas In the case of certain subjects where p actical methods in Scouting are involved, there should be demonstrations of actual Scouting practices and activities, such as knots and not-tying, hoisting and lowering of the Flag, drill formations, etc. Different kinds of games may be devised, depending on the type of practical instruction involved in these subjects to impress the unique methods of Scout training on the minds of the trainees.

Instructors : It is necessary that the District Commissioner should ensure that the above scheme is followed on the training course. He may himself take charge of training, if time and circumstances so permit, or have the active assistance and help of his selected team of Scouters to act as Instructors, preferably Wood Badge holders, or at least experienced Scouters who have an intimate knowledge of the running of Troops The Assistant State Organising Commissioners in charge of the Divisional Organisation should also be pressed into service for training and for purposes of supervision and guidance to the Instructors for the courses.

Note*: Wherever Scouting, Scouts and Scouters are mentioned, please also read Guiding, Guides and Guiders.

Finance: The finances required for the running of these emergency courses will be provided by the Ministry of Community Development, Panchayati Raj and Co-operation through the Block Development and Panchayat Organisation, and there is no commitment for expenses on the State Headquarters of the Bharat Scouts & Guides. The State Headquarters will, however, get special certificates to be given to the trainees who undergo the course.

* * * *

Rural Troops and Companies : Secondly, apart from Scout training to be given to the leaders, the programme of Village Volunteer Force includes the mobilisation of boys and girls to form Troops aud Companies. The scheme, therefore, provides an excellent opportunity to develop and spread Rural Scouting and Rural Guiding. In the age group of 12-18, we have the source material, both from school-going and non-school going children in the villages, and they can be brought together under junior (age group 12-15) and senior (age group 15-18) sections and given corresponding training to suit local needs.

It must be noted that the present National Emergency has afforded us an excellent opportunity to spread Scouting and Guiding in the rural areas, and it is, therefore, incumbent on our Commissioners of all ranks and our Scouters and Guiders to sieze the opportunity and make the best and fullest use. Our aim and purpose should be to enlist the support and active help of the rural pubiic, and also to train as many of them, especially youngmen and women, to come forward to become Scouters and Guiders for running Troops and Companies in the villages and to provide them with us much encouragement and technical help as are necessary. The one person who can arrange for these will doubtless be the District Commissioner, with the assistance of deputies. The activities of these rural Troops and Companies shauld be so planned that they fit in, as naturally as possible, to the normal and routine life in the villages, therby making these activities woven into the very fabric of village community life.

The question of uniform need not be a serious problem. It should suffice to have the minimum say shorts, (or cheddies) and shirt or bunyan, but the scarf should be an essential item. Similarly, rules of procedure should not form a rigid frame work, but should be simple and straightforward enough to suit local and immediate requirments.

He Didn't Mean to Start Scouting

It just Grew

They called him B. P. His real name was Robert Ste–henson Smyth Baden Powell and he was a famous soldier born the year 1857.

He always said he didn't start Scouting it just grew. But wouldn't have grown had it not been the good start he gave it.

His life was full of fun and adventure and he was keen hat every boy should share the joy he experienced. As a great rmy scout in INDIA and Africa he became skilled in reading acks, stalking silently, living close to nature and getting to now his fellow creatures and admiring their best qualities.

Because of his brilliant leadership during the boer war, became a national hero particularly with boys. Later he ecided to write a book for boys adapting his ex-perience of rmy scouting for their use. But first he tried out his idea a camp for 20 boys on Brownsea Island in Poole Harbour, orset, in 1907. The camp was a success. His idea worked.

His book "Scouting for boys," came out the following ar. It sold like hot cakes. B. P. intended that the book ould provide ideas for orginisations already in existance. But e boys not belonging to anything soon began to form their vn gangs or Patrols and started to do "Scouting" on their vn. It wasn't until later that they persuaded grown-ups to in in and be their Scouters.

And so the game of Scouting began. Soon it spread to other countries and before long B. P. had to give up his Army career in order to organise the movement on a proper basis. Scouting grew rapidly.

In 1907 just twenty boys in a small camp on a tiny island. After 55 years, over nine million scouts spread throughout one hundered countries.

B. P. didn't mean to start scouting – it just grew..... AND GREW.

—KASINATH.

CONCENTRATION OF POWER

From time to time, in the course of my journeyings in other lands, I come across devoted Scouters, both professional and volunteer, who seem to be not only the mainspring of the movement in their particular area or region, but also the majority of the 'works.' By this I mean that they seem to be filling many different offices and thus, whether they seek it or not, have got themselves into the position of weilding very considerable power in Scouts affairs. Whilst admiring their energy and devotion, I cannot help wondering whether this concentration of power is desirable. It seems to me that they must make it difficult for any successor to follow them when the time comes and they may frighten off a likely man, just because of this multiplicity of jobs and the concentration of power. I remember, too, that the First Baron Acton wrote "power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely" and whilst I would not want to make any speculative suggestions there is some danger if we have too many one-man hands.

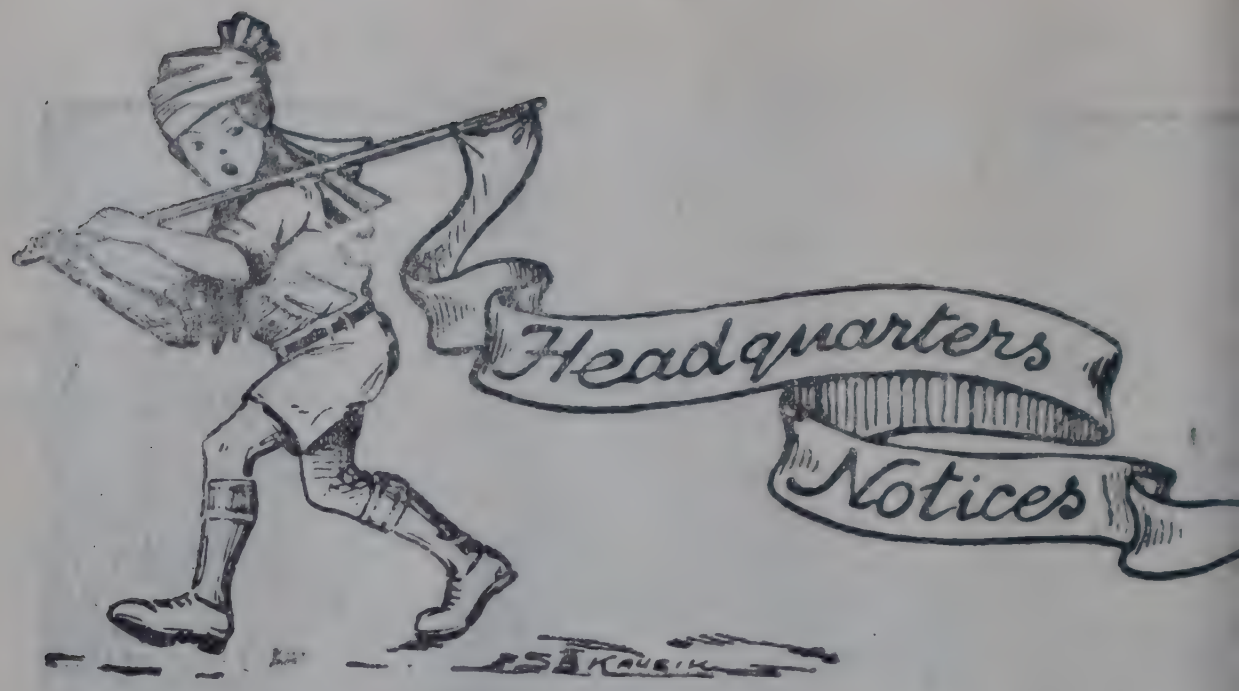
BADEN POWELL



ANNUAL CENSUS 1963

The Census figures have to be collected from the Scout and Guide Units in the State as on 15th January 1963. The Census forms for the use of the units have been sent to the Secretaries of District Associations. The Units are required to send the returns within 15—2—1963 to their respective District Associations. A consolidated statement of Census should be sent to the State Headquarters on or before 1-3-1963. Similarly the District Commissioners (Guides] will send their consolidated Census Statements to the Girl Guide Headquarters, within the specified date.

TRAINING CAMPS

The following training camps are proposed to be held during Summer vacation 1963 at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur:—

1. Himalaya Wood Badge Courses (Cub, Scout, Rover Sections.)
2. Rover Adventure Course for Rover Scouts only.
3. Pioneering-cum-Handicrafts Course (Boy Scouts.)
4. A meeting of all the members of the State Training Team.
5. Commissioners' Course.

Details of the above will be published in due course.

NEWS FROM THE DISTRICTS.

THE BANGALORE NORTH

TRAINING CAMP

"Train our younger generation to be loyal, disciplined, self-reliant citizens of Bharat through this great international movement, Bharat Scouts and Guides" observed Sri S. Nijalingappa while delivering the valedictory address of the two Preliminary Scoutmasters' Courses at the Central Training Camp, Doddaballapur on 25-1-63. He appreciated Night Scouting, Flag Raid, First Aid and Bridge Building etc., which formed a part of the training to boost up National Defence efforts. 57 teachers of High, Middle and Primary Schools of Bangalore, Kolar and Tumkur Districts were trained.

Sri P. Siva Shankar, the State Chief Commissioner while welcoming the Chief Minister briefly narrated the history of the Central Training Camp and the usefulness of such a centre in training thousands of boys and girls in Wood Craft and Handicraft and also said the Central Training Camp would be utilised in stepping up the defence efforts in creating a Shooting, Range, Swimming Pool and pioneering projects which will be of great use in defending the motherland. He also brought to the notice of the Chief Minister the several defence efforts organised by the Bharat Scouts and Guides throughout the State in assisting collecting funds, organising first aid and home nursing training, home guards and Civilian Rifle Centres in addition to collecting list of blood donors, Woollen clothing and such other useful material for the use of our Jawans. The State Chief Commissioner handed over to the Chief Minister a purse containing Rs. 20/- which was offered in aid of National Defence Fund. Among the prominently present were Sri Abdu Gaffar, Deputy Minister for Finance, Sri Kondajji Basappa, Deputy Minister for Co-operation, Dr. S. B. Kausik, State Secretary and Dr. B. M. Madhava Rao, H.Q. Commissioner for Social Welfare and several local official and non-official gentlemen.

Sri C. Rajagopalachar, Secretary of Bangalore North District Association proposed a vote of thanks.

The two training camps were conducted by Sri S. V. Krishnamurthy Rao, District Commissioner, Kolar North and A.D.C.C. (S) and Sri M. Venkatakrishnappa, Asst. State Org. Commissioner assisted by Sri B. Ananthaiya, Asst. Dist. Commissioner (S) and Sri N. Ramaswamy, A.D.C.C.

FORMER SCOUT & GUIDE CLUB, BANGALORE.

Sarvodrya Day was celebrated at the State Headquarters all at 6-30 P. M. on the 30th January, 1963 under the spices of the above Club. Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain, esident of the club was in the chair. The function began th the singing of Vaishnava Janatho, followed by recitations om Geetha, Holy Bible and Holy Quoran. It was partilarly befitting the occasion to have in our midst Sri K. mpathgiri Rao, M. A., who had known Gandhiji intimately the speaker of the day. He spoke for nearly one hour on the e and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. " On hearing the ath of the Mahatma not only Indians but also all other tions, mourned because in Gandhi the whole world had cognised something which was ideal of humanity. Gandhiji whatever he planned would first of all find out to what tent the result of the plans would reach the common man. ne of his best teaching was that a man should derive more easure in giving to others than by taking any thing from ners. Gandhiji was one of those who would not say anything less he himself had the fullest conviction about his sayings. is but befitting that the Scout Movement which stands for mpassion and services observe such an important day in the ar observed Mr. Rao.

Justice Mir Iqbal Hussain in his President's yarn called on the members of the movement to emulate and follow the ilosophy of Gandhiji which always aimed to lift up the lowest the social rung of the Society. He emphasised that the outs & Guides should be an example to others in inculcating e brother-hood of humanity. Sri P. Siva Shankar, State ief wommissioner earlier welcomed the gathering. Sri dul Nabi, H. O. Commissioner for Former Scouts propossed vote of thanks.

" Emulate the example of Netaji in spirit of adventure, patriotism and sacrifice for the sake of the motherland " said Sri D. S. Siddiah, State Organising Commissioner (S) presiding over the Birth Day Celebrations of Subhas Chandra Bose on 25th January 1962 at the State Headquarters organised by the Jhansi Scout Group. He called Subhas Chandra Bose not only a great patriot but also a great leader of Scouts. He gave a brief the life sketch of Netaji. Sri H. N. Ramachandra Rao, Secretary, City Rover Scout Leaders' Association and Sri M. R. Ramaswamy, A.D.C.C., Mysore City spoke on the occasion. Earlier Sri Krishnaji Rao Bhounsley welcomed the gathering and at the end Sri B. S. Viswanth proposed a vote of thanks. Scouts of Fort High School, Corporation High School, Asoka Group and a large number of Scouters were present on the occasion.

INTERNATIONAL SCOUT & GUIDE CLUB, BANGALORE

" Swami Vivekananda was the greatest Scout of the world. He not only preached but also practised universal religion.

His message of Patriotism is more essential at present than ever before. Hence members of this great Organisation, Bharat Scouts and Guides should follow his footsteps " observed Sri P. Siva Shankar, State Chief Commissioner presiding over the Centenary Birthday celebrations conducted by the above club on the 23rd January 1963 at the State H. Q.

Vidyabhushana Sri M. P. L. Sastry, M. L. A., gave an inspiring talk on the life of Sri Swamiji. He greatly stressed how Swamiji interpreted the Vedantha for the benefit of the mankind with quotations from several scriptures.

Sri D. S. Siddiah, Vice-Chairman of the club welcomed the gathering and Sri E. Hanumantha Rao proposed a vote of thanks.

We have received several reports that such celebrations were organised by the Scout & Guide Units throughout the State.

INDIA AND DRAGON

Every one in our country to-day, is aware of the unprovoked and preplanned aggression by China on our borders, particularly in NEFA and LADAKH areas.

This situation has roused the feelings of the Indian people and infused in them, a new life. Every person, rich or poor, has been contributing his or her mite to the great cause of the Nation. This reminds us of Bhamashah the great son of Mewar, who gave his entire savings of life to Rana Pratap and said that it was the wealth of rhe Nation and that he had no right to keep it with him.

Our brave Jawans, the cream of the land and second to none in the whole world are handicaped for want of modern arms and proper equipment, fighting to save nation from an unscrupulous enemy.

Chinese do not believe in God. They do'nt believe anybody. They have lost the faith and the confidence of the world. But we stand on the principles "PANCHA SHILA", laid down by our beloved Prime Miniter. So far, we believed only in non-violence and building Shanti Sen". But it has to be militarised fully with a modern background.

It is needless to say how best a Scout or a Scouter could do service at this time. He should live up to the ideals and putforth the best of his efforts. We have to avail the opportunity provided for us especially through training in Riflle shooting, First Aid, Fire-fighting etc.

Scouts can work as signallers and meet with the growing demands during the time of National Emergency. They can normally visits Hospitals and camps and read and write letters for the sick and wounded Jawans. They can also visit the families of the Jawans and find out their needs and requirements. They can cater to their needs through the institutions and agencies authorised for that work. They can attend to such work that may be assigned to them by the authorities from time to time. Under the scheme of Social Service, Scouts can be of immense help to the Society and assist the Govt. in various capacities.

With firm faith and confidence in ourselves, we have to strive in the struggle thrust upon us by the monstrous enemy. Chinese, under the pretext of declaring Cease Fire, have been gaining momentum and may be preparing for a more severe attack. The Dragon cannot be without spititing fire.

All Scouts we have crossed
The Borders of Nationality
And better thus understood
The value of Universal Humanity.

Donation from World Association of Girl Guides

The World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, at the request of Mrs. L. Mazumdar, Member of the World (Guides) Committee has donated £ 1,000/ for guide work among the children of the displaced persons in the NEFA region during the recent Chinese aggression. The World Association is greatly concerned over the recent happenings in the NEFA area and has sent us their sympathies. The Organising Commissioner (G)from the National Headquarters has already left to organise work in the area.

We are grateful to the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts for their generous gift.

Emotional Integration Committee

The Emotional Integration Committee neaded by Dr. Sampurnanand has recommended that Scouts & Guides in addition to their Camping and outdoor activities should take up small tasks in keeping the town or village clean.

The Ministry of Education suggests that the Bharat Scouts & Guides kindly take early steps for its implementation. Action taken by States in the matter would be intimated to the Ministry in due course.

It is expected that the suggestion would be taken up in right earnest and reports should be sent to N. H. Q.

Scout Rocket:—The U. S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration launched a Scout Rocket from Wallops Island on Dec. 16th, carrying a satellite, for the study of micrometeroites, to be known as Explorer–16. We hope the Scout Rocket will justify the good name it bears.

ಲಡ್ಡಾಖ್ ಗೀತೆ

ಮೂವರು ಹಗೆಗಳು ನಮಗಿಹರು
ಮೂವರು ಹಿತವರು ನಮಗಿಹರು
ಬಲ್ಲೆಯ ನೀನವರಾರೆಂದು?
ಹೇಳುವೆಯಾ ನೀನನಗಿಂದು?

ಹೇಳುವೆ ಕೇಳು, ಕೇಳಿದ ಬಾಳು:
ರೋಗರುಜಿನಗಳ ತರುವವರು;
ನಂಬಿಕೆ ದ್ರೋಹವ ಮಾಡುವರು;
ನಮ್ಮೆದೆ ರಕ್ತವ ಬಸಿಯುವರು;
—ಮೂವರು ಹಗೆಗಳು ನಮಗಿವರು!

ಮತ್ತೂ ಹೇಳುವೆ, ನೀಕೇಳು:
ಶರಣರಕ್ಷ ಶ್ರೀ ಬುದ್ಧದೇವರು;
ಇದ್ದುದನೆಲ್ಲೊಡನುಣುವವರು;
ದುಗುಡದೆ ಸಂಗಡ ನಿಲುವವರು;
— ಮೂವರು ಹಿತವರು ನಮಗಿವರು!

ನೆನಪಿಡಿರಿ

1963ರ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಗಣತಿಯ ಹಾಳೆಗಳನ್ನು ನಿಮ್ಮ ಜಿಲ್ಲೆ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯಿಂದ ಪಡೆದು ಜನವರಿ 1ರಲ್ಲಿರುವಂತೆ ಅಂಕಿ ಅಂಶಗಳನ್ನು ತುಂಬಿಸಿ ಹಿಂದಿರುಗಿಸಬೇಕಾಗಿದೆ. ಡಿ. ಪಿ. ಐ.ರವರ ಅಪ್ಪಣೆಯಂತೆ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಶಾಲೆಯ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ನಿಧಿಯಿಂದ ರೂ. 1ನ್ನು ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗೆ ಕಳುಹಿಸಿ ನಿಮ್ಮ ದಳವನ್ನು ರಿಜಿಸ್ಟರು ಮಾಡಿಸಬೇಕಾಗಿದೆ. ಬಾಲಕರಿಂದ ತಲಾ ಹನ್ನೆರಡು ನಯೆಪೈಸೆ ಶೇಖರಿಸಿ ಕಳಿಸಿಕೊಡಬೇಕಾಗಿದೆ.

ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರರಕ್ಷಣೆಗೆ ನೀವೂ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಬಾಲಕರೂ ಹೇಗೆ ಹೇಗೆ ಸಹಾಯ ಮಾಡಬಹುದೆಂದು ಯೋಚಿಸಿ ಅದರಂತೆ ಮಾಡುವುದು ಅಗತ್ಯ.

ಕೆನರಾಬ್ಯಾಂಕಿನವರು ಆರಂಭಿಸಿರುವ ಪ್ರತಿ ತಿಂಗಳ ಕಡೆಗೆ ಅವರವರ ಲೆಕ್ಕದಲ್ಲಿ ಉಳಿಯುವ ಕೇವಲ ನಯೆಪೈಸೆಗಳನ್ನು ಮಾತ್ರ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರ ರಕ್ಷಣಾನಿಧಿಗೆ ನೀಡಲು ಗಿರಾಕಿಗಳಿಂದ ಸಹಿ ಪಡೆಯಲು ಬೆಂಗಳೂರು ನಗರದ ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳು ಮನೆಮನೆಗೆ ಹೋಗಿ ಸಹಾಯವಾಗಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ನೀವೂ ಈ ಕಡೆ ಗಮನ ಹರಿಸಬಹುದು. ಯಾವ ಬ್ಯಾಂಕಿಗಾದರೂ ವ್ಯವಹಾರಿಗಳು ಇದರಂತೆ ಎಲ್ಲಿದ್ದರೂ ಸೂಚನೆ ಕಲ್ಲಿಸಿ ಶ್ರೇಷ್ಠ ಸೇವೆಯನ್ನು ಸುಲಭವಾಗಿ ಮಾಡಬಹುದು.

1963ರ ಸ್ಕೌಟ್ ಮತ್ತು ಗೈಡ್‌ಡೈರಿ ತಮ್ಮಲ್ಲಿ ಇದೆಯೇ? ಇನ್ನೂ ಇರದಿದ್ದರೆ ತಕ್ಷಣ ತರಿಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಿರಿ.

ಸ್ಕೌಟುಗಳ ವಾರ್ಷಿಕೋತ್ಸವ (25-1-1963)
